THE BICENTENNIAL AUCTION

Dear Client,

How do we look for 200 years old? It's hard to believe that the moment is finally upon us - our 200th anniversary as America's oldest wine shop! When Acker was founded, the United States and government under the Constitution were only 31 years old, yet here we are today, 200 years older, wiser and ready to drink in celebration! For our Bicentennial Auction, it was only fitting to gather of the world's finest producers and the very best collections that we know of for this incredible, $10 million sale on Friday, February 7th at The Pool. There are so many fantastic lots that we're taking the whole day and most of the night to host it, kicking off at 11am! At this 'double header' of a day, we'll be serving both lunch and dinner in addition to countless exceptional wines - you know, precisely what you'd expect from a Bicentennial Birthday Party!

One element that sets this sale apart is the array of Domaine Direct consignments we've amassed in Lots 1200-1408. It was only appropriate to gather 200+ lots to celebrate our 200th anniversary from 40 phenomenal producers. To offer this collective $1 million+ of wine, directly from the cellars of some of our (and your) favorite names in the wine world, is a tremendous honor and privilege. To have some of the men and women who have dedicated their lives to producing these fabulous wines with us in the room in New York City is an even greater pleasure. Please see the table of contents on Page 286 for a full list of the producers featured within this catalog.

When "the best of the rest" means 28 collections representing $10 million in wine, every consignment is a featured collection. We could not begin to touch upon the depth and diversity within these pages without taking up an entirely separate book! However, here is just a taste from three of the greatest collections we know. It would not be a proper 200th Anniversary celebration without a significant selection from the Amazing Cellar of Wilf Jaeger, in Lots 945-1032, a gentleman whose wines have been lauded in publications across the world. Wilf's passion for Burgundy knows no bounds, and he brings us historic selections befitting the occasion like 1919 Bouchard Volnay Fremiets, 1969 Dujac Bonnes Mares and 1964 Drouhin Clos de Beze both in magnum! And Wilf's cellar isn't limited to the Côte d'Or, offering a gold rush of German Rieslings from Egon Muller and more back to 1911, plus vintage Port back to 1896! We are proud to present once again the Amazing Collection of Wilf Jaeger.

The Silver Fox returns in Lots 1033-1127, offering one of the greatest collections of Champagne we have ever seen, which is perfectly befitting of a Bicentennial blowout! There is the rarest of the rare Bollinger Vieilles Vignes Françaises back to 1970, 1990 Selosse and 1976 Philipponat Clos des Goisses in magnum. There is a stretch of Salon and a full kitty of Krug, with magnums of Krug Collection back to 1961 and many Clos du Mesnils including, of course, the first vintage, 1979. These sparklers are nothing short of spectacular, and we are thrilled to welcome back this meticulous collector with his rarely seen old vintages.

The third leg of this trifecta, Lots 1128-1199, is a distinguished American collector who keeps his wines much like he keeps his money in the bank: stacked! He has amassed a spinetingling selection of wines from the Queen of Burgundy, Madame Leroy, and brings us a bevy of Domaine Leroy and d'Auvenay. Every lot amongst these 70 is a headline, from d'Auvenay Chevalier Montrachet to 1996 Domaine Leroy Chambertin. These three collections are bursting with the world's finest wines, the only way we could honor this marvelous moment in Acker's history.

It is without an ounce of exaggeration that I say this auction contains all of my favorite things: a deep cache of distinguished Domaine-direct offerings; consignments from cellars of the highest caliber from some of our closest friends; and is the perfect excuse, I mean occasion, to pop corks aplenty with folks and friends from near and far. I cannot wait to mark this historic milestone of two centuries with all my friends and fellow wine lovers in New York where it all began. Please mark Friday, February 7th on your calendar. Whether you join us in person, on the internet or via absentee bidding, we are thrilled to welcome you to this incredible event. Thank you for being such a big part of our longevity and success – we owe it all to you. Now let's lift our glasses high for a toast to you, to us, to the countless great days past, and to the next 200 years! Happy birthday to us!

In Vino Veritas,

BLUE CHIP BORDEAUX

Welcome and thank you for making Acker the world's foremost source for fine wines over the last two hundred years! We kick off our Bicentennial auction and 200th anniversary celebration with solid cases of investment grade Bordeaux, which is always a good first place to start for any fine wine collection! These come to us courtesy of a contemplative consignor who has been a successful investor in many arenas. The venerated 2005 vintage is large and in charge with parcels of Cheval Blanc, Cos d'Estournel, Ducru Beaucaillou, Haut Brion, l'Eglise Clinet, La Fleur Petrus, La Mission Haut Brion, Larcis Ducasse, Latour, Leoville Barton, Margaux, Palmer and Pavie as well as cases of Angelus, Ausone, Bellevue Mondotte, Lafleur and more. Tall timber calls with a forest of large formats from these chateaux all the way up to Imperial. All wines carefully sourced and stored.

1 Château Angelus - Vintage 2004

St. Emilion

1x12 bottle owc

"...is one of the strongest wines of the vintage. A deep blue/purple hue is accompanied by classic aromas of smoky blueberries and blackberries as well as incense and floral notes in the background. A beautiful texture, opulence, flamboyance, and purity characterize this stunningly deep, full-bodied effort, another great success from proprietor Hubert de Bouard." (95pts)

12 bottles

per lot $2800-3800

2 Château Angelus - Vintage 2005

St. Emilion

1x12 bottle owc

"Truly great stuff, this wine performed at a three-digit level both in the horizontal tasting of 2005s in Baltimore, as well as in Montreal at this mini-vertical. This sensational, opaque, bluish/purple wine offers up notes of vanillin, spring flowers, blueberry and blackberry liqueur, plus a touch of licorice. The wine hits the palate with a thunderous cascade of ripe, rich, concentrated fruit. It is full-bodied, multidimensional and layered. The tannins are beautifully integrated but still present, and the wood, acidity, alcohol, etc., are all beautifully assimilated in this magnificent, majestic vintage of Angelus. It can be drunk now, but it is still an adolescent and that suggests it has at least another 25-35 years of longevity." (100pts)

3 Château Ausone - Vintage 2005*St. Emilion2x6 bottle owc's*

"A tiny production of just over 1,300 cases will make the 2005 Ausone impossible to find, but proprietor Alain Vauthier continues to exhibit the Midas touch with his perfectionist efforts at this estate. This brilliant, blue/black-hued offering reveals an extraordinarily youthful, but promising nose of incense, blueberries, blackberries, currants, licorice, and crushed rocks. This intense 2005 boasts powerful, super-layered, multidimensional flavors with tremendous extraction, yet they come across as incredibly sublime, even delicate for such a stunningly concentrated, full-bodied effort. A masterpiece of concentration and balance, it will no doubt be drinking well a century from now." (100pts)

12 bottles

per lot $10000-14000

4 Château Beausejour Duffau Lagrosse - Vintage 2005*St. Emilion2x1 Imperial owc's*

"Fabulous aromas of blackberry, licorice and flowers. Wonderful nose. Full-bodied, with racy tannins and a long finish. This is powerful and rich. This is very long and velvety. Gorgeous. The winemaker here thinks it could match the great 1990 and 1989. Almost classic quality." (92-94pts WS)

"Made up of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc, the opaque bluish/purple 2005 from Bellevue-Mondotte offers amazing chocolate espresso notes along with blueberry and blackberry liqueur, some incense and a hint of flowers. Full-bodied and staggeringly concentrated, this blockbuster wine (in a blockbuster vintage) is unreal. Talk about a wine that is beyond belief this is a great achievement from Chantal and Gérard Perse. Drink it over the next 25-30 years. Sadly, there were only 340 or so cases produced." (100pts)

"The 2005 from Cheval Blanc is a quintessentially elegant, beautiful, deep bluish/ruby-colored wine from St.-Emilion, with raspberry, blueberry, and floral notes, impressive density, great precision, freshness and purity. Full-bodied, but extremely light on its feet, I don't mean to gush, but it is super-intense, rich and just so meticulously crafted! This is another fabulous wine and a perfect expression for this vintage. It is difficult to forget the gorgeous blueberry and raspberry fruit, full body, sweet tannin, a multi-layered texture, and purity and palate presence of this stunning wine." (100pts)

A gorgeous blend of 70% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon made by the Decoster family, the 2005 provides more evidence that this property is fully exploiting its tremendous potential. A few years away from reaching its plateau of maturity, its stunning nose of black cherry liqueur, cassis, licorice, earth and spice is followed by a full-bodied, concentrated and pure wine. One of the monumental wines of the vintage, it boasts a dense purple color as well as a glorious perfume of caramelized blackberries, blueberries, and raspberries, a hint of toast in the backward, fully integrated oak, full body, and exceptional density and richness. Prodigiously concentrated, this layered, broad Pomerol reveals a seamless integration of acidity, tannin, alcohol, and wood. "...should continue to improve, and may merit an even higher score after additional aging. Stunningly rich and powerful, the dark purple-tinged 2005 Palmer is a blend of 53% Cabernet Sauvignon, 40% Merlot, and 7% Petit Verdot. Aromas of incense, burning embers, black currants, plums, licorice, and flowers are followed by a full-bodied Margaux with more weight and power even than its nearby first-growth rival, Château Margaux. The abundant acidity and tannins are beautifully coated by the wine's exceptional fruit extract and overall harmony and richness. "Owned by Bernard Magrez, this great terroir a few miles from Haut Brion and La Mission Haut Brion has produced one of the superstars of the vintage. A blend of 55% Merlot and 45% Cabernet Sauvignon, Pape Clement's 2005 has an opaque purple color and smoky barbecue and chocolaty notes intermixed with cassis and blackberries. There is also some underlying minerality in this full-bodied, super-concentrated wine, which has wonderfully sweet, well-integrated tannins. This majestic, multidimensional wine is one of the great, great wines of the vintage. It should drink well for at least another 25 years."(99pts)

105 Château Pavie - Vintage 2005

St. Emilion

1x12 bottle owc

"The 2005 Pavie is an absolutely amazing wine that has shed most of its oak aging (usually 24-28 months). Opaque purple in color, it is beyond belief in extract and concentration, but perfectly balanced and pure, with the oak well-integrated. Massively concentrated, and still a baby, this wine tastes more like it's two to three years old than one that's been around for a decade. Intense notes of grilled meats, spice box, cassis, black cherry, licorice and graphite are present in abundance. Enormously endowed, but with superlative purity and balance, this is the greatest Pavie in the early Perse era, starting in 1998. Only the 2009 and 2010 rival this in his opinion, but I would add the 2000. This killer effort should drink well for another 50 years and demonstrates the greatness of this terroir owned by the Perse family. Bravo!" (100pts)

YOUTHFUL BORDEAUX AND BURGUNDY FROM A TRUE BON VIVANT

We've had the pleasure of knowing this sincere and passionate connoisseur for over fifteen years. He is incredibly generous and travels the world sharing and promoting wine, we should call him the ambassador! He keeps buying and buying and with so much wine, he is letting go some of his younger Bordeaux and Burgundy to make room for future purchases. Montrose begins with the trio of 2005, 2009 and 2010 vintages followed by 2014 Petrus and 2005 Trotanoy. Burgundy takes over and unfurls 1999 Rousseau Chambertin, 2010 La Romanee, 2010 Fourrier Griottes, 1993 Roumier Bonnes Mares, 2015 Meo-Camuzet Cros Parantoux, 2013 Coch-Dury Corton Charlemagne, several lots of Domaine Leflaive, 2007 Raveneau Valmur, 2010 and 2014 Roulot Perrieres Jeroboams. We round things out with 1990 Chave and a couple cases of Giacosa 2014s. It is a distinct pleasure to welcome back this regular consignor for our anniversary sale with a special selection from his fantastic cellar.

117 Château Montrose - Vintage 2005

St. Estephe

1x12 bottle owc

"The bouquet is extremely detailed, displaying more red berry fruit compared to the 2010 Montrose that leans towards black. Graphite and cedar emerge with time, even an unusual floral scent that is uncommon with respect to this property, whilst all the time retaining fantastic focus and delineation. The palate is medium-bodied with a ferrous tincture on the entry. There are the first signs of secondary notes (dried leaves and bay leaf), but it is the tannic backbone and the precision that really defines this Montrose at the moment. For certain, it is masculine and structured, yet it has enormous potential, perhaps more than was suggested when it was first released? This is for the long term, but you know that already. Tasted June 2016." (97pts)

120 Château Pétrus - Vintage 2014

Pomerol

1x3 bottle banded owc

"The 2014 Pétrus was tasted on the same morning as the 2014 Vieux-Château-Certain and though they are built from different blends, their personalities are quite similar. This is a succinct, not powerful, much more refined and discrete bouquet, gradually unfurling and revealing a subtle sea spray/marine element. The palate is again quite discrete at first and unfolds at a glacial pace. It is beautifully balanced with fine tannin, quite linear and structured, gently building towards a finish that has wonderful salinity (continuing that marine theme). Note: I actually returned to taste this several hours later, because it was so closed earlier on and it did finally open, which is atypical for this Pomerol. It is a wonderful Pétrus, but one that will deserve bottle age and decanting." (93pts)

121 Château Pontet Canet - Vintage 2005*Pauillac1x12 bottle owc*

"Once you have been accepted, then it swings the doors open to reveal gorgeous scents of blackberry, briary and cassis fruit, perhaps a little more sous-bois than I have noticed compared to previous bottles. The palate is medium-bodied, but dense and structured certainly a more masculine Pontet-Canet built for long-term ageing. Yet it retains marvelous freshness and vitality all the way through to the pencil-lead, quite saline finish. I suspect that the 2009 Pontet-Canet is more approachable than the 2005, so heeding Robert Parker's sage advice, afford this up to ten years in your cellar and then reap the rewards of patience."(97pts)

"An astounding, compelling wine with the classic Pauillac nose more often associated with its cross-street neighbor, Mouton-Rothschild, creme de cassis, there are also some violets and other assorted floral notes. The wine has off-the-charts massiveness and intensity but never comes across as heavy, overbearing or astringent. The freshness, laser-like precision, and full-bodied, massive richness and extract are simply remarkable to behold and experience. 124 Château Trotanoy - Vintage 2005*Pomerol1x6 bottle owc*

"Tasted at the Trotanoy vertical in Hong Kong, the 2005 Trotanoy has been an awesome Pomerol since birth. Now at 12 years old, the "giant" is beginning to flex its muscles. It has more red than black fruit, more floral than the likes of the 2000 or 2001, beautifully defined with raspberry coulis, wild strawberry, clove and bay leaf, iris and violet unfurling with continued aeration. The palate has a pleasurable grainy texture and fine salinity. The acidity is extremely well judged, and there is the structure and backbone, perhaps even the stubbornness that defines this great vineyard. There is enormous potential here. 134 Mazis Chambertin - Vintage 1999*Maume1x12 bottle ocb*

"The 1999 Mazis-Chambertin Grand Cru is a beautiful and comparatively pure example of the old Domaine Maume style, wafting from the glass with a blaze of rose petal, peony, wild berries, grilled meat and a touch of dried ceps, its floral top notes marrying stylishly with its wilder bass notes. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, vibrant and intense, with a fine-grained but still melting chassiss of tannins, racy acids and a long, sapid finish." (93pts)

135 Mazis Chambertin - Vintage 2005*Maume*

"The Maume 2005 Mazis-Chambertin offers an alluring nose of licorice, mint, candied cherry and rose petals. Brightly-fruited on the palate and backed by vividly wet stone and salty mineral character, this sappy, energetic, formidably concentrated, sweetly-ripe Pinot really sticks to the gums, seeming to evince just a slight trace of finishing heat and roughness (perhaps accentuated due to residual CO2) along with its impressively stony, chalky mineral undertow." 136 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2015*Cros Parantoux, Méo-Camuzet*

"Moderate wood sets off the very dense, ripe and fresh nose of both red and dark currant, anise, lavender, tea and wisps of hoisin. There is superb punch and detail to the even more mineral-driven middle weight plus flavors that possess a gorgeously refined mouth feel while delivering impressive power on the focused and magnificently persistent finish where the only flaw is a background hint of warmth. This is beautifully well-constituted because despite the excellent concentration this remains light on its feet and it should age effortlessly for decades to come if you have the patience." "The 2013 Clos des Ambres is a bit deeper-pitched and more nutty in personality than the Meursault AC, but these old vines have produced an absolutely stunning young bottle in this vintage. The deep and complex nose delivers a fine blend of apple, pear, hazelnuts, iodine, orange zest, beautiful soil tones and a deft framing of vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and nicely reserved in personality, with a rock solid core, stunning soil signature, racy acids, outstanding focus and enormous backend minerality on the very long and very refined finish."(93+pts JG)

"The Leflaive 2015 Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru is a superb achievement in the 2015 vintage, wafting from the glass with a complex bouquet of white peach, fresh bread, pear, preserved citrus, beeswax and crisp yellow orchard fruit. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, multidimensional and authoritative, distinguished by its sense of completeness and control, with terrific depth and amplitude and a long, reserved finish. The Bâtard is one of the high-points of the Leflaive range this year, fully realizing the potential of the vintage."(96pts)

145 Puligny Montrachet - Vintage 2015*Clavoillon, Domaine Leflaive2x6 bottle owc's*

"Of all the domaine's wines, Leflaive's 2015 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Clavoillon is arguably the cuvée that has benefited the most from biodynamic viticulture, as what was formerly a rather foursquare, blocky premier cru in the 1990s is now routinely more dynamic and lively. The 2015 opens in the glass with a pretty bouquet of fresh pear, citrus zest, orange blossom and pastry cream. On the palate, the wine is bright, energetic and pure with good depth and a tangy, penetrating finish. While the race is close today, the Clavoillon is holding more in reserve than the domaine's excellent Puligny Village, and its acids are brighter, so this will reward a bit of patience."(91+pts)

147 Chablis - Vintage 2007*Valmur, Raveneau1x12 bottle ocb*

"Here the nose is every bit as elegant if not more so but it's distinctly cooler and somehow more distant yet the strong Chablis character is immediately evident as the nose is a classic combination of green fruit, warm stone, iodine and distilled extract of sea water and this intense saline quality continues onto the equally cool, brilliantly defined and stunningly well balanced flavors that are crystalline in their purity on the driving finish." "This is at once the most elegant and the most complex wine in the range with its ripe, pure and airy aromas of white flower, wet stone, spice and lemon/lime nuances where, in textbook Perrières fashion, the minerality also permeates the textured, concentrated and refined medium-bodied flavors that possess incredible precision on the almost painful and hugely long finish. Roulot makes the most understated version of Perrières among the top guns and this is destined to be a classic. Or, more prosaically stated, this is a genuine 'wow' wine." (93-96pts BH)

152 Hermitage - Vintage 1990*J.L. Chave*

"1990 is the Hermitage appellation's greatest vintage since 1978, and maybe since 1961. I have been tasting Chave's Hermitage since the great 1978 vintage, and the black-colored 1990 is unquestionably the most massive and concentrated wine he has yet produced. Perhaps the real difference between it and the splendid 1989 is that the 1990 exhibits a more roasted character to its nose, as well as a bit more tannin and concentration in the mouth. Except for that, they are both mind-boggling, monumental bottles of red Hermitage." (98pts)

153 Barbaresco - Vintage 2014*Rabaja, B. Giacosa2x6 bottle owc's*

"This is the second year in which this wine was made with estate fruit (opposed to purchased fruit). Bruna Giacosa calls the 2014 Barbaresco Rabajà her 'little miracle wine.' The Rabajà cru is very close to Asili, but indeed, the two corresponding wines are extremely different in character. This expression offers black fruit intensity, with sharp and classic lines. Rabajà tends to be closed in its younger years and needs extra aging time before it finds its voice. The mouthfeel is dense, brooding and slightly austere at this point. Ten additional years of cellar aging should be considered at a minimum." (95pts)

LONG LIVE THE KING

This well-seasoned collector was one of our first wine friends from the very beginning of our auctions. He has always been there for us and will always have a seat at the Acker royal table. It's always a great experience when he comes to the dinner table or auction with grand wines and old stories. To celebrate our anniversary, he reaches deep into his impressive cellar and comes through with a slew of Champagne after a teaser of Burgundy. 2014 Romanée Conti, Romanée Conti starts us off auspiciously assisted by Dujac, Bouchard and Roulot. Champagne fetes this original king and this auction appropriately with Dom Perignon popping magnums of 1964 and 1973, Jeroboams of 1995 and 1998 as well as 1966, 1969 and 1975 Oenotheque. Krug continues the celebration with magnums of 1976, 1982, 1990 and 1996 as well as 1979 and 1981 Collection topped by 1962 Private Cuvee. We conclude this celebratory consignment with 1988 Cristal, 1990 Winston Churchill and 1990 La Grande Dame Rose Jeroboams. Long live Champagne, Long live the King! Long live will his wines! All wines removed from professional storage.

"The 2002 Dom Pérignon speaks to opulence and intensity. Rich, layered and voluptuous in the glass, the 2002 shows off its flamboyant personality with flair. Butter, cooked apple and tropically-leaning fruits mesh together effortlessly. Interestingly, with time in the glass the 2002 gains in freshness and energy without losing its essential opulence. The elevated ripeness of the year gives the 2002 Dom Pérignon distinctly Puligny-Montrachet leaning inflections. Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy adds that August that year was hot and very dry. Rain towards the end of the month and into early September freshened the vines and accelerated the final phase of ripening. This is yet another fabulous showing from the 2002, which continues to cement its reputation as a truly epic Dom Pérignon." (98pts VM)

I have had the privilege of drinking the 1996 Clos du Mesnil a few times over the last year and it has always been breathtaking, as it is again today. The wine sparkles on the palate with a brilliant, pointillist expression of fruit, showing surreal detail, depth and polish. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. PRIME TIME BORDEAUX AND BURGUNDY WITH A KISS OF ITALY AND CALI

Great Bordeaux, young and old, is the pleasure of this longtime collector from New England and we are pleased to have more than sixty lots from his fabulous cellar. There is Cheval Blanc from 1947 to 2000, Haut Brion and La Mission back to 1959, Lafite 1962 to 2003, Latour back to 1955, Mouton from 1982 to 2005 and Petrus 1970 to 2005. Domaine de la Romanee Conti dominates Burgundy with fourteen lots crested by 1985 Echezeaux, 1971 Grands Echezeaux and 1990 Romanee Conti. Further salutations from Burgundy include 2005 Vogue Musigny, 1990 Rouget Echezeaux, 1971 Roumier Bonnes Mares and 1996 Domaine Leflaive Chevalier. A dose of Hermitage and Dom Perignon bridge us to Italy with fine selections from Giacosa, Coneterno, Gaja and Sandrone. A vertical of Harlan heads up the cult Calis and we wash it down with some vintage port going back to 1931 Noval! There is great depth and diversity here with something of every age for everyone. All wines purchased from reputable sources over the last two decades and properly stored.

St. Emilion

1bn

"...a complex bouquet of tobacco leaf, Christmas fruitcake, sweet black fruits, bordering on fig and plum, but no hint of overripeness, and notions of new saddle leather, mint, and incense. The gorgeously expressive aromatics are followed by a full-bodied wine revealing abundant glycerin as well as elevated alcohol, but it is not hot, and nothing is out of place." (98+pts)

224 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1989*Pomerolbn, lwisl*

"Multi-millionaire collectors will have fun comparing the 1989 and 1990 Pétrus. The 1989 has a slightly more saturated color, and seems more tightly knit both aromatically and on the palate. However, this is splitting hairs, as this is another stunningly opulent, rich, full-bodied, amazingly concentrated, exotic, flamboyant Pétrus that remains remarkably youthful, and in need of more years of bottle age. Additionally, the tannins are slightly more elevated, at least from a tactile impression. However... extraordinary equilibrium between all of its component parts. An amazing effort!"(100pts)

A positively brilliant nose of violet and rose petal shines against a background of intensely spiced extravagant red and black pinot fruit nuanced by hints of earth and stone and this minerality continues onto the surprisingly supple flavors that convey a remarkable sense of energy and power on the almost unbelievably intense, focused and structured finish that seems to go on and on without end. And the '05 VV has what all truly great burgundies have which is that extra dimension of power without weight as this carries terrific punch and power yet delivers that explosiveness with impeccable class and grace..." "Wonderfully complex nose with aromas of spice, tea and crushed dried roses followed by rich, detailed and relatively big flavors. "The soaring nose of spicy cassis, black cherry and violets this displayed from cask has now become very reserved and brooding, merging into rich, full and utterly delicious flavors that possess a beguiling texture and unusually fine tannins compared to what I typically see with the Ech. This is a big wine by any measure with excellent mid-palate density and superb length. Really good stuff and as the "value" play in the DRC line-up, one to strongly consider because it surpasses its normal quality level by more than a fair margin in 2005."(94pts BH)

"I had this wine in a blind tasting - I have had it frequently, and have never failed to give it a perfect rating. At the same time, I have often mis-identified it in blind tastings as the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild. In this tasting, the wine was phenomenal. The color remains an opaque purple. The bouquet is beginning to develop secondary aromas of cedar and truffles to go along with its intense cassis, black-raspberry, blackberry, tarry, toasty personality. Exceptionally dense, concentrated, and full-bodied, this wine possesses layers of concentrated fruit that are beautifully balanced by the wine's sweet tannin and well-integrated acidity. EXCEPTIONAL LARGE FORMATS OF A RESPECTED NEW YORK GENTLEMAN

It is long known and widely accepted that larger formats age more gracefully than bottles, and this big bottle collection is a connoisseur's delight. This consignor could be called a connoisseur's connoisseur as he has been collecting for as long as anyone we know. Many collectors have and are still asking him for advice thanks to his five decades in the wine industry. To celebrate our 200th Anniversary, he has brought forth a hefty slice of his impressive collection concentrating on big-time Bordeaux big bottles. There are noble imperials of 2000 Ausone, 2005 Ausone, 2009 Clinet, 1996 Latour, 2003 Margaux, 2000, 2005 and 2009 Haut Brion as well as 2005 l'Eglise Clinet in magnum, double magnum and Imperial. If you are really thirsty, we have really, really big bottles in an eighteen liter bottle of 2003 Montrose and a fifteen liter bottle of 2005 Yquem! Burgundy chimes in with Methuselahs of 2011 Faiveley Beze and 1992 Marquis de Laguiche as well as Jeroboams of 2003 Ponsot Clos de la Roche and 1990 La Chapelle. Ok, that last one is from the Rhone, but the point is that this is an exceptional selection of large formats that will keep your parties rolling strong for decades to come! All wines impeccably kept in professional storage by this conscientious and connected connoisseur.

"A tiny production of just over 1,300 cases will make the 2005 Ausone impossible to find, but proprietor Alain Vauthier continues to exhibit the Midas touch with his perfectionist efforts at this estate. This brilliant, blue/black-hued offering reveals an extraordinarily youthful, but promising nose of incense, blueberries, blackberries, currants, licorice, and crushed rocks. This intense 2005 boasts powerful, super-layered, multidimensional flavors with tremendous extraction, yet they come across as incredibly sublime, even delicate for such a stunningly concentrated, full-bodied effort. A masterpiece of concentration and balance, it will no doubt be drinking well a century from now." (100pts)

"...I was not surprised to find the 2000 Château Haut-Brion flirting with perfection. The nose is simply breathtaking - quintessential Haut-Brion with ebullient red berry fruit, roasted herbs, gravel, terracotta tiles on a warm summer's day...it is simply wave after wave of intoxicating scents that could bring even the most stoic person to tears of joy. The palate displays heavenly balance, pitch-perfect acidity, perhaps spicier than previous bottles that I have tasted, and what depth and dimension in this outstanding wine. That hint of graphite on the finish is a cheeky nod to Pauillac, as if to thumb its nose at the First Growths, because alongside Château Latour, almost by stealth, the Haut-Brion is one of the greatest Bordeaux in this millennial year."(99+pts)

294 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2005*Pauillac1x1 Imperial owc*

"The 2005 Château Mouton-Rothschild is a deeply impressive First Growth. It has been blessed with a sensational nose that comes racing out of the blocks with audacious scents of black fruit, cedar, smoke and pencil box (Philippe Dhalluin mentioned that the signature smokiness/fireside hearth was tangible in around 80% of the vats during élevage). There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The palate is medium-bodied with sumptuous black fruit, perhaps beginning to soften in texture, one or two years off its plateau. There are layers and layers of black fruit intermingling with graphite and black pepper, and it wisely reins everything in on the finish that is more classic in style and in keeping with the vintage. If you are fortunate enough to have this wine in your cellar, even though those tannins are starting to be abraded by time, afford it another five or six years. Tasted August 2016."(98pts)

296 Château Montrose - Vintage 2003*St. Estephewxc, 1x1 Melchoir owc*

"It remains one of the outstanding wines of a very black and white vintage. Without knowledge of the vintage, I was hesitant to suggest 2003, because though there is clearly fruit intensity locked up inside this Saint Estèphe, it is counterbalanced by the estate's trademark masculinity and austerity. So both on the nose and the palate it reaches this happy medium: pure blackberry, graphite and roasted herbs on the nose, perhaps even more elegant than I have observed on previous bottles. The palate is medium-bodied rather than full bodied with sturdy tannins couched in layers of seamless blackberry and cassis fruit, offset by scents of tobacco and graphite. As usual it has immense length and depth, a Montrose that is really just a few chapters into what is sure to be a longer "book" than many other 2003s. It is not a perfect Montrose, but a couple of hairs' breadth away."(98pts)

301 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1972*Dujac4.5cm bc, gsl, tl, sdc, excellent color*

The 1972 Bonnes-Mares Grand Cru has a very clear color with modest bricking on the rim. The nose is just ridiculously good. I mean, this is everything you could wish for in a mature Burgundy with ebullient red cherries, raspberry, wild heather and just a cheeky hint of menthol (a trait I find more often on the previous vintage). The palate is medium-bodied and underpinned by very supple tannin, vibrant red fruit that display such astonishing transparency and poise. There are subtle notes of Chinese 5-spice, soy and later a twist of sour cherry. The finish fizzes with energy that seems undiminished after 46 years. This is just fabulous. 304 Musigny - Vintage 1973*Faiveley4cm bc, excellent color and condition*

"There is relatively good freshness to the spice and sous-bois-inflected nose and this is particularly true in the context of the vintage. This attractive sense of vibrancy continues onto the delicious, round and supple middle weight flavors that possess a highly attractive mouth feel before terminating in a lightly stony finish that delivers fine if not truly exceptional depth and length. This is an exceptionally good wine for the '73 vintage and moreover it's in much better shape than 98% of its brethren; indeed if well-stored there is no reason that this should not continue to drink well for a few more years to come." MORE BIG BOTTLE BORDEAUX AND ESSENTIAL CONDITION CALIFORNIA FEATURING AN IMPERIAL OF 1961 PALMER

This successful entrepreneur has been collecting wines for over a decade, and he has assembled an amazing cellar of depth and variety that has graced our auction catalogs numerous times before. He began collecting wine after his doctor told him to stop drinking spirits and drink more red wine – good advice! He certainly followed that directive, and he fell in love with wine, insisting on only the best as he explored different regions. With thousands of cases in his collection, we all can once again benefit from his unbridled passion with a focus on Bordeaux and California, and his penchant for large formats. Bordeaux starts off tall with double magnums of 2005 Bellevue Mondotte, 1990 Clinet, 1989 Haut Brion and 1989 Lafleur upped by Imperials of 1990 Haut Brion, 2005 La Conseillante, 2005 Latour and the 1961 Palmer!!! The 1961 Palmer is super rare in this format; in fact, it has never been auctioned before. The consignor has provided documentation regarding the strong provenance of this remarkable and rare bottle, including correspondence relating to its purchase directly from the Chateau by the original owner and the invoice reflecting its subsequent acquisition by our consignor from Berry Bros. & Rudd in 2015. The big bottle bonanza continues with 2008 Dal Forno Amarone in three sizes and a 2012 Pingus Imperial. We mine Cali gold from his cellar finding Bryant, Dalla Valle, Dominus, Harlan, Monte Bello, Rubicon, Verite and of course, Screaming Eagle! The grand finale of this “essential” collection is two dozen lots of Sine Qua Non in many of its intriguing incarnations going back to 1994! All in all, a fantastic collection in breadth, depth and quality for those things Bordeaux and Cali. All wines removed from professional storage.

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color; a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. "1990: In terms of the brilliant complexity and nobility of the aromatics, scorched earth, black currants, plums, charcoal, cedar, and spices, the 1990 offers an aromatic explosion that is unparalleled. It is always fascinating to taste this wine next to the 1989, which is a monumental effort, but much more backward and denser, without the aromatic complexity of the 1990. The 1990 put on weight after bottling, and is currently rich, full-bodied, opulent, even flamboyant by Haut Brion's standards. It is an incredible expression of a noble terroir in a top vintage." 324 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1982

Graves

"A thick, unctuously-textured wine with massive richness as well as abundant notes of black fruits, truffles, creosote, scorched earth, smoke, and camphor, a colossal mouthfeel, a layered texture, incredible depth of fruit and glycerin, and copious, but well-integrated tannins that are largely concealed by the incredible amount of fruit. An old school La Mission, it is a tour de force that should continue to age effortlessly for another 40+ years." (100pts)

1 Jeroboam per lot $5000-7000

325 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1990

Graves

"...I never thought it would come close to being as riveting and magnetic as its older sibling, the 1989. However, it has proven to be nearly as prodigious. One of the hottest years in Bordeaux, 1990, a vintage of enormous yields, even dwarfing yields in 1985 and 1982, produced a fabulously open-knit, seemingly fast track La Mission that, at age 22, shows no signs of fading or losing its grip. The color is slightly more mature and evolved than the 1989's, exhibiting a lighter rim and a less dark blue/ruby/purple hue. Classic La Mission-Haut-Brion aromatics of camphor, licorice, scorched earth, hot bricks, barbecue, cassis, blueberry and kirsch are well displayed." (99pts)

326 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1989

Pomerol

scl, lbsl

"The 1989 Lafleur had superb intensity. It was rich, full-bodied and a rock star wine. Its finish kept building in the glass. It boia constricted on its finish, and I kept writing 'intense' and 'super intense' again and again. I wondered at the end if this might ultimately be better than the Pétrus, although I am not sure that is possible." (98+pts JK)

334 Château Palmer - Vintage 1961*Margaux1x1 Imperial owc, outstanding color and condition*

"Tasted at the Château Palmer vertical in London, two bottles of 1961 Château Palmer were opened and compared. The first was a great bottle of wine, beautifully balanced and complex, and yet not quite living up to its status as one of the legendary bottles of the 20th century. That said, I still scored it around the 96 or 97 point mark. The second lived up to the billing. Coming from the late great John Avery's cellar, that is to say, purchased on release and never moved, the first difference is the slightly deeper color compared to the first bottle. The bouquet is difficult to capture in words. Heavenly, ethereal, moving and profound - they are all applicable here. It is still a wine in its prime, with dark berry fruit, hints of graphite and mineral, a touch of wilted violet petals. Its ineffable purity knocks you sideways. The palate is defined by its filigree framework of tannin - precise and lace-like, lending it the texture of a mature Richebourg. Yet it is unmistakably Margaux because there is stunning structure on the finish, astounding precision and a never-ending after-taste that is borderline supernatural. This bottle reminds me of the first time I tasted the 1961 Palmer several years ago when I gave a perfect score without hesitation. This is exactly the same: a perfect wine and a bona fide legend."(100pts)

"Still a youngster, the blockbuster 1995 Ermitage le Pavillon is a quintessential Hermitage in every way. Full-bodied, powerful, thick and unctuous, with tons of smoky, black, black fruits, tar, saddle leather and peppery herbs, this perfect wine is massively concentrated, rich and stacked, with masses of ripe tannin hiding under its still lively and fresh fruit. And while it's a brilliant drink today, it's still not yet fully mature. This tour de Force beauty will see its 50th birthday in fine form!"(100pts)

"I had this wine in a blind tasting - I have had it frequently, and have never failed to give it a perfect rating. At the same time, I have often mis-identified it in blind tastings as the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild. In this tasting, the wine was phenomenal. The color remains an opaque purple. The bouquet is beginning to develop secondary aromas of cedar and truffles to go along with its intense cassis, black-raspberry, blackberry, tarry, toasty personality. Exceptionally dense, concentrated, and full-bodied, this wine possesses layers of concentrated fruit that are beautifully balanced by the wine's sweet tannin and well-integrated acidity. The finish lasts for nearly a minute. A monumental Cabernet Sauvignon, it is one of the greatest wines made this century." (100pts)

343 Dominio de Pingus - Vintage 2012*1x1 Imperial owc*

"I finally tasted the 2012 Pingus in bottle, a wine I sampled last year before bottling, and even if it was the final blend, all of a sudden proprietor Peter Sisseck decided to delay the bottling. He cannot really explain the reason why; it was really a hunch, something he felt and he thinks the decision was right. The good news is that the wine delivers all that it promised before bottling. There are plenty of floral notes, violets, even lilies; it's extremely aromatic, subtle and precise with just some Indian spices in the background to give it an exotic character. With time in the glass, there are some earthy, mineral (even diesel-like?) aromas. It has a rare combination of power and finesse, concentrated but delicate, with buttery, ultra-refined tannins, great balance, acidity, length and a silky texture, not easy to find in Ribera del Duero. This could very well be the best Pingus ever, in the style of 1996, a year of elegance and good acidity, more Burgundian/Atlantic (Peter Sisseck does not agree with the term Burgundian applied to Ribera del Duero) than the average. This wine has the conjunction of their knowledge and the improvements in the vineyards. This is stunning, simply perfect. It has all the components to age for 20+ years. 6,000 bottles were finally filled the first week of September 2014. As I explained last time, 2012 represents a big change in Pingus with 0% new oak used for its upbringing." (100pts)

344 Bryant Family Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 2007

"Potentially a candidate for perfection, the 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon is the finest Bryant Family wine since the aforementioned 1997. Striking aromas and flavors of blackberries, blueberries, flowers, smoke, truffles, and sweet berries lead to a wine with profound concentration, a silky, layered mouthfeel, perfect integration of tannin and wood, and remarkable depth, intensity, and balance. The finish lasts nearly a minute." (98pts)

345 Dalla Valle Red - Vintage 2001*Maya1x1 Imperial owc*

"Even more prodigious is the 2001 Maya, a blend of 55% Cabernet Sauvignon and 45% Cabernet Franc. A modern day legend, it boasts complex notes of cedarwood, sauteed porcini mushrooms, camphor, graphite, creme de cassis, kirsch and forest floor. The heavenly aromas are followed by a broad, deep, full-bodied, opaque purple-colored wine with a full-bodied mouthfeel and moderately high tannins. Still a baby at age 10, it needs another 4-5 years of cellaring and should age effortlessly for 30-40 years thereafter. This is a modern day classic!" (98pts)

346 Dominus - Vintage 1991

"As for the 1991, 6,500 cases were produced of this potentially perfect wine. While this vintage of Dominus contains no Merlot in the blend, every time I taste it I am reminded of a great vintage of Pétrus such as 1982, 1989 or 1990. Although different, the 1991 Dominus possesses extraordinary intensity, remarkable opulence, and amazing fruit extraction, all welded to a full-bodied structure. The wine's sensational purity and inner-core of depth must be tasted to be believed. The 1991 will be approachable young because of its sweet tannin, yet it exhibits the potential to last for 25 years. Perhaps 1994 will rival it, but for now, the 1991 is unquestionably the greatest Dominus, as well as a potential legend in the making."(99pts)

"This 2002 was virtually perfect when I tasted it in early May. Even better than I predicted seven years ago, this 4,500-case blend of 85% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Cabernet Franc and the rest Petit Verdot and Merlot has blossomed beautifully, revealing even greater intensity and potential than I predicted. A flawless, seamless integration of tannin, wood, alcohol and acidity is found in this dense, plum/purple-colored Dominus, along with copious notes of sweet black currants interwoven with kirsch, forest floor, unsmoked cigar tobacco, new saddle leather and forest floor. Full-bodied with velvety tannins, stunning elegance and a 45-second finish, this sensational 2002 rivals two of the all-time great wines made at Dominus, 1991 and 1994."(99pts)

"The 1997 Harlan Estate is one of the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wines I have ever tasted. A blend of 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, with the rest Merlot and Cabernet Franc, this enormously-endowed, profoundly rich wine must be tasted to be believed. Opaque purple-colored, it boasts spectacular, soaring aromatics of vanilla, minerals, coffee, blackberries, licorice, and cassis. In the mouth, layer after layer unfold powerfully yet gently. Acidity, tannin, and alcohol are well-balanced by the wine's unreal richness and singular personality. The finish exceeds one minute."(100pts)

Pedregal Vineyard

Inky ruby. Pungent black and blue fruit aromas show an exotic peaty quality and suggestions of incense, violet and Indian spices. Deeply pitched cassis and blueberry flavors are braced by juicy acidity and pick up a suave floral pastille nuance with aeration. The spice and blue fruit notes dominate the finish, which is firmed by youthful but harmonious tannins. While I have no doubt that this wine is built to age it's pretty showy already.

Monte Bello

2x6 bottle owc's

"The 2010 Monte Bello is just as stunning as it has always been. Today, the 2010 appears to be entering a closed phase, so it is best left alone for at least another 5-10 years, perhaps longer. The signatures are super-ripe, exotic fruit, sweet aromatics and firm tannins, all of which ensure the 2010 will be utterly magnificent in a few decades. The growing season was characterized by mostly cold weather, with an unexpectedly intense heat spike in mid-October that gave the fruit a final push. One of the things that makes this vintage so compelling is the interplay of firm structural elements from the cold year and a high level of ripeness that was achieved late. In my view, the 2010 is one of the most thrilling recent Monte Bellos, however it won't be ready to drink for a number of years and it won't peak for quite some time beyond that.

THE ESSENTIAL SINE QUA NON

Sine Qua Non means an essential condition, as alluded to in the previous collection. It is something that is absolutely necessary, and this splendid selection will help you build the essential SQN collection! This collector has one of the largest and most comprehensive collections of Sine Qua Non in the world, and he brings out the best and rarest for our special Anniversary sale! Particular rarities include a magnum of Heart Chorea, 1998 Hospices du Rhone, six bottles of The Bride and 1992 Black and Blue. Big bottles abound highlighted by the largest format ever produced by SQN, a 15 liter of 2003 The Inaugural Syrah. Yes, you read correctly, fifteen liters(!!!), the only wine produced by Sine Qua Non larger than a double magnum and only three were ever made. Speaking of double magnums, there are 12 rare OWC's of two double magnum sets here as well! All wines moved from professional storage and most are in their original packaging. This is truly the essential condition for any Sine Qua Non lover!

Patine

"It offers perfumed and spice-laced notes of white pepper, black raspberry, blackberry and ground herbs that flow to a full-bodied, elegant, nicely concentrated 2011 that has nicely integrated acidity, no hard edges and a terrific finish. It's certainly one of the fresher, more elegant Grenaches from Manfred, yet it still has rocking levels of fruit." (97pts)

"...boasts extraordinary richness, power and sheer depth. Tobacco, leather, mint and spices are woven together in this large-scaled Grenache. There is plenty of intensity here, but the 2008 has just a touch less aromatic definition than the very finest wines at Sine Qua Non. I imagine some of that may be the result of extended aging in oak. The 2008 is 82% Grenache, 14% Syrah, 2% Viognier and 1% Roussanne, all from the Eleven Confessions Vineyard in Santa Rita Hills." 401 Sine Qua Non Syrah - Vintage 2005

Atlantis Fe 203 1A

"An extraordinarily flowery nose interwoven with scents of blueberries, blackberries, incense, and graphite soars from the glass. Although not the biggest or most concentrated Syrah Krankl has made, it is one of the most nuanced, elegant, and complex. It remains full-bodied, but builds incrementally on the palate, and comes across as elegant and delicate, especially when compared to many California Syrahs. Nevertheless, the intensity is mind-boggling, and the finish lasts for nearly a minute."(100pts)

A thick, juicy, massive Syrah, it gushes copious quantities of licorice-infused blackberry fruit offering smoke, coffee, and meaty notes. The wine is mouth-filling, teeth-staining, and loaded. Its high alcohol (15.3%), glycerin level, and low acidity make it easy to drink, but I suspect it will age easily for 10-20+ years."(96pts)

GREAT BORDEAUX AND BURGUNDY FROM A GREAT GUY FEATURING AN IMPERIAL OF 1982 PETRUS

A great all-around guy and staunch supporter of Acker joins our Anniversary party with solid cases of 2005 Angelus, 2003 Margaux, 2000 Pavie, 1998, 2000 and 2009 Lafite, topped with one of the highlights of the auction, an Imperial of 1982 Petrus! 2011s from La Romanee and La Tache start the ball rolling for Burgundy followed up by selections of Domaine Leflaive and Roulot. All wines properly stored.

432 Château Angelus - Vintage 2005

St. Emilion

1x12 bottle owc

"Truly great stuff, this wine performed at a three-digit level both in the horizontal tasting of 2005s in Baltimore, as well as in Montreal at this mini-vertical. This sensational, opaque, bluish/purple wine offers up notes of vanillin, spring flowers, blueberry and blackberry liqueur, plus a touch of licorice. The wine hits the palate with a thunderous cascade of ripe, rich, concentrated fruit. It is full-bodied, multidimensional and layered. The tannins are beautifully integrated but still present, and the wood, acidity, alcohol, etc., are all beautifully assimilated in this magnificent, majestic vintage of Angelus. It can be drunk now, but it is still an adolescent and that suggests it has at least another 25-35 years of longevity." (100pts)

"...possesses extremely high tannin, but that component is well-concealed by a cascade of mulberry, blackberry, cherry, and plum-like fruit. There is even a hint of figs under the blue and red fruit spectrum. While broad and ripe with a sweet, glyceric mouthfeel as well as a long, powerful, persistent finish, it retains its elegance and nobility." (95pts)

434 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1998

Pauillac

"...spectacular since birth, putting on more weight and flesh over the last year. This opaque purple-colored close to perfection. The spectacular nose of lead pencil, smoky, mineral, and black currant fruit soars majestically from the glass. The wine is elegant yet profoundly rich tannin is sweet, and the wine is spectacularly layered yet never heavy. The finish is sweet, super-rich, yet impeccably balanced and long (50+ seconds)." "...has an opaque ruby/purple color, followed by an extraordinary aromatic expression of liquid minerals/stones interwoven with the tell-tale graphite notes, mulberry, black currants, caramel, and tobacco. In the mouth, it is remarkably light on its feet, but somehow seems to pack intense flavors into layer upon layer of fruit and richness that cascade over the palate. A compelling wine, with extraordinary precision, great intensity, and a seamlessness..." (100pts)

On the palate, it exhibits a massive display of richness and extract, yet with pinpoint delineation and vibrancy as well as a 60+ second finish, this is the kind of phenomenal wine that Perse's critics were afraid he might produce - a no-compromise, immortal wonder that represents the essence of one of Bordeaux's greatest terroirs. 441 La Romanée - Vintage 2011*Comte Liger-Belair1x3 magnum owc*

"...is gorgeous, with a bit more sense of reserve than the Echézeaux out of the blocks, as well as a more refined and precise impression on both the nose and palate. The stunning bouquet delivers a suave mix of black plums, red and black raspberries, duck, a gloriously complex base of soil, exotic spices, a touch of lead pencil, fresh herb tones and spicy new oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and hauntingly pure on the attack, with a bottomless core of sappy fruit, brilliant soil inflection, very fine-grained tannins and stunning length and grip on the tangy and youthful finish." 3 magnums per lot $16000-22000

442 La Tâche - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"As it was from cask this is more restrained than usual and it requires aggressive swirling to coax the pure and spicy essence of red berry fruit aromas to emerge from the glass where there is a slight hint of herbal tea present. There is a similar reserve to the distinctly focused and linear flavors that enjoy a seemingly unlimited reserve of dry extract that renders the fine-grained and silky tannins almost invisible at present though I suspect that they will become much more apparent once the baby fat melts away." (96pts BH)

"After the Tessons, the Tillets is almost always my favorite among the Roulot villages wines because of its unmatched finesse and refinement. While the cool, airy and delicate nose of citrus and floral elements possesses the expected elegance, the unusually fleshy and round flavors do not. In fact I would go so far as to say that this is an atypical Tillets. I hasten to point out that being bigger and richer than usual is by no means a fault, just that fans of this wine won't find its normal level of subtlety and délicatesse though on the plus side I really like the mouth feel." THE MAN WHO WOULD BE KING

Another dose of royalty and fine French wine comes to us courtesy of this longtime collector originally from across the pond. While his roots may not be royal, his accent certainly is! Long live the king, part two! This delicious slice of a much larger cellar is loaded with highlights like magnums of 1961 Palmer, and original wooden cases of magnums of 2000, 2005 and 2006 Le Pin!!! You don't see those too often! We head to Burgundy and beyond with 1989 DRC Montrachet, Guigal La Las and 1995 Krug magnums. These are, indeed, wines that are fit for a king and our 200th Anniversary celebration! All wines removed from professional storage.

447 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 2003

449 Château Le Pin - Vintage 2000

Pomerol

2x3 magnum owc's

"Exotic, opulent, extravagant, and impossible to resist, the 2000 Le Pin is an explosive, virtually perfect example of this estate. Dense purple-colored, with luxurious levels of extract and richness, this intense, unctuously-textured, black fruit-filled Pomerol is thick enough to drink with a spoon. Revealing abundant tannin and definition for such a young Le Pin, it is typical of many of the blockbuster, but backward and tannic 2000 Pomerols." (98pts)

6 magnums per lot $45000-60000

450 Château Le Pin - Vintage 2005

Pomerol

1x3 magnum owc

"The 2005 Le Pin lived up to the hype and ultimately was wine of the afternoon for me. It had a great nose, t n a city yet still refined but also with so much stuffing. There was noticeable citrus with decadent fruit cranberry, blueberry, blackberry, cassis, boysenberry everyone was invited! There was great spine and length, but the 2005 was still so elegant. Jef called it a lip smacker and noted kirsch and strawberry. The 2005 was all that and then some." (97pts JK)

451 Château Le Pin - Vintage 2006

Pomerol

"The third flight began with an impressive 2006 Le Pin. Baby, baby, baby was how my note started. This wine had a great nose, with clean and outstandingly pure, plummy fruit buttressed by minerals. The palate was beautifully crafted with long and fine tannins, and dry flavors of earth, mineral and tobacco. The 2006 was really refined and sexy juice." (94pts JK)

453 Château Palmer - Vintage 1961*Margauxts, cuc, outstanding color and condition*

"Tasted at the Château Palmer vertical in London, two bottles of 1961 Château Palmer were opened and compared. The first was a great bottle of wine, beautifully balanced and complex, and yet not quite living up to its status as one of the legendary bottles of the 20th century. That said, I still scored it around the 96 or 97 point mark. The second lived up to the billing. Coming from the late great John Avery's cellar, that is to say, purchased on release and never moved, the first difference is the slightly deeper color compared to the first bottle. The bouquet is difficult to capture in words. Heavenly, ethereal, moving and profound - they are all applicable here. It is still a wine in its prime, with dark berry fruit, hints of graphite and mineral, a touch of wilted violet petals. Its ineffable purity knocks you sideways. The palate is defined by its filigree framework of tannin - precise and lace-like, lending it the texture of a mature Richebourg. Yet it is unmistakably Margaux because there is stunning structure on the finish, astounding precision and a never-ending after-taste that is borderline supernatural. This bottle reminds me of the first time I tasted the 1961 Palmer several years ago when I gave a perfect score without hesitation. This is exactly the same: a perfect wine and a bona fide legend." LET'S GET THIS PARTY STARTED

We have other big bottles of Champagne in this sale, but it's time to kick things up a notch or two with three, yes three, Methuselahs of iconic Dom Perignon Rose from the benchmark 1996 vintage! A very limited amount of these six-liter bottles were made, and an even more limited amount released. You can either fly to Vegas with a lot of friends and find one (at four times the price!), or you can start your own party right here! Each bottle is wrapped in plated gold, weighing in at over fifty pounds accordingly. This is a big bottle Champagne for only the biggest of parties, one that neither you nor your guests will ever forget! All wines removed from professional storage.

Gold Wrapped, bottle number 88,

1x1 Methuselah custom ogb

"Dom Pérignon's 1996 Rosé is one of my all-time favorite Champagnes, but I have never tasted it this way, nor has anyone else in the room. Three bottles of the 1996 Rosé are lined up; a standard fifth, magnum and jeroboam. We are all quite curious to taste the three wines, as they were all released at different times. It is quite common for Champagne houses to vary the level of dosage according to the bottle size and release date, but DP is notoriously tight-lipped on such matters, so it is impossible to know for sure. The jeroboam is opened first. It is tight as a drum. Over the course of several hours, the wine opens up beautifully and by the end of the dinner it is clearly the most intriguing and complete of the three. I wish I owned more of these, but this is the last. The magnum is great right out of the gate. I adore the magnum format for all wines, but Champagne in particular. This is a fabulous showing. The straight fifth is also surprisingly closed at the outset, but then blossoms quickly. At the first tasting, it is the most impressive of the three bottles but as time passes there is much less development here than in the big bottles. What a fascinating comparative tasting (Jeroboam Tasted)." (98+pts VM)

BRILLIANT BURGUNDY THANKS TO MR. HAPPY

This longtime client of Acker's has exceptional collecting acumen and always has a smile on his face while opening great wines into the wee hours of the morning! To commemorate our 200th, he focuses on Burgundy with several vintages of Rousseau Clos St. Jacques, 1995 Vogue Musigny magnums, 1969 La Tache, 1990 Romanee Conti, 1993 Dujac Clos de la Roche, 1999 DRC Montrachet, Jeroboams of Pierre-Yves Colin Morey Grand Crus and 1982 Ramonet Montrachet. These brilliant wines will certainly put a smile on your face! All wines removed from a combination of professional storage and his custom-built, beautiful, temperature and humidity-controlled cellar.

Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau

"Here is another life-affirming bottle of 1993 Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint Jacques from Rousseau. This example showed a little more maturity in colour; but the nose is entrancing and develops beautiful raspberry preserve, pomegranate, cool stone and bay leaf scents that are quite intoxicating. The palate is fresh, crisp and brilliantly focused. It is still a feminine Clos Saint Jacques, the tannin so fine and now abraded by time. Yes, it has a nonchalant, easygoing personality that almost distracts you from its innate complexity. This remains a wonderful wine."(95pts)

I drank the 1993 Dujac Clos de la Roche first by accident, or maybe I got served it first and couldn't wait, but I broke my oldest to youngest trend on this night. There was great spice, great intensity and great twang here. Yes, it was great lol. There was a super mélange of black, purple and red fruits. Its palate was sweet, rich and round, and its finish felt completely integrated at first. There was a kiss of botrytis for sure. A little food brought out its deep and unfurling acidity, and it kept gaining and gaining in the glass." (98pts JK)

There is superb richness to the big-bodied, intense and powerful flavors that possess an overt muscularity though no heaviness because while this is a full-sized Bâtard, it is also focused, pure and harmonious. "The Colin 2007 Batard-Montrachet -- from centrally-located 50 year old vines positively crawls up the nostrils in its intense amalgam of pit fruit distillate; smoky black tea; lemon and grapefruit; and heliotrope. Citrus traverses the palate like an electric current, enlivening a dense concentrate of lightly caramelized peach, nut paste, and chalk, that is almost custard-like in texture. "... offers up a deep, pure and youthful bouquet of fresh apricot, pear, a marvelously complex base of chalky soil tones, hints of the Crème patissière to come, a dollop of fresh nutmeg and a nice touch of citrus zest in the upper register. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and seamless, with the inherent power of the 2002 vintage very much in evidence in its bottomless core, but with the overall profile of the wine one of unrepentant refinement. As stunningly beautiful as the fruit component is here, the wine is more defined by its brilliant mineral drive on the palate, with its elegant mousse, perfect balance and very, very long, nascently complex and laser-like finish the stuff of legends. The wine seems to attain its lift and backend energy from its limestone mineral drive, rather than the bright, zesty acidity and the overall impression is of almost otherworldly perfection." A TREASURE TROVE OF BURGUNDY FROM THE LIFE OF THE PARTY

Speak loudly and drink Grand Cru Burgundy is this collector's motto, and two reasons he is always the life of the party! He comes to our Anniversary party with fifteen or so splendid lots. Even though he didn't have much time to put it together, he wanted to support the cause and for this we say thank you! After an appetizer of 2013 Petrus, Rousseau introduces several lots of Mayer followed by 2010 Drouhin Musigny and 2010 Bouchard Montrachet. Pristine stuff from the life of the party! All wines ideally stored.

510 Château Pétrus - Vintage 2013

Pomerol

1x6 bottle owc

"Bright, dark ruby. Captivating, extremely pure aromas of fresh blackcurrant, mocha, gunflint and violet. Precise and multilayered, with small dark berry flavors given clarity and cut by lively, harmonious acidity. The finish is complex and very long. Lighter than usual but extremely pure and perfumed, this knockout wine has silkier, smoother tannins than any other 2013 Bordeaux. When I visited Petrus in July 2013, the horrible growing season had Olivier Berrouet fretting like I had never seen before, but he can be proud of what he has achieved in this difficult vintage. Making a great Petrus in outstanding years like 2009 or 2010 is expected, so in some respects this is Berrouet's best wine yet." (90-93pts)

511 Chambertin - Vintage 2014

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest 2014 tasting, Rousseau's 2014 Chambertin Grand Cru has a fruit-driven bouquet laden with black cherries, crushed strawberry, ink and a touch of bay leaf. As it aerates, the fruit seems to take more of a back seat and the terroir comes through. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, very pure and elegant, iron fist/velvety glove and so forth. This is what a grand cru should be. Utterly seductive and captivating, its satin texture might lure you into opening a bottle too soon. Give it a decade to admire Rousseau at full flight. THE RETURN OF THE SILVER FOX: IMPERIAL FORCE

It is a distinct pleasure to welcome back the collection of The Silver Fox, an esteemed member of the wine profession who has been collecting for almost forty years. He has been featured before in both Hong Kong and New York, and it is only fitting he is part of our Bicentennial Auction! He began collecting in the mid-1980s and has acquired his wines mostly from importers, reputable brokers and from producers directly as well as the major international auction houses. Like many, his interest started with classified Bordeaux and the California classics, but his passion soon grew to include Burgundy, Champagne, Rhone, Italy, Spain and Australia, and most recently to German and Austrian wines. Although he is now in his seventies, The Silver Fox is still as quick as ever and very young at heart, although he realizes that the time has come to continue to thin out his massive and impressive collection. This time he focuses on the biggest of the best of the best with only Imperials! 1996 Ducru Beaucaillou, 2003 Haut Brion, 1966 Lafite, 1982 Leoville Las Cases, 1982 Margaux, 1985 Mouton, 1989 Palmer, 1982 Pichon Lalande, 1989 Yquem and 1998 Haut Brion Blanc to name a few! There are lots of mature, great drinking big bottles here not often seen in this overall quantity. The Silver Fox, being the consummate professional, is meticulous about transportation and storage of all the wines he has acquired. Every single bottle has been transported under refrigerated and temperature-controlled conditions. His three cellars are kept at constant 55°F and have at least double redundancy refrigeration and power supply in case of any power failure. It is with great pleasure and pride that we introduce to you another great slice of the collection of "The Silver Fox."

532 Château Ducru Beaucaillou - Vintage 1970

St. Julien

bn, vlbsl, outstanding color and condition

"This wine has been fully mature and delicious for many years, so I was not surprised by how stunning this bottle was. It has always been an outstanding wine for the vintage - complex, rich, savory, and the quintessentially elegant Bordeaux. This beauty continues to reveal the fragrance and finesse that one expects from Lafite-Rothschild but so rarely finds. A fragrant, complex bouquet of cedar, herbs, vanillin, fruitcake, and coffee is followed by a soft, gentle, graciously-constructed wine with sweet layers of fruit" (92pts)

"...offers a deep ruby color with only a touch of amber at the edge, and a bouquet of complex aromas of truffles, cassis, licorice, and minerals. Medium to full-bodied, with excellent concentration, soft tannins, and a nicely layered feel, this wine reveals vague hints of the weedy herbaceousness that has come to dominate so many of this vintage's wines." 534 Château Ducru Beaucaillou - Vintage 1996

"This wine is remarkable. It is muscular, concentrated, and classic a saturated ruby/purple color a knock-out nose of minerals, licorice, cassis, and an unmistakable lead pencil smell that I often associate with top vintages of Lafite-Rothschild. It is sweet and full-bodied, yet unbelievably rich with no sense of heaviness or flabbiness. The wine possesses high tannin, but it is extremely ripe, and the sweetness of the black currant, spice-tinged Cabernet Sauvignon fruit is pronounced. This profound, backward Ducru-Beaucaillou is a must purchase."(96pts)

543 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1981

vlbsl

"This wine is close to full maturity, but it is capable of holding for another two decades. It reveals the classic Lafite bouquet of red and black fruits, cedar, fruitcake, and tobacco-like aromas. In the mouth, this medium ruby/garnet-colored wine displays a delicacy of fruit and sweet attack, but subtle, well-defined flavors ranging from tobacco, cigar box, cedar, and fruitcake. This is a savory, soft Lafite-Rothschild that is pleasing to both the intellect and the palate. Anticipated maturity: Now-2018."(91pts)

547 Château Leoville Las Cases - Vintage 1982

St. Julien

"This huge wine is, in many ways, just as massive as Leoville Barton, but it possesses a greater degree of elegance as well as unreal concentration. Classic lead pencil, cassis, kirsch, cedar, and spice characteristics are abundant in both the nose and full-bodied flavors. The tannins are still there, and, at least from my cellar, this 1982 does not appear to have changed much in the last 10-12 years." (95pts)

549 Château Margaux - Vintage 1982

lwrl, gsl, spc, 1x1 Jeroboam owc

"We transitioned to the remaining four First Growths in the next flight, beginning with a phenomenal bottle of 1982 Margaux (sourced from Château). The Margaux had a pungent nose, and its t n a jumped out at first. It also had cinnamon, iron, rock and gorgeous perfume. It was beyond licorice according to Dan, and Australian John admired its cherry liqueur. The palate was rocky without the horror but with the picture show, not its usual feminine self, Ray observed. Though spiny and long, the Margaux was still stylish with a touch of that Margaux elegance. This was a great bottle of this wine, and it ended up being wine of the flight, outshowing all the other First Growths." (97pts JK)

551 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1975

Pauillac

ts, lgsl, scc, 1x1 Imperial owc

"In the blind tasting in December, this wine finally began to reveal some potential. It has been closed and frightfully tannic for the last decade. The wine exhibits a good dark ruby/garnet color, a sweet nose of cedar, chocolate, cassis, and spices, good ripe fruit and extraction, and a weighty, large-scaled, tannic finish. Although still unevolved, it is beginning to throw off its cloak of tannin and exhibit more complexity and balance." (91pts)

554 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1989

Pauillac

spc, 1x1 Imperial owc

"Tasted from magnum and presented by Baron Philippe Sereys de Rothschild, the 1989 Château Mouton-Rothschild might not reach the ethereal heights of the 1982 or 1986, but it is certainly a lovely Claret. It has an attractive, slightly leafy bouquet armed with cedar and pencil lead. There is less fruit concentration than I expected, resolutely classic, slightly austere Bordeaux. The palate follows suit. What it lacks in substance it compensates with in balance and personality. This is an understated Mouton-Rothschild that is probably at its peak, although I envisage this offering another two decades of pleasure. Whilst this showing did not replicate some glorious bottles in the past, it remains a very fine Claret that may not be inclined to improve any further." (93pts)

"Tasted at the Château Palmer vertical in London, the 1989 Château Palmer has always been my favourite vintage from that decade after the 1983. The first bottle was unfortunately corked. The second was as it should be: the nose tensile with red berries, sous-bois, potpourri and strawberry pastille - lively and energetic. The palate is medium-bodied and vibrant right from the start, silky in texture with plenty of citrus fruit, gently building to a harmonious and detailed finish that lingers in the mouth. This is a magnificent Château Palmer that continues to effortlessly dish out so much vinous pleasure. Tasted May 2015." (96pts)

"For drinking at the present time, it is hard not to love the more middleweight vintage of 1981 at Pichon-Lalande. The wine is at its absolute apogee of peak drinkability at the present time, wafting from the glass in a beautiful and quite classic aromatic blend of sweet cassis, cigar wrapper, gravelly soil tones, a touch of chipotle pepper, cigar ash and a whisper of merlot-derived sweet herb in the upper register. On the palate the wine is pure, fullish and utterly suave on the attack, with a fine core, lovely focus and grip, melting tannins and impeccable balance on the long and complex finish. "The 1998 Cheval Blanc, a blend of 65% Merlot and 35% Cabernet Franc, is deep garnet-brick in color and absolutely explodes with scents of exotic spices, incense, dried roses, cigar box and licorice, with a core of Crème de cassis and dried cherries plus touches of black tea and dusty earth. Medium to full-bodied, it fills the mouth with rich, plushly textured fruit and then POW it hits the mid-palate with an explosion of Chinese five spice and floral perfume sparks, leading to an epically long finish. Graves

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-century. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seamless, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color, a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. "1990: In terms of the brilliant complexity and nobility of the aromatics, scorched earth, black currants, plums, charcoal, cedar, and spices, the 1990 offers an aromatic explosion that is unparalleled. It is always fascinating to taste this wine next to the 1989, which is a monumental effort, but much more backward and denser, without the aromatic complexity of the 1990. The 1990 put on weight after bottling, and is currently rich, full-bodied, opulent, even flamboyant by Haut Brion's standards. It is an incredible expression of a noble terroir in a top vintage."(98pts)

The nose is simply breathtaking - quintessential Haut-Brion with ebullient red berry fruit, roasted herbs, gravel, terracotta tiles on a warm summer's day...it is simply wave after wave of intoxicating scents that could bring even the most stoic person to tears of joy. The palate displays heavenly balance, pitch-perfect acidity, perhaps spicier than previous bottles that I have tasted, and what depth and dimension in this outstanding wine. That hint of graphite on the finish is a cheeky nod to Pauillac, as if to thumb its nose at the First Growths, because alongside Château Latour, almost by stealth, the Haut-Brion is one of the greatest Bordeaux in this millennial year."(99+pts)

593 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1996*Pauillac1x12 bottle owc"Tasted three times since bottling, the 1996 Lafite-Rothschild is unquestionably this renowned estate's greatest wine. As I indicated last year, only 38% of the crop was deemed grand enough to be put into the final blend, which is atypically high in Cabernet Sauvignon (83%). This massive wine may be the biggest, largest-scaled Lafite I have ever tasted. It will require many years to come around...the wine exhibits a thick-looking, ruby/purple color, and a knock-out nose of lead pencil, minerals, flowers, and black currant scents. Extremely powerful and full-bodied, with remarkable complexity for such a young wine, this huge Lafite is oozing with extract and richness, yet has managed to preserve its quintessentially elegant personality. This wine is even richer than it was prior to bottling. It should unquestionably last for 40-50 years." (100pts)*

The Lafleur had a deep, intense nose full of chunky, meaty Pomerol fruit. Chocolate, graham cracker crust and black and blueberries were present as well. There was a balancing beam of anise with an exotic edge to its fruit, almost tropical but not quite. The nose was also full of iron, complementing its meat and game. The palate was huge, enormously endowed, wound and a bit unforgiving. In another twenty years, it will be forgiven for sure! Game, twisted t n a, plum, anise, mineral, that Pomerol kink and that exotic Lafleur edge to the fruit were all there. It was another spectacular, 50-100 year wine." (96+pts JK)*

The palate is perfectly balanced with filigree tannin, perfect acidity, a wine where everything seems to be in its right place. Blackberry, crushed stone at the front of the mouth, just a touch of spice towards the finish that shows supreme control. This is a Margaux that seems to light up the senses. 615 Château Montrose - Vintage 2003*St. Estephe2x6 bottle owc's*

"The 2003 Montrose was served blind in Bordeaux on two occasions. Picked between 11 to 26 September, it is a blend of 62% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Merlot, 3% Cabernet Franc and 1% Petit Verdot. It remains one of the outstanding wines of a very black and white vintage. Without knowledge of the vintage, I was hesitant to suggest 2003, because though there is clearly fruit intensity locked up inside this Saint Estèphe, it is counterbalanced by the estate's trademark masculinity and austerity. So both on the nose and the palate it reaches this happy medium: pure blackberry, graphite and roasted herbs on the nose, perhaps even more elegant than I have observed on previous bottles. The palate is medium-bodied rather than full bodied with sturdy tannins couched in layers of seamless blackberry and cassis fruit, offset by scents of tobacco and graphite. As usual it has immense length and depth, a Montrose that is really just a few chapters into what is sure to be a longer "book" than many other 2003s. It is not a perfect Montrose, but a couple of hairs' breadth away. Tasted February 2017." (98pts)

"Backward, powerful, and extremely tannic, the dense purple-colored 2003 Mouton-Rothschild, a blend of 76% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc, and 2% Petit Verdot, fashioned from yields of 28 hectoliters per hectare, with a finished alcohol of 12.9%, improves dramatically with aeration. With full-bodied, meaty, powerful, dry flavors as well as a huge finish, this high class wine should be at its finest between 2012-2040+. During its sojourn in barrel, it reminded me of a hypothetical blend of the 1982 and 1986 Moutons, but since bottling, it appears different, and even more tannic than those two vintages. I still believe the finest recent Mouton-Rothschild is the 2000." (95pts)

623 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2005*Pauillac1x12 bottle owc*

"The 2005 Château Mouton-Rothschild is a deeply impressive First Growth. It has been blessed with a sensational nose that comes racing out of the blocks with audacious scents of black fruit, cedar, smoke and pencil box (Philippe Dhalluin mentioned that the signature smokiness/fireside hearth was tangible in around 80% of the vats during élevage). There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The palate is medium-bodied with sumptuous black fruit, perhaps beginning to soften in texture, one or two years off its plateau. There are layers and layers of black fruit intermingling with graphite and black pepper, and it wisely reins everything in on the finish that is more classic in style and in keeping with the vintage. If you are fortunate enough to have this wine in your cellar, even though those tannins are starting to be abraded by time, afford it another five or six years. Tasted August 2016." (98pts)

All hail King Jero! Our three kings are now complete. While the British royal family may be contracting, the Acker royal family continues to expand! This distinguished gentleman never hesitates to open a big-time bottle, including more large formats than anyone I have ever seen. He comes through today with a big-time consignment accordingly, offering (of course) large formats in quantity and quality primarily from Burgundy and Champagne. Highlights include magnums of 1961 Haut Brion, magnums of 1971 Rousseaus, a slew of 2011 DRCs, Dujac Chambertin from 2005 to 2016 in all sizes, 2009 Ponsot Clos de la Roche, several 2009 Raveneau Crus, 1982 Krug Collection, and 1985 and 1996 Salon! "Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective." (96pts BH)

"The Dujac 2005 Chambertin combines fruit from the vineyard of that name with a majority of fruit from the Clos de Bèze. Scents of rose petals, black tea, black raspberry, black pepper, and cassis stream from the glass. A wonderfully soothing, glycerin-rich, silken-textured pool of sweetly ripe and rose-scented fruit fills the mouth, while dark shadings of singed meat and wet stone well up from seemingly inexhaustible depths of extract. For all of its palpable density and sheer intensity, this is clear, refined, and displays elegant poise in its long, evocative finish. 653 Chambertin - Vintage 2008*Dujac2x3 magnum owc's*

"This is also quite cool and restrained with relatively high-toned red pinot, raspberry and currant aromas sliding gracefully into powerful and impressively broad-scaled flavors that are rich, full, sweet and textured while being underpinned by ample minerality and very firm tannins on the focused, detailed and strikingly long, linear and compact finish."(95pts BH)

654 Chambertin - Vintage 2009*Dujac2x6 bottle ocb's*

"...boasts gorgeous textural finesse and sheer energy from the very first taste. Blue and black fruit lead to spices, mint, licorice and tar as the wine explodes from the glass. Next to some of the other grand crus in the Dujac lineup, the Chambertin often comes across as quite obvious. Some of the wine's subtler qualities emerge, but only over time. Layers of fruit crescendo to the palate staining finish. The Chambertin combines power and finesse to a degree seldom seen, even in Burgundy. This is pure sophistication."(98pts)

"An intensely floral, airy and exceptionally cool nose of cassis, spice and soft notes of kirsch is layered and gorgeously complex. The flavor profile is also quite cool and intense and not surprisingly, quite reserved with an intensely stony quality to the beautifully well-delineated, energetic and powerful, indeed explosive finish. This is easily the most restrained wine in the entire range and the length is simply incredible as is the sense of poise. I occasionally describe wines as Zen-like when the sense of balance and harmony is exquisite and this is one such wine."(98pts BH)

"A much more reserved, even brooding nose offers impressive breadth with its scents of dark berries, wet stone, violets, spice hints and earth. The textured, pure and intensely mineral-driven broad-shouldered flavors possess a relatively elegant mouth feel as the supporting tannins are really quite finely grained yet for all the refinement, there is no lack of muscle and power. But what really sets this apart is the superb complexity and length..."(95-97pts BH)

"...will leave readers lucky enough to taste it weak at the knees. Unfortunately, very few people will ever taste the Dujac Chambertin, as the estate has decided to pull the wine from commercial release given the tiny production, even by Burgundy standards. With time in the glass a bevy of sweet rose petal, smoke, licorice, red cherry and plum notes flesh out, but it is the wine's magical balance that is most remarkable of all." (99pts VM)

"The 2013 Chambertin Grand Cru has a more backward bouquet than the Romanée-Saint-Vivant '13 from Dujac at the moment, the fruit a little darker with blackberry and raspberry intertwined with stony notes. "The 2015 Chambertin Grand Cru was showing just a touch of reduction on the nose, although underneath are very powerful, mainly black fruit, undergrowth and graphite-like scents. There is immense, quite beguiling precision on display here. The palate is medium-bodied with ripe tannin with blood orange infusing the black and blue fruit, saline in the mouth with touches of brown spice on the long and persistent finish. It is a confident, forthright and rather aristocratic Chambertin...which is exactly how it should be." (95-97pts)

"The 2016 Chambertin Grand Cru has a stunning bouquet with vibrant, effervescent red berry fruit suffused with minerals. This has wonderful delineation and focus. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin, pure red and black fruit, slate-like notes with a touch of graphite on the pixelated finish. Considering this was nearly wiped out by frost, this is an accomplished Chambertin that shrugs off the early season frost like "007" shrugging off a bullet wound. It's the kind of wine he would order in a bar, but only after another decade." (94-96pts)

"Tasted blind at the Burgfest 2014 tasting, Jean-Marie Fourrier's 2014 Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Clos St Jacques (labelled with "Vieilles Vignes") has a very pure bouquet, almost coulis-like fruit, dark cherries intermingling with blueberry and light marmalade scents. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, a fine line of acidity, quite sensual in the mouth with good depth on the finish. Perhaps what it is missing is that peacock's tail it sort of ends in the wrong key. There is great potential here though not best in the (Clos Saint-Jacques) show this year. Like a television with its contrast turned up a bit too high when compared to its peers. Tasted September 2017." (93pts)

"Ooh la la, ah oui oui. The 1999 Mayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux redefined the word sexy. Martine hailed it as a wild beast,' and Gil observed, gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea.' There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks,' a chameleon,' and spearmint.' Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher' than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, caramel Crème brûlée,' and beef and citrus tried to join the party. This wine was bordering on pornographic, and we were all... in awe :)." (98pts JK)

"This bottle of the 1996 Blanc de Blancs Le Mesnil Brut was drinking superbly and represents the apotheosis of Blanc de Blancs, unfurling over the course of three hours with a stunningly complex bouquet of citrus oil, confit lemon, dried white flowers and oyster shell, with hints of praline and pastry cream becoming more pronounced as the wine opens up in the glass. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, defined by the incisive spine so typical of the vintage that, here, is cloaked in layers of crisp fleshy and chalky extract. The finish is long, penetrating and saline. Unfortunately, since the 1996 Salon has been traded so zealously over the last decade, finding a bottle that hasn't travelled too far can be a challenge. 715 Meursault - Vintage 2000*Perrières, Coche-Duryvlscl"The 2000 Meursault Perrières reveals spices, cinnamon, and vanilla in its deep, concentrated character. Medium to full-bodied, it explodes on the palate with pears, apples, butter, gravel, stones, and minerals. It is velvety-textured, lush, exhibits massive depth and an intensely pure, powerful, and deep character. This is a Perrières that will give Coche's 1996 a run for its money. 717 Montrachet - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x1 Methuselah banded owc"As the late picking date would suggest, this is a very ripe and wonderfully nuanced wine with a brilliantly complex nose of white peach, pear, exotic yellow fruits, acacia blossom and citrus hints that complement perfectly the rich and monumentally constructed flavors that possess an almost chewy texture yet the mouth feel is one of satin and silk, all wrapped in a palate staining mildly toasty finish that displays impeccable balance and incredible length. To call this a knockout seems almost like faint praise but it is one genuinely stunning wine that should live for 30 to 40 years.'" (97pts BH)*

Iscrc
"This is more expressive than usual, featuring a hint of wood spice and the usual gorgeously elegant cool green fruit, oyster shell and saline notes that introduce unusually big and powerful flavors that are naturally sweet, intense and like the majority of these '05s, possesses buckets of dry extract. The finish just oozes with minerality and the intensity is almost painful as it really stains the palate. I noted last year that there was marvelous quality here and there was so much material that it could be even better than my range suggested. Well, I agree with my initial prediction as the Valmur is indeed better in bottle than it was from cask and a flat out magnificent wine." (95pts BH)

BURGUNDY'S BIGGEST GUNS

These gems come from forty years of collecting fine wines as a disciple of Doctor Desai. He was never planning to sell them but rather to enjoy them and share with friends and collectors, but Father Time, with a healthy dose of market value, has made him modify his plans. Almost every lot is a highlight here with 1971 La Tache magnum, 1988 Leroy Musigny and compatriots, 1989 Ramonet Montrachet magnum, and 1985 Mayer Echezeaux, Cros Parantoux and Richebourg. Plus more Mayer. All of these wines have been bought directly from the importers or local wine merchants upon release, or at the Domaines in France and shipped in temperature controlled containers, and then stored in a personal cellar at 52° to 55°F until they were all moved to the professional storage facility where they remained at 55°F until this day.

724 La Tâche - Vintage 1971

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lbsl, scc, cuc, excellent color and condition

"It was the bottle of all bottles, and the 1971 DRC La Tâche quickly put Burgundy back at the center of the conversation. This bottle was the real deal in every sense of the phrase. Spicy, saucy and sexy, it smelled and tasted like wine heaven. The red fruits, roses, menthol, tomato, spices...everything was right there and then some. I have been adoring this wine for over two decades, and I am pleased to report that everything is still as it was. It just doesn't get any better." (99pts JK)

1 magnum

725 La Tâche - Vintage 1978

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

lwasl, cuc, excellent color and condition

"I think La Tâche is another given for any year's Top Ten, and so many vintages to choose from. This year, I only have three :) Gentleman Jim and Lady Agah brought a perfect bottle to our December Holiday Auction at Bouley in New York City. We had already had a '59 Latour, a '59 Haut Brion, a '91 Chave cuvée Cathelin and dozens of other wines. Nothing except the Cathelin was even close. Didn't take a note as notes are tough to take at auctions, but I sure as heck remember." (99pts JK)

1 bottle

per lot $6000-8000

726 La Tâche - Vintage 1983

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

nl, lbsl

"The 1983 DRC La Tâche had a deeper, darker nose that was more intense. Its palate was rich, possessing thick, long yet fine tannins. It was more austere, 'backwards' per one guest, and its acid lingered in RC fashion. This has always been a spectacular vintage of La Tâche, believe it." (97pts JK)

1 magnum

per lot $6500-8500

727 Chambertin - Vintage 1988

Domaine Leroy

"Still primary with only the initial hints of secondary complexity coming through. The concentration of the fruit is immediately evident and carries through to the big, rich, intense, indeed massive flavors. The finish is powerful, robust and delivers exceptional length. The tannins are slightly edgy on the back end but there is so much sap that they are largely, if not completely buffered. Deep, stylish and classy wine that should live for decades. Undeniably one of the wines of the vintage." (95pts BH)

2 bottles

per lot $8000-11000

728 Musigny - Vintage 1988

Domaine Leroy

1nl

"Densely fruited with virtually every spice imaginable and the aromas simply explode from the glass framing incredibly dense flavors that are the distilled essence of pinot. Black cherry extract dominates the velvety finish and completely buffers the huge tannins. A massive wine in every respect yet it comes across in the classic Burgundian manner of power without weight, especially on the finish that goes on and on." (97pts BH)

1 bottle

per lot $10000-14000

729 Richebourg - Vintage 1988

Domaine Leroy

"The 1988 Richebourg has slightly less finesse and a less perfect bouquet than the Romanée St.-Vivant, but it is more muscular, fuller-framed, and a titan of a wine with its huge proportions and massive concentration and depth. This is a monumental old-style burgundy that is meant to last for ages, and I am envious of anyone who is fortunate enough to put it in their cellars. The 1988 vintage attests to a remarkably auspicious start for the new Domaine Leroy in Vosne-Romanée." (98pts)

730 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1988*Domaine Leroylhcr*

"The nose is fantastically complex with a staggering range of spice, floral and still no hint of sous bois with stunning depth to the big, powerful and rich flavors culminating in incredible length, this has to be tasted to be believed."(96pts BH)

731 Échézeaux - Vintage 1985*H. Mayerlscl, cuc*

"...this bottle displayed a bright and still fresh if no longer youthful nose of earth, spice and plenty of game and underbrush with no sous bois followed by sweet, delicious, rich and exuberantly expressive flavors of striking length, superb complexity and real breed. The hallmark Mayer character of a velvety finish is here in abundance and this is an extremely impressive effort."(93pts BH)

1 bottle

732 Échézeaux - Vintage 1988*H. Mayerlscl, cuc*

"Fantastic! Rich, heavy and decadent, this was sooooo good. Blood and sausage squealed in a meat lover's delight, and that leathery Mayer smack kicked ass. Its purple fruit brought everything together, and someone hailed it a blazing bottle."(98pts JK)

1 bottle

per lot $5000-7000

733 Richebourg - Vintage 1985*H. Mayercuc*

"Heady and wonderfully perfumed of largely primary fruit notes lead to quite dense and still completely fresh flavors of simply unbelievable depth and length. All the more remarkable is how fresh and young this remains with only hints of secondary notes to be found and the velvety finish goes on and on. I could taste this the next day and the ethereal nose is simply haunting and it's frankly difficult to really do justice to the sheer breadth of expression. A wine for the ages and one that should live 25 years, something very few '85s can aspire to. Consistent notes."(97pts BH)

1 bottle

per lot $16000-22000

734 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1985*Cros Parantoux, H. Mayercuc*

"The nose seeped black fruits in that deep, dark Mayer way, along with minerals, earth, leather and crushed granite. The nose seemed endlessly deep, and the palate backed it up with rich yet still taut fruit, black and purple, along with leather and spice and everything nice, retaining an elegant, caressing finish. This was still a big wine by '85 standards, and why Mayer is considered to have made some of the best wines from the vintage."(95pts JK)

736 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1993*Cros Parantoux, H. Mayer2nl, 1cuc*

"Someone thought that the 1993 H. Mayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux was close to a perfect wine.' It was so rich and perfectly spiced. Martine chimed in that she found more similarities amongst the multiple years in Cros Parantoux' than the other Mayer parcels, which made sense. This was rich in a wow wow way, like making the Forbes 400. Everything was in the perfect place, while still ascending." (99pts JK)

2 bottles per lot $16000-22000

737 Montrachet - Vintage 1988*Ramonet1nl*

"Medium gold. A wonderfully complex and still quite fresh though no longer primary with minty aromas of white flower and citrus zest that are nuanced by spice hints that continue onto the focused, detailed and powerful medium full flavors that are supported by a firm, but not aggressive, acid spine and a long, linear and indeed almost racy finish." (93pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

740 Montrachet - Vintage 1989*Ramonetlbsl, nl, sdc*

"The 1989 Montrachet (of which there are 2 barrels from 70-year old vines) attained a natural alcohol level of 14.8%. So much for those oenologist's wines made within safe technical parameters! I realize few readers will ever get a chance to taste this wine, but as you can imagine, it boasts unbelievable concentration and viscosity. It is not as thick and unctuous as the Montrachet made by the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, but it does possess exquisite balance and length. All things considered, I would wait 10 years before popping the cork. It will drink well for at least the first two decades of the next century. For those Hollywood superstars and multi-million dollar athletes that might be readers, Ramonet still thinks his 1986 Montrachet is the best of the decade, and considers 1989 the pretender to the throne." "The 2002 had a great, savory nose, with a touch of BBQ and a bit of garden goodness. It had that great spice and was what you truly expect from La Tâche with all of its superb balance. Its concentration and soupy goodness were admirable. I am a huge fan of this vintage for Red Burgundy in general."(97pts JK)

748 La Tâche - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Contilbsl, lscl*

"Many know the greatness that is 2005 DRC, and this bottle was no exception. It was the best by far. Yes, the wine was totally wound up in the glass, but it had the longest finish by a mile, and there was no doubt about its position at the top of the pyramid. It was full of rocks, diamonds, blackberries and smoke. This demonstrated how great the '05 vintage is and showed tremendous definition and decades of potential."(99pts JK)

751 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1999*Domaine Leroy*

"It's quite curious but the strong oak toast that dominated the nose of the last bottle I tried was almost non-existent in this one, allowing the still discreet Vosne spice and dark fruit aromas free rein. The last bottle also displayed considerable wood influence on the round and rich flavors yet again, here that element was muted if not invisible as the powerful and concentrated mid-palate does not lack for finesse or balance on the wonderfully long and very firmly structured finish."(96pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $4000-6000

752 Clos St. Denis - Vintage 2005*Dujac2lbsl*

"An earthy yet elegant nose features notes of game, subtle smoke, red, black and blue fruit and briar notes that sit atop concentrated, pure and detailed flavors wrapped in a wonderfully intense, balanced and strikingly long finish. This oozes class and refinement and interestingly, the mid-palate is almost tender yet there is a robust firmness to the massively long finish that lets one know that this is built for the next several decades..."(96pts BH)

"The magic continued with the best bottle of 1985 Roumier Bonnes -Mares that I have ever had, which reminded me of the saying that there are no great wines, just great bottles. While I m not sure I agree with that 100%, there was no doubting that this was a great bottle. Gamy and rusty, intense and hearty, this bottle was still adolescent and made me want to think about it thirty years from now."(96+pts JK)

"A rarity of rarities was next, the 1988 Roumier Bonnes Mares Vieilles Vignes. It was similar to the "regular" except it was deeper and more concentrated. Someone bickered about that 1988 dryness, 'but I was completely smitten. I was lost in the depths of this wine's soul. So deep and so concentrated kept appearing in my notes. This was an epic, WOW wine."(99pts JK)

756 Griottes Chambertin - Vintage 1999*J. Drouhin*

"Intensely fresh and sappy fruit with supple flavors of earth, roasted cherry hints and soil notes. Quite ripe, round and seductive despite the explosive character and offers outstanding length. 757 Corton - Vintage 1990*Clos Rognet, Méo-Camuzet1x1 magnum owc*

"A solidly complex and fully mature nose that has now given over to mostly earth, game and sous-bois-infused aromas that also reflect a very subtle hint of lactic acid before merging into robust but no longer particularly structured flavors of reasonably impressive depth, concentration and length. Two important points are worth noting: one is that there are no green tannins present, which is the fault that plagues many '90s today and two is that what structure that does remain is relatively fine. Overall, this is a very attractive combination of mature complexity, intensity, balanced size and weight that culminates in admirable length." (91pts BH)

"The 1973 Salon is one of the most exotic and flamboyant wines in this tasting. Now at the absolute peak of its maturity, the 1973 graces the senses with hints of orange peel, burnt sugar, butter and smoke. Even with all of its depth and creaminess, the 1973 possesses tons of nuance, not to mention considerable personality." (95pts VM)

771 Taittinger Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2006*Comtes de Champagne2x3 magnum ocb's*

"The 2006 Comtes de Champagne is striking, especially in the way it brings together elements of ripeness and freshness in a hypothetical blend of the 2002 and 2004. Smooth and creamy on the palate, the 2006 is all about texture. There is a real feeling of density and weight in the 2006, qualities I expect to see grow with time in the bottle. All the elements fall into place effortlessly. The 2006 has been nothing short of magnificent both times I have tasted it. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. I suggest buying a case and following it over the next 20-30 years, which is exactly what I intend to do. There is little doubt the 2006 Comtes de Champagne is a magical Champagne in the making." 772 Sassicaia - Vintage 1985*Tenuta San Guidolgsl, spc, cuc*

"I had this wine in a blind tasting - I have had it frequently, and have never failed to give it a perfect rating. At the same time, I have often mis-identified it in blind tastings as the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild. In this tasting, the wine was phenomenal. The color remains an opaque purple. The bouquet is beginning to develop secondary aromas of cedar and truffles to go along with its intense cassis, black-raspberry, blackberry, tarry, toasty personality. Exceptionally dense, concentrated, and full-bodied, this wine possesses layers of concentrated fruit that are beautifully balanced by the wine's sweet tannin and well-integrated acidity. The finish lasts for nearly a minute. A monumental Cabernet Sauvignon, it is one of the greatest wines made this century." (100pts)

HOT STUFF

There is a plethora of iconic wines in this short and intense selection from a fabulous collection with almost every lot being a highlight! 1982 Lafleur magnum, 1929 Latour, 1947 Mouton magnum, 1990 La Tache, 1934 DRC Richebourg Vieux Cepages (!!!), 1962 Romanee Conti, 1989 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne, 2002 Lafon Montrachet, 2002 DRC Montrachet, 1982 Ramonet Montrachet and 1985 La Mouline. Hot stuff!!! All wines removed from professional storage.

773 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1982

Graves

Its, 2bsl

"We began with the 1982 Haut Brion, which had sexy aromas of nuts, caramel, pencil and gravel. The palate showed the gravelly Graves side of the wine big time, but it also had loads of cassis fruit. It was very spiny and dry and truly a classy wine, underrated by 1982 First Growth standards." (96pts JK)

774 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1982

hgsl, cuc

"A spectacular nose of kirsch liqueur, minerals, flowers, and blackberries jumps from the glass of this thick, dark ruby-colored Lafleur. Over-ripeness, a characteristic of many 1982s (I say that in a positive, not pejorative sense), is apparent in this jammy, unctuously-textured, massive wine. Somewhat of a paradox to taste, it offers notes of maturity, richness, and succulence contrasted with massive structure, muscle, and density. Thrilling to drink, despite its youthful, tannic grip, the 1975 and 1979 Lafleurs come closest to this wine's massiveness and formidable intensity." (100pts)

775 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1989

Pomerol

2bn, 3gsl, 2nl, 2cuc

"The 1989 Lafleur had superb intensity. It was rich, full-bodied and a rock star wine. Its finish kept building in the glass. It boomed constricted on its finish, and I kept writing 'intense' and 'super intense' again and again. I wondered at the end if this might ultimately be better than the Pétrus, although I am not sure that is possible." (98+pts JK)

777 Château Leoville Las Cases - Vintage 1982

St. Julien

4vlgs, 1 magnum different importer

"This huge wine is, in many ways, just as massive as Leoville Barton, but it possesses a greater degree of elegance as well as unreal concentration. Classic lead pencil, cassis, kirsch, cedar, and spice characteristics are abundant in both the nose and full-bodied flavors. The tannins are still there, and, at least from my cellar, this 1982 does not appear to have changed much in the last 10-12 years." (95pts)

778 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1947

Pauillac

"I have never had anything but extraordinary, decadent, fabulously rich, concentrated bottles of the 1947 Mouton-Rothschild. The exotic, ostentatious bouquet of ginger, mint, coffee, cedar, and gobs of cassis fruit is followed by a syrupy, viscously-textured, thick, juicy Mouton that is bursting with fruit. Although drinkable since I first tasted it over a decade ago, it exhibits no signs of fruit loss or color deterioration. It is one of the most exotic and opulent Mouton-Rothschilds I have ever tasted." (98pts)

779 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2005*Pauillac1x12 bottle owc*

"The 2005 Château Mouton-Rothschild is a deeply impressive First Growth. It has been blessed with a sensational nose that comes racing out of the blocks with audacious scents of black fruit, cedar, smoke and pencil box (Philippe Dhalluin mentioned that the signature smokiness/fireside hearth was tangible in around 80% of the vats during élevage). There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The palate is medium-bodied with sumptuous black fruit, perhaps beginning to soften in texture, one or two years off its plateau. There are layers and layers of black fruit intermingling with graphite and black pepper, and it wisely reins everything in on the finish that is more classic in style and in keeping with the vintage. If you are fortunate enough to have this wine in your cellar, even though those tannins are starting to be abraded by time, afford it another five or six years. Tasted August 2016."(98pts)

"Sweet, pure and completely classic mostly red pinot fruit aromas are enhanced by subtle nuances of floral notes, damp earth, underbrush and even a hint of game. The big, muscular but utterly refined flavors are superbly intense, reserved and backward supported by remarkably sophisticated tannins and stunning length. This is a very concentrated wine of real breed and impeccable balance that should age for 3 decades, perhaps longer."(93pts BH)

783 La Tâche - Vintage 1990*Domaine de la Romanée Contilbsl, scc, cuc*

"I cannot think of a more profound, young red Burgundy tasted than DRC's 1990 La Tâche. Although it still requires another 3-4 years of cellaring, it is incredibly endowed, with an extraordinary perfume of Asian spices as well as jammy black raspberries, cherries, and blackberries infused with smoke, toast, and dried herbs. Full-bodied, but ethereal, with layers of flavor; as well as mind-boggling delicacy and complexity..."(100pts)

784 La Tâche - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Strikingly extravagant nose of rose petals, oriental spices, pungent tea and leather notes plus ultra elegant pinot fruit. The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. In short, aristocratic in every sense."(96pts BH)

785 Richebourg - Vintage 2004*Domaine de la Romanée Contivlscl*

"...surprisingly understated and subtle with an intensely floral nose of red and black fruit aromas that are nuanced and beautifully elegant, merging seamlessly into linear, reserved, indeed almost brooding flavors that are as once supple yet precise and detailed, all wrapped in a powerful and muscular finish that delivers striking length there is a gorgeous combination of finesse and power and again, I really like the sense of drive and energy here as well as the first rate balance."(94pts BH)

786 Richebourg - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle banded owc*

"Though it may not be quite as elegant as the Romanée St. Vivant it is arguably even more aromatically complex with a wonderfully fresh if restrained nose of hoisin, black fruit, soy and anise. There is remarkable concentration of dry extract that completely buffers the otherwise tightly wound tannic spine while pushing it to the background as the broad-shouldered flavors culminate in a balanced, long and velvety mineral-inflected finish that delivers astonishing persistence."(95pts BH)

787 Richebourg - Vintage 1934*Vieux Cepages, Domaine de la Romanée Conti4.25cm bc, hbsl, hcrc, outstanding color and condition"The next wine was incredible and spectacular; that about sums it up. There were literally one thousand descriptors in the nose. Menthol, sexy sausage, and herbs de provence (Jim) all made their way to the forefront of its sensational aromatics. Even Webster would have had a hard time describing the litany of aromas. As Robert Bohr observed, the promise of the nose comes through on the palate, and its texture was, indeed, incredible. Eddie commented how the precision is perfect. Jim admired how the wine had another twenty or thirty years in it. Big Boy called it surreal, and threw the 23 Liger-Belair into that category. It was a 1934 DRC Richebourg Vieux Cepages, an old-vine Richebourg that DRC made one barrel of in certain vintages between 1911 and 1937. Flavor Flav used to say bring that beat back! Aubert, bring that wine back! What a thrill." (99pts JK)*

788 Romanée Conti - Vintage 1962*Domaine de la Romanée Conti5cm bc, hbsl, ltl, lvl, crc, excellent color"One thing I could read what I wrote for was one of the wines of the night, a wine that should have been the last wine of the evening but settled for second to last, a phenomenal bottle of 1962 DRC Romanée Conti. Actually, I didn't take that many notes after all, but took a couple of good quotes including indestructible and timeless, as well as at maximum capacity of expression. Spectacular, intense and very, very special, the 1962 DRC Romanée Conti was about as good as it gets." (98pts JK)*

789 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2014*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle banded owc"A deft but not invisible application of wood sets off the airy, cool and strikingly elegant nose that is composed by notes of both red and dark currant, a wide range of floral and spice elements as well as Asian-style tea scents. The refined and caressing middle weight flavors possess a sleek and cool mouth feel while retaining good definition on the firm but well-balanced and sneaky long finish that exhibits a bit less finesse than usual even if it is still quite fine." 790 Musigny - Vintage 1990*J.F. Rich and a bit fuller than the usual Musigny, it still retained the class of the vineyard while delivering a mouthful of rich red fruits, earth and game. It was ripe yet not over-ripe and an awfully good glass of wine." (95pts JK)*

A magnificent wine, it does not reveal any of the heat (although the alcohol must be pushing 15%) or over-ripeness that is often associated with this vintage. It is a nectar of the vines and true Pinot Noir elixir." (99+pts, RP, Hedonists Gazette)*

"Dominique Lafon is convinced that his 2002 Montrachet is the finest he has produced to date. This medium-bodied gem has an awesome aromatic profile of resin, minerals, spices, poached pears, red currants, and oak. On the palate, this wine seemingly gains in strength, coming at the taster with increasingly bold waves of white pepper-laced, sappy minerals, white fruits, and oak. Its 45+-second finish regales the mouth with additional layers of candied apples, ginger, and buttered toast. Bravo!" (98-100pts)

"Highly reticent but seriously complex aromas of lime-stone, apple, pear and white flowers perfectly complement the big, rich, powerful yet very tight full-bodied flavors that possess simply superb detail and cut. This is one muscular, massively constituted wine of profound depth and concentration that possesses near perfect balance and a finish that simply doesn't stop. This will require at least a decade to come into its own and should live for another 20 years after that. In short, this has that wow factor..." (97pts BH)

799 Montrachet - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

1x3 bottle banded owc

"An opulent, ripe and moderately oaked in-your-face nose explodes from the glass, bringing incredibly complex and layered aromas that run from floral, citrus, spice and a full range of white and yellow fruit notes that complement to perfection the lush, rich and amazingly concentrated broad-scaled flavors that are underpinned by an intense minerality and a palate staining finish of simply unbelievable length. At this young stage, this is a massive Montrachet that is long on power and muscle and while it's not as elegant as say the 2000, 2002 or 2004 versions, I believe that the refinement one typically finds in this wine will come in time. In sum, for sheer vinous fireworks, this is hard to beat and to call it a "wow" wine would be a considerable understatement. However, note that plenty of time will be required and it will be one of the longest-lived vintages in recent memory. A great, great effort." (98pts BH)

It had animal and berry goodness, and Emmanuel found it more reminiscent of the '89. It was rich, decadent and buttery. 805 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1985*La Mouline, E. Guigal2lbsl, 1stl, 1ltl, 3noc*

"One of the all-time great La Moulins, this still youthful and unevolved wine does not have the tannic ferocity of the 1988, or the sheer force and intensity of the 1978, 1976, and 1969, but it represents the epitome of this single-vineyard wine. Everything fits perfectly in this full-bodied, black/purple-colored wine that reveals no garnet or amber at the edge of its color. The nose offers up a formidable array of overripe black raspberries and cherries intertwined with scents of cedar, chocolate, olives, and toast. Extremely full-bodied, with an unctuousity and opulence that must be tasted to be believed, this velvety-textured wine's finish lasts for over a minute. It is one of the most concentrated but profoundly endowed and well-balanced wines I have ever tasted. Like so many of the wines Guigal has produced from this vineyard, no matter how hard one tries to articulate its glories, words are simply inadequate." (100pts)

WINES FROM THE CELLAR OF MR. BIG

Mister Big always looks good and so does his wine cellar! It is a pleasure to welcome back this dapper and distinguished collector who has helped us curate our auction and celebrate our anniversary with an impressive selection of unique and very rare wines including 1945 Mouton, 1966 Rousseau Chambertin, 2001 DRC Assortment, 1980 La Tache, 1990 Leroy Chambertin, 1980 Mayer Cros Parantoux magnum, 1949 Leroy Musigny, 1996 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne, 1969 Salon and 1978 Bartolo Mascarello amongst many others. All wines impeccably stored.

807 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1945

vhs, tal, stl, illegibly pitted cork, believed to be 1945, outstanding color

"A consistent 100-point wine (only because my point scale stops at that number), the 1945 Mouton-Rothschild is truly one of the immortal wines of the century. This wine is easily identifiable because of its remarkably exotic, over-ripe, sweet nose of black fruits, coffee, tobacco, mocha, and Asian spices. It is an extraordinarily dense, opulent, and rich wine, with layers of creamy fruit, behaving more like a 1947 Pomerol than a structured, powerful, and tannic 1945. The wine finishes with a 60+ second display of ripe fruit, extract, and sweet tannin. This remarkably youthful wine (only light amber at the edge) is mindboggling! Will it last another 50 years? ..."(100pts)

"As great as so many of the wines that we had already tasted on this magical evening, this next flight of reds absolutely stole the show. It began with a spectacular bottle courtesy of Big Mike. The first thing I wrote was, WOW. The Rousseau was meaty, intense and DEEP; it was full of rose, iron, crushed red fruits, vitamins, tannins, alcohol, acidity, brick, iron, wildfire it was game over. 812 La Tâche - Vintage 1980

1-4cm bc, 1-4.25cm bc, 2vlscl, 1sdc, 1cuc, different importers

"Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Not having tasted the La Tâche 1980 for 14 years, I must admit that I had high expectations for this wine and it truly delivered. Ignore the pale color; the extensive bricking on the rim because you will be transfixed by the nose. It is absolutely ethereal with quite brilliant transparency, fleeting glimpses of wild heather, jasmine, rose petals and Lapsong Souchang. The palate is fresh and tense, gently building in the mouth with all the delicacy you can imagine. No, there is not the length here but it is far fresher than the 1985 La Tâche with a sense of nervosité on the finish. Of all the vintages of La Tâche this is one of the most impressive and also the most difficult to put into words. It is simply a heavenly Pinot Noir at its peak."(98pts)

"The magnificent, healthy medium-to-dark ruby-colored 1990 Richebourg has stupendous depth and complexity to its dark fruit-dominated aromas. Soy and hoisin sauces, cherries, and raspberries can be discerned in its deep, medium-to-full-bodied character. This satin-textured wine remains youthfully vibrant and should benefit from additional cellaring. Projected maturity: 2005-2010+." (96pts)

815 Richebourg - Vintage 1993

Domaine Leroy

1lwrvl, 1vlbsl

"Compared to the reserved and brooding wine that I last saw some nine years ago, this has become quite expressive with a simply stunning nose of spice, blue and black pinot fruit and warm earth nuances leading to seductive, broad and powerful flavors that offer superb depth and intensity plus stupendous length. This is dripping with velvet as the concentrated sap that seemingly suffuses every aspect of the wine. While I appreciate that it sounds contradictory, this is discreetly opulent and yet never loses its remarkable sense of balance and finesse." (96pts BH)

818 Échézeaux - Vintage 1990

H. Mayer

"The 1990 Henri Mayer Échézeaux had a lot going on in its nose. It was heavy and thick, beefy, brothy and foresty, with that citrus pitch and spice. It was like a forest sledgehammer; so thick and sweet, displaying that purple signature style. The palate was rich with endless acidity that was still somehow reined in. The palate was so rich, so saucy, so concentrated, so spectacular. It also had that cedary, foresty edge to its flavors. If the 1991 was a girlfriend, the 1990 was a bodyguard." (97pts JK)

"I initially thought that the 1989 Henri Mayer Cros Parantoux was a little off, but the Comte dissuaded me of that ridiculous notion. It did need some time to air out; this was a beast coming out of its cave, for sure. The CP was rusty and milky at first, and I could see all of its potential in the beginning, but little did I realize how much it would open up so quickly in my glass. The palate was rich and great with ultimately the best finish of the flight. The Comte found it amazing, and bouillon flavors added some delicious complexity. The finish got insane." (98+pts JK)

The 1955 Mazis-Chambertin Grand Cru has a broody and more introspective bouquet compared to the Ruchottes-Chambertin '55: tertiary, woodland notes with a touch of struck match. 824 Mazis Chambertin - Vintage 1971*Maison Leroylbsl, excellent color and condition"Ample but not complete bricking. A fully mature and highly complex nose is now dominated by animale and sous-bois aromas that complement perfectly the powerful and broad-shouldered earth-suffused flavors that are close to fully resolved though there is some noticeable tannin on the long finish where the only nit is a bit of acidity poking through on the backend. This is still a relatively robust wine with plenty of life left." (91pts BH)*

1 bottle per lot $1200-1600

825 Musigny - Vintage 1949*Maison Leroyscc, outstanding color and condition"The highly expressive nose of sous bois, spice, dried flower and sandalwood displays just enough volatile acidity to detract mildly from the overall sense of elegance. Otherwise there is superb complexity to the rich but beautifully well-detailed and gorgeously textured middle weight flavors where the underlying minerality adds a sense of lift to the lingering finish where there is a hint of acid tang poking through, very probably from the VA." 826 Richebourg - Vintage 1998*Méo-Camuzet2vlbsl, Isdc"Interestingly, the 1998 Richebourg Grand Cru from Domaine Méo-Camuzet has never been reviewed. Time to address that because this is a superb wine that probably delivers above expectations. It has a very expressive nose, perhaps one that would cause you to think DRC. It is very well defined with ebullient redcurrant and raspberry fruit and wonderful minerality. The palate is brimming over with vivacity and tension. There are razor-sharp tannins here, but perhaps not the drive of the Richebourg 1999 from DRC tasted alongside, and perhaps without the same length. However, that is compensated by a sense of detail and freshness, the energy it shows on the finish. In the context of the vintage, this deserves a round of applause." (95pts)*

827 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999*Vieilles Vignes, Ponsot1x12 bottle owc"This was a magical bottle of the 1999 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru Cuvée Vieilles Vignes, a wine that's just beginning to hit its stride as it approaches its 20th birthday, unfurling in the glass with aromas of red berries, cassis, dark chocolate, cinnamon, dried rose petals and orange rind. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, deep and immensely concentrated, with a broad attack, lovely acids and a formidable reserve of creamy old-vine fruit, structured around a chalky chassis of tannin that evokes the great old Burgundies of yesteryear. Concluding with a long and expansive finish, this is still a young wine, and another two decades of aging won't be a problem. But it's now clear that this ranks as one of Ponsot's greatest recent hits and one of the high points of this reputed vintage." (98pts)*

12 bottles per lot $5000-7000

828 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1996*Coche-Dury"The cult wine per excellence hits another home run. Ripe but racy, with a lush, opulent and fat mouthfeel. 829 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2005*Coche-Dury"Warning: this incredible white Burgundy can leave you speechless. Appraised blind, everyone fortunate enough to have a glass of this Corton-Charlemagne in front of them, recognized its greatness. The bouquet is imbued with spine-tingling mineralite and a shimmering tension that is impossible to encapsulate in words. It just leaves you with a huge smile on your face. The palate neatly interlocks with the aromatics, that mineral tension just leaving you breathless with admiration." (98pts)*

La Mouline, E. Guigal

2nl, 6sc, 1 bottle different importer

"One of the all-time great La Moulins, this still youthful and unevolved wine does not have the tannic ferocity of the 1988, or the sheer force and intensity of the 1978, 1976, and 1969, but it represents the epitome of this single-vineyard wine. Everything fits perfectly in this full-bodied, black/purple-colored wine that reveals no garnet or amber at the edge of its color. The nose offers up a formidable array of overripe black raspberries and cherries intertwined with scents of cedar, chocolate, olives, and toast. Extremely full-bodied, with an unctuousity and opulence that must be tasted to be believed, this velvety-textured wine's finish lasts for over a minute. It is one of the most concentrated but profoundly endowed and well-balanced wines I have ever tasted. Like so many of the wines Guigal has produced from this vineyard, no matter how hard one tries to articulate its glories, words are simply inadequate." (100pts)

THE SHINING: BRILLIANT WINES OF AN EAST COAST GENTLEMAN

This long-time client's wines always shine whether it be at the dinner table or the auction block. He has brought us several profound consignments in the past year and in the many years before, so it's only right that he has more than 100 lots to bring glamour and grace to our Bicentennial Auction! Always in a Burgundy frame of mind, this time we have some grand old Bordeaux of yesteryear to start including 1945 Gruaud Larose magnum, 1955 L'Evangile, 1928 Leoville Las Cases and ancient Sauternes. Make no mistake about it, Burgundy is this collector's delight, and the rollcall of prime Burgundy begins with 1985 Rousseau Clos des Ruchottes, 1990 Claude Dugat Charmes, 1985 Mortet Chambertin, and 1991 and 1993 Vogue Musigny. There are seven lots of DRC including 2001 La Tache followed by Clos de Lambrays back to 1953, 1978 Dujac Clos St. Denis, 1993 Rouget Cros Parantoux, 1993 Mugnier Musigny, a full case of 1964 Leroy Grands Echezeaux, 1991 Meo-Camuzet Cros Parantoux and 1978 Ponsot Clos de la Roche! Rhone regales us with La Mouline from the 1960s(!) and 1978 La Chapelle while Champagne adds sparkle to the celebration with Dom Perignon back to 1961, 1990 Selosse, a parcel of 1990 Krug in magnum, 1988 Salon magnums and a Jeroboam of 1989 Cristal. All of these lots will certainly shine a bright light in your cellar! All wines removed from a combination of temperature-controlled home and professional storage.

"This is a remarkably young, backward, massive Gruaud-Larose, similar in style to the 1961, 1975, 1982, and 1986. Still opaque, garnet/black-colored, with a tight but promising nose of licorice, black fruits, and herbs, this full-bodied, meaty, chewy wine exhibits huge reserves of fruit, as well as a spicy, powerful, tannic finish. While it can be drunk now (I would suggest decanting of at least an hour), it is another almost immortal 1945 that will last for another 20-30 years." (96pts)

The bottle at Matsuhisa was a lot tighter than this one, no doubt due to the lack of proper aeration that was allowed the bottle at Valentino's...this '86 actually had ripeness in the nose - kirsch, soy, mocha...still a tannic monster - the fruit was shy on the palate at first but got better in the glass....nice balance overall." 851 Chambertin - Vintage 1985
C. Mortet
1nl, 2sdc
"Very distinct herbs marked the nose at first. It wasn't quite caraway, not quite paprika, not tarragon, maybe wild fennel cumin! That was it; there was a definite Indian edge to this exotic nose, dominated by this all spice character. Beef and menthol lurked behind it. The power and muscle of Chambertin flexed on the palate and its great finish. This was extraordinary power for an 85 and one of the more youthful 85s that I have had of late. We left the cellar and transferred the wine to a bigger, more classic Burgundy glass, and more of the earth and terroir components came out along with a cinnamon spice. There was real grip on the finish here, quite noticeable yet still balanced." (95pts JK)

The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. 866 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1999*Domaine de la Romanée Conti2vlsl, different importers*

"The 1999 Romanée-St-Vivant initially has its nose put out of joint by the precocious 1999 Échézeaux, but allowing the wine to unfold over 30 to 40 minutes, it shows its true breeding. Returning after ten minutes, the nose positively explodes from the glass with a sorbet-like purity hints of wild strawberry, cassis and a little blueberry a piercing intensity that is wondrous to behold. The palate is medium-bodied and does not have the volume of the 1999 Échézeaux, but there is superior clarity and focus, the tannins clearly fine and the finish shimmering with tension and femininity. This is just a beautiful wine that will only get better. Drink 2016-2030."(96pts)

867 Clos des Lambrays - Vintage 1953*Domaine des Lambrays5.5cm bc, ltl, excellent color*

"Also a very deep ruby. This is every bit as fresh with a similar aromatic profile that displays earth, derivative secondary red fruit aromas, leather and subtle hints of game that are followed by round, sweet and pretty flavors that are seductive but don't possess the intensity or power of the '52. Still, this is most enjoyable and a bit softer on the mid-palate with fine length. I would drink this over the next 10 years as it has already begun a gentle if graceful decline. Note that another bottle was woody and tough and did not seem very "53-like" at all; moreover, it did not resemble the first bottle at all."(91pts BH)

1-4.5cm bc, 1-5cm bc, 1sos, 3ltal, 1ltl, 1lwrl, 1bsl, 1 negociant, excellent color

"This was a brilliant bottle of the 1966 Clos des Lambrays Grand Cru, bursting from the glass with a stunning bouquet of rose petals, Griotte cherry, dried strawberry and warm spices. On the palate, the wine is medium-bodied, satiny and tangy but open-knit, with melting tannins, a sapid core of fruit and a long, fragrant finish. This is an elegant middle-weight rather than a blockbuster Clos des Lambrays, but its perfume and mid-palate amplitude mark well-stored bottles out as among the vintage's high points today. A second bottle was notably more evolved and mushroomy, so this note and score reflects the pristine bottle."(95pts)

"The blackcurrant, blackberry, balsam, and spice-scented 1995 Clos de la Roche has loads of cassis, blueberry, and black cherry fruit in its medium-to-full-bodied, super-concentrated character. At present it is painfully tannic and backward, yet its admirable fruit (so incredibly evident in its infancy) may well blossom in time to regain command of this offering."(94pts)

872 Clos Vougeot - Vintage 1995

Domaine Leroy

1lbsl, 1wisvl, 1sos

"This is a fascinating wine of power and intensity yet without weight or heaviness and the usual youthful austerity of classic Clos de Vougeot is only a background element as the rich, full-bodied, sappy and highly complex flavors are underpinned by supple tannins that have none of the aggressivity of the typical '95 today. In fact, this is really quite forward and while it should hold for many years at this level, I don't see any further improvement potential. A great effort from what is undoubtedly the reference standard producer of this fabled grand cru." (93pts)

873 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1999

Dujac

2vlscl

"There is a certain reserve and distance present in this wine that the other wines don't have. Slightly austere with a mineral essence that tends to suppress the pinot baby fat lurking beneath the surface. The potential here is enormous yet it is largely hidden and unlike many 99s, this is not at all showy but rather calm and deliberate. All the components are here for a long and slow evolution but it may take 10 to 15 years to realize its awesome potential." (93pts BH)

Dujac

4cm bc, nl, sdc, cuc, outstanding color and condition

"The 1978 Dujac Clos St. Denis was spectacular and immediately in the 98-point territory. It was rich, creamy and more than outstanding. JB noted 'mint and eucalyptus,' and I noted everything I would want in a mature Burgundy. The kaleidoscope of fruit flavors that's black, red and purple cascaded so easily down my hatch. Light, teasing complexities of exotic nuts, mushrooms and forest foreplay got me even more excited. What a wine." (98pts JK)

897 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1985*cuvée Vieilles Vignes, Ponsotlbsl, nl*

"(I have tasted this many times though the most recent magnum came directly from the domaine, indeed Laurent Ponsot opened it). A truly spectacular nose of earth, cassis, underbrush and explosive, sexy, utterly seductive black fruit aromas lead to dense, concentrated, sappy and entirely pure flavors of incredible complexity, depth and length. This is wonderfully impressive though even from this format I would be inclined to drink this sooner than later to preserve the fruit as there is just a hint of acidity poking through on the finish. That said, this remains a genuinely great wine of reference standard caliber. Multiple and consistent notes save for one magnum that displayed noticeable Brett." (95pts BH)

"The 1966 Guigal Côte-Rotie La Mouline, being the 99 point wine that it always was, gets a full tasting note accordingly here! This bottle took no prisoners and immediately asserted itself as the wine of the night. There was still great freshness here, with a touch of good stink at first, and a round and rich personality that showed amazing spice, flesh, and minerality. There were the usual and delicious bacon, violet and pepper flavors, but it was dominated by decadent Gyro meat. It was so aromatic, unfolding continuously, ending up snowcapped as well. Lord Byron Jr. admired its concentration, and others its leathery side." (99pts JK)

905 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1976*La Mouline, E. Guigalsdc, scc, outstanding color and condition"The 1976 is even thicker, richer, and more jammy than some of the other great vintages of La Mouline. In essence, it is something between a dry red table wine and a vintage port. Of course it is not sweet, but it is so concentrated; one simply does not see wines such as this except for 1947 Pétrus or 1947 Cheval Blanc. The wine has thrown a couple of ounces of sediment. It offers a heavenly bouquet of sweet, floral-infused black raspberry/cassis fruit. Extremely unctuous and viscous, with mind-boggling concentration, this wine has always been exceptional to drink, but it continues to defy the aging curve. I have drunk my last bottle, so I am dependent on friends for future tastings. This is one of the legendary wines of the century!"* (100pts)

924 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996*1x6 bottle ocb*

"Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. Utterly hallucinatory and one of the most amazing wines I've ever been fortunate enough to drink." (99+pts IWC)

"Perhaps potentially the best rose I've tasted. There is a finesse and crystal-clear elegance that makes me happy. This ros reminds me very much of the white '89, with its perfect balance, crackling acidity, and irresistible aromatic purity. A wonderful gift from the Royal Ballet's premier dancer, Brendan Collins. Best "Party Champagne" ever produced, according to the Millennium Tasting. Slightly less fascinating in a perhaps not perfectly stored case lately. The development is slightly too rapid in comparison with what I was expecting, and while the wine has indeed gained in strength and depth, it has lost too much in elegance." (97pts RJ)

Le Mesnil

1x6 bottle owc

"This bottle of the 1996 Blanc de Blancs Le Mesnil Brut was drinking superbly and represents the apotheosis of Blanc de Blancs, unfurling over the course of three hours with a stunningly complex bouquet of citrus oil, confit lemon, dried white flowers and oyster shell, with hints of praline and pastry cream becoming more pronounced as the wine opens up in the glass. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, defined by the incisive spine so typical of the vintage that, here, is cloaked in layers of crisp fleshy and chalky extract. The finish is long, penetrating and saline. Unfortunately, since the 1996 Salon has been traded so zealously over the last decade, finding a bottle that hasn't travelled too far can be a challenge. But from a perfectly stored bottle, this is just the beginning." (99pts)

THE AMAZING CELLAR OF WILF JAEGER

It wouldn't be a proper 200th Anniversary celebration without a significant selection from the amazing cellar of Wilf Jaeger! Wilf Jaeger is well known to major collectors worldwide, and his wines have been tasted and recorded in numerous articles and books including Decanter, Vintage Wine and my own. It warms our hearts to welcome him back to our auctions with a focus on Burgundy and Germany, as both are a part of Wilf's heart and soul.

Wilf's passion has expanded immensely to encompass many of the great wines of the world, and he now has frigid cellars in his homes in California, Washington and Burgundy. He has tasted many wines at the Domaines before purchasing each new vintage and currently owns three prime vineyards in Burgundy, including Romanee St Vivant. Wilf is extremely diligent about provenance and ensuring his wine is treated perfectly at all times. Wilf will never stop buying, so he constantly needs help in making room in his cellar to continue its growth and regeneration, much like a vineyard must have a vine replanted here and there to ensure its future greatness.

Burgundy is not just a wine; it is a journey, and a lifelong one at that. The names of Burgundy greats span the decades with 1919 Bouchard Volnay Fremiets, 1969 Vogue Amourees, 1985 Clos de Tart, several vintages of Leroy Musigny, a magnum (!!!) of 1969 Dujac Bonnes Mares, Jeroboams of Dujac Romanee St. Vivant, 1999 Rouget Cros Parantoux, 1996 Mayer Cros Parantoux, 1964 Drouhin Beze magnum, 2002 Meo-Camuzet Richebourg magnums, and 1949 Leroy Chambertin, Musigny and Richebourg. 1971 Rayas and Dom Perignon back to 1959 take us to a gold rush of two dozen lots of German Rieslings going back to 1921 and up to Trockenbeerenauslese, including several lots of Egon Muller. We wash it all down with several lots of Vintage Port, crusted by 1896 Dow and 1927 Taylor.

This is undoubtedly one of the world's greatest collections, and we are very honored to be able to offer these increasingly rare, fine wines to you. We are proud and privileged to present to you once again the Amazing Collection of Wilf Jaeger.

946 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 1985

Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau

"The 1985 Rousseau Gevrey-Chambertin 'Clos St. Jacques' elicited a 'welcome to the big leagues' by none other than Big Boy himself. The CSJ had an amazing nose that was fresh and full of vitamins, rose and wound citrusy fruit. There was also cherry, mint and Gorky found 'iodine;' its nose had almost everything. The palate was outstanding to match, full of vitamin and citrus flavors. Its rich, creamy, taut, spiny and vigorous personality was great, and while it is probably at its peak (where it should rest for a few years), it was absolutely beautiful and a quintessential example of a great Burgundy shedding its adolescence." 947 Volnay - Vintage 1919

Fremiets, Clos de la Rougeotte, Bouchard, Pere et Fils 4cm bc, lsl, late release,
 outstanding color and condition

My first reaction was to ask whether this might be too deeply colored because not withstanding this being the issue of pre-phylloxera vines, I suspect that at some point the wine had been refreshed. However, the important part is that it was almost certainly refreshed with fine pinot noir as the elegant, pure and highly nuanced nose was simply superb as well as pungently mineral. There was some sous-bois present though less than I would have anticipated. The equally refined middle weight flavors also brim with an intense minerality on the impressively long and driving finish whose only fault is a hint of backend dryness. Otherwise though, this was picture perfect Volnay and I quite enjoyed it. (92pts BH)

Les Amoureuses, Comte de Vogue

"A wonderfully spicy and expressive nose that is now largely if not completely secondary in character but with only traces of sous bois introduces round, rich, precise and still beautifully balanced middle weight flavors and while many '69s are cracking up today and displaying excess finishing acidity, here the acidity is still perfectly integrated on the long finish. 950 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 1985

Vieilles Vignes, D. Bachelet

I had tried this some years ago with very disappointing results and wondered in my tasting note if the bottle was representative as the flavors were slightly soupy with a distinct finishing spritz. Well I am happy to revise that opinion as the second bottle was night and day with an exceptionally pretty and pure nose of sous-bois, spice, earth and a sauvage character that extends to the delicious, complex, ripe and mouth coating flavors. There is excellent length and unlike many '85s at this point in their evolution, there is still firm though not hard structure with a hint of acidity. (92pts BH)

961 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1985*Dujaccuc"the 1985 Dujac Clos de la Roche took back the crown of Morey St. Denis where it rightfully belongs. This was better than each of the previous two wines. Is Clos de la Roche always better than Clos St. Denis? It was kaleidoscopic and almost psychedelic with its sweet fruits. Its spice cabinet was full, and the wine stimulated my senses while it played with my palate. I would do whatever it wanted lol. It had perfect balance and was in a perfect place, and so were we." 963 Échézeaux - Vintage 1976*Dujacbsl, lscl, cc, excellent colorSuperbly elegant, spicy black fruit nose that is still quite fresh and trimmed with secondary aromas. The flavors are certainly ripe but velvety, rich and mouth coating and this is one of the few wines that seems significantly better in fifth than in magnum. Whether the tannins will round out in the magnum remain to be seen but in fifth, this is simply beautiful. Drink now. Note: another bottle drunk in November, 2004 displayed the same lovely nose but the tannins were almost tough. Whether this can be attributed to storage or not is difficult to know as this was not from my cellar. Additionally, a 375 ml bottle opened at the domaine in 2005 was showing beautifully as well and still has plenty of life left if not room for improvement. (91pts BH)*

964 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2005*Dujac1x12 bottle ocb*

"From the former Thomas-Moillard holdings, the Dujac 2005 Romanée St.-Vivant offers a superb nose of purple plum, black raspberry, flowers, tar, game, clove and star anise. Soothing and sweetly-fruity like the Chambertin and with similarly integrated tannins here in a positively creamy, palpably thick matrix it truly stains the palate with the intricacy, clarity and indelibility of a master tattoo artist. This Pinot possesses a remarkably energetic sense of flavor interplay, elegance, and lift for one so viscous and densely-, almost digitally-packed with flavor information." (97pts)

This is an effortless, gracious Burgundy of the highest level. The 2009 character comes through in spades, but there is something about the Romanée St. Vivant that transcends vintage. Call it the utmost in classicism. The Romanée St. Vivant can be slow out of the gate, but once it starts blossoming in bottle it is truly majestic. 973 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2002

Cros Parantoux, E. Rouget

"The nose is classy, wonderfully elegant and utterly pure, revealing concentrated aromas of red and black pinot fruit aromas plus layers upon layers of spices, including sandalwood, anise, soy, hoisin and a strong note of minerality. The linear, almost severe flavors are concentrated as well with finer tannins than usual and decidedly higher acidity than the Echézeaux and the precision is almost painful. This is not a powerful wine, and certainly less powerful than the Ech but it's a good deal more elegant and this too possesses impeccable balance that should permit it to age for 2 decades, perhaps longer." "A highly complex nose offers up plenty of sous-bois, sauvage and Gevrey-style earth along with hints of smoked meat and truffle. There is an intense minerality to the rich and well-detailed middleweight flavors that initially displayed a bit of tannic dryness on the otherwise long finish. However, as the wine sat in the glass the tannins softened and while they did not disappear completely, with food they did not detract materially from the overall enjoyment. Tasted thrice with largely consistent notes as all of them merited between 92 and 93 points." (93pts BH)

"Ooh la la, ah oui oui. The 1999 Mayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux redefined the word sexy. Martine hailed it as a wild beast, and Gil observed, gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea. 'There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks, a chameleon, and spearmint. 'Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher' than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, caramel Crème brûlée, and beef and citrus tried to join the party. This wine was bordering on pornographic, and we were all... in awe :)." (98pts JK)

H. Mayer for Georges

"The 2000 Mayer had an explosive nose with great freshness and zip, full of garden and purple flowers with so much lilac. This was long, sexy and elegant. The 2000 was truly in a great spot, with nice earth flavors, too." (95pts JK)

6 bottles per lot $15000-20000

980 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1999

Hudlot-Noellat

"Impressively elegant and quite fine floral aromas of spice, earth, hoisin and anise. The medium weight flavors are intense, pure and moderately structured with evident breed and this finishes with excellent persistence." (93pts BH)

981 Chambertin - Vintage 1964

Clos de Bèze, J. Drouhin

vhs, bsl, scc, cuc, outstanding color

"Sweet, pure, elegant and remarkable spicy with rich, round, moderately full flavors that have not lost their focus or precision and a long, rich, velvety finish that has a bit of acid poking through now. The tannins are not fully resolved and give a certain edgy quality to the flavors though not to the point where the overall balance is seriously compromised." (91pts BH)

982 Griottes Chambertin - Vintage 1985*J. Drouhin3stl, 3stvl*

"While there are soft notes of sous-bois present, the overall aromatic impression is still one of vigor as well as excellent complexity to the perfumed and ever-so-mildly earthy nose. The delicious, round and solidly complex middle weight flavors are still impeccably well-balanced and offer excellent length. This is a classic Griotte, which is to say that it is more a wine of finesse and delicacy than power, size and weight. In sum, this is lovely juice that is drinking perfectly now and as long as the storage has been appropriate, a wine that should continue to do so for years to come." (92pts BH)

3 bottles per lot $2800-3800

983 Griottes Chambertin - Vintage 2001*J. Drouhin1x1 Jeroboam owc*

"This is fresher on the nose despite being riper with delicious, complex and ultra pure middle weight flavors of obvious breed and a certain lovely reserve. Exceptionally powerful for Griotte with stunning length and a textured, dusty finish but despite the power, this is a remarkably precise wine blessed with great underlying material. My only reservation is the absence of better than average complexity; if the wine develops it, then my score will most certainly be conservative because this is already one very impressive effort..." 984 Chambertin - Vintage 1949*Maison Leroy2sdc, excellent color and condition*

"Seamless and creamy, the 1949 Chambertin is another wine that is full of site character. Once again, the impression is of a wine of extraordinary balance and eternal class, where all of the elements are so artfully woven together that nothing in particular stands out." (94pts VM)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

985 Chambertin - Vintage 1959*Clos de Bèze, Maison Leroy2sdc, outstanding color and condition*

"Bigger, richer, more intense yet oddly enough, a bit clunky and four square compared to the satin and silk Gelin but this makes a real statement and this is no shrinking violet older burg. Still quite structured and while this is not going to improve, it may soften further if held in good storage conditions." (91pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $5000-7000

986 Musigny - Vintage 1949*Maison Leroysdc, outstanding color and condition*

"The highly expressive nose of sous bois, spice, dried flower and sandalwood displays just enough volatile acidity to detract mildly from the overall sense of elegance. Otherwise there is superb complexity to the rich but beautifully well-detailed and gorgeously textured middle weight flavors where the underlying minerality adds a sense of lift to the lingering finish where there is a hint of acid tang poking through, very probably from the VA." 989 Richebourg - Vintage 1937*Maison Leroyoutstanding color and condition*

"The 1937 Richebourg Grand Cru is exceptional, blossoming in the glass to reveal notes of rose petal, black tea, raspberries, espresso roast and smoked duck. On the palate, it's full-bodied, ampler and richer than the 1937 Romanée-Saint-Vivant that accompanied it, with firmer, chewier tannins, a deep core and a long, fragrant finish. With air, the wine's structure melts, becoming more integrated and suave in profile. It's a superb example of Richebourg." (96pts)

990 Richebourg - Vintage 1949*Maison Leroybsl, lscl, cc, excellent color*

"The 1949 Richebourg is the star in this flight. Rich and explosive, with tremendous follow through, the 1949 dazzles from the very first taste. The density, structure and power of Richebourg comes through loud and clear, even after so many years and decades. There is a real sense of authority and pure power here. What a win" (96pts VM)

"The 1959 Eitelsbacher Karthäuserhofberg TBA is a beautiful, elder statesman of a dessert wine which still possesses stunning freshness and delicacy of step for a wine of its age. The superb, complex bouquet jumps from the glass in a mélange of fresh apricots, oranges, salty soil tones, Crème caramel and a topnote of broken-in leather. On the palate the wine is medium-bodied and rather gently structured at this stage (not a surprising thing at nearly fifty years of age), but with lovely depth to the core and sufficient framing acidity to keep the wine fresh and focused all the way to the close of the long and lovely finish. I only had the pleasure to taste this beautiful wine once, back in 2004, and I have to thank a subscriber, Doug Barzelay, for being intrepid enough to bring it along to a dinner table populated almost exclusively with Burgundy-only drinkers. It was a brilliant closer to that fine evening." (94pts JG)

I do not intend to touch another bottle before 2005 - it is still that youthful and closed. It offers a good education in what great young wine is all about. The beautiful ruby/purple color exhibits no signs of age. The sweet nose of cassis fruit, lead pencil, flowers, and minerals is followed by a full-bodied, opulent wine with a boatload of tannin. This huge, massive yet well-delineated and focused wine should prove to be uncommonly long-lived." (94pts)

1030 Taylor Fladgate Vintage Port - Vintage 1927*lbsl*

The 1927 Taylor's Vintage Port has a similar appearance to the 1924, yet the aromatics develop greater intensity with notes of sandalwood, ginger, cigar box, a hint of Clementine and a nutty tincture that becomes more pronounced, the longer it remains in the glass. The palate is full-bodied with more tannic structure than the 1924. It is exquisitely defined with notes of Manuka honey, liquorice, orange peel, fig and raisin. It shares the beguiling and sensual nature of the 1924 and it is slightly unctuous towards the finish. Endowed with immense length, this Taylor's Port lives up to its lofty reputation. Tasted in the Factory House in Porto for "Taylor's - The Story of a Classic Port House" book. (96pts VM)

THE SILVER FOX STRIKES BACK: CHAMPAGNE DREAMS

Just when you think the coast is clear, the Silver Fox returns with a swiftness, and this time it is all Champagne, and more than fantastic. This is one of the greatest collections of Champagne we have ever seen (no disrespect to the greatest collector of Champagne of all-time, of course). There is no better way to celebrate our 200th Anniversary than with any lot of bubbly in the next near 100 lots! We start with rarest Bollinger Francaises Vieilles Vignes back to 1970, 1990 Seloise, 1976 Clos des Goisses magnums, 1990 Winston Churchill and 1961 Veuve Clicquot magnums to wet your whistle. There are seventeen lots of Dom Perignon going back to 1962 with magnums of rarest Rose spanning 1971 to 1996. How about ten lots of Salon stretching over 1959 to 1995! If you are not out of breath yet, the selection of Krug will take care of that. There are thirty spectacular lots magnums of Collection back to 1961, and 1979 Clos du Mesnil in bottle and 1985 in magnum (both first vintages of each format) as well as "regular" bottles covering 1966 to 1996. Holy moly! The Silver Fox is extremely meticulous about transportation and storage of all the wines he has acquired. His three cellars are kept at constant 55°F and have at least double redundancy refrigeration and power supply in case of any power failure. This is the best of the best, featuring rarely seen older vintages!

"Yeast, vitaminy and pungent in both its aromas and flavors, it also had secondary flavors of white chocolate and was yet again another spectacular champagne from the most spectacular collection of champagne in the world. "The 1980 Bollinger Vieilles Vignes Francaises was even more special given its vintage. Have I even ever had a Champagne from 1980? I would have to take the fifth, as it is quite possible, but I honestly don't remember. Aromas of white cola were balanced by grilled asparagus, in a good way (I love grilled asparagus!) Orange blossom and cinnamon were also present in this undeclared vintage. Fireplace flavors kept my soul warm in this soft and smooth bubbly. Not surprisingly, it gained in the glass and became more rugged and stronger" (95pts JK)

This surreal, beautiful Champagne reveals striking purity and clarity in its suggestions of honey, roasted nuts and sweet fruit in a style that recalls a mature grand cru Burgundy at its finest. The aromas and flavors are at once mature yet fresh, very much on the "grey" side of the spectrum Chef de Caves Richard Geoffroy likes to talk about. Simply put, readers who can find and afford this sensual wine should not hesitate. It is a masterpiece." (97pts)*

Rose

1x6 bottle ocb; 1nl, 1x3 magnum ocb

"Dom Pérignon's 1996 Rosé is one of my all-time favorite Champagnes, but I have never tasted it this way, nor has anyone else in the room. Three bottles of the 1996 Rosé are lined up; a standard fifth, magnum and jeroboam. We are all quite curious to taste the three wines, as they were all released at different times. It is quite common for Champagne houses to vary the level of dosage according to the bottle size and release date, but DP is notoriously tight-lipped on such matters, so it is impossible to know for sure. The jeroboam is opened first. It is tight as a drum. Over the course of several hours, the wine opens up beautifully and by the end of the dinner it is clearly the most intriguing and complete of the three. I wish I owned more of these, but this is the last. The magnum is great right out of the gate. I adore the magnum format for all wines, but Champagne in particular. This is a fabulous showing. The straight fifth is also surprisingly closed at the outset, but then blossoms quickly. At the first tasting, it is the most impressive of the three bottles but as time passes there is much less development here than in the big bottles. What a fascinating comparative tasting (Jeroboam Tasted)." (98+pts VM)

"Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. "The 1.87-hectare Clos du Mesnil vineyard, in the heart of the village, is a location that sums up all that Le Mesnil's Champagne stands for. In Krug's hands this is the essence of Chardonnay. The '83 has a little way to go before it is fully mature: the color has a clear green gleam, the nose is young, finely balanced, and flowery, with lily of the valley, freesia, and white lilies clearly discernible. There is also a complex, creamy side filled with toasty aromas, young fruit, and damp wool. The taste is long and dry, with massive elegance and feminine frivolity." (93-96pts RJ)

MONEY IN THE BANK: LEROY AND D'AUVENAY DEPOSITS

This cellar is simply mint like money in the bank, but the currency is fine and rare wine worth more than its weight in gold thanks to the Queen of Burgundy. It is a pleasure to welcome back this distinguished American collector who has been collecting multiple cases of Bordeaux “en primeur” and Burgundy upon release for decades. This spinetingling selection of seventy lots from his magnificent collection is exclusively Burgundy focusing on the two and only, Leroy and d’Auvénay. If you have been collecting these two Domaines lately, it is indeed, money in the bank! Super rare D’Auvénay gets the first call with fourteen lots highlighted by several lots of Mazis Chambertin and Chevalier Montrachet later. Leroy unfurls a spectacular array of thirty lots highlighted by 1996s from Chambertin, Clos de la Roche, Latricieres, Allots, Boudots, Richebourg, Romanée St. Vivant and Beaux Monts. It is an honor and privilege to offer you wines from this phenomenal collection. All wines removed from professional storage.

1128 Chambertin - Vintage 1996

A. Rousseau

1ltl, 2sdc

“As great as so many of the wines that we had already tasted on this magical evening, this next flight of reds absolutely stole the show. It began with a spectacular bottle courtesy of Big Mike. The first thing I wrote was, WOW. The Rousseau was meaty, intense and DEEP; it was full of rose, iron, crushed red fruits, vitamins, tannins, alcohol, acidity, brick, iron, wildfire it was game over. As Eli decreed, that s it. The palate was rich, hearty and incredible with its rose, oil, game and vitamin flavors. This was wine was flat out incredible.” (97pts JK)

12 bottles per lot $26000-35000

1129 Chambertin - Vintage 1996

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

4sdc, 1x12 bottle ocb

“Intoxicating aromas of raspberry, smoked meat, underbrush and oak char, plus an almost exotic sweetness. Sweet, pure fruit began a bit reticent but exploded with aeration to show great thrust and pinot tang. Despite its substantial volume, this wine’s fresh berry flavors are sharply delineated. Sweetly oaky in the mouth and on the suavely tannic, very long finish. Finishing note of cinnamon.” (94pts IWC)

12 bottles per lot $22000-30000

1130 Gevrey Chambertin - Vintage 1996

Clos St. Jacques, A. Rousseau

2nl

“I have long considered the 1996 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint-Jacques from Armand Rousseau to be a brilliant wine, though it is a few years since we last met. Here, it had a broody and surprisingly youthful bouquet: dark berry fruit, juniper berries, briary and sous-bois aromas. Captivating...but serious! The palate is medium-bodied with that impressive fruit concentration although it has clearly mellowed in recent years. There remains a firmness and an obduracy, yet also wondrous harmony and composure, almost effortless in nature as it gently fans out on the finish. As I said before, this has a long future. Tasted November 2016.” (96pts)

6 bottles per lot $5000-7000

1131 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1999

Comte de Vogue

1x6 bottle owc

“Massive notes of blueberry and blackberry jam yet there is a certain austerity to the nose followed by flavors that are huge, firm, reserved and extremely dense and while there is a solid underpinning of tannin, they are wrapped in sappy velvet. The length is just flat out stunning and very powerful.” (93pts BH)

12 bottles per lot $4500-6000

1132 Musigny - Vintage 1990

Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue

1v1w1s1

“The Bordeaux-like, saturated dense ruby/purple color is followed by a tight-fisted nose and flavors of black fruits, underbrush, minerals, smoke, and new oak... This loaded effort should prove to be one of the longest-lived red Burgundies made in the last twenty years.” (96pts)

1133 Musigny - Vintage 1996*Vieilles Vignes, Comte de Vogue*

2x6 bottle owc's

"This bright, dark ruby-colored wine is exceptional. Its enticing nose reveals extraordinarily refined aromas of a myriad of flowers soaked in cherries, blueberries and traces of sweet mocha. This oily-textured, full-bodied, perfectly harmonious, and compellingly delineated wine could not be any more elegant. It possesses awesome depth, concentration, and purity in its violet and cherry cream pie-flavored personality. Moreover, its formidably long finish displays a strong yet satiny backbone." (94-97pts)

1138 Mazis Chambertin - Vintage 1996*D'Auvenay (Leroy)*

1ssos

"We started with an unbelievably good 1996 D'Auvenay (Leroy) Mazis-Chambertin. D'Auvenay is an estate-owned property owned and made by Leroy. It had a big nose, with huge amounts of rusty, deep fruit, plum and cassis to be exact, with minerals and a hint of chocolate. Only 870 bottles of this wine were made. Welcome to Burgundy, the microscopic labyrinth to greatness. There was also a touch of gas and popcorn to its nose, but it did not bother me. The wine had rich, mind-boggling concentration and was mouth coating, staining and gripping, but it still had the balance of a world class Burgundy. I could not stop drinking it. This secondary soy/hoisin and rice vinegar complexity emerged with time." (96pts JK)

1139 Mazis Chambertin - Vintage 1997*D'Auvenay (Leroy)*

"...is forward, opulent, and luxuriant. Furthermore, this dark, almost black-colored effort it is red fruit-dominated. It displays jammy and waxy cherry fruit scents. Its concentrated, rich, deep, and intensely sweet character is crammed with red fruits galore. This velvety-textured wine's amazingly long finish reveals superbly ripe, supple tannins. An extraordinary effort in any vintage, in this irregular one, it stands as a testimony to Leroy's immense talents and dedication." (95pts)

"Tasted blind in Hong Kong, the Romanée-Saint-Vivant 1996 from Domaine Leroy was actually a last minute substitute donated by a generous guest following a string of corked wines. It is an absolutely stunning wine that transfixed everyone before we knew its identity (and here, I must confess that I suggested it was Domaine de la Romanée-Conti.) It's actually better than that. It has a heavenly bouquet of black cherries, cold limestone and wilted flower petals that you could just sit back and inhale all day. "This was the first time that I had tasted the 1995 Bonnes Mares Grand Cru from Christophe Roumier. It is said that he did nothing wrong in this vintage and this splendid bottle attests to that (though another bottle was slightly corked). It has a bouquet that clearly evinces Grand Cru quality: a complex, nuanced aromatic profile of red cherries, blueberry, cold stone and iris, all delivered with quite brilliant delineation. The palate does not disappoint. It has exquisite poise, supremely fine tannin and delivers that opulence and lusciousness you expect from Bonnes-Mares. The only fault is that you will finish your glass too quickly and the current market value. Those with bottles in their cellar ... I am jealous. Tasted September 2016." (97pts)

Domaine Leflaive
10lbsl, 1x12 bottle ocb
"While I entertained higher expectations of the 1989, it was in fact the 1990 Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru that emerged as the wine of the tasting, blossoming in the glass with a complex bouquet of confit lemon, orange rind, dried white flowers, pastry cream, warm bread and vanilla pod. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, satiny textured and enveloping, with broad shoulders, a lively spine of acidity and superb amplitude and concentration, concluding with a long, penetrating finish. Powerful and strikingly complete, this is a Chevalier that more than nods to Montrachet in style. But by the numbers alone, it was cropped at 57 hectoliters per hectare and finished up with 14.1% alcohol and pH 3.23. This is by some margin the finest bottle of Leflaive's 1990 Chevalier-Montrachet that I've encountered."(98pts)

"...wonderfully fresh and pure nose that is only just beginning to reveal traces of secondary development introduces very finely detailed and mineral-inflected middle weight flavors that possess good mid-palate fat, excellent complexity and still plenty of finishing drive on the exceptionally long backend. While this is nearing its peak, for my tastes, I would advise holding this for another 2 to 4 years and then drinking over the next decade. Like most '96s, this isn't dense but neither is it dilute and the balance is impeccable, which will permit the '96 Combettes to live and very long life."(92pts BH)

"The 1985 Unico Reserva is already revealing considerable complexity and low acid, plump, round, rich flavors. There is no amber to be found in the wine's deep ruby/purple color. The nose offers tobacco, smoke, tar, and gobs of sweet black cherry fruit aromas. Full-bodied, with a layered, nuanced character, high glycerin (hence the sweetness in the flavors), and a lush, round, generously-endowed finish, this is a substantial as well as elegant, savory style of Unico Reserva that can be drunk now and over the next 15+ years." Jean-Marc

DOMAINE ROULOT

Jean-Marc Roulot, has been in charge of the Domaine since 1989, when he temporarily dropped his movie career to pursue a full-time job at the Domaine, seven years after the death of his father, Guy Roulot. It was Guy who really gave the Domaine its actual form. Jean-Marc is the sixth generation of the Roulot family estate located in Meursault, where it has been based since at least the 19th century when Hugues Roulot married Marguerite Nudant in 1827, which is the oldest trace of the Roulot in Meursault. Since then, the Roulots have always been winemakers and distillers!

The Domaine covers fifteen hectares, mostly in Meursault. In the vineyard as well in the cellar, the philosophy of the Domaine is to personalize each single cuvée. Jean-Marc is a purist and a perfectionist who strives, in every vintage, to create the perfect expression of the chalky and mineral-laden soils of Meursault in his wines. In the 60's, his father Guy started to vinify separately his different cuvées of Meursault Village. This was reserved, at the time, for the Premier Crus Cuvées. By doing that, Guy Roulot opened new perspectives and started what now remains the philosophy of the Domaine, respecting the diversity of Burgundian soils regardless of Cru.

In 2014, Jean-Marc started an exciting “micro” Negoce with very tiny quantities of wines from new appellations that the Domaine did not already have in his portfolio. It is, in essence, a separate brand where the grapes are purchased. The goal of this activity is to explore new terroirs and continue the tradition of the family. For these Negoce wines, Roulot buys the grapes after choosing the harvest time, and if possible harvests with his own team. We have both brands on offer here, including rare 2014s including Chevalier Montrachet (78 bottles made!) and magnums of Corton Charlemagne from the Negoce, as well as Charmes, Clos des Boucheres and Perrieres from the Domaine!

DOMAINE PIERRE-YVES COLIN-MOREY

Colin-Morey, as the name implies, is the merger of two of the great White Burgundy families only fifteen years ago. Pierre-Yves Colin was winemaker at his famous father's Domaine, Marc Colin, for ten years before joining with Caroline Morey, daughter of Jean-Marc Morey, to start their own Domaine. This Burgundy power couple has rapidly become superstars in Burgundy, rendering crystal clear expressions of great terroirs like Batard Montrachet and elevating lesser known ones like St. Aubin to new heights. They somehow manage to get better and better with each vintage, and prices have gone up accordingly and deservedly. They use gravity feed, larger demi-mud barrels and eschew the use of batonnage, making each one of their bottlings a clear expression of its terroir and a study in mineral-driven Chardonnay. Across the appellations, the wines have beautiful tension of fruit, minerality and structure. They are not only one of the top winemakers in Chassagne, this is one of top Domaines in the world. We welcome five lots from their Domaine for our Anniversary auction across their appellations including magnums and Jeroboams!

EGON MULLER

Among the noble wines of Germany, there is Egon Muller, and then there is everyone else. This is true in terms of both quality and price as his Trockenbeerenauslesen continually set records on the auction block both in Germany and internationally. This great estate dates to 1797, when Jean-Jacques Koch acquired the legendary Scharzhof vineyards from the French Republic. His daughter married Felix Müller, and the winery has remained in the same family ownership ever since. The owner and driving force is now Egon Müller IV, who has traveled extensively all around the world to promote his wines while executing sheer perfection in the vineyards. Egon Muller is exclusively Riesling and dedicated to traditional bottlings of Kabinetts and Spatleses to the sweet Pradikat wines, being particularly renowned for their nobly sweet Ausleses, Beerenausleses and Trockenbeerenausleses which mature effortlessly with tremendous complexity for many, many decades. It is impossible to mention Egon Muller without Scharzhofberger, and Scharzhofberger without saying Egon Muller in the same breath. Scharzhofberger is the grandest of Grand Cru vineyards in Germany with ideal exposure and grey slate soils. This vineyard has been famous for exceptional wines since Roman times, and thankfully Egon Muller owns nearly a third in the prime parcels. These have deservedly been the most sought-after wines in all of Germany for many years and are taut and racy, with dazzling fruit, minerality and endless finishes. We are extremely honored to have five lots direct from Egon Muller's cellar including an extremely rare bottle of 1975 Trockenbeerenausle in pristine condition! Large formats are uncommon in Germany, but we are fortunate to have a double magnum of 2009 Spatlese as well as magnums of 1988 Auslese and 2005 Gold Capsule Auslese!

(94pts VM)*

1212 Riesling Auslese - Vintage 2005*Scharzhofberger, Gold Capsule, E. Muller1x1 magnum ocb"Rich golden yellow. Intense aromas of dried apricot, baked apple and nut oil wafting over the spicy botrytis. Impressively unctuous tropical fruit texture, with the weight of botrytis borne by fine underlying minerality. Deep, bright and impressively long, with complex finishing spices. One of the finest ausleses of the vintage." (97pts VM)*

1 magnum per lot $2400-3200

1213 Riesling Auslese - Vintage 1988*Scharzhofberger, E. Muller1x1 magnum ocb"The 1988 vintage is one of my absolute favorites for current drinking, as the wines have aged beautifully and the vast majority of the higher Prädikat level bottlings are just now beginning to reach their apogees of drinkability. The AP #27 Auslese was not an auction bottling in 1988, and this is a brilliant example of the vintage, but one I would be inclined to give another few years in the cellar to allow it to fully peak. The bouquet offers up a beautiful mélange of lime zest, orange, a great base of complex, slate-derived soil tones, candied violets, honeycomb and gentle, blossoming notes of petrol. On the palate the wine is medium-full, bright and tensile, with a lovely core of fruit, great purity and focus and stunning length and grip on the utterly complete finish. A great bottle of wine with decades and decades of life ahead of it." (95pts JG)*

1 magnum per lot $1600-2400

1214 Riesling Trockenbeerenauslese - Vintage 1975*Scharzhofberger, E. Mulleroutstanding color and condition"The 1975 is refulgent deep amber in color with a red-dish/brick rim. I cannot recall Rieslings of this age so limpid in the glass. The bouquet wraps itself around your senses and renders you helpless by its charm: copious red plum, hoisin, honey, fig jam and hints of quince, all delivered with breath-taking delineation. The palate redefines the notion of balance and precision, the payload of residual sugar effortlessly offset by its razor-sharp acidity that lends it paradoxical weightlessness and drinkability. The aromatics translate across onto the palate, especially the fig and quince, wrapped up in a viscous rather than unctuous texture and an extraordinarily long finish that you can feel 60 seconds after the wine has departed. It might well be the greatest Riesling that I have ever consumed. It is a mind-boggling 44-year old TBA at the peak of its powers; a wine that floored an audience blissfully unaware of its value, but completely aware of its astonishing quality." (100pts VM)*

DOMAINE HUET

Domaine Huet represents the pinnacle of Chenin Blanc in the heart of the Vouvray appellation in the Loire Valley. Revered as a pioneer of biodynamic farming in France since 1988, the Domaine has focused on a respect for the soil and the environment in order to produce pure wines that epitomize each unique terroir. Domaine Huet is composed of three historical vineyards: Le Haut-Lieu, purchased at the outset of the estate in 1928; Le Mont, a 9 hectare vineyard situated on pebbly flint and deep green clay soils that offer great intensity and minerality; and Clos du Bourg, one of the oldest Grand Cru parcels in all of France (dating back to the eighth century)! The wines of Huet, both the dry and the exquisite sweet, have an incredible propensity to age, and we are fortunate to offer vintages back to 1976. It is exceedingly rare to find and taste wines from non-grafted rootstock, yet Huet has provided us with a vertical of wines from their 0.20ha Le Haut-Lieu Franc de Pied micro-parcel. With several exceptional verticals and many rare magnums, we are excited to feature the wines of Domaine Huet at our Bicentennial Auction!

DOMAINE JOSEPH DROUHIN

The wines of Drouhin, a great Domaine as well as a Negociant, have long rendered a tremendous range of wines of exceptional quality. Their extensive cellars sprawl underneath the town of Beaune. Joseph Drouhin founded the Négociant company which bears his name in 1880. His son Maurice took over in 1918, buying the first vineyards including the famous Beaune Clos des Mouches. Maurice Drouhin sat on the INAO committee and was deputy administrator of the Hospices de Beaune, including during the troubled period of World War II. His successor was his nephew Robert Jeausset-Drouhin, who took charge in 1957. Robert is still the patriarch while his children Frédéric (managing director), Laurent (export markets), Philippe (vineyards) and Véronique (oenology and Domaine Drouhin Oregon) run the business. The vineyards are managed biodynamically and since the 2009 vintage have ECOCERT organic certification. The Drouhins purchase their own wood which is then air-dried for three years before being turned into barrels by the François cooperage. We treasure our friendship with the Drouhin family, and it is an honor to offer Jeroboams of Clos de la Mouches and Marquis de Laguiche, a vertical of Vosne Romanee Petits Monts (six barrels ideally situated between Reignots and Cros Parantoux!) and three vintages of rare Musigny in magnum!

MAISON LOUIS JADOT

The winemaking house of Jadot was founded in 1859 by Louis Henry Denis Jadot, but their first vineyard and special pride, Clos des Ursules, was purchased in 1826. Louis Jadot now encompasses 225 hectares, 123 of which are in the Côte d'Or. The storied plots of Jadot are numerous, from the Beaune Clos des Ursules to the Chevalier Montrachet Les Demoiselles to the Corton Clos des Cortons, Faiveley. The Domaine was managed for 42 years by legendary winemaker Jacques Lardière, a true Burgundian gentleman who worked tirelessly to express the unique terroirs owned by Jadot. Though considered a giant amongst the small farmers of Burgundy, the wines of Jadot are by no means without nuance; they are without artifice and a perfect expression of their terroirs. It is with great gratitude that we offer direct from the Domaine exciting verticals of Corton Charlemagne and Chambertin Clos de Beze as well as Jeroboams of 2012 Chevalier Demoiselles, 2005 Clos des Ursules and 1990 Clos St. Jacques!

DOMAINE FAIVELEY

For nearly two hundred years, Faiveley has been an iconic name in Burgundy, sourcing and producing wines from the greatest vineyards throughout the Côte d'Or. Founded in 1825 by Pierre Faiveley, his son Joseph gave his name to the family business, to be followed by the first François. Then Georges took the helm who was instrumental in founding the Chevaliers du Tastevin. Guy, who developed the business in the Côte Chalonnaise, was followed by the second François who has now given the reigns to Erwan, who has taken the business to new heights. Through the generations, the family has acquired their own vineyards while also working as a Négociant; today, the estate commands over 130 hectares, with 12 Grand Crus and 25 Premier Crus, six of which are Monopoles! Erwan, along with his sister Eve who joined the Domaine in 2014, has brought a new sense of dynamism to the business, investing in renovations for the Mercurey winery and the vinification facilities in Nuits-Saint-Georges. Domaine Faiveley has always been committed to producing fine wines that purely reflect their terroir without great embellishment. We are very thankful to have five lots from Faiveley including a vertical of Batard Montrachet in magnum, Clos des Cortons from 2005 to 2016 and a horizontal case of all twelve of their Grand Crus from the 2015 vintage. And their rarest offering of which there is a barrel or two every year, the Musigny, is here both in bottle and magnum—a real treasure!

MARQUIS D'ANGERVILLE

The history of Volnay runs deep throughout the roots of Burgundy as during the Middle Ages, the wines of Volnay were served at the tables of the Dukes of Burgundy and the Kings of France. Marquis D'Angerville, Volnay's greatest producer, is also deeply rooted in this history. Originally known as the Domaine du Clos des Ducs, its most famous vineyard, this special property was owned by the famous Dukes of Burgundy. The family origin of ownership starts at the beginning of the 19th century, when the Baron du Mesnil (Guillaume d'Angerville's ancestor) acquired the Clos des Ducs with other vineyards in Caillerets, Taillepieds and Champans. Upon the death of the Baron, his son Eugene du Mesnil became the owner. Upon his subsequent death in 1888, he bequeathed it to his grandnephew, the Marquis d'Angerville, who is the grandfather of the current owner, Guillaume d'Angerville. The Marquis d'Angerville set the stages for it to become one of the most important Domaines in Burgundy. He replanted most of the Domaine after the Phylloxera crisis. He was also an ardent defender of authentic wines that led him to fight against the Négociant houses who had the habit of mixing different kinds of wines in one single blend. This led the Marquis d'Angerville to stop selling his wines to the Négociants and start bottling at the Domaine. His constant search for quality and authenticity pushed him to be one of the first to work and finally create the INAO (National Institute of Controlled Origins), which defines and regulates the appellations. In essence, the Marquis' work touched every producer in France today. When the Marquis died, his son Jacques took over in 1952. Jacques d'Angerville was a key figure in elevating the reputation of the Domaine. After a very successful career in banking, Guillaume d'Angerville succeeded his father in 2003 and is continuing the proud tradition of his father and grandfather. It is an honor to offer lots from Domaine Marquis d'Angerville!

DOMAINE CLERGET

Domaine Yvon Clerget has roots the 13th century when the Clerget family settled in the village of Volnay. The written record was sparse until 1936, when they acquired the Clos du Verseuil Premier Cru Monopole in Volnay. Yvon Clerget took the helm in 1983, but when he retired in 2009 his son Thibaud was too young to take over. When Thibaud completed his studies and internship under Hudelot-Noellat and Drouhin, he auspiciously began bottling again with the lauded 2015 vintage at the age of only twenty-four. Working six hectares of white and red vines in Volnay, Pommard, Meursault, Chassagne and the lone Grand Cru, Clos Vougeot, Thibaud has garnered much success in his short career as a vigneron. From his monopole Volnay 1er Clos du Verseuil, the vines average 45 years and only four Jeroboams were produced for the 2015 vintage, and e're honored to have one! Antonio Galloni sums it up well, "The reborn Domaine Y. Clerget could very well turn out to be one of the great recent success stories in Burgundy...readers should do whatever they can to taste these wines. Thibaut Clerget is just 28 and appears to have a brilliant career in front of him. Bravo!" Thibaud makes very few large formats and we are delighted that he has shared seven Jeroboams to celebrate our Anniversary and the rebirth of his family's Domaine! The maximum amount of any Jero made here is four, with only one Jero made of the 2017 Champans and Mitans, and we have them both!

"The 2015 Volnay 1er Cru Clos du Verseuil is one of the insiders' picks in the range this year; opening in the glass to reveal notes of red fruit, raw cocoa, loamy soil and a light application of new wood. On the palate, it's sappy, medium to full-bodied and fine-grained, with nice energy that carries through the tense, youthfully chewy finish. This seems to be shutting down but looks to have a good future."(92+pts)

The 2017 Volnay Les Mitans 1er Cru is a new wine in the range. Tightly wound and laced with mineral tones, the Mitans has a core of energy that really differentiates it in the lineup. Dark red fruit, lavender, rose petal, wild flowers, mint and spice emerge in the glass, but only with great reluctance. A Burgundy of understatement and power, the 2017 needs time to fully come together, but it is quite promising.(88-91pts VH)

Bright floral notes add lift to a core of finely-sculpted red cherry/plum fruit. The 2017 is an impressive wine in the making.(92-95pts VM)

DOMAINE CLOS DE LA CHAPELLE

Domaine Clos de la Chapelle is a relatively new name for an existing Domaine that has long been producing esteemed wines. Burgundy connoisseur and collector Mark O'Connell purchased the Louis Boillot estate in Volnay in 2010 and has subsequently added additional vineyard purchases to form one of the top, boutique Domaines in the Côte de Beaune. Covering twelve appellations over four hectares, the Domaine's holdings are exclusively Premier Cru and Grand Cru and are all certified organic. Mark and his team are returning these vines to their former glory! It is truly a labor of love, and the wines are fantastic accordingly. Though a new Domaine, the wines of the Clos de la Chapelle have long been legendary as the famous Louis Pasteur was quoted as saying, "Please send me fifty bottles of the 1858 Volnay Clos de la Chapelle!" These are traditionally made wines that exude elegance and minerality over extraction and brawn. The production is minuscule, about 1200 cases spread across a dozen wines, so the wines are destined to become even more collectible. We are thrilled to have specially packaged magnum verticals in original wood cases of their namesake monopole, Corton Charlemagne, and Volnay Taillepieds, as well as rare Methuselahs from their Grand Cru Corton vineyards!

DOMAINE HENRI GOUGES

The Domaine of Henri Gouges is located in Nuits-Saint-Georges as are all fourteen plus hectares of their cherished vineyards, considered to be at the pinnacle of the appellation for nearly a century. Henri Gouges assembled most of the parcels that constitute the Domaine in the 1920's. He was one of the pioneers of estate bottling in 1929, and he started to sell his wines in the United States right after the end of Prohibition. His sons, Marcel and Michel, took over in 1967 and purchased more vineyards to reach the actual size of the current Domaine. They were followed in 1985 by the third generation with Pierre and Christian who modernized the winemaking techniques, and now the Domaine is under the supervision of Gregory and Antoine, still assisted by Christian. Each generation has developed the family know-how, rooted in the tradition of their terroir. They have continued to create legendary wines by working the vineyards with love and passion, thoroughly selecting the grapes and controlling their yields. Henri Gouges' personal motto has become the Domaine's: "It is in the vineyards that grow the greatest wines." We are very honored to welcome Domaine Henri Gouges to our Anniversary celebration with six lots including their rare white wines, large formats crowned by an extremely rare Jeroboam of 2014 Les St. Georges. We are extremely lucky to have a rare bottle of 1949 Les St. Georges that has never left the Domaine. DOMAINE HENRI BOILLOT

Based in Meursault, Domaine Henri Boillot is strategically situated between the two villages of Puligny Montrachet for the whites and Volnay for the reds. It has ascended over the last decade to be one of the top producers for both red and white wines from Côte de Beaune's most prestigious appellations. The estate was named Domaine Jean Boillot until 2005, but that was changed when Henri Boillot bought out his siblings. Since this transition, Henri has been on a hot streak garnering accolades and followers far and wide. Henri believes in extreme rigor and attention to detail in both the vineyards and winery. Heavy pruning and late harvest render deep wines with splendid concentration and staying power. The Domaine Henri Boillot consists of fourteen hectares evenly split between Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. One of their most profound vineyards is the four-hectare Monopole of Clos de la Mouchere in Puligny-Montrachet with sixty-year-old vines, of which we are delighted to have two lots in this auction. They are particularly known for their Volnays as well, especially Caillerets from fifty-plus year-old vines which feature heavily in another pair of lots direct from this rising Domaine. These wines should be in your cellar if they aren't already!

DOMAINE DUROCHE

One of the most exciting developments in Gevrey Chambertin has been the emergence of young winemaker Pierre Duroché. The first bottling at the Domaine was in 1933. Pierre has slowly taken over from his father Gilles, quietly and steadfastly producing some of the most exceptional wines in Gevrey. The fifth generation in his family's lineage of winemakers, Pierre is a force with which to be reckoned. These structured and delicious wines have great potential. He eschews the modernist approach to new oak in order to make delicate and detailed wines throughout the Domaine's 8.25 hectares. Their holdings include small parcels of Premier Crus Estournelles St. Jacques and Champeaux, 1.2 hectares of Lavaux St. Jacques, plus small holdings of the Grand Crus Charmes Chambertin, Griotte Chambertin, Latricères Chambertin and Chambertin Clos de Bèze. It is a pleasure to offer an impressive selection of young Gevrey from this rising star crested by Jeroboams of Lavaux St. Jacques and a magnum of Griottes Chambertin, his rarest cuvee and one of the smallest production wines in all of Burgundy! Only 86 liters are bottled in the best years (that's ten cases!). Only one barrel was made of Latricieres; we think you get the idea – oh, and the Clos de Beze vines were planted in 1920! Welcome to Chambertin's next big thing, the wines of Pierre Duroche!

DOMAINE HUDELLOT-NOELLAT

Hudelot-Noellat is one of the great Domaines of Burgundy, having made excellent wines for decades from very old vines in three famous Grand Crus. Hudelot is a very old Burgundian family whose ancestors have been rooted in Chambolle Musigny before the French Revolution. The modern Domaine was created in 1964 by Alain Hudelot and grew in 1978, when Alain married Odile Noellat, granddaughter of Charles Noellat. She also brought family vineyards. Hudelot-Noellat expanded again in 1988 when Domaine Noellat was divided in three: Lalou Bize-Leroy bought half of those vineyards with the remainder divided between Hudelot-Noellat and Jean-Jacques Confuron. In 2008, Alain Hudelot stepped down when his grandson, Charles van Canneyt, finished his formal wine studies in Dijon and took over the Domaine. Charles has taken Hudelot-Noellat to perhaps its greatest heights, re-establishing his longstanding family's great name amongst the elite of Burgundy. The Romanée St. Vivant comes from vines planted in 1920, while their Richebourg was planted in 1950, and those vines sit next to those of DRC. Not a bad neighborhood to be in! The Clos de Vougeot hails from two old vine plots, also planted in 1950, both near the Chateau itself, in the highest and most sought-after portion of the vineyard. It is an honor to have magnums and Jeroboams of their three Grand Crus as well as the coveted Vosne Romanée Les Malconsorts!

1264 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 2015*Les Malconsorts, Hudelot-Noellat1x1 Jeroboam ocb*

"The superb 2015 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts offers up a bouquet that, at this youthful stage, shares aromas of cassis, cherry, smoked duck and orange rind with Hudelot-Noëllat's Suchots, with the addition of top-notes of dried flowers and spice. On the palate, however, the wine is more layered and powerful, with a lavish core of fruit, an ample chassis of ripe tannin, and a long, dramatic finish."(94pts)

1266 Richebourg - Vintage 2015*Hudelot-Noellat1x1 magnum owc*

"The 2015 Richebourg Grand Cru is a prodigious wine in the making, opening in the glass with a deep bouquet of black raspberry, cherry, licorice, orange rind, incense and strawberry, subtly framed by new oak. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, multidimensional and complete, its flavors superbly concentrated and pure, its acids succulent and its tannins velvety and ample. More expansive than the Romanée Saint-Vivant, this Richebourg is also more backward and appears to possess the greater potential. "When I first arrived at the domaine, I tended to prefer the Romanée Saint-Vivant," confided winemaker Charles Van Canneyt, "but as my experience with the wines old and young grew, I have come to almost invariably favor the Richebourg."(96+pts)

1267 Richebourg - Vintage 2016*Hudelot-Noellat1x1 Jeroboam owc*

"The 2016 Richebourg Grand Cru has a very harmonious bouquet, a mixture of red and black fruit with hints of crushed violet and freshly shucked oyster shell, later a touch of flint. It is extremely well defined and focused, conveying the sense of aristocracy one seeks from a Richebourg. The palate is medium-bodied with filigreed tannin. There is real density and presence here and it is certainly more expressive than the Romanée-Saint-Vivant at the moment, with palpable tension on the finish. Outstanding."(96-98pts)

DOMAINE BIZOT

Jean-Yves Bizot has some the best, old vines vineyards in Vosne Romanee and Echezeaux. He is revered for his strict and uncompromising standards in the vineyards that give low yields of extraordinarily concentrated wines. This jewel of a Domaine was not created until 1995, and the total production of all cuvees is under 1000 cases. His small quantities of top red wine are clearly built for the long haul. Bizot is a professor of viticulture and oenology in Beaune who lives in Vosne across the street from Henri Mayer's former residence. When Mayer was still alive, they used to discuss vinification periodically while working their neighboring vines. Not surprisingly, Bizot adapted some of Mayer's techniques in his own cellar. Bottled by hand, barrel by barrel, without filtration, these serious Burgundies still fly under many's radar thanks to their microscopic production. Just to give you an idea of some of the production levels: three Jeros of 2016 Les Jachess were made, as well as 32 magnums of the Exchezeaux. Only six and eighteen magnums of the 2015 wines were produced!!! Nonetheless, they radiate purity, subtlety, and elegance. We are proud to present to you an esteemed selection of the wines of Domaine Bizot including large formats of his Echezeaux and Vosne Romanee Les Jachees!

"The 2016 Vosne-Romanée Les Jachées has a really quite gorgeous bouquet with wonderful definition: pure, quite mineral-rich red fruit probably more in line with a Premier Cru. The palate is very well balanced with a silky smooth texture and a shimmering, vivacious finish that might lack depth and grip, but has a disarming effortless nature about it. Superb for a mere Village Cru." (92pts VM)

"The 2016 Echézeaux Grand Cru wafts from the glass with aromas of cherries, wild berries, dark chocolate, bay leaf, spices and peonies. On the palate, it's full-bodied, deep and immensely concentrated, with satiny, almost melting tannins but such searing intensity and savory nuance that once again the word "pungent" comes to mind, concluding with a fine-grained, mineral finish. It's the most reserved wine in the range and will demand more patience, but its singular style makes it very compelling indeed." (96pts)

DOMAINE FOURRIER

The Domaine Fourrier (previously known as Pernot-Fourrier) has a long history in Gevrey Chambertin extending over four generations. The estate was founded by Fernand Pernot during the 1930's. Then his nephew, Jean-Claude Fourrier, took the reins of the Domaine in 1969. Jean-Marie Fourrier took over the family Domaine from his father in 1994 at the young age of 23. His experience was gained not only at the family Domaine in Gevrey, but also at Domaine Drouhin in Oregon and with the legendary Henri Jayer in Vosne Romanée. Upon his arrival, Jean-Marie has completely reinvigorated his family's Domaine by wisely combining the traditions of his family and the experience gained with Henri Jayer, while adding his own clear sense of style. Older vines, lower yields and more natural winemaking are the key to success here, and the resulting wines have great precision and finesse. Jean-Marie Fourrier is today to be considered one of Burgundy's brightest stars. Few producers have been able to ascend to the top echelon of Burgundy as quickly as Jean-Marie. It is a privilege to offer wines directly from the Domaine with five lots crested by a Jeroboam of 2010 Clos St. Jacques and a Salmanazar of 2009 as well!

1273 Chambolle Musigny - Vintage 2011*Les Sentiers, Vieilles Vignes, Fourrier1x1 Jeroboam owc*

"Fourrier's 2011 Chambolle-Musigny Les Sentiers is strikingly beautiful. Freshly cut flowers, mint and sweet red berries take shape in the glass, but the Sentiers is mostly distinguished for its laser-like focus and cut. This is a fairly sculpted, energetic style of Chambolle that stands out for its fabulous balance and class. Sadly, there is just one barrel to go around and it will be bottled in magnums that will not be available commercially."

"The 2010 Gevrey-Chambertin Clos St. Jacques cuvée Centenaire is a special wine made to celebrate the 100th birthday of this historic vineyard. This breathtaking, transparent wine shows off marvelous elegance and finesse. It is slightly richer and riper than the regular Clos St. Jacques. The aromas and flavors build effortlessly to a gracious finish laced with dark red cherries, plums, mint and sweet exotic spices. This is a fabulous showing. The cuvée Centenaire was made from parcels in the upper two-thirds of the vineyard. Anticipated maturity: 2020-2030."

"The 2015 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint-Jacques 'Cuvée Centenaire' comes from the oldest vines in the vineyard planted in 1910. It has a very intense bouquet with ripe redcurrant, crushed strawberry and minerals, perhaps a little more blue fruit than the regular cuvée. The palate is medium-bodied with supple ripe tannin, a little chewy and quite firm in the mouth, perhaps more masculine. Although maybe the regular cuvée has a little more precision on the finish? Give this 4-5 years in bottle for it to reach its drinking plateau."

DOMAINE DUGAT-PY

Now in its thirteenth generation, Domaine Dugat-Py is situated in the oldest cellar in Burgundy, built nearly one thousand years ago in Gevrey Chambertin. The family were long-time vine growers, and Pierre Dugat began estate bottling in 1989 before handing off to his son Bernard, who turned the Domaine over to his son Loïc in 2015. The family painstakingly tends old vines with low yields, planted as far back as 1905, which lend concentration and quality to their wines. With a focus on viticulture and the twenty appellations they cultivate, the Domaine has been certified organic for two decades. The wines are vinified with as little intervention as possible. Now producing both white wines in the Côte de Beaune and red wines primarily coming from Gevrey, Domaine Dugat-Py has a diverse portfolio of wines of exceptional quality. They are perhaps best known for their Charmes Chambertin, which comes from four plots that total about two-thirds of a hectare. Their other Grand Cru offerings include Mazoyères Chambertin, Mazis Chambertin, and an ultra-rare Chambertin. Available in our Anniversary auction are verticals of Corton Charlemagne, Lavaux St. Jacques and Chambertin as well as rare magnum of 2009 Chambertin! Its Chambertin, whose magnums are not commercially released, is usually less than one barrel produced, so they have a barrel specially made just for this wine that is smaller than traditional Burgundy barrels!

CVNE

The Compañía Vinícola del Norte de España, CVNE, has a far-reaching, family-owned history, dating back to 1879 in Haro, La Rioja. CVNE's flagship wine, the Rioja Gran Reserva Imperial, was introduced in the 1920s with the intention of creating the best possible wine ever, and CVNE has strived to meet this standard with every vintage produced. The winery is located in Rioja Alta, where clay-limestone, ferruginous-clay and chalky soils are ideal for growing Tempranillo of elegance and complexity. In 1909, Alexandre Gustave Eiffel, of tower fame, designed an innovative cellar at the winery, where the Imperial Rioja ages in French and American oak for a minimum of two years. We are thrilled to offer CVNE, a paragon of Spanish winemaking, in bottles and large formats for this momentous event! Double magnums and six-liters are not commercially released, and they come (along with the 1976!) from the private reserve family cellar of CVNE's fifth generation owner, Victor Urrutia.

"Bright-rimmed ruby-red. Heady red and dark berry aromas are complicated by notes of mocha, Indian spices and vanillin oak, with a potent floral quality. Supple, sweet and expansive on the finish, which leaves smoke and cherry pastry notes behind."(93pts VM)

"Bright ruby-red; doesn't look to be 11 years old. Powerful, oak-spiced aromas of candied cherry and raspberry, with suave vanilla, mocha and floral nuances and slow-building tobacco and leather elements. Pliant, palate-staining red fruit and floral pastille flavors show impressive depth and heft, with a good lashing of sweet vanillin oak. Sweet and expansive on the gently tannic finish, which shows excellent clarity and length. This wine seems poised for a very long, graceful evolution."(94pts VM)

1287 Rioja - Vintage 1976*Gran Reserva Imperial, CVNE6bn, 1x6 bottle owc, outstanding color and condition*

"The 1976 Imperial Gran Reserva is an absolutely classic vintage of this iconic wine, and at age thirty-eight, it is at its apogee of peak drinkability. The outstanding bouquet offers up a very elegant blend of strawberries, cherries, fresh nutmeg, a beautifully complex base of soil tomes, toasted coconut nutskins and a gentle topnote of cinnamon. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and velvety, with the elegance of the nose echoed in the mouth. The wine has a fine core of sweet fruit, gorgeous complexity and still just a touch of remaining tannin on the long, perfectly balanced and very classy finish. Just a lovely, lovely wine at its zenith."(94pts JG)

DOMINIO DE PINGUS

This history of Dominio de Pingus is as unique and as distinctive as the wines. Peter Sisseck founded Pingus in the mid-nineties and gave the new winery his Danish childhood nickname. At the height of the garagiste winemaking movement, Pingus emerged as a brilliant new interpretation of Ribera del Duero. In its inaugural vintage, Robert Parker singled Pingus out exclaiming, “one of the greatest young red wines I ever tasted.” Tragically though, the ship carrying the miniscule United States allocation of that first 1995 vintage sank, giving the new winery a moment in the headlines and making it all the rarer. Made entirely from Tinta del Pais, a special clone of the Tempranillo grape indigenous to the Ribera del Duero region, the wines of Pingus are full of intensity and unique flavor. Sisseck has pushed the wine to the limits with punishingly low yields, fermentation in large oak vats and aging in new barriques. A true innovator in the modern wine universe, Sisseck’s Pingus wines are deservedly darlings of the critics. Peter was generous to give us nine lots from his extremely limited production with mini-verticals in bottle and magnum, full cases of 2012, 2014 and 2016 as well as double-magnums of 2010 and 2014! The double magnums are only produced on request (and Peter requested some for himself!) and are very hard to find as they usually go to private clients. Only 35 and 30 double magnums of the 2010 and 2014 were produced!

1292 Dominio de Pingus - Vintage 2012
2x6 bottle owc's
"I finally tasted the 2012 Pingus in bottle, a wine I sampled last year before bottling, and even if it was the final blend, all of a sudden proprietor Peter Sisseck decided to delay the bottling. He cannot really explain the reason why; it was really a hunch, something he felt and he thinks the decision was right. The good news is that the wine delivers all that it promised before bottling. There are plenty of floral notes, violets, even lilies; it's extremely aromatic, subtle and precise with just some Indian spices in the background to give it an exotic character. With time in the glass, there are some earthy, mineral (even diesel-like?) aromas. It has a rare combination of power and finesse, concentrated but delicate, with buttery, ultra-refined tannins, great balance, acidity, length and a silky texture, not easy to find in Ribera del Duero. This could very well be the best Pingus ever, in the style of 1996, a year of elegance and good acidity, more Burgundian/Atlantic (Peter Sisseck does not agree with the term Burgundian applied to Ribera del Duero) than the average. This wine has the conjunction of their knowledge and the improvements in the vineyards. This is stunning, simply perfect. It has all the components to age for 20+ years. 6,000 bottles were finally filled the first week of September 2014. As I explained last time, 2012 represents a big change in Pingus with 0% new oak used for its upbringing." (100pts)

1294 Dominio de Pingus - Vintage 2010*1x1 double magnum owc*

"I have tasted the 2010 Pingus a number of times since I published a note on it in issue 207 in June 2013, my first and probably the shortest article ever published at The Wine Advocate. I have consistently found it significantly better than when I first tasted it, so I decided to put it together with the latest releases, 2011 and 2012, to compare. The Pingus vineyards had been converted to biodynamic in the year 2000 and after the warm and dry 2009, 2010 was almost perfect. The vineyards yielded a disastrous 11 hectoliters per hectare, and the grape selection provided enough grapes for 6,000 bottles that were obtained fermenting in 2,000-liter oak vats and aging the wine for 22 months in second-fill French oak barrels. The 2010 is extremely aromatic, open and hedonistic and one extra year in bottle has only done the wine good, the oak feels much more integrated and the toasty aromas have all but disappeared. The palate is medium-bodied, with very fine tannins good acidity and freshness. This is really superb, with astonishing balance and power. With time in the glass it develops more complex aromas, with things like orange peel that really reminded me of the Riberas of yesteryear. I think I was mistaken last year, and the 2010 will ultimately surpass the 2009. A Pingus of finesse. Drink now-2025."(98pts)

VEGA SICILIA

In 1864, Don Eloy Lecanda returned from France to his native Ribera del Duero with cuttings of Bordeaux varieties and planted them amidst the indigenous Tinto del Pais. At the turn of the 20th Century, the winery took on new ownership and developed a flagship wine, “Único,” whose first vintages quickly garnered international acclaim, with the 1917 and 1918 vintages taking prizes at the 1929 World’s Fair in Barcelona. Vega Sicilia’s ownership initially kept tight reins on their wines despite the global demand, slowly releasing their wines to the world, as Vega Sicilia emerged as Spain’s greatest representative of fine and rare wine. The estate changed hands once again in 1982 to its current owners, the Álvarez family. They brought business savvy and tremendous resources to the winery, slowly increasing production while maintaining tremendously high quality. Vega Sicilia’s name has been built on Único, a predominantly Tempranillo-based blend, locally called Tinto Fino, which is enhanced by a small percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon. The wine undergoes perhaps the world’s longest aging process for a red wine, nearly 10 years between wood and bottle, in both American and French new and used barrels. Typically, Único spends six years in oak and three years in the bottle prior to release. There are few wines that have remained so consistent over many generations, yet Único has stood the test of time. It is a true honor to offer direct from the Bodegas, rarest old bottles of Único from 1942, 1953 and 1967 as well as a magnum of 1981 to commemorate our Bicentennial!

1297 Vega Sicilia Unico - Vintage 1981*1x1 magnum owc*

"The 1981 Unico is one of the forgotten gems of the decade, yet at thirty years of age it has really come into its own. It is a blend of 65% Tinto Fino, 25% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 10% Merlot/Malbec. Initially it seems lighter on the nose than the 1982, but given time in the glass it simply blossoms with pure kirsch and Morello cherry aromas, plus a dalliance with orange sorbet. The palate is medium-bodied and beautifully balanced. There is a sense of symmetry, the leitmotif of great Unico wines. Fresh and vital, this 1981 is a stunning addition to the pantheon of great wines from this estate. 77,092 bottles produced. Drink now-2030."(96pts)

1298 Vega Sicilia Unico - Vintage 1967

*3vhs, 3vlgsl, 1x3 bottle owc,
outstanding color and condition*

"...has superb intensity on the nose with baked black cherries, singed leather, apricot blossom, eau-de-vie and liquorice. It is vivacious and floral, unfolding with each sip. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannins, vivacious almost port-like fruit intensity. It is initially a little pinched on the finish, but it expands gloriously with sage, bay leaf and a touch of bitter orange. Superb."(96pts)

1299 Vega Sicilia Unico - Vintage 1953

*3vlgsl, 2scc, 1x3 bottle owc,
outstanding color and condition*

"Always a personal favorite of mine - and still is! Sexy, seductive and intoxicating nose on the leathery and black fruit side...smells a lot younger than fifty years old... has some tannins, still...full of flavors and tannins black fruits, leather and caramel spice...good flavors of plum, chocolate and spice I love it! Great dust and chocolate flavors, as well."(97pts JK)

1300 Vega Sicilia Unico - Vintage 1942

2bn, 1x3 bottle owc, outstanding color and condition

"The second wine was aromatic and smoky with sun-dried, red cherry fruit and tobacco aromas along with a dollop of citrus. Smooth and balanced, the wine was drier than the first, long and nutty with great spice and acidity. It kept gaining in the glass, impressive for a 1942 Vega Sicilia Unico."(95pts JK)

W. & J. GRAHAM'S PORT

Graham's Port is a two-century story of two families, the Graham's and the Symingtons, both of Scottish origin. Graham's has two things in common with Acker: we both have Scottish roots and were both founded in 1820! Founded by brothers William and John Graham in 1820 with the ambition of making exceptional Port wines, they rapidly became highly regarded. In 1890, they built the famous Graham's Lodge in Gaia and acquired Quinta dos Malvedos. Situated high on a promontory overlooking the river, Malvedos is one of the finest vineyards in the Douro Valley and a cornerstone of both Graham's Vintage Ports and Single Harvest Tawny Ports. In 1882, Andrew James Symington sailed from Scotland to Porto to work for the Graham family, beginning his family's long association with this famous house. Although he left Graham's shortly after to establish his own port business, his grandsons acquired the company from the Graham family in 1970. Since then, the Symington family has further developed and enhanced Graham's reputation for producing superb ports. Today Graham's continues its commitment to perfecting the time-honored art of producing the finest ports whilst constantly pushing the boundaries. We are ecstatic to have seven lots of direct from the house, crusted by a double-magnum, Imperial and Salmanzaar of the vaunted 2007 vintage as well as rare Single Harvest Tawnies from 1940 and 1963!

 1x1 Imperial owc
A candidate for wine of the vintage, the 2007 Graham's Vintage Port is complete in every way. Opaque purple-colored, it offers up an ethereal perfume of smoke, mineral, Asian spices, incense, an amalgam of ripe black fruits, and a hint of chocolate in the background. This leads to a dense, super-rich, plush, opulent wine that hides its structure under all the fruit. Vibrant, impeccably balanced, and exceptionally lengthy, it will easily age for another 25-30 years in the cellar and drink well through 2050, probably longer. It is a tour de force. (97pts)

"The 1983, like most vintage ports, seems more forward than normal but has a great depth of very ripe, viscous, unctuous, plummy, tarry fruit and significant tannin in its long finish. It is black-purple in color. I doubt that it will be either as profound or as long-lived as the great 1977, but is certainly one of the top two or three ports of this vintage, and better than the excellent 1980." (92pts)

- 1306 Graham's Vintage Port - Vintage 2017
 2x6 bottle owc's
One of the more aromatic ports here, this is laced with cistus and eucalyptus. Lush in texture and concentrated, it was actually showing well at the time of this tasting notwithstanding some power and pop. The more it aired out, though, the more power it showed. Even so, this remains a rather refined and suave Graham's. I'd call it subtly sexy. It does put on weight with some aeration, though, and there is that muscle underneath, so don't dive in too soon. CHAMPAGNE PIERRE PÉTERS

Domaine Pierre Péters' roots date back to the 1840's when Gaspard Péters, born in Luxembourg, married a French Lady named Doué, who owned some vineyards in Mesnil sur Oger. He began cultivating the vines as a grower and sold the totality of his grapes. His son, Louis Joseph Péters, a merchant, who took over the care of the grapes after his father, sold all the grapes as well. It was only his son, Camille, who first began to vinify the harvest and bottle his own champagne. After returning from World War I, where he got wounded, Camille decided to become a producer of his own champagne. The bottles were first marketed with the brand name "Camille Péters" in 1919. During the 1930's, an era of economic and political difficulties in France, Camille Péters acquired 2.5 hectares in the locality of les Chétillons. Upon his death in 1944, the Domaine was shared between his five children. His son, Pierre Péters, launched his own brand in the market in 1947 with his 1944 vintage. In 1959, Pierre bought back one of his sister's shares, bringing his vineyard to 1.20 hectares, which included a parcel from the famous region of Les Chétillons. This acquisition enabled him to reconstitute 1.10 ha of his father's land which to this day remains the most integral part of the three parcels used in the blending of the Grand Cru Cuvée Spéciale "Les Chétillons."

In 1968, Pierre Péters retired and left control of the Domaine to his son Francois Péters. For the last 40 years, Francois alongside his son, Rodolphe, have managed the expansion of the vineyard to 20 hectares with carefully planned purchases of more and more land. Péters champagne became more and more popular on the French market, and the exportation market expanded as well. In 2007, Rodolphe Péters returned to the house after 15 years of experience in companies close to the world of wine and champagne. He took over the direction of the family Domaine in 2008. His immediate focus was on the winemaking process, seeking to allow the high-quality terroir to express itself in every bottle of Péters Champagne, which has become a darling of Champagne connoisseurs accordingly over the last decade. We are excited to share with you the Champagnes of Pierre Péters!

1308 Pierre Péters Champagne - Vintage NV*L'Etonnant Monsieur Victor1mk 09, 1mk10, 1mk 11, 3x1 bottle custom ogb's*

"The NV L'Etonnant Monsieur Victor (2012 base) is another stunning wine in this lineup from Rodolphe Péters. For this cuvée, Péters blends his best tank of 2012 Chétillons with the 2011 Réserve Oubliée and ages the wine on cork. Dense, powerful and bursting at the seams with energy, the 2012 Etonnant Monsieur Victor makes a strong opening statement. Apricot, wild flowers, chamomile, hazelnut and orange peel build on a beautifully resonant, expressive Champagne that hits all the right notes. The 2012 is virile and imposing, not to mention loaded with character."(95pts VM)

"A singular and positively riveting Champagne, the NV Pierre Péters Heritage is a special cuvée created to celebrate the first vintage made by Rodolphe Péters' great-grandfather, Camille, in 1921. Rodolphe Péters dug deep into his family's cellar for this Champagne. Essentially, Heritage is blended from three tiers of wine, more or less in equal proportion. These are: 1) a base of 2010 Chétillons, 2) a blend of Chétillons from 2002, 2004, 2006 and 2008, and 3) a blend of the domaine's Champagnes from 1996 all the way back to 1921, encompassing Chétillons, Special Club and Vintage bottlings, depending on what was available. The older vintages confer tremendous layers of nuance to a Champagne that stands out for its creamy resonance, depth and personality. Exhilarating in its beauty, the Heritage is distinctive and totally unforgettable. Production is just 1,500 bottles and 60 magnums,..."(98pts VM)

CHAMPAGNE BILLECART-SALMON

In 1818, only two years before the roots of Acker were planted, Billecart-Salmon was established in the famous Champagne village of Mareuil-sur-Äy when Niçolas François Billecart married Elizabeth Salmon. It has remained independently controlled by the family ever since with the help of investors. Now in its seventh generation of family ownership, with the recent appointment of new CEO of Mathieu Roland-Billecart, Billecart-Salmon has persevered in producing quality Champagne for over 200 years! Deputy General Manager Antoine Roland-Billecart sums the house style best: “Freshness, elegance, fruit style and wine style. We always want to remind you that Champagne is a wine. Prior to Champagne, we produce a wine.” They accomplish this by growing in the northern sphere of Champagne, long slow cool fermentation, selected malolactic and low dosage. Billecart has four exceptional Founders Cuvées: Louis Salmon, Elisabeth Salmon, Nicolas François and Clos Saint Hilaire, and they are only produced in worthy vintages in relatively small quantities from only Grand Cru villages. We are delighted they shared some precious bottles of these for our Bicentennial Auction as well as magnums of Nicolas Francois! For the ultimate of parties we have a Nebuchadnezzar (fifteen liters!) so you don’t have to look it up, of their eponymous and eminently enjoyable Brut Reserve! There is no better way to congratulate the bride and groom than with the 120 glasses in this bottle!

1313 Billecart Salmon Champagne - Vintage NV*Rose*

"Pale yet intense pink in color, the Billecart-Salmon NV Brut Rosé is pure, fresh and intense on the nose, with lovely raspberry aromas, refreshing citrus zest flavors and great definition. On the palate this is a pure, light and vinous rosé with great finesse and a long, well-structured and even juicy finish. This iconic rosé blends 40% Chardonnay with 30% Pinot Meunier from the Vallée de la Marne and the southern slopes of Epernay and 30% Pinot Noir (with a small part added as red wine) from the Montagne de Reims and the Grande Vallée de la Marne. Fabulous. Tasted from lot L 142B804 45564, which is based on the 2015 harvest and 40% reserve wines and was disgorged in February 2018. Tasted November 2018."(93pts)

"Entirely vinified in oak and disgorged in May 2018, after 15 years on the lees in bottle, the 2002 Millésime Brut Le Clos Saint-Hilaire is a single-plot Blanc de Noirs from Pinot Noir vines planted in Mareuil-sur-Aÿ in 1964. Highly fine and pure on the deep, elegant and spicy nose, with intense mirabelle and apricot flavors, this is a pure, salty, very finessed yet tensioned, complex, mineral and refreshing Pinot with intense and well-concentrated fruit, a juicy texture and persistent structure. The finish is very long but pure, fresh, salty and, in any case, highly stimulating! Total production: 3,700 bottles."(98pts)

CHAMPAGNE BOLLINGER

Bollinger has roots in the Champagne region going back to the 16th century when one of the house's founding families, the Hennequins, owned land in Cramant. The Champagne house we know today was founded 1829 in Aÿ by Hennequin de Villermont, Paul Levieux Renaudin and Jacques Bollinger. When Jacques Bollinger married Charlotte de Villermont, the house became entirely managed by the Bollinger family. The brand then received a major boost when they received a Royal Warrant in 1884 from Queen Victoria. When Jacques Bollinger died in 1941, Lily Bollinger took the helm and became one of the most famous and quotable women in Champagne history as she promoted and expanded the house. In addition to having in-house cooperage, Bollinger had massive vineyard holdings compared to other houses, which have to purchase a greater percentage of their fruit. Culminating in their ungrafted Vieilles Vignes Francaises, Bollinger has long been revered for their use of Pinot Noir as well as their pioneering late-release "R.D." (aka recently disgorged) program. This storied estate is also tied to the history of one of the greatest cinematic franchises of all time, James Bond. To celebrate this 40-year partnership, Bollinger has released a Moonraker limited edition of 407 copies. Working with a historic pewter smith, they have created a unique 'Bollinger shuttle,' designed after the spacecraft in the iconic film, that opens to showcase a silver-stamped magnum of 2007 Bollinger and a unique crystal ice bucket. We are honored to offer this one-of-a-kind collector's item as well as magnums of R.D. and a precious pair of Vieilles Vignes Francaises bottles!

1318 Bollinger Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1999

RD

"The 1999 Bollinger 'R. D.' is drinking very well indeed from magnum today, offering up a wide open and generous personality of complexity and breed. The bouquet is a maturing constellation of apple, walnuts, fresh-baked bread, an excellent base of soil tones and a smoky top-note. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, crisp and absolutely à point, with a fine core of fruit, elegant mousse, lovely balance and grip and a quite long, complex and classy finish. Like most examples of the 1999 vintage, this will not make really old bones by the long-lived standards of this cuvée, but for drinking over the next twelve to fifteen years, there is a lot of pleasure to be had. Françaises, Vieilles Vignes

"The 2010 Vieilles Vignes Françaises dazzles from the very first impression with striking aromatic presence and utterly captivating balance. Mirabelle, sweet red cherry, jasmine and passion fruit are some of the many notes that give the 2010 its decidedly racy, exotic personality. The 2010 exudes rare energy for this vintage, which was hardly easy in the field, not to mention real pedigree. It is absolutely unforgettable. I only hope to have a chance to taste it again someday. 1320 Bollinger Champagne - Vintage NV

Special cuvée

"Bollinger's NV Brut Special Cuvée is a blend of 60% Pinot Noir, 25% Chardonnay and 15% Pinot Meunier, and the grapes are mostly (more than 85%) sourced in Grand Cru and Premier Cru villages. The majority of the Special Cuvée is reserve wines, part of which have been aged in magnums for five to 15 years. The disgorgement I tasted in May 2018 displays an intense golden-citrus color and has a refreshing, concentrated bouquet of citrus fruits, sweet cherries, ripe apples, white flowers, toast, walnuts, ripe apricots and peaches, with just a touch of brioche. On the palate, this is an intense, very elegant and refined cuvée with a very long, refreshing, intense, aromatic and salty finish. This is an excellent Champagne with a beautiful chalky texture in the aftertaste. (Tasted from lot L1711802 in May 2018.) "(92pts)

CHAMPAGNE LOUIS ROEDERER

Initially founded as Dubois Père & Fils in 1776, Louis Roederer inherited the company from his uncle in 1833. He renamed it after himself and set out to tackle the world, particularly the Russian market which later gave rise to its famous Cristal bottling. The Louis Roederer House has remained an independent, family-owned company and is now managed by Frédéric Rouzaud. Seven successive generations have built a reputation of quality and meticulous plot by plot viticulture, converting their 593 acres of vineyards to organic and biodynamic. Revered for their tête de cuvée, Cristal, Roederer produces what is considered by many of the most knowing Champagne drinkers to be the epitome of vintage Champagne elegance, in an exquisite bottle no less! Champagne Louis Roederer keeps back a small quantity of bottles, stored in their cellars, and releases them when they are ready as Cristal Vinothèque. We are honored to offer one magnum of this special cuvee from the formidable 1995 vintage as well as a magnum of 1981 Cristal and party like it's 1999 Cristal Rose bottles. It wouldn't be a two hundredth Anniversary party without the fantastic celebratory bubbles of Champagne Louis Roederer!

Finishes clean, brisk and sharply delineated, with a subtle note of sweet butter and excellent length." (92pts VM)

1324 Louis Roederer Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2002

Cristal

"Roederer's 2002 Cristal is a fabulous wine! Originally released in 2009, it was re-released in March this year and was sold out in a very short time. The Cristal I tasted at Roederer in May 2018 was disgorged in 2010, after seven years sur lie. Its amazing richness and concentration makes it a forerunner of the 2015 and follows the 1999. Only two times 2002 and 2015 the fruit from all 42 plots reserved for Cristal was used for the Cristal. "I couldn't do any better blend than the one assembling all the 42 plots," says Jean-Baptiste Lécaillon, stressing that at that time only two hectares were farmed biodynamically. As a result of the conversion to biodynamic farming, Lécaillon promised himself the production of even more beautiful, vital and balanced wines, and you can feel his satisfaction whenever he speaks of the cuvées that are yet to come such as 2012 and 2015, the latter of which he calls "the new 2002." Back to history: the nose of the 2002 Cristal shows a deep, ripe and elegant fruit with aromas of white chocolate, wet chalk, wild vanilla and pepper (typical for 2002) as well as terroir-driven truffle notes. Intense and very elegant in the mouth, this is a ripe, rich and concentrated yet also pure and vital Cristal with great finesse, elegance and mineral complexity. It's a sublime Champagne right now, although it's more wine than Champagne." (98pts)

Cristal, Vinotheque

"Disgorged in 2010 and re-launched in September 2017, Roederer's low dosed 1995 Cristal Vinotheque (dosage: six to seven grams per liter) is very intense on the nose and shows lovely maturity. Due to the vintage, which saw some rain in the summer, the Chardonnay part is a bit higher than usual (43% instead of 40%), with just 57% Pinot Noir (from Aÿ). Five percent of the wine was fermented in oak, and 15% underwent malolactic fermentation (only the Pinot Noir though). The palate is rich and vinous but also pure, straight and fresh, finishing with a tight structure, persistent minerality and a yeasty character. Tasted in Reims in May 2018." (96+pts)

THE BICENTENNIAL AUCTION

DOMAINE DU PEGAU

The Feraud family, owners of Domaine du Pégau, has been involved in the vines of Chateauneuf du Pape since the late 1600s. For the majority of this time, the family managed vineyards, selling a majority of the production in bulk to top Négociants and keeping a minute percentage to bottle as Cuvée Réservee, the name of the Domaine's standard cuvée. After taking courses in viticulture and wine business, the brilliant Laurence joined her father in 1987, officially creating the Domaine du Pégau, an old Provençal term for an ancient jug used for wine discovered during the excavations of the Avignon Pope's Palace, which dated back to the 14th century. She slowly built sales which then financed the incredible expansion of the Domaine to over 40 acres in Chateauneuf. The multiple cuvées are Grenache-focused and traditionally made with no destemming of the grapes and fermentation with indigenous yeasts. Their Cuvée Laurence was previously a special barrel selection, but it is now a prolonged and aged iteration of the Cuvée Réservee. The esteemed Cuvée da Capo is produced from the estate's oldest vines, some over 100 years of age, and only produced in the finest vintages. In only two vintages has the Domaine produced magnums of the unique Cuvée Inspiration, a selection from the best barrels that then is aged even longer in barrel. Highlights include a Salmanzaar of Cuvée Laurence, a Jeroboam of 2016 Capo and a magnum of 2010 Inspiration!

CHATEAU RAYAS

After losing his hearing at age 45, Albert Reynaud, Emmanuel Reynaud's great grandfather, gave up his notary office before moving into a new line of work when he bought Rayas in 1880. In 1920, his son, Louis, took the initiative and bottled Rayas for the first time. It was some time between 1935-1938 that Louis purchased Domaine des Tours and in 1945, Louis Reynaud also acquired Chateau de Fonsalette in the north of Orange, a property boasting a dozen of hectares or so of vines, woodland and olives trees. Louis's youngest son, Jacques Reynaud, took over the management of Rayas and Fonsalette in 1978. Under his supervision, the wines became more focused on balance of the soil and its impact on the quality of the wine. Jacques Reynaud passed away suddenly in 1997. His nephew, Emmanuel Reynaud, who was already running the Domaine des Tours, took over Chateau Rayas and Fonsalette. Today Emmanuel manages the three Domaines of the Reynaud family.

Rayas is a small ten hectares vineyard, in the heart of the woods, planted in very sandy soil, producing wines with great finesse, pale color, so different from the rest of the appellation of Chateauneuf du Pape. The wine is so delicate and so complex you might think it was Burgundy. But they need time, as Emmanuel Reynaud is always quick to remind everyone. The average production of Rayas is about 10,000 bottles, on ten hectares, which is a yield of about 7.5 hectoliters per hectares; in comparison, the average yield of Grand Cru Bordeaux is 40 hectoliters per hectare! The secret of Rayas remains its unique soil, a unique terroir not only for Chateauneuf du Pape, but also for the world. You need to walk through the vineyard to understand the magic of Rayas. A vine is planted about every two meters, rooted in a sandy soil, unlike the clay and pebbles of which most Chateauneuf soils are made. At Rayas the soil is composed with sea sand, very thin and light. The richness of Rayas is its own poverty. As there is no clay to keep water and mineral nutriment, this unique terroir gives very delicate fruit and very small crops. Once you understand that, you can let the magic happen, but only after you accept its resulting small quantities. In addition, only Grenache can grow here, and with that kind of soil, Grenache loses its fatness only to offer its finesse. One other fact about this unique terroir: it is also helped by its exposition, facing north, with twice more woods than vines! It is, therefore, much cooler than the rest of the appellation, and the harvest usually happens much later than the other Chateauneuf estates accordingly. Rather than bask in the notoriety of his three estates, Emmanuel today spends most of his time in the vineyards as most great winemakers do! He continues in the traditional style, while moving forward as the heralded winemaker of one of the world's most sought-after wines. To celebrate our Bicentennial, we are extremely grateful that Rayas has offered five lots of wines for the first time ever at auction!!!

1333 Côtes du Rhône - Vintage 1999

Château de Fonsalette, cuvée Syrah, Château Rayas
"The sensational, 250-case cuvée of black/purple-colored 1999 Fonsalette Côtes du Rhône cuvée Syrah should be gobbled up by fans of this offering. This cool-climate vineyard planted on north-facing slopes consistently produces fabulous wines that age for 2-3 decades (the debut 1978 vintage is still an infant). The sweet, rich, full-bodied 1999 reveals ripe tannin along with notes of roasted meats, blackberries, truffles, and licorice. Cellar this monster for 4-8 years, and enjoy the magic over the next 10-12 years. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2020." (91pts)

1335 Châteauneuf du Pape - Vintage 2005

Château Rayas
"...is clearly the greatest wine made at this estate since the 1995. Made from 100% Grenache, it boasts an unusually (for Rayas) dark ruby/purple-tinged color as well as an exceptionally sweet bouquet of black cherry jam, truffles, incense, licorice, and raspberries. Full-bodied with a stunningly rich, concentrated mouthfeel, an explosive mid-palate, and a finish that lasts more than a minute, it is a wine of superb power and intensity admirably displaying the terroir's hallmark delicacy and ethereal nature." HEITZ CELLARS

The history of Heitz Cellar is as intertwined with that of the Napa Valley as any other California winery. Legendary vintner, Joe Heitz, established himself as a name-to-know in the modern era of American winemaking, releasing Napa Valley's first vineyard designated Cabernet Sauvignon, Heitz Cellar Martha's Vineyard, in 1966. Heitz Cellar has been family-owned since its founding in 1961, leading the way for others with their commitment to viticulture and traditional winemaking, and serving as a benchmark amidst its peers in both California and Europe. Though the winery changed hands in 2018, Heitz remains steadfast in its commitment to producing classic wines of the highest quality possible, with a strong focus on sustainability. Heitz Cellar's renowned Martha's, Bella Oaks, and Trailside Vineyards are terroirs inextricably tied to the history of California winemaking and are known the world over. The 1974 Martha's Vineyard is still considered by many to be the greatest wine ever made in California. We are privileged to present the Heitz Cellar "Legacy Collection," with vintages of classically styled Cabernet back to the 1970s, including every vintage ever produced of Trailside Vineyard and a rare Imperial of Martha's Vineyard (only the second Imperial ever produced by Heitz)!

OPUS ONE WINERY

Opus One began as an incredible ground-breaking venture in 1978 by two titans of the wine world, Baron Philippe de Rothschild of Bordeaux and Robert Mondavi of Napa Valley. Until that time there was a great divide between European and American wine, and cooperation was unheard of. The two great men considered themselves equals and obsessively passionate about wine, innovation, and the arts, naming their project as a celebration of their first great work of art, truly an Opus One. Mondavi and Rothschild combined the Old World and New World into a brave new world with the resulting wine being the most expensive California wine in history at the time. The wines they produced together are a celebration of Napa Valley's Oakville region and the historic To-Kalon Vineyard, considered perhaps the most ideal site for Bordeaux varieties in the United States. This confluence of American innovation with French traditionalism has made Opus One an exceptional wine to taste and to collect, appealing to discerning palates all over the world. To celebrate this great partnership and our 200th Anniversary, we have impressive verticals in bottle and magnum going back to the inaugural 1979 vintage as well as a Salmanazar of 2013 and a superlot of six Imperials spanning 2008 to 2013!!! Along with experiences that will leave a lifelong impression! It is with great regard and admiration that we introduce to you California's first international superstar, Opus One!

COLGIN CELLARS

The wines of Colgin Cellars are often considered the “crown jewels of the Napa Valley.” Founded by true renaissance woman, Ann Colgin, in 1992, the estate has, even in its abbreviated history, established a legacy as a Cult California icon. The wines of Colgin come from three vineyards in the heart of Napa Valley: The IX Estate vineyard, a steep, east facing slope above Oakville, planted in the late 1990s; Tychson Hill, originally planted in the 19th century by Josephine Tychson, the first woman to build a winery in the Napa Valley; and Cariad, situated on rocky hillsides overlooking the Valley. The view from the winery is absolutely breathtaking and one of the best in Napa Valley. The wines of Colgin are full of power and finesse, a perfect marriage of all the best qualities of the Napa Valley. It is an honor to represent this superb selection from one of the icons of California wine including an incredibly rare six-liter of 1997!

ORNELLAIA SOCIETA AGRICOLA SRL

Founded in 1981 by Marchese Lodovico Antinori, the Ornellaia estate is tucked in Tuscany's foothills overlooking the Mediterranean coast. The estate has always maintained a terroir-focus to its winemaking, incorporating and expressing the unique marine, alluvial and volcanic soils in Bolgheri's maritime climate. Ornellaia has focused on international grape varieties expressed under an Italian lens, employing winemaker Axel Heinz, who previously worked in Bordeaux, in 2005 to take the reins of the winery. Their flagship wine is a Bordelaise blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Petit Verdot, ideally balanced to preserve freshness. Inaugurated in 2013, the Ornellaia Bianco is a Sauvignon Blanc-based blend that comes from three small vineyards that exemplify the unique, Ornellaia flavor profile in the form of a white wine. Magnums have never been commercially released! It is a privilege to highlight Ornellaia's "Archivio Storico," the estate's reserve of historical vintages that have been aged on premise, presented in a wooden case with a special label, as well as a rare Salmanazar! The wines from the Ornellaia Collezione have only been released five times, offered in individually numbered, hand crafted oak cases, produced in very limited edition. These bottles are accompanied by a descriptive booklet detailing each of the vintages therein. We are thrilled to offer the wines of Ornellaia, one of the most well-known and regarded Domaines in the world, and one of the first to put the "Super" in Super Tuscan!

GAJA

No one has done more for Italian wine or been a greater Ambassador for his country's wines this past century than Angelo Gaja. Taking over his family winery at the age of twenty-one in 1961, he introduced to the Piedmont region green harvest, temperature-controlled fermentation, aging in barriques, single vineyard wines and many other developments. Angelo spearheaded the modern wine movement in Italy and brought the international press spotlight to this great wine country. After serving in this role for decades, Angelo now has positioned himself and his winery to continue their legacy as pioneers in the field of sustainability, working to adapt his practices as the climate in his vineyards change. It is a true honor to offer this assortment of verticals of Gaja's most exciting wines, from his Chardonnay to the distinguished single vineyard wines of Sori Tilden and Sperss. This is an incredible opportunity to acquire some of Italy's greatest wines straight from the source!

GIACOMO CONTERNO

Giovanni Conterno founded this historic estate in 1908, with the first now legendary Monfortino bottled in 1920. Giacomo Conterno took over in 1934 and ran the winery until 1961 when his son Giovanni, the founder's grandson, took over the reins. Over the decades he made many monumental Monfortinos and made the key purchase in 1974 of the crucial Cascina Francia vineyard, one of Serralunga D'Alba's choicest parcels. Sole ownership of the Cascina Francia vineyard allowed for more quality control and consistency. Now run by Roberto Conterno, the winery goes from strength to strength under his perfectionist eye. Yields are strict and production low with the top Monfortino Riserva only being made in quality years. This is perhaps the greatest and most traditional expression of Barolo with a long maceration followed by extended aging in massive four to five thousand-liter, old oak casks called botti. In early 2015, Conterno purchased the famous Arione vineyard which neighbors Monfortino. This exciting addition adds even more power and depth to the Conterno range and was a vineyard from which Conterno made wines in the 1970s. With their outstanding ability to age and develop tremendous complexity, Conterno's Barolos are not only among the greatest wines of Piedmont but also of the entire fine wine world! We are honored to share with you for the first time ever at a commercial auction, lots direct from the cellars of Giacomo Conterno! We have the first release of the Arione vineyard in magnum and double-magnum, a double-magnum of 2006 Monfortino, verticals of Monfortino, and a horizontal of 2010 magnums!!! In addition, Roberto is generously donating all his proceeds to a charity of our choice, which is No Kid Hungry. Thank you Roberto!

DOMAINE DE MONTILLE

Domaine de Montille is one of the most storied Domaines in all of Burgundy. The Domaine was created in the mid 1700's and has always been based in the village of Volnay. At its inception, the Domaine sat on treasured vineyards, holding parcels throughout the Côte d'Or, including famous names such as Musigny, Les Amoureuses and, of course, Volnay; it was once a total of 12 hectares all planted with Pinot Noir. Through twists of history, many of these parcels were sold due to generational and financial reasons, not an uncommon occurrence. When Hubert de Montille took over the Domaine in 1947, he was determined to stop the erosion that had caused those 12 hectares to shrink to three. Hubert ended his relationships selling to Négociants and embraced the future of Domaine bottling. Hubert had an innate skill in producing wines that were elegant and pure, quickly catapulting de Montille's wines to insider status. Etienne, Hubert's son, learned about viticulture early on, yet he pursued law as his profession. In 1983, Etienne started working beside his father, becoming co-manager in 1995, beginning to move the Domaine towards organic and biodynamic farming. In 2001, he took full control of the Domaine and asserted his philosophy of winemaking: organic farming and a judicious use of whole cluster fermentation. This resulted in a slightly richer style, yet Etienne has never varied from his father's fundamentals of purity, elegance and balance. Soon after taking full control, Etienne enlarged Domaine de Montille, an initiative that began with the purchase of a small parcel of the esteemed Puligny Montrachet Les Caillerets. In 2005, he returned the family to the Côte de Nuits, with the purchase of a famed parcel in Vosne Romanée — Les Malconsorts. It is a pleasure to offer in our anniversary sale seven lots of large formats of Domaine de Montille's legendary red and white wines, including their coveted Malconsorts Cuvée Christiane. This cuvée was named after Etienne's mother and comes from a small plot separate from the rest of Les Malconsorts, nestled against the north and west borders of La Tache! We also have the first vintage of de Montille's Pommard Rugiens Hommage à Hubert, named, of course, for Etienne's father. We are overjoyed to present to you the wines of de Montille!

CHATEAU DE LA TOUR

Chateau de la Tour is the heart of Clos Vougeot as well as its most important Domaine. Our old, trusted friend Francois Labet is back with another great consignment to celebrate our 200th Anniversary! The Château de la Tour is located entirely within the walls of the famed vineyard of Clos de Vougeot, just downhill from the landmark castle that bears the same name. It is the only Clos Vougeot vinified (made) inside the Clos de Vougeot! The Clos de Vougeot vineyard is by far the largest grand cru in Burgundy, and Chateau de la Tour is its largest landowner! Esteemed Burgundy critic Allen Meadows, “The Burghound,” referred to the greatest vertical tasting of Chateau de la Tour ever assembled, 1885 to 2010 as “one of the finest moments in his tasting career.” The wines of Chateau de la Tour are exceedingly long-lived, with a tremendous combination of power and grace. The vines for Chateau de la Tour average forty-five years old, with their Vieilles Vignes being over seventy-five years old! The top cuvee is called ‘Hommage a Jean Morin’ in honor of Jean Morin, who was Francois Labet’s grandfather and founder of the Confrérie du Tastevin as well. He is responsible for the modern era of the Chateau and its vineyard holdings, which are the largest within the Clos de Vougeot. The vines for this special cuvee are over 100 years old, and there are less than 50 cases a year made! This parcel was created to celebrate this parcel of very old vines, and we are offering the first five vintages ever made! Francois is not only a great winemaker, but also a true gentleman in every sense of the word, and it is a pleasure to share his company, and the company of his cellar, with you, including Jeroboams of Chateau de la Tour, verticals of Hommage a Jean Morin in bottle and magnum and extremely rare Fine de Bourgogne from Clos Vougeot!

DOMAINE LIGNIER, HUBERT & LAURENT

It is an honor and a pleasure to have for our Bicentennial Auction another direct consignment of six special lots from Hubert Lignier, a legendary Domaine in Morey Saint Denis. The Domaine owns over eight hectares principally in Morey-Saint-Denis, as well as Gevrey-Chambertin and Chambolle-Musigny. Recently, the Ligniers have expanded their holdings to include parcels in the appellations of Nuits-Saint-Georges and Pommard. Hubert's son, Laurent, is the fifth generation of this proud estate and is following his father's traditional practices to ensure the treasures coming from the family's impressive vineyard holdings continue to exhibit the best of their respective appellations. Selection Massale, replacing vines with cuttings from the same vineyard and restrained use of oak are all techniques that ensures the wines retain their unique character. After some outstanding Morey VV, one of the real sleeper wines in Morey, we get a small taste of the 2016 vintage and the Domaine's newest baby, Griottes Chambertin. The special pride of the family is Clos de la Roche, of course, of which Lignier renders a benchmark example, which is really saying something given how many superb and legendary winemakers exist in this great Grand Cru. We are privileged to have verticals of bottles and magnums, as well as a rare Jeroboam of 1996 Clos de la Roche and a super rare magnum from the legendary 1978 vintage direct from the Domaine!

DOMAINE MEO CAMUZET

Meo-Camuzet is one of the most important Domaines in all of Burgundy, run today by Jean-Nicolas Meo and having in the past been advised by none other than Henri Mayer. The roots of Mayer run deep in Meo-Camuzet, with the wines having outstanding concentration and sublime elegance, truly the iron fist in the velvet glove. Founded by Etienne Camuzet, for many years the Domaine was run from afar, and the vineyards increasingly leased out. Jean-Nicolas launched the modern era of this great Domaine by focusing on estate bottling and reclaiming its special vineyards sharecroppers in the 1980s. In 1981 Domaine Camuzet became Domaine Meo Camuzet and they started to bottle under that Domaine name in 1983. Meo-Camuzet's important holdings are crowned by Clos Vougeot, Richebourg and Cros Parantoux (one of only two producers to make it today), along with other significant terroirs in Vosne Romanee, Nuits-Saint-Georges and Corton. Jean-Nicolas has gone old school in maximizing these special vineyards' potential with strict pruning, plowing by horse, Francois Freres barrels and careful sorting and handling. We are exceptionally excited to have a direct consignment of six lots from Meo-Camuzet for our 200th Anniversary featuring Corton, Echezeaux and highlighted by magnums from the remarkable 1999 vintage from his three most important vineyards: Brulees, Richebourg and Cros Parantoux!

Méo-Camuzet
1x1 magnum owc
"Explosive black, sexy, powerful and dense fruit coupled with oriental spice and traces of earth followed by rich, extremely long flavors of cassis, soy and buckets of pinot extract and an incredibly long finish that boasts coffee and chocolate notes. The tannins are quite fine and very ripe and the impression is one of sweetness and perfect balance. This is a real show stopper though some of the exuberance it displayed a few years ago is now gone and has been replaced by the first signs of maturing fruit." (94pts BH)

DUJAC

The Dujac story starts with passion for gastronomy. Louis Seysses was a biscuit manufacturer and gastronome who had a taste for good food and fine wines. His son, Jacques, quickly came to share his father's passion and then decided he would not only like to drink the wine but make it as well. With the help of his father, Jacques began his career in wine with an apprenticeship with the famous Gerard Potel at the Domaine de la Pousse d'Or. He spent two harvests there. In 1967, he had the opportunity to purchase the then Domaine Graillet in Morey-Saint-Denis. Jacques Seysses christened his new Domaine simply and phonetically "Dujac" in wry homage to the Burgundian locals who referred to it as the "Domaine du Jacques." It took a good measure of both originality and courage to throw himself into the winemaking profession as there was no winemaking tradition in his family. In addition, he chose to do his own bottling, something that was still not common in those days. Trying to blend what he admired in traditional winemaking with modern techniques, Jacques went on to refine a style of his own. Although the first vintage made at Dujac (1968) is the worst known in almost 50 years, the following vintage more than made up for his difficult start, and 1969 remains one of the most superb vintages produced at Dujac. In 1978, Jacques returned to study and graduated with a diploma of oenology, and since 1968 production of the Domaine has slowly increased from five hectares to its present size of fifteen. In 2000 the transition from one generation to the next began. Jacques was joined by his son Jeremy, who handles winemaking along with his wife Diana and his brother Alec. Today, the Domaine is now safely in their hands, although Jacques always manages to still be around! In 2001 the Domaine began experimenting organic viticulture and biodynamics, finally leading to farm the entire Domaine organically in 2009. There are very few producers in the world as loved and cherished as Domaine Dujac, and we are honored to offer some incredibly rare wines from their cellar ex-Domaine, including bottles of 1999 Clos St. Denis, a magnum of 1985 and methusaleh of 1996 Clos de la Roche, and a magnum of Echezeaux and bottles of Clos de la Roche from their legendary 1978 vintage!

1393 Clos de la Roche - Vintage 1985

Dujac

"the 1985 Dujac Clos de la Roche took back the crown of Morey St. Denis where it rightfully belongs. This was better than each of the previous two wines. Is Clos de la Roche always better than Clos St. Denis? It was kaleidoscopic and almost psychedelic with its sweet fruits. Its spice cabinet was full, and the wine stimulated my senses while it played with my palate. I would do whatever it wanted lol. It had perfect balance and was in a perfect place, and so were we." Dujac

1x3 bottle ocb, outstanding color and condition

"The 1978 Dujac Clos de la Roche was spectacular. There were loads of menthol, spice, alcohol, game, minerals, wet stones and hints of citrus. The nose was perfect for Wolf, and it had an incredible spine to it with hints of citrus and bread. The flavors were deliciously gamy, and the finish was massive, with lots of earth, ink and leather flavors. The wine also had this complex wintry impression of mint and menthol flavors, la Cheval Blanc. It was stupendous and well worth an effort to acquire. Eric gave it 100 and called it quintessential Dujac..." (98pts JK)

DOMAINE JEAN-LOUIS CHAVE

Domaine Jean-Louis Chave is one of the finest and oldest Domaines in the world, over five centuries old. The story started in 1481 in what is now known as the Saint Joseph appellation. The land was given to Charles by the local Lord (Seigneur d'Yserand) as a reward. This place still exists and is known as the "Lieux-dit Chave." It is only when phylloxera hit France in the late 19th century that the Chave family moved to the village of Mauves, where the current cellar is. It is at this time that the ancestors crossed the Rhone river from Mauves and started climbing the Hill of Hermitage. Hermitage or Ermitage gained its name, some say, from the presence of a hermit who took up residence on the hill. Local stories abound how this came out. One of these stories is that it was a Knight, Gaspard de Sterimberg, wounded in one of the 13th century Crusades, who sought refuge after, planting vines and living the rest of his days there. The first appearance of the name Hermitage was at the end of the 16th Century, while names of some lieux-dits within Hermitage today such as Bessards, Méal and Rocoules appeared at the end of the 14th Century. Thomas Jefferson, when he was the American ambassador to France, visited the village of Tain in 1787. He considered white Hermitage and Champagne to be best white wines in France. In the early 19th Century, the wines of Hermitage met favor with nobility and were poured on most of the European noble tables. Unfortunately, Hermitage was hit hard by the phylloxera crisis and continued to suffer for decades, through both World Wars, seemingly only regaining attention again in the 1970's.

Gerard Chave, Jean-Louis's father, took over the Domaine at the beginning of the 1970's and created the international reputation of the Domaine while expanding the Domaine's landholdings, bringing it to its current size with purchase of additional Hermitage parcels in the mid-1980s. After an MBA studying oenology at the University of California-Davis, Jean-Louis joined the Domaine in 1992, taking over gradually from his father while simultaneously elevating the Domaine to new heights. Jean-Louis is now the 16th generation of Chave! Living for and from the vines since the 15th Century, the Chave family is the essence of tradition in Hermitage, and it is pointless to try to understand their wines without understanding Hermitage itself. As Jean-Louis says, "L'Hermitage is our Grand Cru, and it has made me what I am today." L'Hermitage must always be a blend, a "Vin d'Assemblage" as they like to say. The Chave family has been defending this notion for years. There is an inevitable contrast within the unique lieux-dits of Hermitage that must be balanced out. This concept is the heart and soul of the Chave Hermitages. The Chaves blend separately every year each wine from the eight plots together, but beforehand they harvest and vinify each plot separately. Each vintage brings its own unique philosophy and blend. In some years, there are now two visions, two paths for the vintage to take. The Cuvée Cathelin represents another singular idea of the greatest of vintages, where there is more than one expression that speaks to the Chaves. This is why, beginning in 1990, they began making tiny amounts of the Cuvée Cathelin which has become an iconic wine produced only in the most exceptional years, so far those years being 1990, 1991, 1995, 1998, 2000, 2003, 2009 and 2010.

The offering of lots direct from the Domaine's cellar is extraordinary. We are offering every vintage ever released of Cuvée Cathelin, and this is also the American debut of the 2010 Cuvée Cathelin! Magnums of Cathelin are not commercially released. We are also pleased to present a customized mixed case of Hermitage Rouge in three iconic vintages: 1989, 1990, 1991; a mini vertical of six vintages in Magnums of Hermitage Blanc and an extremely rare Jeroboam of Hermitage Rouge! It is an honor to present to you wines from the King of the Hill of Hermitage, Jean-Louis Chave!

"A desert island wine, the off-the-charts 2010 Hermitage cuvée Cathelin is a cellar selection (mostly from the granite soils of Les Bessards) that sees a tad more oak than the standard cuvée. Flamboyant and insanely complex, with cassis, blackberry, ground herbs pepper, liquid rock and tings of licorice (among other things), this massive, yet incredibly elegant Hermitage has a full, thick and chewy mouthfeel, huge extract and blockbuster length. Due to the tiny quantities, I doubt this cuvée will even hit the market place, nevertheless, in my opinion, it's one of the most spectacular wines in the world."(100pts)

DOMAINE DU COMTE LIGER-BELAIR

It is a great pleasure and privilege to welcome back to New York, the one, the only, Comte Louis Michel Liger-Belair! Domaine du Comte Liger-Belair is in a way a recent Domaine, as it was restored by Louis-Michel Liger-Belair, agricultural engineer and oenologist, in 2000, but in reality, this is an old and historical Domaine with more than 200 years of history and tradition in Burgundy and Vosne Romanée in particular. In 1815, Louis Liger-Belair, one of Napoleon's generals, acquired the Chateau de Vosne Romanée. The Domaine thereafter grew considerably under the direction of the general and then his nephew that became his adopted son, the Comte Louis-Charles. Louis-Charles married Ludovie Marey, who became part of the history of this family as owners and wine merchants in Burgundy since 1720.

At the death of Comte Edgar, son of Comte Louis-Charles, the wine estate family ownership extended over more than 60 hectares, mainly in the Cote de Nuits, gathering some of the most prestigious "Climats" of Burgundy. It included Monopoles such as La Romanée, La Tache, La Grande Rue and also large parcels of Malconsorts, Chaumes, Reignots, Brulées and Suchots in Vosne Romanée, Vaucrains in Nuits-Saint-Georges, Clos de Vougeot and Cras in Vougeot, Chambolle Musigny, Morey Saint Denis as well as Chambertin!

At the death of Comte Henri Liger-Belair (grandson of Comte Louis-Charles and great-grandfather of Louis-Michel) in 1924 and then his wife in 1931, the Domaine was sold by judicial auction. The children thus witnessed the departure from their heritage La Tache, les Malconsorts, les Brulées, most certainly a sad day in the family's history. Two of the children including Comte Michel (grandfather of Louis-Michel), joined together to buy back La Romanée, les Reignots and les Chaumes, whose management was then entrusted to local winegrowers. Comte Michel died in 1941 during the war, before he could redevelop the Domaine. His son, Comte Henry, Louis-Michel's father, joined the army in 1947 and pursued a brilliant career that led to the rank of general, as his ancestor had six generations earlier. In 2000, Comte Louis-Michel, engineer and oenologist, took over control of the Domaine, all aspects of production, from the vine to the bottle. Louis-Michel resurrected his family's Domaine in 2000 with 1.5 hectares of family vines (Vosne-Romanée La Colombière, Clos du Château and Les Chaumes). In 2002, 1.6 hectares were added with La Romanée Grand Cru Monopole and Vosne Premier Cru Aux Reignots. In 2006, he had the opportunity to rent 5.5 hectares including a large parcel of Echezeaux, Vosne-Romanée les Suchots, les Petits Monts and aux Brulées, Nuits-Saint-Georges aux Cras, Vosne-Romanée and Nuits-Saint Georges. In 2012, he bought a Clos in Nuits-Saint-Georges, the "Monopole" of Clos des Grands Vignes. In 2015, he produced his first vintage of Clos de Vougeot Grand Cru and took over the family historic brand, C. Marey & Cte Liger-Belair, which had left the family fold at the end of the 1970's.

It is a great honor to offer you these selected lots from the once again, now legendary cellars of Comte Louis-Michel Liger-Belair this year as it is a double anniversary! C. Marey & Cte Liger-Belair is celebrating its 300th Anniversary! C. Marey was created in 1720 and is the old Negoce house in Burgundy, which became C. Marey & Liger-Belair at the beginning of the 1850's. We thought 200 years old was pretty impressive, but leave it to Louis-Michel and the Liger-Belair family to outdo everyone! And he certainly has done that with the most featured lot of all forty Domaine Direct offerings: a tremendous complete vertical of the iconic La Romanée Monopole in Magnums from 2002 to 2017, that includes a super rare magnum of 2002 (only 53 magnums produced, and also the first vintage made by Comte Louis Michel). It is becoming extremely difficult to find magnums as they are no longer commercially released by the Domaine since 2015, keeping these large formats for very special occasions. We are also delighted to offer an unique vertical of Echezeaux from 2006 to 2017, every vintage ever made by Comte Louis Michel Liger-Belair. We also have a unique Jeroboam of 2009 Vosne Romanee aux Brulees. This wine is not commercially released as well and only produced in magnums or Jeroboams, and only sixteen Jeros were made. For the 2010 Vosne Romanée Aux Reignots 2010, only ten Jeroboams were made, and the same goes for the 2015 Clos Vougeot, the first vintage of this wine. Ladies and gentlemen, it is with great pride and pleasure that we present to you the Grand Finale of our Domaine Direct offerings, direct from the cellars of Comte Louis Michel Liger-Belair !!!

FUN WITH GREAT BORDEAUX AND BURGUNDY

This is another collector who has been with us since the beginning of our auction days, always having a good time. He is happy to share the joy with 1990 La Mission, 2005 Lafite, 1964 Vieux Chateau Certain magnums, young DRCs, 2002 Dujac Charmes magnums and Marquis de Laguiche magnums. All wines properly stored.

1424 Château Ducru Beaucaillou - Vintage 2005

St. Julien

"It is an exceptionally powerful wine with a dense purple color; superb intensity, and a beautiful, sweet nose of spring flowers, raspberries, blueberries, graphite, and creme de cassis. Full-bodied with fabulous concentration, exceptionally high tannin, good acidity, and massive layers of richness that build incrementally on the palate..." (97pts)

1428 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1990

Graves

4 bottles different importers

"...I never thought it would come close to being as riveting and magnetic as its older sibling, the 1989. However, it has proven to be nearly as prodigious. One of the hottest years in Bordeaux, 1990, a vintage of enormous yields, even dwarfing yields in 1985 and 1982, produced a fabulously open-knit, seemingly fast track La Mission that, at age 22, shows no signs of fading or losing its grip. The color is slightly more mature and evolved than the 1989's, exhibiting a lighter rim and a less dark blue/ruby/purple hue. Classic La Mission-Haut-Brion aromatics of camphor, licorice, scorched earth, hot bricks, barbecue, cassis, blueberry and kirsch are well displayed." (99pts)

Domaine de la Romanée Conti
"Exuberant and ripe spicy purple fruit also exhibits distinct floral and warm earth nuances that go on to suffuse the rich and finely detailed medium-bodied flavors that possess excellent underlying tension before terminating in a focused, intense and gorgeously long finish. This is pure silk and lace but the really impressive aspect of this wine is just how much depth it has." (94pts BH)

"Here the floral and spice characters are quite prominent on the sandalwood and spice suffused red and dark currant aromas. The suave yet well-detailed medium-bodied flavors brim with dry extract before terminating in a very firm but not hard green tea-inflected finish that delivers excellent length and impressive depth. I very much like the balance and about the only nit is a hint of warmth." (93pts BH)
 1 magnum per lot $3000-4000

1440 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2009
Domaine de la Romanée Conti
"A gorgeously spicy nose features aromas of black cherry, plum and soft mocha that complements well the ripe, supple and clearly very vibrant middle weight plus flavors that are overtly muscular but not rustic and culminate in a superbly complex and palate staining finish. This is almost always a very substantial wine but it is huge in 2009 and I think that it's safe to observe that the '09 GE is impressive as hell, even relative to a wine that makes achieving reference standard quality look commonplace." 1441 Grands Échézeaux - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This is the second time that I have tasted the 2010 Grands Échézeaux Grand Cru from bottle from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and it was a wine that prompted a table of mature Pinot aficionados to remark upon the joys of infanticide. This is just a fantastic wine from the domaine. The nose is heavenly with its exquisite delineation, the fruit maybe a touch darker and earthier than a couple of years ago -- yet still with subtle woodland/sous-bois aromas and a hint of morels. The palate is wonderfully defined, so fresh and precise with filigree tannin. Yet there is great backbone to this wine, a framework that imparts a sense of symmetry that is totally disarming. Of course, readers should afford this magnificent wine a decade in the cellar...unless by complete accident a corkscrew falls into the cork and twists around until the cork pops out. Then you will have to drink it." (96pts)

1443 Richebourg - Vintage 2003*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1nl*

"Violets, roses, raspberries, and red cherries emanate from the 2003 Richebourg. Full-bodied, deep, and hugely concentrated, it is muscular, firm and displays the firmest structure of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti's 2003s. Soy sauce, tar, chocolate, and dark fruits are found in its focused, audacious personality. Its impressively persistent finish is studded with highly present tannin." (97pts)

2 bottles per lot $3500-5000

1444 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1999*cuvée Duvault Blochet, Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The wine is medium to dark ruby-colored and has a rose, violet, and red cherry-scented nose. Medium-bodied, lush, and expansive, it is fresh, filled with crunchy red and black berries, and has an impressively long, sweet, tannin-filled finish." (90-92pts)

scl

(this was fashioned from a blend of all 6 of the grands crus; the '99 did not have La Romanée-Conti in it) Spice, pepper and exuberant black fruit and floral aromas lead to pure, delicious, round and very intense middle weight flavors that offer really lovely finishing detail and fine persistence. This is a very pretty wine and every bit the equal of the excellent 1999. (91pts BH)

"This fabulous wine from the eastern hillsides of northern Napa Valley, not far from the Eisele Vineyard, boasts an inky/blue/purple color as well as an extraordinary perfume of mulberries, black cherries, cassis, graphite, forest floor and charcoal, an astonishing texture, a full-bodied opulence and extraordinary richness and length. It is a modern day legend that tastes even younger than it did 7-10 years ago. These wines have an amazing ability to firm up and become even richer and more complex, which is exactly what great winemaking and terroir can do. Kudos to Jason Woodbridge for another sensational wine. "(100pts)

RARE OLD ITALIANS AND SPANISH WINES

Our anniversary sale has been filled with the great wines of France, but before we go we would be amiss if we did not include more legends from Italy and Spain. After an appetizer of ancient Burgundy and Champagne, this loyal consignor is here to help with several lots of Giacosa from the 1960s and 1970s as well as Monfortino going back to 1947 crowned by a 12.5 liter of 1955! A vertical of super sexy Sassicaia spanning 1978 to 2014 sets the stage for Vega Sicilia Unico back to 1941. Wow! All wines removed from professional storage.

 "Tasted at the La Tâche vertical at The Square. Not having tasted the La Tâche 1980 for 14 years, I must admit that I had high expectations for this wine and it truly delivered. Ignore the pale color, the extensive bricking on the rim because you will be transfixed by the nose. It is absolutely ethereal with quite brilliant transparency, fleeting glimpses of wild heather, jasmine, rose petals and Lapsong Souchang. The palate is fresh and tense, gently building in the mouth with all the delicacy you can imagine. No, there is not the length here but it is far fresher than the 1985 La Tâche with a sense of nervosité on the finish. Of all the vintages of La Tâche this is one of the most impressive and also the most difficult to put into words. It is simply a heavenly Pinot Noir at its peak."(98pts)

out of magnum was amazing, still very young with loads of spice, tannins and alcohol in its incredible nose. There was tar, leather and rose as well - all the components to stamp a 'classic' on it. The acids were great, as was its long and spiny finish. It crushed the other 1955 wine on the table, a 1955 Biondi Santi Brunello di Montalcino
Riserva." (96+pts JK)

THE BEST OF GOODBYES

It's so hard to say goodbye, so we won't for a little bit longer with the help of this good friend who didn't want to miss this special sale. He has shown his support with some of the jewels from his collection including 1971 Yquem, several vintage of Rousseau Chambertins, 1996 Vogue Bonnes Mares and 1995 Rayas. All wines properly stored.

Thank you so much for your support and here's to the next two hundred years cheers!

1501 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1970

St. Emilion

1vhs, 2hs, 3hbsl, 3gsl, excellent color

"...the 1970 had a nice, pungent nose full of wintergreen, nut, roasted meat and cherry fruit pinches of pepper, anise and caramel alcohol still firm gamy quality but in a red, ripe way good flavors of nut, caramel and older red fruits, mainly cherry good earth and mild dust on the finish a very good, delicious Cheval that is lighter-bodied, fine, but complex won't get much better, probably, and light by Cheval standards, but thoroughly enjoyable got saucy in a reduction way." (91pts JK)

3 bottles

per lot $750-1000

1502 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1971

St. Emilion

1bn, 5hbsl, 5gsl, 5nl, 3sdc, excellent color

"The 1971, my birth year, was very pungent and olive-y. It was the most open of the flight, wintry and minty in its personality, but also possessing red fruits, almost red citrus fruits. It was round and soft with a nice hint of sweetness to its fruit, yet still rusty. Subdued yet forward and expressive, Gil and I preferred the 1971 to the 1970 that followed. Gil observed, Cali weed and rose petals in the nose. Pierre also preferred the 1971 to the 1970." (92pts JK)

5 bottles

per lot $1800-2400

1503 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1982

St. Emilion

5bn, 12bsl

"Revealing considerable amber in its dark plum/garnet color, this intensely fragrant 1982 is somewhat of a paradox in that the front end suggests full maturity, but the mid-palate, finish, and overall texture denote a closed wine. A gorgeously sweet entry displays flavors of caramel, roasted coffee, jammy red and black fruits, coconut, and smoke. It is fat and full-bodied, with considerable tannin, structure, and muscle in the finish. Flamboyantly rich and precocious early in life, it is going through an awkward stage where the tannin is present, but it is also sexy, juicy, and formidably-structured. When the 1982 Cheval Blanc's component parts become totally in sync, it will be capable of meriting a three-digit rating." (99pts)

I have always stood by the 1971 Château d'Yquem as being one of the most seriously underrated vintages of that decade. I feel completely vindicated in this view as I batted away the 1967 Yquem when tasted at the Château and entranced its audience. This great Yquem was born during 10 days from October 6, when warm and humid conditions caused an outbreak of botrytis. It was a small crop of just 228 barrels. Slightly deeper in color than the 1982 Yquem tasted alongside, it is blessed with a truly spellbinding nose that has such energy and frisson that you don't know where to look. You can detect Mirabelle, ripe Satsumas, citrus peel and beeswax. The palate is vibrant, animated and simply electrifies the mouth upon entry. The 1971 has immense concentration, while the almost Tokaji Aszu-like finish is beautifully poised. This is simply an outstanding Yquem that shows absolutely no sign of reaching the end of its drinking plateau. Drink now-2040+. Tasted March 2014."* (97pts)

Then opens beautifully on the back half, showing a silky texture, captivating sappy sweetness, and superb persistence. This is the best value among the Comte Georges de Vogüé '97s, and a knockout for the vintage."* (92pts VM)

1520 Échézeaux - Vintage 1976*Domaine de la Romanée Contilbsl, excellent color*

A ripe and notably floral nose displays plenty of sous-bois aromas along with more subtle nuances of anise, hoisin, soy, dried flowers and earth. There is still good vibrancy and volume to the nicely rich medium-bodied flavors that possess good if not truly special complexity before terminating in a delicious finish that displays ever-so-mildly edgy tannins that are perhaps a bit less refined than usual. While not perfectly balanced this is still quite a good effort, particularly for almost 50 years of age even in magnum format. (90pts BH)

1527 Corton - Vintage 1969*J. Drouhin12wasl, 12hbsl, excellent color*

"Here is yet another example of how much bang for the buck one can find in the Côte de Beaune when sourcing mature Burgundy. The 1969 Corton from Drouhin is lovely, as it offers up a complex and classy nose of sweet cherries, red berries, woodsmoke, orange zest, gamebirds, mustard seed and a complex base of autumnal nuances and forest floor. On the palate the wine is full-bodied, refined and elegant, with moderate depth coupled to outstanding intensity of flavor, and a very long, tangy and complex finish. The '69 Corton from Drouhin has softened more than the Clos des Cortons from Faiveley (see below), and for the present time I have to give this the nod over that also quite fine bottle. Very classy juice" (93pts JG)

12 bottles per lot $1800-2400

1528 Musigny - Vintage 1996*J.F. Mugnier*

"Sappy, highly perfumed aromas of raspberry, spice, red berries and Bing cherry; shows an almost medicinal austerity that suggests it will require long aging. Thick, sappy and pungently oaky, with terrific intensity. An uncanny combination of power and finesse." (93+pts IWC)

2 bottles per lot $2200-3000

1529 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 1976*Maison Leroylbsl, excellent color and condition*

"Bricked through to the center. An elegant, spicy and completely mature nose displaying underbrush and sous-bois notes that introduce complex, intense, sweet and solidly powerful and structured flavors that deliver fine length and unusually good balance for the vintage as there is only a hint of dryness. Note that I have had this several times over the past 12 years with two of the bottles being very much in keeping with the style of the vintage, e.g. robust, while the third was almost delicate and quite refined." NECK:

Normal level for all wines. In wines over ten years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

BASE NECK:

A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

TOP-SHOULDER:

Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

VERY HIGH SHOULDER:

Acceptable fill level for wines twenty years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

HIGH SHOULDER:

Usually not a problem for wines thirty years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

HIGH-TO-MID-SHOULDER:

Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

MID SHOULDER:

May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines forty or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

LOW SHOULDER AND BELOW:

Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. (Not recommended for consumption.)

Because the shape of Burgundy bottles does not allow for a level rating system based on the shoulder of the bottle, levels are described by means of centimeters below cork. Generally, Burgundy wines with a four centimeter fill level or above are considered normal for wines younger than twenty years. Wines of twenty or more years of age with fill levels of between four and five centimeters are generally considered to be of sound provenance, though consideration should be given to the clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as the condition of the cork. Bottles with ullage between five and seven centimeters are not uncommon for wines forty years and older and often provide thrilling drinking, but the lower the fill, the higher the risk, so consideration should be given. Burgundy bottles with fill levels lower than seven centimeters may be at risk of being damaged or undrinkable, and therefore may be unsaleable. It should be noted that some Burgundian producers tend to over-fill their bottles during the bottling process which may cause a few drops of wine to become trapped between the capsule and the cork. This should not be confused with ullage, a natural occurrence in older wines, which may be accelerated due to poor provenance.

BUYERS CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. BUYER'S AGREEMENT.

By bidding at auction, the bidder at auction ("Bidder") agrees that this Buyer's Conditions of Sale ("Conditions of Sale"), together with the Bottle Description and Absentee Bids, all published by Acker, Merrall & Condit Company ("AMC"), and all incorporated into the Conditions of Sale, constitute Bidder's entire agreement (the "Agreement") with AMC and the seller ("Seller") with respect to the property ("Property") listed in this catalogue. AMC may amend the Agreement from time to time and at any time before, during and after any auction through posted notices, addenda or errata or through oral salesroom announcements during the sale. By bidding at auction, Bidder agrees to be bound by all terms and conditions of the Agreement.

2. AMC AS AGENT.

Except as otherwise stated in the Agreement, AMC acts strictly as agent for the Seller. The Agreement for the sale of all Property is therefore between Seller and the highest Bidder accepted by the auctioneer ("Buyer"). Property is divided into separate groupings as solely determined by AMC and each such grouping (a "Lot") is subject to a separate bid at auction.

3. BEFORE AUCTION.

a) Inspection. Prior to auction, Bidder is expressly advised to physically inspect any Property in which Bidder is interested in bidding and to rely on such inspection, as opposed to descriptions in the catalogue or elsewhere. While AMC attempts to describe all Property with accuracy, AMC shall in no event be liable for any oral or written description of Property, or for any errors or omissions relating thereto. ALL PROPERTY IS SOLD "AS IS."

AMC may seek views of outside experts either before or after the sale on certain Property, which may be marked to indicate that the expert has inspected Property. The auction venue has not selected or inspected any Property to be sold at this auction and disclaims any and all responsibility therefor.

b) No Guarantee. In no event whatsoever do Seller or AMC or any of their respective officers, employees or agents make any oral or written express or implied representations, warranties or guarantees as to the merchantability, fitness for a particular use, the correctness of any catalogue description or other description as to the origin, physical condition, quality, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, estimated value, importance, provenance, exhibition history, potability, historical relevance or bibliographic references concerning any Property.

c) Bidder Registration. To bid at this auction, Bidder must complete and sign a registration form and provide identification and proof of age. AMC may also require Bidder to produce bank or other financial references. AMC retains the absolute right to refuse any prospective Bidder admission to, or participation in, any auction.

d) Absentee Bidding. Bidders are expressly advised to read the Absentee Bids form which is part of this Agreement. As a courtesy to Bidders neither present at the auction in person nor through an agent or by telephone, AMC will enter written absentee bids delivered to AMC prior to the auction, which may be over the Internet.

Absentee bids must be placed in the currency of the place of sale. If AMC receives identical written bids for a particular Lot and these bids are the highest amount for that Lot at auction, such Lot will be sold to the absentee bid first received. The entry of written bids is a free service offered strictly as an accommodation to Bidders and is undertaken by AMC subject to its obligations at the time of auction. Accordingly, AMC is in no event liable for any errors or omissions in executing such written bids or for any failure to execute any such bids.

e) Telephone Bidding. Prior to the day of auction, Bidders may make arrangements with AMC to bid at auction by telephone. Telephone bidding is offered as a courtesy to Bidders who cannot be present at the auction in person, by agent, or by written absentee bid. The entry of telephone bids is a free service offered strictly as an accommodation to Bidders and is undertaken by AMC subject to its obligations at the time of auction. Accordingly, AMC is in no event liable for any errors or omissions in executing such telephone bids or for any failure to execute any such bids.

4. AT AUCTION.

a) Catalogues. Bidders are expressly advised to read the Bottle Description form which is part of this Agreement. While AMC has attempted to describe each Lot in this catalogue accurately, in no event shall AMC be liable for any description or error or omission in such description. AMC retains the absolute right to amend at any time prior to and during the auction and in any manner any description of any Lot. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and are based on standard sources. Each statement contained in this catalogue and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, notice, announcement or other written or oral communication, is a statement of opinion ONLY and shall not be relied upon by any Bidder. Bidders must make appropriate allowances for natural variations of ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. In no event shall AMC accept a return, offer credit for, or adjust the price of any Property after delivery except under the terms stated in Section 5 (d) below. Images appearing in this catalogue or elsewhere are for illustrative and informational purposes only, and may not reveal defects or imperfections in any Lot. Bidders are urged not to rely on images in determining whether to bid on Property, and are strongly encouraged both to review the relevant AMC auction catalogue entry and to personally inspect any Property prior to placing bids.

b) Reserve Price. Each Lot is sold subject to a reserve price, which is the minimum price below which the Lot will not be sold. While AMC has the right to raise or lower the reserve price at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding, under no circumstance shall the reserve price for a Lot exceed the low estimate for that Lot as printed in the catalogue or as amended by oral or posted notices. The reserve price for each Lot is available to prospective Bidders upon request, but AMC shall have no ongoing obligation to notify a prospective Bidder who has been informed of the reserve price if the reserve price has thereafter been changed.

c) Estimates. Each Lot in the catalogue is accompanied by a low and high estimate of the selling price, excluding the Buyer's premium and any taxes. Where possible, estimates are based on past sales of comparable property, and while they are intended as a general guide for prospective Bidders, in no event do they constitute either a representation or a prediction of an actual selling price and should not be relied upon as such. AMC determines estimates in advance of the sale and reserves the right to revise estimates to reflect current market conditions.

d) Bidding. Warranties. By bidding at auction, whether in person, through absentee bidding, telephone bidding, Internet bidding or otherwise, Bidders represent and warrant that (i) they are at least twenty-one (21) years of age, (ii) they have the legal authority, right, and capacity to buy, receive, possess and otherwise deal in any Lot purchased, and (iii) any bids made by Bidder or on Bidder's behalf are not pursuant to any anti-competitive agreement and are otherwise in compliance with all applicable laws.

i) Bids per Lot. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer, all bids are per Lot in consecutive numerical order as they appear in this catalogue.

ii) Bidding up to but not at the Reserve Price. Subject to the auctioneer's discretion, bids shall be entered in the order in which they are received. The auctioneer may open bidding on any Lot by placing a bid on behalf of the Seller. The auctioneer may further bid on behalf of the Seller up to but not at or exceeding the amount of the reserve price by placing successive or consecutive bids for the Lot, or by placing bids in response to other Bidders.

iii) Bidding by AMC. AMC reserves the right to bid for its own account on any Lot at any auction, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders and Buyers.

iv) Bidding Not Reaching the Reserve Price. If bidding on a Lot does not reach the reserve price, the auctioneer may remove the Lot from sale. At the time of such removal and before bidding on another Lot begins, the auctioneer shall announce that the removed Lot has been "passed".

v) Hammer Price. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer will be Buyer and the striking of the auctioneer's hammer marks the acceptance of the final bid as the "hammer price" and the creation of a contract for sale between Seller and Buyer.

vi) No Liability. In no event shall AMC be liable for any errors in entering any bids or for failure to enter any bids.

e) Parcel Lots. In the event the catalogue lists a sequence of Lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type of wine, quantity and bottle size (a "Parcel"), Buyer of the first Lot in such Parcel may, in the discretion of the auctioneer, be granted the option to buy any or all additional Lots in the Parcel for the same hammer price if there is no higher absentee bid on any subsequent Lot within the Parcel. If the option is not exercised on all such Lots, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold Lot and may elect to offer Buyer of that Lot the option to take any or all of the remaining Lots in the Parcel. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all Lots in the Parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer.

f) Auctioneer's Discretion. AMC and/or auctioneer has the sole and absolute discretion to: (i) withdraw any Lot; (ii) divide any Lot; (iii) combine any two or more Lots; (iv) refuse any bid; (v) advance the bidding, including changing the increments, in such a manner as AMC and/or auctioneer may see fit; and (vi) in the event of error or dispute, in order to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, cancel the sale, or reoffer and resell the disputed Lot. Wherever AMC and/or auctioneer exercises its discretion, its decision is final, binding and conclusive in all respects. The acceptance of online bids for lots being offered at live auctions is subject to the discretion of the auctioneer. Online notifications concerning your bid status may be overridden by the auctioneer. As such, even if you receive an online notice stating that your bid has been accepted, please be advised that the auctioneer may determine otherwise, and the auctioneer's decision is final.

h) Buyer's Premium. A Buyer's premium of twenty-four percent (24%) shall be added to the hammer price.

5. AFTER AUCTION.

a) Payment. When Due. Final invoices are rendered reflecting the final purchase price within seven (7) days following each auction. Buyer may pay each invoice upon receipt, but in any event must pay each invoice within thirty (30) days following the date of auction. All payments received more than thirty-five (35) days after the date of auction will be subject to an interest charge of 1.5% per month until the invoice is paid in full, notwithstanding any other provision of these Conditions of Sale.

Method of Payment. Payment of each invoice must be made in United States currency. All checks returned unpaid will be subject to a $100 processing fee. Visa, MasterCard and American Express are accepted for purchases of $15,000 and less. No other credit cards will be accepted. By submitting your credit card to pay for your winning bid and/or by filling out a registration form or Absentee Bids form and providing your credit card details, you thereby authorize AMC or its relevant affiliate to charge the balance of your invoice to your credit card upon the acceptance by AMC of a winning bid by you, and agree that you will pay for the purchase in accordance with the issuing institution's cardholder agreement.

b) Collection of Property. Property purchased at auction shall be made available for pick-up at AMC's New York City Location. Complimentary pick-up is available by appointment only. Please schedule pick-up by contacting AMC's Auction Department at 877-ACKER-47 at least one week in advance. Property will not be released until payment in full has been received and funds have cleared. Buyers paying by personal check should allow five (5) business days prior to release of Property.

c) Local Delivery. AMC will arrange free delivery within Manhattan. Delivery can usually be made within one (1) week of Buyer's request at a prearranged time. Payment for delivery charges must be made in advance.

d) Multiple Deliveries or Pickups. Any Lot (as such term is defined below in AMC's Conditions of Sale) that is split into two or more parts for multiple deliveries or pickups shall be subject to a service charge per split, per Lot.

e) Storage. Property shall be made available for pick-up once payment is received in full. If Buyer requires delivery within the United States outside of Manhattan, such delivery arrangements shall Buyer's sole responsibility. In such case, custody of purchased Property will be transferred to PEP Logistics, which shall, as agent for Buyer, provide on-site storage for up to thirty (30) days following the auction date to allow delivery arrangements to be made. Any Property for which delivery arrangements have not been made or which has not otherwise been collected within thirty (30) days following the auction date may be removed to a third-party storage facility by PEP Logistics (or, at PEP Logistics' election, stored on-site by PEP Logistics), and all packaging, handling, delivery, insuring, and third party storage fees associated with such Property shall be paid in full by Buyer together with any other costs or charges owed by Buyer to PEP Logistics prior to the release of such Property by PEP Logistics. If any Property is not collected from PEP Logistics by Buyer for any reason within ninety (90) days following the auction date then, unless otherwise agreed in writing by PEP Logistics and Buyer, PEP Logistics is authorized by Buyer to take any action it deems appropriate with respect to such Property. PEP Logistics may, at its election, deem such Property to have been abandoned by Buyer and/or, in addition to the imposition of the costs and charges set forth above and any other rights PEP Logistics may have at law or equity, PEP Logistics shall have the right, at its sole discretion, to re-sell such Property publicly or privately (including at any one or more PEP Logistics auctions or other auctions or in one or more retail sales) at any location and for a price determined by PEP Logistics, and to deduct from the gross proceeds of any such re-sale its legal fees and expenses and other customary costs, expenses and charges including, without limitation, seller's commission and buyer's premium (in the case of auction sales), advertising costs, third party sales commissions, and packaging, handling, delivery, insurance and additional third party storage fees. In no event shall PEP Logistics have any liability to Buyer or any other party for any loss or damage to Property not collected within thirty (30) days following the auction date.

f) Delivery.

- i) Buyer is solely responsible for any required delivery of his or her Property within the United States outside of Manhattan and shall assume all obligations for compliance with applicable laws.
- ii) If requested by Buyer, subject to applicable laws, PEP Logistics may act as Buyer's agent in arranging for an appropriate carrier. Deliveries outside of Manhattan will be at Buyer's expense, and any delivery arrangements made through PEP Logistics within the United States shall be made strictly as agent for the Buyer. Deliveries shall be made "FOB origin" with risk of loss or damage passing to Buyer in New York when Property is received by the carrier. Deliveries must be prepaid or freight collect. Deliveries may also be subject to service charges by PEP Logistics. Delivery arrangements can be made once payment has been received in full and funds have been deposited into AMC's account. Buyers should allow five (5) business days when arranging delivery within the continental United States, and ten (10) business days for jurisdictions outside the continental United States, as well as for international deliveries, which may require customs documentation or special routing attention.

- iii) Any loss or damage resulting from delivery of Property via any carrier will be the sole responsibility and at the risk of Buyer and/or carrier. AMC is not responsible for any deterioration, damage or loss to Buyer's Property occurring while in transit.

g) Title and Taxation

Title to and ownership of alcoholic beverages passes from Seller to Buyer in New York, and Buyer takes all responsibility for the product being transported from New York to Buyer's selected destination. Buyer may pick up the product at AMC's New York City location or its Valley Cottage, NY, warehouse. Buyer may also make independent delivery arrangements, subject to the terms in Sections 5(e) and 5(f) above.

- i) Delivery to permit states. For orders going to states in which AMC is licensed or has a direct-to-consumer shipping permit, title to, and ownership of, the product passes to you in New York, and sales and other applicable taxes will be applied based on the requirements of the destination state.
- ii) Delivery to all other United States locations. Title to and ownership of alcoholic beverages passes to you in New York, and you take all responsibility for the product being transported from New York to your selected destination. You may pick up the product at AMC's New York City location or its Valley Cottage, NY, warehouse, or make independent delivery arrangements, subject to the terms in Sections 5(e) or 5(f) above. New York State sales tax will be applied in all cases, as AMC is not permitted to deliver into states in which it does not have a direct-to-consumer permit and therefore must deliver the product to you or your agent within New York, notwithstanding any subsequent out-of-state shipping arrangement you may require.
- iii) Delivery outside the United States. Title to alcoholic beverages passes to you in New York. No sales tax will be charged if the Property is relinquished to a freight forwarder or international carrier hired by or on behalf of the Buyer for direct export outside of the United States.

Buyers who are licensed and/or registered resellers and who provide AMC with a properly completed resale certificate may be exempt from sales tax.

Some jurisdictions may also impose excise taxes on deliveries of Property into their territory. AMC or PEP Logistics, as Buyer's agent, may collect such excise taxes from Buyer, where required.

h) Representations.

- i) Importation and Delivery. AMC makes no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to deliver or import any alcoholic beverages or other goods into any state or jurisdiction. You warrant that you are solely responsible for the transport of the purchased products and for determining the legality and the tax/duty consequences of bringing the products to your chosen destination. By arranging for transportation of the alcoholic beverages, AMC is providing a service to, and acting as, your agent. By utilizing this service from AMC you are representing that you are acting in compliance with your local, state and jurisdiction laws regarding the purchase, transportation and delivery of alcoholic beverages. You further represent that you are legally entitled to take quantities ordered and that you and the person accepting delivery of the alcoholic beverage products are at least 21 years of age.

ii) Exportation: Property sold at auction may be subject to laws governing exportation from the United States, and AMC makes no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to export alcoholic beverages or other goods into any state or jurisdiction. It shall be Buyer's sole responsibility to determine – before bidding at auction – whether an export permit or license is required for Buyer's purchase and to obtain any such required permit or license. The denial of, or delay in obtaining, any such permit or license shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor any delay in making full payment for the purchase.

i) Rescission.

i) AMC's Limited Guarantee. If, within ninety (90) days after the auction, Buyer of a Lot notifies AMC in writing that such Lot is short or is in unsound condition (e.g., cooked and spoiled), or that any statement made in AMC's offering materials concerning such Lot is materially incorrect, AMC shall be the sole arbiter, by way of inspection or by such other reasonable means as it sees fit, of the validity of such claim between Buyer and Seller and shall make a final decision binding on Buyer and Seller based on its determination of the validity of such claim. No claim made by Buyer under the preceding sentence shall be addressed by AMC unless all Property in question (i) has the AMC auction sale date reference sticker on its bottle, (ii) is in the same condition in which it was delivered to Buyer, and (iii) has been delivered to and from Buyer and stored under appropriate conditions. Having decided any such claim, AMC may, in good faith, direct that the sale either stand or be rescinded and that the final purchase price be refunded either in whole or in part. By bidding at auction, Bidder agrees for itself and its successors and assigns that (i) it hereby waives any right to make any claim or bring any legal action against AMC resulting from any determination made or failed to be made by AMC under this Paragraph 5 (d), and (ii) in the event that Buyer fails to provide timely and proper notice to AMC under this provision, Buyer shall be deemed to have waived the right to rescission as herein provided.

ii) Rescission available solely to Buyer. The remedy of rescission, if AMC elects to rescind under the circumstances, is available solely to Buyer of Property, who must have remained the sole owner thereof with no transfer of any interest therein to any third party.

iii) Buyer's Sole Remedy. The refund to Buyer of the purchase price for Property shall be Buyer's sole remedy for any matter relating to the condition of Property, and such remedy shall be available only if Buyer received such Property from AMC. In no event shall AMC be liable for any indirect, special, punitive, consequential, loss of profit or other damages, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses, no matter how arising, and AMC's maximum liability shall be the amount paid by Buyer (exclusive of all taxes) for any Property that is subject to return as permitted hereby. Seller shall have no other liability of any nature or kind under this Agreement, in tort or otherwise, whether at law or in equity, with respect to this Agreement or the offer, purchase and sale of any wine comprising the purchase and sale of Property.

iv) Different Importers. Although AMC makes an effort to state in the catalogue if a Lot includes wines from different importers, failure to so state is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot. Similarly, any incorrect statement or omission in the catalogue concerning bottles and/or sequence numbers of Property from those producers that number their bottles comprising Property, is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot.

v) Different Vintage and/or Producer. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within these Conditions of Sale, AMC agrees to refund the hammer price to the Buyer of any Property purchased from AMC that is not of the vintage or from the producer as was stated in the catalogue or otherwise represented by AMC, including, but not limited to, Property that is counterfeit, provided that: (i) the Buyer directly purchased the Property from AMC; (ii) the Buyer returns such Property to AMC within ninety (90) days of the date of delivery of such Property to Buyer; and (iii) that Buyer returns such Property in materially the same condition as it was delivered to Buyer.

j) Default by Buyer. If Buyer fails to make payment in accordance with the Conditions of Sale within one hundred and five (105) days following the auction, AMC may, in its absolute discretion:

i) Cancel the sale;

ii) Resell Property publicly or privately for Buyer's account and at Buyer's risk and charge Buyer for any deficiency between the final bid in the resale and the final bid placed by Buyer, in addition to all costs and expenses of both the initial sale and the resale at AMC's regular rates and the Buyer's premium due in connection with the initial sale;

iii) Set off all sums due from Buyer against any amounts which AMC may owe to Buyer;

iv) Exercise all the rights and remedies of a party holding a first priority perfected security interest in any Property or other property in AMC's possession owned or consigned by Buyer;

v) Collect from Buyer the total amount due plus any loss, cost or expense incurred by AMC in effecting such collection;

vi) Charge Buyer interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum on all sums due from Buyer;

vii) Collect from Buyer the fees, expenses, and disbursements of legal counsel to AMC incurred in exercising any one or more of the rights or remedies set forth in this Agreement;

viii) Not permit Buyer directly or indirectly to participate in future AMC auctions;

ix) Exercise any right or remedy against Buyer available to Seller; and

x) Assert any other rights or remedies available at law or in equity.

AMC may, in its discretion, exercise any one or more of the preceding remedies or any combination thereof.

k) Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall indemnify, defend, and hold AMC and PEP Logistics, and their officers, directors, employees, and agents, harmless from any loss, expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses, which shall be paid in advance), liability, costs, or damages incurred by reason of (i) any breach or alleged breach of any warranty herein or breach of this Agreement by Buyer, (ii) any inaccuracy of any certificate, document or instrument delivered by Buyer pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement, and (iii) any act or omission of Buyer, its agents or employees, adversely affecting Property. Buyer's representations, warranties and indemnification will survive completion of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

h) Copyright. AMC reserves copyright in all images, illustrations and written material produced by or on behalf of AMC, including, without limitation, the content of this catalogue (collectively, "Material"), and in no event may Buyer or any third party use any of Material without AMC's prior written consent. In no event do either AMC or Seller make any representation or warranty that Buyer will acquire any copyright, reproduction right or any other intellectual property right in any Property.

6. GENERAL TERMS.

a) Headings. The section headings in this Conditions of Sale are for convenience of reference only and shall not be considered as substantive parts of this Agreement.

b) Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including all instruments incorporated by reference) constitutes the entire agreement between AMC and Buyer pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior discussions and agreements between them. This Agreement may not be amended, nor shall any waiver, change, modification, consent, or discharge of any part of this Agreement be granted, except by an instrument in writing executed by both AMC and Buyer. Any failure by AMC to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of such provision.

c) No Joint Venture. No provision of this Agreement shall be construed to create any agency, partnership, or other joint enterprise between AMC and Buyer.

d) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without regard to principles governing conflicts of law. Buyer, by bidding at auction, whether in person, by agent, by written absentee bid, telephone, Internet, or other means, irrevocably agrees that any legal action may be brought in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York or in the courts of the State of New York, and Buyer submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of each of such courts in personam. Buyer waives any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such action brought in the aforesaid courts in the Southern District of New York or New York County.

7. LICENSE NUMBER.

The license number assigned to AMC by the New York Department of Consumer Affairs is 1413658.
