THE AUCTION OF THE YEAR: THE TRINITY COLLECTION

The Trinity Collection is an extra-special sale of over nine hundred lots that represents the outstanding, combined efforts of three extremely passionate collectors who are the best of friends, united in drinking and celebrating the world's finest wines, particularly its best Champagne and Burgundy. These brothers in wine have collected its finest and rarest for more than sixty years combined! As they are inseparable friends, often buying large allocations/cellars together while sharing the world's rarest bottles, it was natural that they came together with this extraordinary offering. I have had the pleasure of sharing many wine experiences with the Trinity collectors, having flown "anywhere" in the world just to have dinner with them, as the wine and the company is always the best. They are generous to a fault and will share their best bottles with anyone, anywhere, anytime. All three are true gentleman, conscientious connoisseurs, and passionate wines lovers that can have a great laugh along with a great bottle...or twelve. They really can't have just one, they can't help it. Now you see why I fly anywhere! The Trinity collectors are kindred spirits and have taken their wine learning to the highest level together in a friendly, competitive way. Many of the best nights of my wine life have been together with them, and I say that with the utmost seriousness and sincerity. Needless to say, they have built their collections with care and control, often having purchases vetted by experts and sourcing from only known merchants and auction houses.

This auction is about two-thirds Burgundy, featuring spectacular selections of Rousseau and DRC, amongst other greats, but, of particular note, is the offering of mature, vintage Champagne. This is arguably the most important collection of mature Champagne ever to come to market, and it is without question the most significant collection to come to market in well over a decade. You simply do not see these for offer; they are amongst the rarest of the rare. And when you taste a great, old bottle of Champagne, it is as thrilling as anything vinous made in the world. Selecting the bottles of old Champagne for this auction was a painstaking process, involving multiple inspections, inspectors, and enhanced authentication practices, as well as an analysis of color that I know no other auction house would do. We did it, because we drink these things, too. And I can safely say the bottles on offer here are the ultimate testament to old Champagne, which can age as well as any great Bordeaux. This I can say from experience.

You will see a litany of my own tasting notes throughout this catalog, special highlights of incredible bottles that I have tasted personally and only from this collection over the past twenty years. And, you will see an introduction of the collection and all the major sections, by producer, from none other than Richard Juhlin, the world's foremost authority on Champagne. Time to remove your saber from its sheath! Pop Champagne!!!

I think that's enough about the Champagne on offer in this sale, did I mention there are 324 magnums of bubbly here??? Ok, ok, ok, that's it, really. Besides the Burgundy and Champagne, there are some beautiful selections of Bordeaux, Rhone, Italy, and California. Open up a bottle, and curl up with this book before your summer break. You won't regret it unless you don't participate. It is with great pride and privilege that we present to you "The Trinity Collection."

In Vino Veritas,

John Kapon

WONDROUS WHITE BURGUNDY

FEATURING COCHE-DURY, LEFLAIVE, RAMONET AND RAVENEAU

Other than Champagne, there is no better way to start a fine wine dinner than with wonderful White Burgundy. Our three collectors have banded together like brothers to offer sixty-one lots of the world's finest Chardonnays from their cellars to fill us with awe. Coche-Dury, Domaine Leflaive, Ramonet, Raveneau and Roulot are among the outstanding benchmarks represented amid several rising stars to keep an eye on. Eight selections of Coche-Dury are highlighted by three, super-rare bottles of 1978 Meursault Perrieres.

We kick things up a notch with dueling 2005 and 2007 DRC Montrachet. Domaine Leflaive shines with nine selections including six vintages of Chevalier Montrachet crowned by a Jeroboam of 2008. Ramonet regales us with eight lots, focusing on Montrachet, spanning 1983 to 2013, including the great 1989 in bottle and magnum. Thirteen scintillating selections from Raveneau take us to the heights of Chablis, highlighted by magnums of 2009 Les Clos, as well as full cases of 2011 and 2015 Montee de Tonnerre. We wind things up with our whirlwind tour of wonder with eight lots of Roulot led by a 2014 Clos des Bouchers magnum case. Summer is beckoning!

SINCE 1820

1 Batard Montrachet - Vintage 2013

B. Moreau

2x3 bottle ovc's

"The 2013 Bâtard-Montrachet Grand Cru comes from purchased grapes sourced from a parcel on the upper slopes planted in 1964 (the domaine's own pickers undertaking the harvest themselves). It had been racked into a small stainless steel vat just the previous week and will be fined and bottled next year. It certainly displays very fine intensity on the nose, although the delineation will only surface once the wine has been completed. The palate is tense on the entry with piercing citric acidity to the point where you could almost describe it as "shrill." But it is not unbalanced and is simply rather penetrating in the mouth. It delivers an enchanting marine note - suggestions of shucked oyster shell toward the finish."(91-93pts)

9 bottles per lot $2200-3000

2 Meursault - Vintage 2011

(95pts VM)

Above 5 magnums per lot $1600-2200

4 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2014

Bonneau du Martray

2x6 bottle ovc's

"Very sexy aromas of apple, wild herbs, spices and soil. Boasts outstanding breadth and sweetness, with lovely savory complexity to the flavors of medicinal herbs, citrus fruits and powdered stone. Really superb tension in the mouth here. The echoing, building finish conveys an impression of outstanding density and a strong saline character."(95pts VM)

12 bottles per lot $2400-3200

5 Bourgogne Blanc - Vintage 2011

Coche-Dury

3lbsl

"The palate is crisp on the entry with a fine line of acidity, remaining very strict with plenty of fresh lime and dried apricot furnishing the finish. This is precise and very pure, a sprightly white Burgundy to enjoy in its flush of youth."(90pts)

12 bottles per lot $2400-3200

6 Bourgogne Blanc - Vintage 2012

Coche-Dury

12 bottles per lot $2600-3500

7 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2010

Coche-Dury

"The 2010 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne was so elegant and so long (I wrote: see previous note with The Rev and Bad Boy in LA, or did I not write that one up?). It was reminiscent of the 1996 vintage upon its release, another vintage that Coche released late, except I think that it was 1k a bottle at the time not five! It was still quite shy, but one sip had me once bitten. The wine was clean and pristine, clearly with the most potential generosity."(98pts JK)

3 bottles per lot $12000-16000

8 Meursault - Vintage 2006

Coche-Dury

4stl

"Tangy, perfumed aromas of orange oil and minerals. Supple and sweet, with fruit-dominated flavors of peach and orange. Not the last word in finesse, but this slightly exotic fruit bomb boasts considerable early sex appeal and lovely length for village wine. Good ripe, harmonious acidity gives it shape and verve."(89-91pts VM)

6 bottles per lot $3000-4000

9 Meursault - Vintage 2012

Coche-Dury

"...has a relatively austere bouquet at first, withholding its charm and then teasing with granitic, cold stone scents. The palate is very well balanced with a fine line of acidity and then it fans out in languid fashion with the delicately spicy finish. This is sophisticated and refined."(91pts)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

10 Meursault - Vintage 2013

Coche-Dury

"...has a straight-down-the-line, flinty/burnt match nose that we have all come know and love from this domaine. Frankly, nobody achieves the precision like this. The palate is very flattering with great volume married with fine acidity, hints of peach and tangerine, lively and vivacious with a long and tender finish that just goes on and on."(92pts)

6 bottles per lot $3200-4200

11 Meursault - Vintage 1978

Perrières, Coche-Dury

3bsl, 1lsl, 2spc, 1cuc, good to excellent color

Lot: 11

SINCE 1820

12 Meursault - Vintage 1996Perrières, Coche-Dury*

"When the world's wine lovers speak of Jean-Francois Coche the words Corton-Charlemagne are sure to follow. Personally, I feel his Meursault Perrières is just as extraordinary, and sometimes more so. This vineyard contributes an element of refinement and class to Coche's hedonistic, powerful, and intense style. The 1996 is breathtaking because tasting it is a levitating experience. Its beguiling, almost spiritual bouquet is composed of precisely defined minerals. The palate is greeted by explosive, powerful, awesomely elegant, intense, mouth-coatingly sweet and yet bone dry stones, gravel, crisp pears, and toasty oak. This unbelievably dense and complex, yet pure and perfectly defined wine is massively structured and has an unending finish that reveals cardamon, anise, honeysuckle blossoms, and spices."(99pts)

Above 4 bottles per lot $1300-1700

14 Chablis - Vintage 2009Les Clos, Dauvissat-Camus1x12 bottle ocb*

"An overtly floral and distinctly cool nose features subtle spice and mineral reduction aromas that are followed by rich, powerful and broad-scaled yet quite finely detailed and pure flavors that are underpinned by a firm acid spine and an intensely citrus-infused finish."(95pts BH)

12 bottles per lot $2200-3000

15 Montrachet - Vintage 2005Domaine de la Romanée Contilsl*

"An opulent, ripe and moderately oaked in-your-face nose explodes from the glass, bringing incredibly complex and layered aromas that run from floral, citrus, spice and a full range of white and yellow fruit notes that complement to perfection the lush, rich and amazingly concentrated broad-scaled flavors that are underpinned by an intense minerality and a palate staining finish of simply unbelievable length. At this young stage, this is a massive Montrachet that is long on power and muscle and while it's not as elegant as say the 2000, 2002 or 2004 versions, I believe that the refinement one typically finds in this wine will come in time. In sum, for sheer virtuous fireworks, this is hard to beat and to call it a "wow" wine would be a considerable understatement. However, note that plenty of time will be required and it will be one of the longest-lived vintages in recent memory. A great, great effort."(98pts BH)

1 bottle per lot $6000-8000

16 Montrachet - Vintage 2007Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"As the late picking date would suggest, this is a very ripe and wonderfully nuanced wine with a brilliantly complex nose of white peach, pear, exotic yellow fruits, acacia blossom and citrus hints that complement perfectly the rich and monumentally constructed flavors that possess an almost chewy texture yet the mouth feel is one of satin and silk, all wrapped in a palate staining mildly toasty finish that displays impeccable balance and incredible length. To call this a knockout seems almost like faint praise but it is one genuinely stunning wine that should live for 30 to 40 years."(97pts BH)

3 bottles per lot $18000-24000

17 Batard Montrachet- Vintage 2013 Domaine Leflaive (93-96pts BH) (6)Bienvenue Batard Montrachet- Vintage 2010 Domaine Leflaive (97pts) (1)- Vintage 2013 Domaine Leflaive (93ptsBH) (2)

Above 9 bottles per lot $3200-4200

18 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2005Domaine Leflaive*

"Elegant and creamy in texture, this exhibits citronella, peach, floral and mineral aromas and flavors, all nicely layered. Still a touch raw on the finish, yet all the elements are well-proportioned, so give this another few years to fully integrate."(97pts WS)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

19 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2008Domaine Leflaivelsl, 1x1 Jeroboam owc*

"Like the Bâtard, here the nose is quite restrained but exceptionally elegant and pure with white flower, green apple, pear and wet stone where the latter element continues onto the rich, full and highly energetic flavors that tighten up considerably on the detailed, minerally and bone dry finish that displays distinct citrus mineral nuances. This is long, tight and linear with huge amounts of dry extract that renders the very firm acid spine almost invisible at present though the finish is clearly shaped by it."(97pts BH)

1 Jeroboam per lot $3500-5000

20 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2009Domaine Leflaive1x3 magnum owc*

"An ultra-pure and high-toned nose of mineral-based reduction, spiced pear and acacia blossom gives way to overtly stony and quite finely detailed broad-shouldered flavors that despite their significant size and weight, are crystalline in their transparency. This very much seems to be built on a base of liquid limestone with impeccable balance and flat out stunning persistence."(96pts BH)

22 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2014
 Domaine Leflaive
 1x6 bottle owc
"Tasted blind at the annual Burgfest tasting, Leflaive's 2014 Chevalier Montrachet Grand Cru has a compelling bouquet that is full of flint and wet limestone scents, a subtle marine influence (seaweed and cockle shells perhaps?) filtering through with aeration. The palate is very well balanced with a fine bead of acidity, precise and very saline, fanning out with immense precision and poise on the finish. This is one of the standout wines of the vintage." (97pts)
 6 bottles per lot $4000-6000

23 Puligny Montrachet - Vintage 2006
 Clavoillon, Domaine Leflaive
 1x12 bottle ocb
"The 2006 Clavoillon is again a lovely, forward and sumptuous example of the vintage, that is betrayed just a touch by some uncovered alcohol on the backend. The nose is a mélange of white peach, very ripe apple, lemon chiffon, chalk, acacia blossom and vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is full-bodied and almost silky on the attack, with a ripe core of fruit, lovely acids and focus, and good length on the slightly hot finish. While the flavor and aromatic profile of this wine will clearly improve with a few years bottle age, it is hard to know how the alcohol that is currently so evident on the finish will behave with bottle age. I might be inclined to drink this wine in its youth. If it successfully integrates its alcohol, my score will seem conservative." (90-92pts JG)

24 Puligny Montrachet - Vintage 2013
 Clavoillon, Domaine Leflaive

"The 2013 Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Clavoillon, which was bottled in June, has a well defined bouquet with flint and light smoky scents with just a hint of quince coming through with aeration. The palate is nicely poised with good weight on the entry, a touch of light honey and mandarin, poised if not persistent on the finish. I would afford this a couple of years in the cellar." (91pts)
 6 magnums per lot $1600-2200

25 Puligny Montrachet - Vintage 2013
 Les Combettes, Domaine Leflaive
"The 2013 Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Combettes might well be the most startling wine from Anne-Claude and her team this year, one that probably transcends this propitious vineyard. It has an expressive set of aromatics like the Folatières, a little more "fiery" at this stage perhaps, vivacious and defined with hints of lemon curd and white peach. The palate is voluminous and powerful with superb acidity and great depth. This is a Combettes with a lot of ambition and constitutes one of my favorites from the domaine this year." (93-95pts)

Its intensity was beautiful like an Aurora Borealis, and its acidity was the most superior of the flight. (96+pts JK) A flat out superb nose that is obviously very ripe with botrytis hints yet there is nothing obvious or cloying about it that introduces wonderfully long, fantastically rich and complex flavors that culminate in sappy, palate staining and almost unbelievably long finish. The Inspector continued that it was the best white he'd had in a while. The potential score of the wine came up for discussion, and Jetski, in his usual fashion, thought it was a little rich and ripe for 99 points, that would be a heavy hammer. I was only at 98 points already, of course, and we were on to the next lot."* (98pts JK)

"The 1989 Montrachet (of which there are 2 barrels from 70-year old vines) attained a natural alcohol level of 14.8%. So much for those oenologist's wines made within safe technical parameters! I realize few readers will ever get a chance to taste this wine, but as you can imagine, it boasts unbelievable concentration and viscosity. It is not as thick and unctuous as the Montrachet made by the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, but it does possess exquisite balance and length. All things considered, I would wait 10 years before popping the cork. It will drink well for at least the first two decades of the next century. For those Hollywood superstars and multi-million dollar athletes that might be readers, Ramonet still thinks his 1986 Montrachet is the best of the decade, and considers 1989 the pretender to the throne."(97pts)

vlsc1

"We started with a 1990 Ramonet Montrachet out of magnum. The 1990 had an amazing nose full of vigor; it was classic Ramonet all the way. The nose was full of butter, cream and sweet corn combined with the perfect toast, and a perfect minerality. It was sexxy juice. The palate was rich, long and fabulous and also smooth, tasty and classic. If anything negative could be said about the wine, it would be that it was more ready to drink than I would have thought out of magnum. Brian liked the 1990 and found it 'crisp and clean, as it should be'."(96+pts JK)

"The 2008 Chablis Grand Cru Clos is the purists' choice, unfurling in the glass with a classy bouquet of tangerine, lemon oil, oyster liquor and beeswax. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, elegantly glossy and incisive, built around a bright line of acidity that still imparts more tension and energy than is to be found in the 2010 vintage tasted alongside, but it has plenty of concentration and flesh on its structural bones, too. This is a powerful but precise rendition of Les Clos that is still only entering adolescence."(97pts)

This particular magnum was not part of the re-release of this wine that occurred under Madame Bize (I have had quite good bottles of the '64 RSV as well that were let go from the cellars at the time her purchase of the domaine), but had been bought years before. The bouquet in magnum is lovely, offering up a complex and impressive bouquet of raspberry, coffee, herb tones, duck, cloves, sous bois, minerals and cedar. On the palate the wine is medium-full, with good depth of fruit, lovely resolution, and good length on the complex finish. This is clearly old fashioned wine making, and shows just a tad too much chapitalized sweetness, but the wine does have good grip. *"Louis-Michel Liger-Belair's 2007 La Romanée is one of the wines of the vintage and is showing stunning aromatic and flavor complexity at age seven, but it is still emphatically a young wine and more patience will be very richly rewarded! The absolutely brilliant bouquet delivers an celestial blend of raspberries, a touch of blood orange, red plums, cinnamon, incipient notes of duck, a kaleidoscopic base of soil tones, woodsmoke and cedar. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and very light on its feet, with exquisite intensity of flavor, great complexity, a sappy core of fruit, great soil signature and great focus and grip on the tangy and modestly tannic finish. This wine is already very accessible and hard not to drink, but it has not yet developed its secondary layers of complexity and will be even better in another three or four years. A brilliant 2007!" Aux Reignots, Comte Liger-Belair

1x3 magnum owc

"Tasted at the Comte Liger-Belair vertical at the Château de Vosne. The 2013 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Reignots, which was bottled in April 2015, already has plenty of primary red berry fruit on the nose that feels very pure - mulberry and maraschino cherry. The palate continues really where the 2012 left off: quite wondrous delineation and tension from start to finish, perhaps edgier than the 2012, with a precise finish that has the perfect amount of sappy red berry fruit. One of the best Aux Reignots in recent years, one that has really elevated to another level since I tasted in from barrel." (95pts)

Vieilles Vignes, D. Bachelet

"...has a delightful bouquet with complex, mineral rich red currant and raspberry fruit that is linear and focused at the moment. There is wonderful definition as usual. The palate is medium-bodied with a smear of strawberry jam on the entry and then that heavenly mineralite kicks in towards the structure, precise and quite crystalline finish." (96pts)

87 Charmes Chambertin - Vintage 2013

Vieilles Vignes, D. Bachelet

1x6 bottle ocb

"There is double the amount of 2013 Charmes Chambertin Vieilles Vignes compared to last year. Then again, last year there was only three barrels! It has a very precise, mineral-rich bouquet that takes its time to unfold, therefore demands a lot of just hanging around and swirling the glass in your hand. Then after two or three minutes those beautiful crushed violet scents emerge and you are instantly seduced. The palate is tight at the moment but it is very pure with dark cherries intermingling with cola, orange sorbet and a hint of marmalade. There is a lot of primal energy here, although it does not possess the peacock's tail that adorned the 2012 last year. Still, this is a marvelous Charmes-Chambertin to enjoy over the next 15 to 20 years." (93-95pts)

Grands Epenots, Domaine de Montille

1x12 bottle ocb

"A deft application of wood sets off an agreeably fresh nose that features notes of black raspberry liqueur and just turned earth nuances. There is an appealing vibrancy to the velvet-textured medium-bodied flavors that possess very fine volume and mid-palate weight before terminating in a lingering finish." (89-92pts BH)

89 Volnay - Vintage 2008

Les Mitans, Domaine de Montille

"Good medium red. Captivating aromas of musky cherry, Oriental spices, incense and sexy oak nuances, plus a whiff of soft citrus fruits. Broad, rich and sweet, with good flesh for the vintage leavened by an edge of acidity that will require a year or two to harmonize with the wine. Finishes with building but integrated tannins and a slight youthful toughness." (91+pts VM)

90 Volnay - Vintage 2012

Les Mitans, Domaine de Montille

2x6 bottle ocb's

"The 2012 Volnay Les Mitans is beautifully layered and expressive in the glass. Black cherries, plums, spices and licorice are all framed by firm, incisive Mitans tannins. The 2012 is focused and linear in structure, while the flavor profile is very much on the dark side of the spectrum. Cloves, violets and new leather flesh out on the close." (90-92pts VM)

91 Volnay - Vintage 2011

Taillepieds, Domaine de Montille

1x12 bottle ocb

"Good fresh red. Dark cherry and underbrush flavors are accented by peppery spices from the vinification with stems. Supple on entry, then concentrated, dry and uncompromising, with the stem component currently suppressing the wine's underlying fruit and minerality. Firmly built and energetic, but a bit dry following the Champans. Showing more energy than it did from barrel a year ago but the dusty tannins will require patience." (90+pts VM)

 "There are 7 barrels of the 2012 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Les Malconsorts Christiane this year from 0.48 hectares of vines tucked into La Tâche. Ever since this prize plot came into Etienne de Montille's hands, he has felt that it creates a different Pinot Noir to the regular Malconsorts and I can vouch for that myself having compared the two cuvées blind over three of four vintages in Paris, back in 2009. They both undergo identical vinification. It has a wonderful, exuberant bouquet laden with vivacious orange sorbet, strawberry preserve, minerals and incense like fireworks across the sky. The palate is medium-bodied, streamlined with very fine lithe tannins accompanied by a fine silver thread of acidity. It feels more compact, perhaps denser and more imposing than the regular Malconsorts and delivers a long persistent finish to complete a swarthy Malconsorts Christiane that is suffused with grandiloquence. Domaine des Lambrays
vhs, bsl, nl, spc, illegibly faded cork branding, outstanding color and condition
 "The 1947 Clos des Lambrays Grand Cru is a wine of heroic stature and one of the high points of this tasting, wafting from the glass with a kaleidoscopically complex bouquet of sweet wild berries, dark chocolate, ripe plums, black truffle, rich loamy soil, wood smoke, espresso roast and grilled ceps. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, layered and extraordinarily concentrated, with immense depth and dimension, its fine-grained structuring tannins still lavishly cloaked in succulent and sapid fruit. The finish is incredibly long. While this is a rich, gourmand vintage of Clos des Lambrays that reflects the torrid vintage, it is also remarkably vibrant and delineated. A third bottle drunk in California a few months later was just as compelling. In cold cellars, it should see out its centenary in style."(99pts)

A richly and densely fruited nose that is at once earthy and quite animale along with breathtaking complexity complements to perfection the big, rich and sleekly muscled flavors that are very firmly structured but again, not at all aggressive and the sheer depth of material on the palate-drenching finish is nothing short of phenomenal."*(94-96pts BH)

The palate boasts remarkable richness and sheer viscosity for the vintage though little superficial sweetness along with textural refinement that goes beyond even the best of the rest of this year's Drouhin collection. Fruit pit bitterness; brown spices; roasting pan reduction of meat and fat; and an almost palpable sense of chalky and ore-like minerality add to the mystery and invigoration of a vibratory finish. This tastes awfully delicious today, though it should probably be given a few years in bottle. It ought to perform marvelously for at least a decade."* (95pts)

 "Tasted blind at the Burgundy 2011 horizontal tasting in Beaune. Despite some reduction, there is clearly plenty of attractive ripe red berry fruit on the nose of Mugneret-Gibourg's Ruchottes-Chambertin 2011: cranberry, wild strawberry and touches of blueberry. The palate is less masculine and reserved compared to when I tasted it at the domaine at the end of 2013. Here it feels more velvety on the entry. It has a cashmere texture with well-judged acidity and superb structure. The fruit is darker than Christophe Roumier's Ruchottes, but there is very good weight and persistence on the finish that bodes well for the future." (95pts)

Like the '09 Vosne villages, this is definitely on the robust side with powerful middle weight plus flavors that possess excellent concentration on the tightly focused and solidly structured and mildly austere finish that delivers explosive and striking length. Malconsorts is naturally masculine and this very ripe and serious example is very much in that mold. Note that there is so much underlying material that my score assumes that the liberal oak treatment will be integrated in time as this is definitely a wine that is built for the long-term."(94pts BH)*

DUJAC

After inheriting a biscuit company with a taste for fine gastronomie, Jacques Seysses began his career in wine with an apprenticeship with the famous Gerard Potel at the Domaine de la Pousse d'Or. He spent two harvests there. In 1967, he had the opportunity to purchase the then Domaine Graillet in Morey-Saint-Denis. Jacques Seysses christened his new Domaine simply and phonetically "Dujac" in wry homage to the Burgundian locals who referred to it as the "Domaine du Jacques." It took a good measure of both originality and courage to throw himself into the winemaking profession as there was no winemaking tradition in his family. In addition, he chose to do his own bottling, something that was still not common in those days. Trying to blend what he admired in traditional winemaking with modern techniques, Jacques went on to refine a style of his own. In 2000, he was joined by his son Jeremy, acquiring significant Grand Crus, particularly Chambertin and Romanee St. Vivant along the way, becoming fully organic in 2009. Firmly etched in the top echelon of Burgundy, the wines of Domaine Dujac continue to go from strength to strength and are without question one of Burgundy's most collectible wines.

The Domaine dazzles with more than fifty lots starting with three vintages of Bonnes Mares magnums, followed by five lots of Chambertin with two magnums each of 2012 and 2014. The flagship Clos de la Roche has a sweet, sixteen lots, highlighted by Jeroboams from 1988 and 1998, as well as full cases of 1999, 2005, and 2009!!!! Clos St. Denis is the perfect foil with fourteen selections led by magnums of 1970, 1996, 2001, 2011, 2014, and 2016, in addition to twenty-one bottles of 2005! We put the final jewel in the crown with nine selections of Romanee St. Vivant highlighted by eighteen bottles of 2009. All hail Domaine Dujac!

This is elegant and very refined, the exuberant predisposition of Bonnes-Mares discretely contained, buttoned-down for now. The palate is very well defined with lace-like tannin. It was a throw-in after a flight of 1993s, including another Dujac, a Rousseau and a Roumier. And it was the best of them all. There was so much fruit, it felt almost like chewing gum. Dujac
"The Dujac 2006 Romanée St.-Vivant is extraordinarily perfumed by black raspberry, lily, honeysuckle, narcissus, ginger, star anise, and fennel pollen, all of which are complimented rather than contradicted by a bit of sweet new woodiness. (Seysse says his toasting instructions for these barrels there were only two of Romanée St.-Vivant this year; half a barrique less than in 2005 were misunderstood, with the result that it wasn't quite deep enough and there is a bit of superficial coconut aroma, about which, he adds, "I am not concerned long-term.") A musky sense of liquid floral perfume and liqueur-like essence of spiced black fruits and Pinot carnality inform the rich, dense palate of this exceptional, almost endlessly lingering elixir which simultaneously marries near-implosive concentration with animation, elegance, and sheer refreshment. You could perhaps, should, were you to be lucky enough to acquire some spend an entire evening savoring this, not to mention the next 12-15 years smugly savoring the knowledge that some exists in your cellar."(97pts)

Black tea, star anise, honey, and brown spices along with a raw meat undertone add intrigue, and this finishes with polished, even soothing length. All in all, it struck me that Malconsorts and Beaux Monts were exhibiting a role reversal on this occasion. "The 2016 Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Aux Malconsorts actually has a similar bouquet to the Les Beaux Monts but with heightened mineralité which is prioritized over the fruit. I was momentarily whisked back to my youth, pot-holing in the Lake District, that tang of limestone and moorland in the air. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-grain tannin. As Alec Seysses remarked, there is more "wine" in the Malconsorts compared to the Beaux Monts. It has brilliant delineation and a very complex finish that fans out with real confidence. This is one of the top wines from Dujac. Chapeau."(95-97pts)

ROUMIER

Known for hauntingly beautiful wines that mature magnificently, the story of Roumier begins when Georges founded the Domaine in 1924 and slowly began adding Grand Crus, starting smartly with Musigny and then adding Bonnes Mares. Georges was an integral part of legendary Comte de Vogue, and two of his sons worked there after him. His son, Jean-Marie, succeeded him and worked with Pierre Ponnelle, casting the blueprint for many fabulous wines under that label. Now, Roumier is over eleven hectares, commanded by the very well-respected Christophe Roumier, rendering wines of remarkable precision that begin with meticulous sorting in the vineyard and winery, as well as using traditional open top fermenters and judicious use of new oak.

We are ecstatic to have a dozen selections from Roumier, with six lots of Bonnes Mares, highlighted by cases of 2005 in magnum and 2009 in bottle going up the ladder to four lots of rarest Musigny. Wow, holy Musigny!

Coiled and wound on the palate ('doesn't want to show you anything,' observed Brian) with a touch of stems on the finish amongst its noticeable tannins - will be an incredible wine!..."(95+pts JK)*

MUGNIER

Speaking of holy Musigny, Mugnier's history goes back to 1880 when Frederic Mugnier's great-great grandfather began buying top vineyards at keen prices in the shadow of phylloxera. He quickly restored the vineyards, and the wines enjoyed a great reputation in the early 20th century, being featured at legendary restaurants such as Maxim's in Paris. An engineer by trade, Frederic Mugnier returned to run his family Domaine in the auspicious 1985 vintage and began restoring and returning his vineyards to their former glory as he expanded his acreage. Even still, his holdings in Musigny are just a little over one hectare, with most of the vines being planted in 1947 and 1962, and only 200-300 cases made depending on the vintage. These are magical wines that truly capture the elegance and richness of top Burgundy. These are even harder to buy now thanks to Frederic Mugnier's judicious measures to hold back new releases until they are closer to being ready to drink.

Mugnier has fourteen lots in this sale and lots of love with 1999 Amoureuuses in magnum and the 2010 in Jeroboam (!). Things get even more intense with ten selections of Musigny with eighteen bottles and two magnums of 1999, as well as two cases of 2006 and three magnums of 2010!!!

*"Mugnier's 1999 Musigny Grand Cru is still a very youthful wine, but a few hours' decant gives a more than adequate sense of its immense quality. A beautiful bouquet of raspberries, black cherry, cocoa powder, violets, peony and incipient notes of rich soil and cedar introduce a pure, full-bodied wine with pitch-perfect balance and a deep, spherical core of ripe tannin, juicy acidity and reserved concentration. *"As brilliant the nose of the Amourees might be, this ups the ante considerably as this offers fireworks in a glass with its positively kaleidoscopic array of spice, violets and ripe fruit elements that if anything are even fresher. The rich, dense and overtly powerful broad-scaled flavors possess a tight muscularity yet remain elegant and refined with a linear, palate staining and explosive backend that delivers simply huge length. HENRI JAYER

What can we say about Henri Mayer that has not been said before? He was the dean of winemakers in Burgundy, influencing many, and his presence can still be felt today throughout Burgundy and so much for the better! Every one of these five lots is a highlight of course, but we shine the spotlight on a 1990 Cros Parantoux magnum and are honored to have six bottles each of 1996 and 1999 Cros Parantoux purchased through one of our auctions of Martine Saunier's personal cellar. That is outstanding provenance, indeed, for one of the most revered vineyard and producer combinations in Burgundy if not the world of fine wine! Henri Mayer!!!

This is still youthful if no longer young with a finish that is undeniably of grand cru quality and epitomizes power without weight. but beginning to drink well now. *"The 1996 H. Mayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux was a rock star wine that will outlive everything else served so far. The Wine Daddy found some umami and crowned it another animal. "Ooh la la, ah oui oui. The 1999 Mayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux redefined the word sexy. Martine hailed it as a wild beast, and Gil observed, gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea. There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks, a chameleon, and spear-mint. Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, caramel Crème brulee, and beef and citrus tried to join the party. This wine was bordering on pornographic, and we were all... in awe :)." (98pts JK)

SINCE 1820

Putting together this catalog was a little more effort than usual thanks to the incredible amount of rare Champagne. The goal was simple: only offer the best bottles, and we went through the entire collection three or four times making the ultimate selection. I personally looked at almost every bottle of Champagne 1971 and older, for my own edification. The opportunity to see any of these older bottles of Champagne is extremely rare, let alone this many. I was talking to Truly about the number of great Champagnes I've had from this collection over the years, and that we should put together a greatest hits of tasting notes. Truly said that would be nice, and added a big "IF" we could do it, due to time constraints and having to launch the sale ASAP. He then added that he thought it would be much better if I took bottles that we were offering right now and wrote some new notes. I made a quick call, and I got a quick answer. "Whatever you want."

It just so happened that this weekend saw both a small and large gathering, and both gatherings saw a lot of Champagne bottles opened. Eighteen, to be exact, and seventeen other wines tasted. I will get to the entire weekend in due course, but this article is just about the six bottles and magnum that I literally pulled out of this auction to drink this past weekend.

Two of the bottles I had Saturday night at Marea, the first being a 1966 Salon. You know, just your everyday 55 year-old bottle of Salon that has come up three times in the market in the last five years, and those three times were all single bottle lots. It didn't disappoint. The Secretary of Defense was loving it right away, and I could not blame him. It had a very nutty nose, and it even smelled oily and viscous. Its palate was rich and creamy, with toasty and nutty flavors. This was like a great white Burgundy; while there was just a trace of fizz left, there was still tremendous acidity lifting its finish. Its finish lingered with kisses of herbs and woody goodness, flexing like a mature Montrachet. You may notice my score for a previous bottle was 98+. It's a good example of how results for older bottles vary, the 'Any Given Sunday' theory. I'll take a range of 96-98+ any day (96)!

A brief sidebar about Champagne and bubbles. Original releases of older Champagne tend to have less bubbles after forty years of age and become very wine-like. Many Champagne houses recently disgorge older bottles, which gives them a much fresher and bubbly personality. The only problem with recently disgorged bottles are that they are often drunk way too soon. They really need at least ten years on the cork, post-disgorgement, for the mature flavors to come out again. Otherwise, it's all fizz and no flavor! It's tough to say what is the ideal time to drink; it's a matter of personal taste. All I can say is the mature flavors of an original bottle in good condition are thrilling, but not always as bubbly.

Back to my Saturday night, then there was a 1969 Krug. This bottle was so fresh and vibrant, it danced on my palate. Again, there was finesse here to the wine. There was a bit more mousse to the Krug than the Salon, but the Krug was also still very wine-like. There was less vanilla than I often get in Krugs, but it had perfect balance and freshness. Long, delicate, fine and smooth, it was another stunning bottle (96).

Two for two, we were off to a good start. There were eight bottles of Champagne served on this night. One was corked, and one was oxidized by the way, but I will discuss that more later. The next day saw us also at Marea, and a 1928 Louis Roederer came out first. This was a rich wine, the greatness of '28 coming through with the power of a thunderbolt. I do recall the owner of this Champagne collection once calling 1928 'the greatest Champagne vintage of all-time.' The Roederer reminded me of that statement, in a back-to-back future kind of way. It sung with apple cider vinegar flavors and character, and that's in the good vinegar way, not the wine is cooked kind of way. It had almost searing acidity, again not in a bad way, in a somewhere between strong and extremely strong way. Its acidity hit the high notes, like a perfect bottle of 1996 Montrachet. Are you starting to see a connection (96).

Next up was a magnum of 1964 Veuve Clicquot Brut, one with a gold label, not sure if that makes it a reserve or not. This was a super sweet Champagne. Bad Boy dropped some of his extensive Champagne knowledge, “All old Clicquots are in good shape because they are loaded with sugar.” He didn’t say great, he said good, and that’s exactly what this VC was. Sweet, soft and a vinous version of a sugar factory, the Clicquot pleased, but you weren’t running to get seconds (92M).

A 1961 Taittinger Brut, not the Comtes de Champagne, was full of caramel aromas and flavors. It was a bit more mature in style, but still tasty and drinkable, albeit almost dessert-like in its personality. That signature, sweet, butterscotch style of old “Tatt” came through, with nice honey flavors and “sweet walnuts” per Truly. At least I think he was talking about the wine (93).

The next wine, I mean Champagne, was the wine of the day and one of the wines of the weekend. It was a 1953 Krug Private Cuvee Extra Sec. Breathtaking stuff. ‘Awesome’ was the first thing I wrote. There was still some spritz, but this was all wine. The best acidity of the day, and the previous night for that matter. There was a combination of toffee and half n half flavors with vanilla kisses and a citrusy finish that lit up my palate. Electric! You will notice a “NO LOT” in the catalog, sorry. Don’t worry, there are four more single-bottle lots (98).

There was actually one more bottle, but it was oxidized and undrinkable. It doesn’t matter what it was. It literally was the last of the seven. That happens when you open up lots of bottles of older wines, or Champagnes. Let’s not forget that Champagne by definition is a sparkling wine! I mentioned the first night, where we opened eight bottles, and one was corked and one was oxidized. And the oxidized bottle had outstanding color! The other six were so good, no one cared. The same thing happened with all the Champagnes we opened from this collection this weekend. The first six were so good, no one cared about the fact that the seventh was bad. The point is that if you cannot handle the minority of off bottles when drinking older wines, there are plenty of other things to try. For Champagne, I recommend 1979 or younger. Tough to find an off bottle in this category. But if you want to touch the sun, make sure you are mentally prepared.

It was a very spontaneous and special selection of Champagnes sampled this Saturday and Sunday. I hope you enjoy this catalog and these three special collections as much as I have over the years!

A CHAMPAGNE AUCTION OF THE HIGHEST CLASS

Personally, I have not been lazy during the pandemic, when I compiled and wrote the most comprehensive book of my life, "Champagne Magnum Opus" with 13,000 tasting notes that will be launched at the end of the year. Of course, this means that I have tasted Champagne a lot during this gloomy time, and I have often done so in my loneliness. Now that the world is slowly opening up again, it's time to enjoy together, and what could be more fitting than to spice up your cellar with some of the greatest Champagnes of all time from one of the planet's most dedicated collectors? It is a unique opportunity to take part in this offering by a good friend of mine who has accumulated these treasures over the years.

I have on several occasions shared bottles with this collector from his cellar and have always been impressed with the condition of the Champagnes, which of course is the most important thing when it comes to old noble Champagne. In this unique river of treasures that are offered, it is of course difficult to choose, but the asking prices are very modest compared to what I see when these types of Champagne (rarely) appear. Old Champagne has only recently become increasingly appreciated and sought-after both as a pleasure and as an investment over the last 10-15 years. Since the amount of high-class Champagne from the '70s and older is so vanishingly small, this truly is a unique opportunity. The collection of older Salon is perhaps most spectacular, and while the '60s vintages are magnificent, the 1947 I have only drunk once and is perhaps the foremost Salon in history! Clos des Goisses is a relatively unknown vineyard wine that ages just as slowly as Salon, and the '50s vintages are so magical with their gooseberry-like youthfulness combined with nutty richness and maturity. The rest will follow accordingly!

Pol Roger and Pommery are among the Champagnes that age best with the house style intact, for at least a century and the premiere vintage 1975 Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill in magnum (first vintage) I will bid on myself! Maybe I should not be divulging my strategy! Moët and Dom Pérignon need no introduction and the trio of 1911, 1914 and especially 1921 Moët & Chandon is the house's foremost bottlings historically before they launched the prestigious Dom Pérignon champagne.

Among the slightly younger, legendary Champagnes is one of the four foremost vintages of all-time by my favorite wine, Krug Clos du Mesnil, from 1985, and the two most delicious vintages in history of seductive Taittinger Comtes de Champagne in 1979 and 1976. The auction also offers you a unique chance to bid on numerous 1928s, including Bollinger, Moët, Roederer, Perrier Jouët, and one more I will mention soon. How spectacular to serve these against each other in seven years on New Year's Eve when these legends turn 100 years old!

When I read through the auction catalog, I discovered some things I have not seen in a long time. It contains two Champagnes I have never tried. 1947 Cristal is together with 1928 Salon one of the two Champagnes I have left to try before I throw in the towel for good. Given how magnificent the 1947 Louis Roederer Brut is, the 1947 Cristal should be a giant. If you win those, I will travel!

This is a breathtaking book. Good luck!

SALON

Salon is arguably the most sought-after Champagne among connoisseurs. This magnificent wine is so rare that only a few have had the chance to taste the quintessence of Le Mesnil across many multiple vintages. In 1867, a perfectionist by the name of Aimé Salon was born. He grew up in Champagne and dreamed of creating the perfect Champagne at an early age. After a short period as a teacher, he became a successful fur trader, which gave him the capital he needed to buy one small vineyard covering a total of one hectare in Le Mesnil. He made his first Champagne in 1905 and formed an official Champagne house in 1920. As early as 1921, Salon became the house wine at the legendary Parisian restaurant, Maxim's. Salon was the first commercial Blanc de Blancs. It's quite remarkable that the fame and praise heaped upon the firm has continued throughout the years, as the big names see Salon's philosophy as a direct antithesis of theirs.

In principle Salon is a grower champagne, in the sense that the wine contains only one kind of grape from just one cru. Salon may well be the best "grower" of all. After Aimé died in 1943, the firm stayed within the family until 1963, when Besserat de Bellefon took over. In 1989 Salon was bought by Laurent-Perrier, and today the firm is run by the infinitely charming Didier Depond. Salon's plots in the village are always the ones where the leaves come out first, which shows that the microclimate there is exceptional. The average age of the vines is around fifty years old, and the other 75 percent of the grapes needed are chosen each year from the best growers in the village. Salon demands longer cellaring than any other Champagne.

The wines do not go through malolactic fermentation and have a razor-sharp acidity in their youth, which carries the wine to unparalleled heights through the years. A mature Salon expresses a gigantically broad aromatic spectrum, and has a Burgundy-like vinosity. The stringency is maintained throughout the wine's life, and as Salon has a very low dosage, the wine never becomes an exotic charmer like Taittinger Comtes de Champagne, but it is unmatched in terms of class and purity. Salon is only made in exceptionally good years, and in other vintages the grapes end up in Delamotte. Here are all the rare vintages that have been produced: 1905, '09, '11, '14, '21, '25, '28, '34, '37, '43, '45, '46, '47, '48, '49, '51, '52, '53, '55, '59, '61, '64, '66, '69, '71, '73, '76, '79, '82, '83, '85, '88, '90, '95, '96, '97, '99, '02, '04, '06, '07 and the absolutely brilliant 2008 only in magnum. History awaits you!

Our deep dive goes all the way back to a lone bottle of the super-rare 1928, unearthing a treasure trove of bottles from the 1940s and 1950s, a magnum from the 1960s, continuing with quantity of the legendary 1971, magnums from the '80s, as well as six cases of 1996 that will one day be a legend itself – actually, it already is one!!!

On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, deep and multidimensional, defined by the incisive spine so typical of the vintage that, here, is cloaked in layers of crisp fleshy and chalky extract. The finish is long, penetrating and saline. Unfortunately, since the 1996 Salon has been traded so zealously over the last decade, finding a bottle that hasn't travelled too far can be a challenge. POL ROGER

When the foremost ambassador for Champagne, the legend Christian Pol Roger retired, there were many who were afraid that Pol Roger would lose its status. But with the majestic and sporty Laurent d'Harcourt at the helm, the quality continued. Winston Churchill's favorite Champagne was established in 1849 by Pol Roger, who was succeeded by his sons, Maurice and Georges. At the turn of the century, the Roger family changed its name to Pol Roger. Maurice was the mayor of Épernay during the week-long occupation of the town by the Germans in September 1914. Despite German threats to shoot him and burn down the town, he remained defiant and was later hailed as a saint in the town. He was voted honorary mayor for life.

England has always been the main export market for Pol Roger, keeping it a bit under the radar for the rest of the world. When the wartime Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill died, the label of the Champagne was blacked-out in memory. After a suitable period of mourning, the 1975 Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill was launched, in magnums only in that vintage. The wine is made in a style they believe Sir Winston would have appreciated. His favorite vintages were 1928, 1934, and 1947, two of which are on offer in this catalog.

Pol Roger had more wines and more older wines in my Millennium Tasting than almost any other Champagne Domaine, which is completely natural because Pol Roger's Champagnes are extremely high class and are so long-lived. My only 100-pointer is a Blanc de Blancs from Pol Roger. I love the entire range of the firm's products, from the regular non-vintage all the way to the Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill, and I guarantee you that every sound bottle you drink will impart a life-enhancing experience of pure joy!

*"The most powerful Pol Roger I have tasted. The wine is almost fiery, and must be described as extremely robust. The aroma is dark and exciting like a novel by Umberto Eco. SINCE 1820

POMMERY

In 1856, Pommery & Greno was founded after having been known as Dubois-Gossart for the previous twenty years. The firm established a sales channel to the English early on, and were pioneers with their dry Champagne—without dosage. The Marquise de Polignac was one of the first owners, and one of her direct descendants, Prince Alain de Polignac, was the man in charge of assembling the cuvées for a long time. Prince Alain is a fascinating man who, better than any other winemaker, can describe the philosophy behind his winemaking art. In 1990, Pommery was one of the firms that ended up as part of the powerful Moët-Hennessy Group, but in 2002 Vranken took over.

Pommery is one of the biggest Grand cru landowners. Pommery is undoubtedly a great name in historical terms. The house-style is made up of dry, restrained, pure Champagnes with young fruit and an unmistakable steeliness that takes many years to round off. I have been amazed time and again by the greatness of the older vintages from Pommery. Recently I bought a large number of bottles dating from 1911 to 1979, which have lain untouched since birth in the dark recesses of Champagne. Every bottle that I've opened has been fantastic!

LOUIS ROEDERER

Louis Roederer did not get its present name until 1833, but it was in existence as far back as 1760 under the name of Dubois Père & Fils. Louis Roederer was a hardworking man who succeeded in selling his Champagne in several important export markets. Roederer's real ace, as with Clicquot, was the Russian market. Tsar Alexander II wanted a more impressive label to show his guests, and in 1876 he made a special order for the first transparent Cristal bottles, which at that time actually were made of genuine crystal. The wine was stunningly sweet, and Roederer had some problems with disposal after the Russian revolution, when the firm was stuck with unpaid invoices and warehouses full of sweet Champagne that no one else wanted. The company recovered in the 1930s, when Camille Olry-Roederer took the helm. She invested the money earned from sales in some exceptional vineyards: in Aÿ, Hautvillers, Cumières, Louvois, Verzy, Verzenay, Vertus, Avize, Cramant, Chouilly, and Le Mesnil.

More and more of their production and vinicultural is biodynamic. Today the firm is one of the most financially successful in the region, thanks largely to these vineyards. The house is now run by Frédéric Rouzaud, who works according to the same principles as those applied in past decades. The winemaker is the incredible Jean-Baptiste Lécaillon, who is one of the best winemakers in the world.

All the wines ferment separately, cru by cru, in small steel vats or small barrels, while the reserve wines are stored in large oak barrels. This is said to give the company its special "vanilla touch." I'm not alone in wondering if certain wines for the prestige variety Cristal aren't aged in these barrels, as it is precisely in Cristal that one can sometimes discover a nutty, oily, and vanilla-tasting barrel-like character. Another explanation for this toffee-like note of maturity could be that they use a large portion of the best, older, oak-barrel-stored reserve wines in the dosage. Apart from this, up to 20 percent of the oak-aged reserve wine is used in the fantastic non-vintage Champagne Brut Premier. Roederer has no set recipe regarding malolactic fermentation, and the personal qualities of the wine differ from case to case.

Roederer is without doubt a brilliant Champagne house with an exceptional portfolio of wines. The non-vintage Champagne Brut Premier is brilliant. Cristal is today still one of the most sought-after cuvées de prestige, and it has perhaps the most appetizing appearance of any wine in the world. Cristal Rosé is not only the most expensive rosé Champagne—it is obviously the best. In my opinion, this house is one of the four best in all of Champagne. Every vintage is stunning. Buy all the Roederer wines you come across from the most drinkable address in the world!

Richard Juhlin

We are stoked to have nearly forty lots of Roederer, starting with three lots of the legendary 1928 vintage! Listen to Richard, these "regular" Bruts are brilliant! We get our Cristal fix back to 1947, backed by legends from 1949 and 1959, as well as magnums of 1964 and 1966. The genius of Roederer is evinced by modern masters showcased in multi-case parcels of 2006 and 2008 Cristal and Cristal Rose in bottle and magnum, as well as two Jeroboams of 2006 Cristal!!!

Leave it to possibly the greatest collector of Champagne in the world to pull something like this out of his cellar. His wine collection may already be legendary, but his Champagne collection is one of a kind. Full of white chocolate, the 1947 also had a touch of burnt orange and sweet flavors. The mousse was gone, but the orange and caramel made up for it. It was on golden pond delicious, mind blowing according to one. Someone noted mentos, and I got what they were saying. Twenty-five percent of the wine was fermented in oak, and 16% underwent malolactic fermentation to moderate the fresh acidity of the 2008 vintage. The assemblage was bottled in May 2009. After 8.5 years on the second lees (longer than any Cristal before), the first release was disgorged in September 2017 with a relatively low dosage of 7.5 grams per liter."(97+pts)*

TAITTINGER

Taittinger is one of my favorite houses. Wonderful Champagnes, fantastic history and a beautiful family! The house of Forneaux, as Taittinger's predecessor was called, was among the first Champagne houses when founded in 1734. The company's financial upturn came when the Taittinger family bought it in 1936. Pierre Taittinger purchased a palace called La Marquetterie and built up an impressive arsenal of vineyards. Claude Taittinger took over in 1960, and Pierre-Emanuel and his son Clovis Taittinger and stylish daughter Vitalie are following the same quality path.

The company now has 288 hectares in 34 villages. Experiments with small numbers of new oak barrels began in 1988 with the prestige wine Comtes de Champagne; otherwise, mainly all the wines are fermented in large steel tanks and put through malolactic fermentation. The firm is well known for its efforts to support major projects outside the local region. For example, the company owned one hotel chain, two wine companies in the Loire Valley, and one wine company in California.

Today, full concentration is on the Champagne. The real star is the Comtes de Champagne, an exemplary Blanc de Blancs from Cramant, Avize, Oger, Le Mesnil, and Chouilly. The Champagne is the best in its style, with its soft, exotic, and creamy taste. I imagine that the Comtes de Champagne is the Champagne most appreciated by the broadest public. It contains no difficult aromas, but instead an abundance of charmingly sweet and soft tastes in an elegant and luxurious style. It contains an aromatic spectrum that is exciting enough for even the most fastidious expert to fall head over heels for its beauty!

Richard Juhlin

There are thirty-four lots of Taittinger back to 1943! Comtes de Champagne rolls in the years starting with the legendary 1959 and including a full cases of Richard's favorites, 1976 and 1979. We head back to the future with lengthy parcels of Comtes de Champagne 2005 and 2006 Blanc de Blancs and Rose in bottle and magnum that will keep us all drinking well for many years to come!

“(Taittinger Comtes de Champagne) which was the most exotic and complex...wine of the night. It first revealed cream and orange soda qualities and was a bit reserved. It became milky, earthy and white dirty in a good way. Wendy called it ‘fruit salad’ due to its tropical exotic edges. It was very wine-like, and much more complex in the mouth. It actually drank like a fine, aged Montrachet. It was incredibly buttery, and even Pat separately noted how it was ‘like a nutty, old Montrachet’ and also picked up on ‘cantaloupe.’ Comtes de Champagne is 100% Chardonnay and a Blanc de Blancs Champagne. The butter, the toffee, the toasted nuts; it was an insanely good white Burgundy, more special by the fact that it was almost 50 years old. Many great old Champagnes become wine-like, and I have come across no finer example of that fact than this ‘59.”(96pts JK)

It still holds up very well, even if the character has changed a little. An enormous nose and taste of sweet lemons have now replaced the butteriness. These can be found in many mature Champagnes, but never as clearly as in the Comtes de Champagne ‘76. Smooth and creamy on the palate, the 2006 is all about texture. There is a real feeling of density and weight in the 2006, qualities I expect to see grow with time in the bottle. All the elements fall into place effortlessly. The 2006 has been nothing short of magnificent both times I have tasted it. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. I suggest buying a case and following it over the next 20-30 years, which is exactly what I intend to do. ## FOURRIER

Domaine Fourrier (previously known as Pernot-Fourrier) has a long history in Gevrey Chambertin extending over four generations. The estate was founded by Fernand Pernot during the 1930's. Then, his nephew, Jean-Claude Fourrier, took the reins of the Domaine in 1969. Jean-Marie Fourrier took over the family Domaine from his father in 1994, at the young age of 23. His experience was gained not only at the family Domaine in Gevrey, but also working at Domaine Drouhin in Oregon and with the legendary Henri Mayer in Vosne Romanée. Upon his arrival, Jean-Marie has completely reinvigorated his family's Domaine by wisely combining the traditions of his family, the experience gained with Henri Mayer, and his own clear sense of style. Older vines, lower yields, and more natural winemaking are the key to success here, and the resulting wines have great precision and finesse. Jean-Marie Fourrier is today considered one of Burgundy's brightest stars. Few producers have been able to ascend to the top echelon of Burgundy as quickly as Jean-Marie.

Fourrier comes through in a big way with 39 lots focusing on Clos St. Jacques and Griotte Chambertin, of course! We start off smartly with 2014 Chambertin in magnum and Jeroboam, as well as full cases of 2014 Clos St. Jacques cuvee Centenaire magnums! The highly regarded 2009 vintage, with cases of bottles and magnums topped by two Jeroboams, starts a parade of fourteen selections from Clos St. Jacques that continues with bottle after magnum in stride up to the 2016 vintage. There are eleven selections of Griotte Chambertin, crowned by Jeroboams of 2005, 2009, 2012, and 2014 (!), as well as numerous, smaller formats for when you are feeling a tad less thirsty, but there is never enough Fourrier!

*"Tasted blind at the annual "Burgfest" tasting in Beaune. The 2012 Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Clos St Jacques from Fourrier is showing the most stems on the nose, but it is so full of character with supreme delineation. The aromatics clearly need three or four years to fully coalesce. The palate is divine: supremely fine tannin, perfectly judged acidity, utterly harmonious with not a hair out of place on the finish. There is so much sophistication here that it does not know what to do with itself. This is the Clos Saint Jacques that is leading the pack - a quite brilliant wine from Jean-Marie Fourrier." The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, a fine line of acidity, quite sensual in the mouth with good depth on the finish. Perhaps what it is missing is that peacock's tail it sort of ends in the wrong key. There is great potential here though not best in the (Clos Saint-Jacques) show this year. "The 2016 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Clos Saint-Jacques is brilliant, unfurling in the glass with a multifaceted bouquet in which aromas of raspberries, orange rind and cassis mingle with nuances of peony, spice and subtle grilled meat. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, ample and pure, with a deep, multidimensional mid-palate that's framed by satiny tannins and juicy acids, concluding with a long, fragrant finish. The exquisite textural elegance that Fourrier routinely achieves with this site does not conceal the wine's underlying power and concentration." (95pts)

Literally out of this world in terms of flavor concentration and balance, the finish lasts well over 60 seconds. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2030. "A step up over the other two single vineyard releases, the 2011 Côte Rôtie la Landonne is an incredible wine that knocks it out of the park in the vintage. Its inky purple/ruby color is followed by to-die-for notes of cassis, black olives, truffles, graphite and crushed rock. Full-bodied, massively concentrated, thick and unctuous, it has the vintage's flamboyant fruit profile, yet backs it up with a stacked mid-palate, serious amounts of tannin and a finish that just won't quite. It's relatively approachable now due to its glycerin and fat, yet needs a decade of cellaring and will knock your socks off over the following two decades or more."(99pts)

La Mouline, E. Guigal

8lstl, 2sos, 1x12 bottle ocb

"The 1976 is even thicker, richer, and more jammy than some of the other great vintages of La Mouline. In essence, it is something between a dry red table wine and a vintage port. Of course it is not sweet, but it is so concentrated; one simply does not see wines such as this except for 1947 Pétrus or 1947 Cheval Blanc. The wine has thrown a couple of ounces of sediment. It offers a heavenly bouquet of sweet, floral-infused black raspberry/cassis fruit. Extremely unctuous and viscous, with mind-boggling concentration, this wine has always been exceptional to drink, but it continues to defy the aging curve. I have drunk my last bottle, so I am dependent on friends for future tastings. This is one of the legendary wines of the century!"(100pts)

"I have had this wine more than two dozen times (lucky me), and it is one of the most thrilling wines I could ever drink. I loved it when it was an infant, and now that it may, or may not be, fully mature, I still think it is the quintessential expression of Guigal's La Mouline. The color remains an inky garnet, with no perceptible lightening at the edges. The celestial aromas include copious quantities of black raspberries, coconut, smoked duck, Asian spices, and violets. It overloads the olfactory senses. On the palate, this wine reveals unreal concentration, layers of thick, juicy fruit, beautifully integrated acidity and tannin, and a sumptuous finish that lasts for more than a minute. This seamless beauty is one of the greatest wines made in this century. If I were forced to drink just one wine ... let it be this!..."(100pts)

 "Chave continues to make a full-throttle, concentrated and unctuous Hermitage Blanc, and refuses to buy into the ridiculous trend toward making Sauvignon Blanc-like whites from this tiny, magical terroir. God bless him for that and there are few whites I'd rather drink than a mature Hermitage Blanc from this genius winemaker. Jean-Louis called 2014 a good year for the whites, and his 2014 Hermitage Blanc had just been bottled a month prior to my tasting. It has terrific minerality as well as classic stone fruits, buttered citrus, honeysuckle and crushed rock, full-bodied richness and an elegant, fresh, pure style. It will have two decades of longevity." (95pts)

 "One of the great vintages from this estate, surpassing even the 1990, 2000, 2001, 2003, and maybe the 2010 (time will tell with this one), the 2007 Châteauneuf du Pape from Vincent Avril delivers everything you could want from a wine. Full-bodied, intense and beautifully concentrated, with plenty of muscle and depth, it shows the hallmark elegance and purity of the estate, with sensational notes of kirsch liqueur, raspberries, incense, smoked meats and Asian spices. The blend is the normal 65% Grenache, 20% Mourvedre, 10% Syrah and the rest a mix of permitted varieties, brought up all in older foudre, and it's just now entering its prime drink window and has another two decades of longevity." *"One of the stars of the vintage and coming from absurdly low yields of 18 hectoliters per hectare, the 2011 Châteauneuf du Pape is a full-bodied, seamless effort that exhibits copious kirsch, ground pepper, dried flowers and underbrush as well as incredibly fine tannin, great mid-palate concentration and ample length on the finish. Relatively forward by this estate's standards, it will be approachable at an earlier age than normal. ### BLUE-CHIP BORDEAUX

You always need a little Bordeaux, except when you need a lot! Bordeaux is the building block of most cellars, and our Trinity Collection coterie is here to help with original wood cases of 2009 Angelus, 2000 Ausone, 2000 Cheval Blanc, 2009 Cos, 2009 Ducru Beaucaillou, 1989 Haut Brion, 2005 La Mission magnums, and 1996, 2000 (in bottle and magnum), 2003, 2008, and 2009 Lafite! We go from strength to strength with six magnums of the spectacular 1982 Lafleur, backed by six magnums and two double-magnums of 1982 Latour! More original wood cases abound with 1996, 2003, and 2005 Latour, as well as 1990 Lynch Bages, 2005 Margaux, 2009 Margaux, 1990 Montrose, 2000 Mouton, 2000 Pavie, and two cases of 2005 Troplong Mondot. Grand old wines still going strong include 1949 Cheval Blanc, 1928 Cos d'Estournel, 1955 La Mission, 1959 Lafite, 1975 Lafleur, and a stunning 1961 Latour Jeroboam!!!

514 Château Angelus - Vintage 2009

St. Emilion

1x12 bottle owc

"Angélus sings of blackberry preserves, warm black cherries, stewed plums and dried herbs with hints of Chinese five spice, fragrant earth, truffles and new leather. Full, rich, spicy and decadent in the mouth, it has a plush, velvety texture and well-knit freshness, finishing very long with tons of spicy layers." (99pts)

12 bottles per lot $3500-5000

515 Château Ausone - Vintage 2000

St. Emilion

"A saturated black/purple color is followed by sensational aromas of ink, cherries, blackberries, blueberries, and that wet stones/liquid minerality characteristic. The wine has phenomenal presence on the palate as well as astonishing richness and purity. Despite its extract, power, and richness, it is remarkably light, with a surreal delicacy. It is a tour de force in winemaking and a compelling expression of this magical terroir." (100pts)

12 bottles per lot $8000-11000

516 Château Ausone - Vintage 2003

St. Emilion

1x12 bottle owc

"The 2003 Ausone is off the charts in terms of richness. While I gave a 3-digit score to the 2000, I think this profoundly concentrated wine may be even more sublime and exotic. Its inky/blue/purple color is followed by an extraordinary perfume of flowers, crushed rocks, sweet raspberries, blackberries, blueberries, and God knows what else. The impression is one of extraordinary richness and purity, and a multilayered texture yet a surreal lightness as well as laser-like precision." (100pts)

518 Château Ausone - Vintage 2005St. Emilion1x6 bottle owc*

"A tiny production of just over 1,300 cases will make the 2005 Ausone impossible to find, but proprietor Alain Vauthier continues to exhibit the Midas touch with his perfectionist efforts at this estate. This brilliant, blue/black-hued offering reveals an extraordinarily youthful, but promising nose of incense, blueberries, blackberries, currants, licorice, and crushed rocks. This intense 2005 boasts powerful, super-layered, multidimensional flavors with tremendous extraction, yet they come across as incredibly sublime, even delicate for such a stunningly concentrated, full-bodied effort. A masterpiece of concentration and balance, it will no doubt be drinking well a century from now." (100pts)

519 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1949St. Emilionhs, lbsl, sdc, outstanding color*

"... exhibits a phenomenally fragrant bouquet of overripe red and black fruits, cedar, Asian spices, and minerals. Decadently rich and jammy, it has an amazing plum/garnet color with very little amber or rust at the edge. It may out-live the heavier, thicker, more exotic 1947." (96pts)

1 bottle

per lot $1800-2400

520 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1955St. Emilionvhs, lbsl, outstanding color*

"The wine was incredibly kinky and exotic in the nose; Wendy immediately noted Pina Colada, and Ray found it more coconuts and cream, splitting a hair into two. It definitely had this amazing suntan lotion quality, and Rob was admiring how pure and laser-like the wine was. Wendy noted some licorice, and Ray was being his usual self, calling it more anise. There was no doubting its exotic aromas that were bordering on tropical in a candle wax and Mounds (chocolate and coconut) way. Rob noted big banana 94 Colgin-ish, and while I saw what he was saying, the Cheval had more earth, barn and bread than the usual 1994 Colgin, although perhaps in forty years that Colgin will be the same! The flavors were chocolaty, bready, earthy and slaty, and Mike noted marzipan and took my Mounds and Almond Joyed me back. Rob got slightly critical and found it dessert wine-like, a la Chambers Tokay. The wine was kinky, exotic and outstanding." (95pts JK)

"This was a deep, dark and smoky wine with loads of fruit, make that black cassis and red currant. It was rich and decadent with a touch of coconut and black raspberry flavors. This was exotically good, that old Cheval kink on full display, especially after all those Burgundies." (97Mpts JK)

1 bottle

per lot $800-1100

522 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1982St. Emilion2tl, 1lwisl, 2bsl*

"Revealing considerable amber in its dark plum/garnet color; this intensely fragrant 1982 is somewhat of a paradox in that the front end suggests full maturity, but the mid-palate, finish, and overall texture denote a closed wine. A gorgeously sweet entry displays flavors of caramel, roasted coffee, jammy red and black fruits, coconut, and smoke. It is fat and full-bodied, with considerable tannin, structure, and muscle in the finish. Flamboyantly rich and precocious early in life, it is going through an awkward stage where the tannin is present, but it is also sexy, juicy, and formidably-structured. When the 1982 Cheval Blanc's component parts become totally in sync, it will be capable of meriting a three-digit rating." (99pts)

523 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1996St. Emilion3lscl*

"...reveals an evolved blueberry and redcurrant, coconut, spicy new oak-scented bouquet, medium body, soft, round, savory flavors, and a clean finish. It lacks concentration and depth, but this wine is still seductive, albeit too compressed, polite, and under-sized." (90pts)

6 bottles

524 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 2000St. Emilion1x12 bottle owc*

"...saturated purple color along with a reticent but striking bouquet of blackberries, blueberries, truffles, and mocha. In spite of its tightness, aeration reveals scents of licorice, menthol, and saddle leather. Opulent and full-bodied, with low acidity, sweet tannin, and a 60-second finish, it is unquestionably as profound as the 1990 and 1982. I still believe the 2000 has the potential to be the most compelling Cheval Blanc since the mythical 1947 and 1949..." (100pts)

"The 2005 from Cheval Blanc is a quintessentially elegant, beautiful, deep bluish/ruby-colored wine from St.-Emilion, with raspberry, blueberry, and floral notes, impressive density, great precision, freshness and purity. Full-bodied, but extremely light on its feet, I don't mean to gush, but it is super-intense, rich and just so meticulously crafted! This is another fabulous wine and a perfect expression for this vintage. It is difficult to forget the gorgeous blueberry and raspberry fruit, full body, sweet tannin, a multi-layered texture, and purity and palate presence of this stunning wine."(100pts)

532 Château Haut Brion - Vintage 1989Graves1x12 bottle owc*

"This continues to be one of the immortal wines and one of the greatest young Bordeaux wines of the last half-cen-tury. Consistently prodigious and almost a sure bet to top the scoring card of any blind tasting of this vintage as well as other years, the 1989 Haut-Brion is a seam-less, majestic classic, and a tribute to this phenomenal terroir and its singular characteristics. The wine still has a very thick, viscous-looking ruby/purple color; a spectacular, young but awesome smorgasbord of aromas ranging from scorched earth, liquid minerals, graphite, blackberry and black currant jam to toast, licorice, and spice box. The levels of fruit, extract, and glycerin in this viscous, full-bodied, low-acid wine are awe-inspiring. There is so much going on in the aromatics that one almost hesitates to stop smelling it. However, when it hits the palate, it is hardly a letdown. This is a fabulous wine and a great effort from this hal- lowed terroir. Drink this modern-day legend over the next 30+ years. 544 Château Lafite Rothschild - Vintage 1996Pauillac1x12 bottle owc"Tasted three times since bottling, the 1996 Lafite-Rothschild is unquestionably this renowned estate's greatest wine. As I indicated last year, only 38% of the crop was deemed grand enough to be put into the final blend, which is atypically high in Cabernet Sauvignon (83%). This massive wine may be the biggest, largest-scaled Lafite I have ever tasted. It will require many years to come around...the wine exhibits a thick-looking, ruby/purple color; and a knock-out nose of lead pencil, minerals, flowers, and black currant scents. Extremely powerful and full-bodied, with remarkable complexity for such a young wine, this huge Lafite is oozing with extract and richness, yet has managed to preserve its quintessentially elegant personality. This wine is even richer than it was prior to bottling. It should unquestionably last for 40-50 years."(100pts)

"Lafleur possesses a mind-boggling inner-core of highly-extracted fruit, something that was not achieved in such great Lafleurs as 1982, 1985, 1988, 1989, and 1990. Still extremely tannic, with an opaque purple/black/garnet color, the wine exhibits a huge nose of jammy black fruits, earth, minerals, and spice. Massively proportioned, with a boat-load of tannin to shed, this is a wine for the 21st century."(100pts)

556 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1982Pomerol1bn, 1ts, 6stl, 6lgsl, 6lwrl, 2nl, 1scc, 1cuc*

"A spectacular nose of kirsch liqueur, minerals, flowers, and blackberries jumps from the glass of this thick, dark ruby-colored Lafleur. Over-ripeness, a characteristic of many 1982s (I say that in a positive, not pejorative sense), is apparent in this jammy, unctuously-textured, massive wine. Somewhat of a paradox to taste, it offers notes of maturity, richness, and succulence contrasted with massive structure, muscle, and density. Thrilling to drink, despite its youthful, tannic grip, the 1975 and 1979 Lafleurs come closest to this wine's massiveness and formidable intensity."(100pts)

Ripe and long, with moderate tannin and admirable sweetness, the 1934 was showing exceptionally well."*(91pts)

559 Château Latour - Vintage 1961Pauillachs, lbsl, cuc, outstanding color*

"Port-like, with an unctuous texture, and a dark garnet color with considerable amber at the edge, the 1961 Latour possesses a viscosity and thickness. One of the three bottles served at the Château's tasting revealed a surprisingly aggressive, minty, herbaceous nose, but the other two bottles were liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine. The 1961 has been fully mature for over 15 years, but it seems to get richer, holding onto its succulence and fat, and developing more aromatic nuances without losing any sweetness or concentration. An extraordinary wine, it is unquestionably one of the Bordeaux legends of the century!..."(100pts)

Opulent, savory, rich, and full-bodied, it is a head-turning, prodigious wine and a complete contrast to the extracted behemoth of Leoville Barton and the backward, classic Leoville Las Cases. 587 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 2005

Pauillac

"The 2005 Château Mouton-Rothschild is a deeply impressive First Growth. It has been blessed with a sensational nose that comes racing out of the blocks with audacious scents of black fruit, cedar, smoke and pencil box (Philippe Dhalluin mentioned that the signature smokiness/fireside hearth was tangible in around 80% of the vats during élevage). There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The palate is medium-bodied with sumptuous black fruit, perhaps beginning to soften in texture, one or two years off its plateau. There are layers and layers of black fruit intermingling with graphite and black pepper, and it wisely reins everything in on the finish that is more classic in style and in keeping with the vintage. If you are fortunate enough to have this wine in your cellar, even though those tannins are starting to be abraded by time, afford it another five or six years."(98pts)

So much fruit comes charging out of the gate here: profound Crème de cassis, baked blackberries and blackberry preserves with notions of beef dripping, crushed rocks, unsmoked cigar, sandalwood and dried lavender. Big, rich and beautifully impactful, it is completely packed with taut, muscular black and blue fruit preserves, maintaining nice firm grainy tannins with layer after layer of exotic spices, meat and earth notions, finishing epically long and minerally. "The 2005 Pavie is an absolutely amazing wine that has shed most of its oak aging (usually 24-28 months). Opaque purple in color, it is beyond belief in extract and concentration, but perfectly balanced and pure, with the oak well-integrated. Massively concentrated, and still a baby, this wine tastes more like it's two to three years old than one that's been around for a decade. Intense notes of grilled meats, spice box, cassis, black cherry, licorice and graphite are present in abundance. Enormously endowed, but with superlative purity and balance, this is the greatest Pavie in the early Perse era, starting in 1998. Only the 2009 and 2010 rival this in his opinion, but I would add the 2000. This killer effort should drink well for another 50 years and demonstrates the greatness of this terroir owned by the Perse family. Only 7,000 cases were produced from a blend of 70% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon. Bravo!"(100pts)

"The 2005 Troplong Mondot is a blend of 90% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc. It was emotional tasting this wine, thinking of the late Christine Valette, who made this compelling wine while battling with considerable courage against an insidious disease. It is a great effort and a superstar of the vintage. Dense purple, it offers notes of white chocolate, blackberry, cassis and licorice as well as a hint of truffle and some subtle background oak. Full-bodied, multi-layered, and spectacularly pure and rich, it is a tour de force, and a great tribute to an incredible woman. Remarkably youthful, this wine probably needs another 4-8 years of bottle age, and should keep for 20 or more years. Kudos to the late Christine Valette!"(100pts)

ARMAND ROUSSEAU

After his wedding in 1909, Armand Rousseau founded his eponymous Domaine, gradually acquiring more parcels that now total over eight remarkable hectares of Grand Crus. He was among the first to extensively Domaine-bottle and also pioneered importing to the USA in the 1930s. Charles Rousseau took the helm in 1959, and now, his son Eric is the winemaker, who is slowly handing the reigns over to his daughter Cyrielle. Domaine Armand Rousseau is the benchmark for the village of Gevrey-Chambertin, and its two dueling Grandest Crus, Chambertin and Chambertin Clos de Beze. Many will argue which is better, but you never know until you get to the end of the bottle! Throw in some Clos St. Jacques (which is arguably a Grand Cru), and you have a debate for the ages! Chambertin’s history goes all the way back to the 7th century (!!!), when the first vines were planted by the monks of Abbey Beze, and it gained its named when Monsieur Bertin planted vines nearby. It has become one of the names synonymous with great Burgundy as much as any other, mostly thanks to Rousseau.

Rousseau regals us with forty-one lots focusing on the “Big Three” vineyards (appropriate for our Trinity of collectors!): Chambertin, its Beze, and Clos St. Jacques. There are nineteen selections of Chambertin, thirteen lots of Clos de Beze, and eight from Clos St. Jacques. Chambertin leads the charge, of course, with full cases of 1996, 1999 (in bottle and magnums), 2000, 2005, 2009 (in bottle and magnum), and 2014, followed by cases of Clos de Beze from 1999, 2007, 2012 magnums, and 2015! We top it all off with mighty Jeroboams of 2005 Clos St. Jacques, 2012 Clos de Beze, 1996 and 1999 Chambertin!!!!

4cm bc, cuc, excellent color

“As great as so many of the wines that we had already tasted on this magical evening, this next flight of reds absolutely stole the show. It began with a spectacular bottle courtesy of Big Mike. The first thing I wrote was, WOW. The Rousseau was meaty, intense and DEEP; it was full of rose, iron, crushed red fruits, vitamins, tannins, alcohol, acidity, brick, iron, wildfire it was game over. As Eli decreed, that s it. The palate was rich, hearty and incredible with its rose, oil, game and vitamin flavors. This was wine was flat out incredible.”(97pts JK)

“The 1988 Chambertin Grand Cru from Rousseau offers up a complex and pristine bouquet of red and black berries, grilled meat, wood smoke and cedary wood. On the palate, the wine is medium-full, with a firm but fine chassis of tannin and taut but integrated signature 1988 acidity structural elements framing a Chambertin of great depth and intensity. This is not as ample or authoritative as the very greatest vintages, but in terms of balance, complexity and concentration, it doesn’t miss a beat.”(93pts)

Despite being so young, it opened up in the glass a bit, resulting in the best bottle of this that I can ever remember having. It was thick, long and spectacular. "The phenomenal aromatic complexity displayed by this wine from cask is still present with relatively tight but not hard frank, direct and robust flavors that have plenty of buffering fat and superb length. As I noted in my original tasting note, this will not compete for the longest lived Rousseau Chambertin yet it is packed, powerful and beautifully complex and is an outstanding wine in any context but particularly so for the vintage. Because there is so much fat, this can be enjoyed now but will clearly offer more fireworks in the future so I would be inclined to let this baby rest for at least another 5 years and longer if you can keep your hands off of it."(93 pts BH)

"I was frankly quite surprised to find the Chambertin almost as expressive and every bit as broad aromatically as the Bèze as the nose is equally kaleidoscopic if featuring a more deeply pitched set of fruit aromas and more earth. The flavors are bigger if not finer with serious power and weight on the rich, full and driving finish that possesses an exuberant underlying sense of energy, all wrapped in a core of rock solid but ripe and balanced tannins. Like the potential of the Bèze, this too has a chance to ascend as one of the top vintages ever typified by such years as '34, '49, '52, '62, '66 and '91. Arguably the Chambertin of the vintage."(99pts BH)

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI

Simply saying Domaine de la Romanee Conti or “DRC” makes Burgundy lovers’ hearts pound while their paddles raise! The most colorful superlatives do not do justice to DRC, which has royally resided at the top level of quality and price for Burgundy for decades. Romanee Conti’s outstanding quality dates back to the 1200s, when the monks of Saint-Vivant tended this sacred plot. The name Romanee was attached in the 17th century by the Croonembourg family, and Conti was added by Prince Conti in the 18th Century. Three families, de Villane, Leroy, and Roch have dominated the more recent history of the Domaine. As its Grand Crus were consolidated, a reputation for superlative quality grew, and it currently stands atop the auction market year after year with an unmatched market share compared to any other wine, by three to four times at that! Having recently added Corton to its stable of solely Grand Crus, Domaine de la Romanee Conti now proudly presides over 28 hectares, including two monopoles, La Tache and, of course, Romanee Conti itself.

Domaine de Romanee Conti rightly takes the Burgundy throne with more than eighty lots evincing the magnificence of its Grand Crus. Echezeaux begins with eight lots going back to 1971, including magnums of 2010, 2012, and 2013. Ten selections of Grands Echezeaux, spanning 1971 to 2015, are highlighted by nine bottles of 1988 and twelve bottles in OWC of 2012. La Tache also starts with the legendary 1971 vintage, but this time a Jeroboam, followed by three Jeroboams of 1990 in their original wood case (!!!), and twenty-one bottles of 1996. The treasure trove of La Tache lots, compiling lots twenty-one in total, continues with two cases of 2006 and cases of 2009 in bottle and magnum. Richebourg goes all the way back to 1959, followed by twelve bottles and ten magnums of the benchmark 2010 vintage. Sixteen selections of Romanee Conti, Romanee Conti are the centerpiece here, with magnums of 2003, 2006, 2009, and 2010 as well as six-bottles each of 2006, 2009, and 2010 in their original wood cases! Romanee St. Vivant gets its due with fourteen lots including four six-packs of 2009, as well a towering Methuselah of 2006. You will seldom see this much DRC in one auction, but the Trinity Collection comes together and gets it done again!!!

"...fuller, sweeter, and more concentrated than the Échézeaux. It reveals a healthy dark ruby color, an attractive nose of red and black fruits and pain grillee, followed by a medium-bodied, concentrated style with a firm, well-delineated, focused personality, and moderate tannin in the finish. It is a 15-year wine that requires another 5-6 years of patience. The DRC's 1993s possess the vintage's toughness, tannic structure, austerity, and aging potential."(90pts)

"Deep ruby. Still aromatically tight and backward with elegant red and black fruit aromas followed by middle weight, earthy, reserved flavors and a very firm but not hard finish. With 90 minutes of air, this becomes superbly elegant and spicy with outstanding precision and detail. At this point, this is an intellectual wine, only hinting at the ultimate potential. In good storage, this will live for decades."(94pts BH)

"This is the second time that I have tasted the 2010 Grands Echézeaux Grand Cru from bottle from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, and it was a wine that prompted a table of mature Pinot aficionados to remark upon the joys of infanticide. This is just a fantastic wine from the domaine. The nose is heavenly with its exquisite delineation, the fruit maybe a touch darker and earthier than a couple of years ago -- yet still with subtle woodland/sous-bois aromas and a hint of morels. The palate is wonderfully defined, so fresh and precise with filigree tannin. Yet there is great backbone to this wine, a framework that imparts a sense of symmetry that is totally disarming. Of course, readers should afford this magnificent wine a decade in the cellar...unless by complete accident a corkscrew falls into the cork and twists around until the cork pops out. Then you will have to drink it."(96pts)

"The 2012 Grands Echézeaux was picked on September 22, 24 and 25, at 27 hectoliters per hectare. Compared to the Echézeaux the nose is more demure, perhaps more refined, does not feel the urge to "put it all out" as it were. Reticent is the word - yet the precision and delineation is undeniable. The palate is medium-bodied with very supple tannin, here a mixture of red and black fruit, a little broodier and more introspective than its "cousin" but with greater persistence in the mouth. It unfurls on the finish: hints of dry tobacco and cedar, leaving you with the impression of a "masculine" Grands Echézeaux, one built for the long haul. 987 cases produced."(95pts)

"It was the bottle of all bottles, and the 1971 DRC La Tâche quickly put Burgundy back at the center of the conversation. This bottle was the real deal in every sense of the phrase. "Incredible nose that reminded me of an 18-year old supermodel: way too young but everyone still has to stop and stare aromas of roses and crushed red fruits, bursting with stones and minerals and rounded out by a little cinnamon/nutmeg spiciness aromas of brand new leather so fresh and new that it is worthy of a Gucci or Prada tag the palate, however, was greatly shut down the wine was in hiding it was like a 98-point nose and a 92 point palate at first. The wine did start to open up slowly but surely and define itself on the palate after a couple of hours, and the acids emerged from a dormant state to really express themselves and let you know they were in the room an earthquake of a La Tâche that shakes the room and stains the soul."(96+pts JK)

The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found and while this too cannot rival the other worldly 1999, 2001 will one day be thought of as a genuinely excellent vintage for La Tâche. "Hints of mocha, vanilla, maraschino, and almond paste lend a confectionary note to generously rich cassis and raspberry, while Latakia tobacco, peat, clove, black pepper, star anise, and cumin contribute commune-typical Vosne-Romanée personality in spades. The high-toned, sweet themes continue inner mouth, with intimation of heliotrope, rowan, and lily perfume, while the wine's smoky, spicy elements seem to descend into a low-register undertone of roasted red meats and forest floor. As this opens to the air, a subtly sweet-saline suggestion of lobster shell reduction adds richness and succulence. Strikingly creamy in feel, this La Tâche nevertheless possessed a fresh berry edge that helps convey vibrancy to a finish that practically glows in your mouth, offering another of those Burgundian paradoxes of light and dark."(96pts)

As with all of the DRC '10s, the equally stony flavors and supporting tannins are extremely fine and while there is ample power and vibrancy, the palate feel is all silk and satin. It has a heavenly nose with exquisite mineral-rich red cherry, wild strawberry, blood orange and subtle woodland, damp autumn leaf and moss aromas that are extraordinarily complex. It seems to gain vigor and intensity with each swirl of the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, a slightly suppler La Tâche compared to recent years, a wine with an athleticism. There is nothing wasted or superfluous here, a honed La Tâche that is all about tensile structure matched by perfect acidity and an incredibly complex, kaleidoscopic finish that seems so mercurial in the glass, initially offering red fruit then changing its mind and revealing darker and more tertiary notes. "The Richebourg 2012 was picked September 27-28 at just 19 hectoliters per hectare, one of the lowest yields in this vintage. This has a serious bouquet, reserved at first, more earth than air. Unusual for this cuvée, there is a sense of exoticism here, a Richebourg daring to show a bit of ankle. Blackberry pastille intermingle with wilted violets, and there is a touch of warmth that belies the precocity of the growing season. Leaving it aside for 10 minutes, there are hints of Provençal herbs, broom and even fennel. The palate is medium-bodied and the first thing that strikes you is its backbone. Well, this is Richebourg after all. But there is an arching structure to this wine that is disguised by the silkiness of its texture, plus an almost citrus freshness and brightness on the finish. The sweet, intense, focused, detailed and vibrant flavors offer superb drive and punch though there is not the sheer scale of the LT yet they're finer and somehow even purer, indeed absolutely crystalline though I kept asking myself how this was possible as the purity of the La Tâche is itself mind blowing. 711 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective."(96pts BH)

"The kaleidoscopically spicy, floral and complex nose however is a good deal more expressive, indeed almost surprisingly so given that it typically is quite reticent. In the same fashion as the La Tâche one aspect that is immediately clear is that 2013 is an emphatically powerful vintage for RC with its dense, serious and muscular middle weight plus flavors that retain terrific delineation on the extraordinarily pure and refined finish that seems to go on and on."(96pts BH)

"This is notably less expressive but not necessarily mute with its restrained aromas of red currant, anise, clove, hoisin, sandalwood and once again Asian-style tea, all of which is trimmed in nuances of rose petal and lavender. The remarkably intense and beautifully well-detailed middle weight flavors possess a completely different texture before culminating in a stony, powerful, focused and explosively long finish that delivers sneaky good length because just as it appears to be dying away, it reappears."(97pts BH)

"Wonderful aromatics of Vosne spice, black fruit and hints of earth and violets followed by rich, velvety flavors of stunning complexity and exceptional length. This has finally started to open and shows even more promise now than it did before as the hardness of the tannins is melting, revealing classic RSV qualities. Drinkable now but this will undoubtedly be better with a few more years of bottle age."(93pts BH)

718 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2003Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Perhaps the biggest Romanée-St.-Vivant produced at this domaine, the 2003 offers aromatics as well as flavors reminiscent of blackfruits drenched in dark chocolate. Full-bodied, velvety-textured, as well as concentrated, it is immensely ripe, crammed with tannin, and vaunts an amazingly long finish."(95pts)

719 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2006Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle banded owc*

"The Domaine de La Romanée-Conti's 2006 Romanée-St.-Vivant charts its own mysterious path, dissimilar to that of their Grands-Échézeaux, as well as reflecting the strides in quality that have manifestly been achieved in recent years in this site, more than at any other at this domaine. Iris, buddleia, and musky narcissus-like floral perfume; ripe purple plum and blackberry; saffras and licorice; along with smoked meat and a hoisin-like amalgam of spices and soy all waft alluringly from the glass. The tannins here are ultra-refined and there is a vintage-typical sense of levity, despite all of the dark intrigue of enveloping black fruits, forest floor, fungal, and carnal flavors that persist on the palate. Here is an uncanny alliance of the sensual and thought-provoking such as only great red Burgundy among the world's red wines can engender, and if this wine doesn't stimulate in you cravings and wonder at once, the fault is doubtless in yourself and not the glass. It seems to marry the brightness and finesse of the 2002 with the texturally richness of the (unexpectedly fine) 2000, two standouts in recent tasting of Romanée-St.-Vivant that I was privileged to attend. But there is much more depth here, and I expect that this wine's beauty will be worth pondering and savoring for at least two decades."(95pts)

"An ultra elegant, pure and quite delicately fruited and spiced nose that is extremely fresh, floral and expansive that is more layered still as it introduces seductively textured, detailed and gorgeously delineated middle weight flavors that possess laser-like focus if less density than is usually seen with this wine. Indeed, this is rather like a ballerina with limited power and weight but the watch word here is purity, purity and purity. I quite like this but it will strike some as unduly light though I believe the underlying material is present such that it will add weight in bottle as it ages."(94pts BH)

"The 2009 Romanée St.Vivant is wonderfully complete. The combination of power and elegance is breathtaking as layers of fruit flow across the palate in stunning style. Hard candy, flowers, mint and dark red berries build to the dramatic, explosive finish. In 2009 the Romanée St. Vivant is a wine of considerable volume and textural depth, but it will require a good many years for those qualities to come through fully."(97pts)

"All that I could think when I first put my nose in the glass was "wow!" as the airy and very cool nose of ultra-elegant spice, floral and herbal nuances greeted me. Add to this plenty of attractive nuances to the kaleidoscopically layered red currant and plum suffused aromas and you have something pretty special. This is, not surprisingly, much more refined than the GrandsEch as the supporting tannins on the silky middle weight flavors are extremely fine-grained yet notably dense as the explosive finish is quite firm. Despite the tightly wound structure the overall impression of the mouth feel is one of delicacy and ultimate refinement."(96pts BH)

"A deft but not invisible application of wood sets off the airy, cool and strikingly elegant nose that is composed by notes of both red and dark currant, a wide range of floral and spice elements as well as Asian-style tea scents. The refined and caressing middle weight flavors possess a sleek and cool mouth feel while retaining good definition on the firm but well-balanced and sneaky long finish that exhibits a bit less finesse than usual even if it is still quite fine."(95pts BH)

A CHAMPAGNE AUCTION OF THE HIGHEST CLASS

Personally, I have not been lazy during the pandemic, when I compiled and wrote the most comprehensive book of my life, "Champagne Magnum Opus" with 13,000 tasting notes that will be launched at the end of the year. Of course, this means that I have tasted Champagne a lot during this gloomy time, and I have often done so in my loneliness. Now that the world is slowly opening up again, it's time to enjoy together, and what could be more fitting than to spice up your cellar with some of the greatest Champagnes of all time from one of the planet's most dedicated collectors? It is a unique opportunity to take part in this offering by a good friend of mine who has accumulated these treasures over the years.

I have on several occasions shared bottles with this collector from his cellar and have always been impressed with the condition of the Champagnes, which of course is the most important thing when it comes to old noble Champagne. In this unique river of treasures that are offered, it is of course difficult to choose, but the asking prices are very modest compared to what I see when these types of Champagne (rarely) appear. Old Champagne has only recently become increasingly appreciated and sought-after both as a pleasure and as an investment over the last 10-15 years. Since the amount of high-class Champagne from the '70s and older is so vanishingly small, this truly is a unique opportunity. The collection of older Salon is perhaps most spectacular, and while the '60s vintages are magnificent, the 1947 I have only drunk once and is perhaps the foremost Salon in history! Clos des Goisses is a relatively unknown vineyard wine that ages just as slowly as Salon, and the '50s vintages are so magical with their gooseberry-like youthfulness combined with nutty richness and maturity. The rest will follow accordingly!

Pol Roger and Pommery are among the Champagnes that age best with the house style intact, for at least a century and the premiere vintage 1975 Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill in magnum (first vintage) I will bid on myself! Maybe I should not be divulging my strategy! Moët and Dom Pérignon need no introduction and the trio of 1911, 1914 and especially 1921 Moët & Chandon is the house's foremost bottlings historically before they launched the prestigious Dom Pérignon champagne.

Among the slightly younger, legendary Champagnes is one of the four foremost vintages of all-time by my favorite wine, Krug Clos du Mesnil, from 1985, and the two most delicious vintages in history of seductive Taittinger Comtes de Champagne in 1979 and 1976. The auction also offers you a unique chance to bid on numerous 1928s, including Bollinger, Moët, Roederer, Perrier Jouët, and one more I will mention soon. How spectacular to serve these against each other in seven years on New Year's Eve when these legends turn 100 years old!

When I read through the auction catalog, I discovered some things I have not seen in a long time. It contains two Champagnes I have never tried. 1947 Cristal is together with 1928 Salon one of the two Champagnes I have left to try before I throw in the towel for good. Given how magnificent the 1947 Louis Roederer Brut is, the 1947 Cristal should be a giant. If you win those, I will travel!

This is a breathtaking book. Good luck!

FURTHER OUTSTANDING CHAMPAGNE
FEATURING BOLLINGER, PHILIPPNAT AND VEUVE CLICQUOT

The three collectors of the Trinity Collection believe in having Champagne early and often - before, during and after a fine wine dinner or lunch! To keep the bubbles flowing, here is another forty lots of fantastic Champagne that deserves to be in your cellar from Bollinger, Philipponnat, Veuve Clicquot and more! Bollinger leads the charge with seven lots dating to 1928, highlighted by a magnum of 1937. We go from strength-to-strength with 1966 Billecart Salmon cuvée Nicolas Francois, 1975 Deutz Vinotheque magnums, a dash of Dom Ruinart back to 1961, 2002 Jacques Selosse magnum, 1929 Lanson from the Doris Duke cellar, as well as 1928 Perrier Jouet in magnum! There are seven selections of Philipponnat going back to 1952, highlighted by magnums of 1953, 1964, and 1966 Clos des Goisses, and we conclude with lots of Veuve Clicquot back to 1934!

*"Probably the greatest Lanson I have tasted. The wine is almost heroic in its dimensions, and amazingly vital in its color and mousse. The nose opens slowly to reveal all the colors of the rainbow. The Champagne is very masculine, with nuances of juniper and Havana cigars. The wine is astoundingly heavy and full bodied, with the same aromas as the nose. The finish is a textbook example of the vintage: very dry and tough, fiery and rich in tannin. Lovely at the Millennium Tasting. Certain bottles breathe strangely enough young, floral Chardonnay." I have tasted one of the absolutely last magnums left in the world. Naturally direct from the house and disgorged two months prior to my tasting. One is met directly by an unprecedented unique and fascinating aromatic spectrum, spanning such wildly distinct and unexpected aromas as cedar, resin, eucalyptus, grilled steak, grass, gooseberry, and gunpowder! After a time in the glass, all three wines from the 1950s resembled each other, with a fabulously euphoric perfumed scent that is much like passion fruit. The taste is perhaps the richest and most charming of the three in this unbeaten tasting trio." (98pts RJ)

MOËT & CHANDON AND DOM PÉRIGNON

Dom Pérignon is, of course, the flagship of Moët & Chandon despite the fact that they try to present it as a brand of its own. The first vintage of the world's most famous wine was 1921. A lesser-known fact is that all of Dom Pérignon's vintages up to 1943 were actually regular Moët vintages that were transferred by transversage to replicas of eighteenth-century bottles! The '21 is without doubt the Moët's greatest vintage Champagne, although 1911 and 1914 provide excellent arguments! The greatest Dom Pérignon, on the other hand, is more difficult to pin down. Most would probably put their money on the '61, though personally I am very fond of the '64 and nowadays also for the '76. And that is without talking about the P3s! The company's strength lies in the large number of crus they have access to in creating their cuvées.

Up until the 1960s, Dom Pérignon was constantly one of the three foremost Champagnes. Richard Geoffroy and Benoit Gouez were two of the best winemakers in the world, and Vincent Chaperon is now taking over in the same style as Geoffroy created. See to it that you do not miss the Grand Vintages from Moët. There is nothing quite like Moët Vintage Grand Vintage Collection, or Dom Perignon P2 or P3! A house with many 5-star wines.

The Moët family originally comes from Holland, but has been active in Champagne since the fifteenth century. The Champagne domain was established in 1743 by Claude Moët, but it rose to fame under the leadership of Jean-Rémy at the beginning of the nineteenth century. Napoleon, who studied at the military academy in Brienne, became good friends with Jean-Rémy, who soon became the mayor of Épernay. It was the start of a fabulous success story! In order for Napoleon to have a suitable place to stay on his many visits to Champagne, Le Trianon Palace was built opposite Moët & Chandon on the Avenue de Champagne. Just before Napoleon was arrested and sent to Elba, he visited Moët to present Jean-Rémy with the French order of merit, the Légion d'Honneur. Not to brag, but the same honor was given to me in 2013 by the French President François Hollande! Despite the defeat at Waterloo, Moët's Champagne increased in popularity. In 1832 the name was changed to Moët & Chandon, and the company proved successful throughout the industrialized world.

Nowadays the Domaine owns over 553 hectares in forty-four villages, but this is still not enough. As all of 200 villages are used in the non-vintage cuvée, 75 per cent of the grapes must be bought. As much as 82 per cent of the entire production is exported. Despite Moët achieving enormous success with their regular non-vintage Champagne, the step-up in quality for all of their vintage wines is gigantic. Moët is a house with many 5-star wines even without Dom Perignon!

Dom Perignon flexes its muscles with more than two dozen lots commencing with magnums of 1955, 1964, 1970 and 1971. There is a spectacular array P3 releases back to 1969, while also covering the 1970s and 1980s. We roundup this treasure trove of DP with a 1990 Rose magnum case and three cases of 2006. Moët recalls its glory days with seventeen lots spanning 1911 to 1955 highlighted by several rare wartime and prewar vintages of Imperial and Grand Vintage you will seldom see again if ever!!! These are amongst the greatest Champagnes in the catalog!!!

KRUG

For me, Krug is more than a Champagne. It is a word that stands for artistry, tradition, craftsmanship, and moments of pure pleasure. The Krug family has used the same methods since the house was founded in 1843 by Johann-Joseph Krug from Mainz. It is hardly likely that the Krug philosophy will be abandoned in the foreseeable future, since it has brought so much success! Put simply, that philosophy means that all the wines are fermented cru by cru in well-aged 205-liter barrels from the Argonne and central-east of France. The wines are seldom filtered: they undergo just two rackings, by gravity, from cask to cask. Nor do they induce a malolactic fermentation, which is one of the reasons for Krug's fantastic aging potential. None of the wines are disgorged before they are six years old, and the reserve wines are stored in stainless-steel tanks from the Swedish company Alfa Laval. (Go Sweden!)

Twenty hectares in Aÿ, Ambonnay, Le Mesnil, and Trépail are owned by the house, but above all it is the network of prestigious contracts with some of the region's best growers that answers for the quality, as the growers consider it an honor to supply Krug with grapes. Johann-Joseph Krug, the founder, learned his Champagne craft at Jacquesson, and when he regarded himself as qualified after nine years there, he set off to Reims to start his own house. After Joseph's death, his son Paul took over and built the powerful Krug dynasty, followed by Joseph Krug II in 1910 and Joseph's nephew, Jean Seydoux, in 1924. It was he, together with Paul Krug II, who created the famous cuvées, and it was only in 1962 that the legendary Henri Krug took over. For a long time the wines were made by Eric Lebel now replaced by talented Julie Cavil, and Olivier Krug is still the president. They work undisturbed and independently, despite the fact that the firm is owned by LVMH. All of Krug's wines are small masterworks, and although Grande Cuvée may be lighter and fresher than its predecessor, Private Cuvée, after a few extra years in the cellar it outshines many competitors' vintage Champagnes.

Clos du Mesnil is a charmer that combines the best Blanc de Blancs while simultaneously distinguishing the wine with the house's own distinct style. For me, Krug Clos du Mesnil is the best wine in the world! The Clos d'Ambonnay is an expensive rarity. The most costly young Champagne in the world does not seem to frighten away Krug fans since all 3,000 bottles are always booked up every time they make one. The wine itself is fantastic, most especially since it is clearly a brother belonging to the same sibling group in the Krug family. It feels as though all Krug wines receive a last tiny squirt of Krug perfume that distinguishes them from everything else wherever their origins. It matters not if others copy the methods with old, small oak barrels, no malolactic fermentation, aging for 12 years and other technicalities. It is still impossible for them to copy Krug. While the traditional, vintage Krug is now in competition with the Clos wines, if we go backward in time, this is without doubt the best champagne of them all. There is nothing quite like a Krug from the '70s, '60s, '50s or older. A chance to drink a Krug this old is never to be missed!

Ce magnum provient de nos collections personnelles de Milleimes anciens.

Selon une idée courante, le champagne ne s'améliore pas au-delà de sa période "normale" de vieillissement. C'est souvent vrai, mais il existe des exceptions remarquables: nos champagnes, vinifiés toujours aujourd'hui exclusivement en petits fûts de chêne mûrissent particulièrement lentement et donc aussi longtemps. Ils peuvent, s'ils sont bien conservés, développer ainsi personnalité et plénitude tout en préservant une fraîcheur étonnante.

Ce magnum Krug Collection a été conservé dans nos caves à Reims, à température constante et dans les conditions idéales pour que vous puissiez le déguster et en apprécier la personnalité exceptionnelle.

Il est l'un de nos derniers magnums de 1959. Ce Milleime est maintenant hors commerce: nous avons établi un certificat à votre intention. Pour le recevoir, il vous suffit de retourner le coupon figurant ci-dessous à Henri Krug, 5, rue Coquebert - 51100 Reims France.

Nous vous souhaitons une bonne dégustation!

Henri et Rémi Krug.

"One of history's most heroic Champagnes! While those of us in our forties see our waistlines expanding, this '61 has just finished building up its body. Even though I prefer the aromatic merits of the '38, the '61 is the grandest monument to the craft. The color is still light, with touches of bronze and copper. The nose has one side with all the oaky, toasted aromas from the barrel, and another with fascinating tones from the sea and the forest. The superb taste is also on the dark, masculine side, with truffles, duck liver, mushroom, earth cellar, wood, and fish. The fruit is by no means ingratiating, but the depth and breath of the wine are amazing. The aftertaste is actually one of the longest I've ever experienced!"(97pts RJ)

"An even richer wine than the '64 and '66, although lacking their elegance. The '62 probably reached its peak in the early 1980s. The nose is so strong that you feel it in the room when the wine is poured. It holds the scents of the traveling carnival: popcorn, cotton candy, and vanilla ice cream. In the mouth the Champagne expresses an oily weight and an incredible explosion of riches. Lots of Krug tastes, but slightly bottom-heavy compared with other vintages. Last bottle was incredibly young." (97pts RJ)

"Yet another legendary vintage that many select as the best ever to come from the property. However, despite its greatness, I contend that this is no more than a normal Krug. At the age of thirty it's still very youthful and acidic. The oak tones have a delightful nerve and are supported by the aroma of a bakery in the morning. The mid-palate is more impressive than the aftertaste, which is dominated by ripe apple and vanilla." (97pts RJ)

Its nose sparkled and crackled, like a flawless diamond meeting the Macy's 4th of July fireworks show. It had an addictive quality to its nose; once you started you did not want to stop. White, crystallized fruits along with an icily great character, the Krug exploded in my mouth, resulting in a bevy of inappropriate and immature jokes from the distinguished guests around me lol. This bubbly had enough liftoff for Nasa; in fact, that's what it finish felt like, those jets burning under a rocketship heading to outerspace, ready for the endless. This was an unbelievable magnum of a legendary Champagne."* (99Mpts JK)

The fruit is huge, the acidity, the concentration, the fat notes of the house, yes everything is there. The 82', along with the 89', is the fullest wine made on the property since 1976, but has a far greater elegance than that vintage. The fragrance spectrum consists of nuts, coffee, butter, sun-dried sheets, carbon paper, orchids, vanilla, balsam poplar and orange. "The 1.87-hectare Clos du Mesnil vineyard, in the heart of the village, is a location that sums up all that Le Mesnil's Champagne stands for. In Krug's hands this is the essence of Chardonnay. The '83 has a little way to go before it is fully mature: the color has a clear green gleam, the nose is young, finely balanced, and flowery, with lily of the valley, freesia, and white lilies clearly discernible. There is also a complex, creamy side filled with toasty aromas, young fruit, and damp wool. The taste is long and dry, with massive elegance and feminine frivolity."(95pts RJ)

The mingling of saline, nutty, and caramelized notes in the nose adumbrating this wine's entire performance is gorgeous. Butter-toasted hazelnuts, dried wild mushrooms, kelp, and cocoa mingle in a silken, mouthwateringly saline and savory matrix reminiscent of oyster liquor laced with fresh lemon juice (because, there is still a youthfully citric store of energy here). This finishes with correspondingly pronounced umami and with tangy vibrancy of citrus and salt."*(96pts)

The fruit is intricately layered in sublime, graceful notes of mineral-infused, perfumed berries that linger on the eternal finish. *"Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. Magnificent and a pleasure for both brain and heart. Latest absolutely magnificent and best of all 96s !!! Honey, almonds, smoke, graphite and dried apricots are some of the many aromas and flavors found in this rich, enveloping Champagne. A wine of texture and depth, the 1998 impresses for its vinous personality and terrific balance. Lively veins of underlying acidity suggest the 1998 will drink well for many years to follow. ## ITALY FEATURING GIACOSA, GIACOMO CONTERNO AND MASSETO

It's not just all France all the time for our Trinity collectors, and we add some Italian flare with more than fifty lots focusing on Piedmont and Tuscany. Seven selections of Bruno Giacosa welcome us with 1990 Santo Stefano Riserva and 1989 Falletto Riserva. We take a delightful detour with 1970 and 1971 Biondi Santi Riserva. Giacomo Conterno seizes control with nine lots, highlighted by 2006 Monfortino in three formats, before we hit six selections of sought after Giuseppe Rinaldi. Masseto gives a virtuoso performance with twenty-five lots arching over 1994 to 2013 in several formats all the way up to Imperial! Five lots of Soldera keep us drinking well in Tuscany including two cases of 2006 Riserva magnums. And, our great Italian adventure is crowned by three magnums of 1985 Sassicaia, King of the Super Tuscans! We mean Super Bolgheris!!!

897 Barbaresco - Vintage 1996

Asili Riserva, B. Giacosa

"The utterly perfect, dense ruby/purple-colored 1996 Barbaresco Asili (Red Label Riserva) is a heroic offering brilliantly displaying both power and elegance. The bouquet develops incrementally, offering up aromas of black raspberries, cherries, cigar box, licorice, and leather. The wine impresses with its nuances as well as its extraordinarily rich, dense mid-palate, and a finish that lasts nearly a minute. There is huge tannin, but equally massive concentration, extract, and overall harmony."(98pts)

Falletto di Serralunga, Riserva, B. Giacosa

1x6 bottle owc

"The 1989 Barolo Riserva Falletto is a deep, mineral-driven wine loaded with dark plums, smoke, prunes, plums and spices. Massive and virile, it is an assertive Barolo that commands attention for its explosive fruit and multi-faceted personality. The tannins are imposing, but also beautifully balanced. This is Giacosa's most explosive, rich wine in 1989, and it is utterly divine. Anticipated maturity: 2010-2030."(97pts)

Falletto di Serralunga, Riserva, B. Giacosa

tl

"The 1996 Barolo Falletto de Serralunga (Red Label Riserva) possesses extraordinary presence and stature. Dark garnet/ruby-colored, it offers a tight but promising nose of road tar, scorched earth, truffles, blackberries, cherries, and espresso. This muscular, massive wine gave me chills. It is an exquisite, virtually perfect Barolo that requires a decade of cellaring, and should last for 30-40 years. I remember wishing I were twenty years younger when I tasted it prior to bottling ... I still feel the same way. Awesome!"(98pts)

"A wine of total polish and sensuality, the 1971 Brunello di Montalcino Riserva caresses the palate with dark red stone fruits, wild cherries, flowers, smoke, licorice and distinctly ferrous notes. The 1971 isn't as big or powerful as the 1975, but it is a bit longer on the palate, more subtle and extremely refined. Crushed flowers, tobacco, mint and dried cherries linger on the silky finish."(94pts VM)

"At first it shows overpowering aromas of barnyard. Fortunately that blows off with air and the wine opens nicely, with plenty of mature flavors of dried fruits, balsam, animal, leather and cedar. The finish is very long and persistent and the wine is exquisite with food. Tasted the next day the wine was more even complex and expansive on the palate. This Barolo has definitely reached maturity although it seems to have enough structure to keep for a few more years."(95pts)

The 2012 Barolo Francia is a seductive and silky expression that flows gracefully over the palate with power and determination. The nose is expressive, and decidedly more articulate than many of the more muted wines made by neighboring estates in this warm vintage. The quality of the mouthfeel is of special interest. "The wine that most delighted me at this historic tasting of Tuscany's most iconic wines was the 2006 Masseto. This is a wine of sheer power, bliss, opulence, infinity and sublime seduction. This Merlot-based masterpiece hits all your senses with the grace of a ballerina and the power of a heavyweight. It is steady on its proverbial feet, but it also glides over the palate with a profound sense of elegance, harmony and rhythm. Among the prized vintages of Masseto, including 2001, 2004 and 2007, this edition is my favorite. The wine delivers an extra sense of tightness or firmness at the back that serves to stitch together its fleshy richness and general sumptuousness. The personality is sunny, expansive, articulate and sophisticated. You'll remember that the 2006 vintage is celebrated for the elegance of its wines. In the coastal Bolgheri appellation, it is also remembered for the power of its wines. You get the best of both worlds with this stunning creation: elegance and power. These traits are particularly well suited to the versatile grape variety at the heart of this Tuscan all-rounder. This is a true Renaissance wine."(100pts)

A deep core of black fruit, grilled herbs, licorice and new leather emerges from time to time, but the tannins are still imposing. There is no shortage of pedigree. "Tasted from barrel, the 2013 Masseto is shaping up to be a super star. This edition of the wine is already more muscular and tight compared to the warm vintage expression in 2011 and 2012. This Masseto instead is linear and balanced with pretty fruit tones that are enhanced by enduring sensations of baking spice, dark chocolate and tobacco. The bouquet delivers the classic aromas you should expect of a Merlot of this high standard. The mouthfeel also shows a tight acidic vein that bodes well for the future evolution of this stunning wine. The tannins are youthful and unyielding but they also show firm structure and balance that serves to support the wine's rich extract and flavors."(95-97pts)

Case Basse, Soldera

"Gianfranco Soldera's 2006 Sangiovese is the last cask released during a tumultuous period for the estate that saw six vintages of wine in oak destroyed by a disgruntled former employee. Soldera first released his 2006 as a Brunello di Montalcino Riserva, but became so infuriated with his colleague producers in the aftermath of the loss of his wine that he left the appellation and decided to bottle all of his future wines as simply Sangiovese. In the glass, the 2006 Sangiovese is exquisitely perfumed and lifted, with subtle layers of flavor that develop over time, and superb balance. Today, the 2006 is pure finesse."(96pts VM)

"This is such an impressive retrospective of Italian greatness and the 1978 Sassicaia is another surprise hit within that context. The wine delivers a remarkable sense of integrity and fullness with dark fruit, pressed rose and lavender, canned fruit, savory spice, barbecue spice and a sharp touch of sour cherry that grabs your attention at the end. The intensity of the bouquet underlines the warm Tuscan growing conditions and the ease in which optimal ripeness can be achieved in this sun-kissed territory. The fine tannins are folded neatly within the wine's streamlined texture. The 1978 vintage shows strong signs of life." (90pts)

963 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 19951x6 bottle owc*

"This opaque purple-colored Cabernet offers up a nose of smoke, coffee beans, black and blue fruits, minerals, and roasted herbs. It is extremely full-bodied, with spectacular purity, exquisite equilibrium, and a seamless personality with everything in total harmony."(99pts)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

964 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 19961x6 bottle owc*

"The opaque purple-colored 1996 Harlan Estate reveals extraordinary intensity, a spicy, black currant, tobacco, cedar, and fruit cake-scented bouquet, full body, a texture oozing with glycerin and concentrated fruit, and moderate tannin in the blockbuster finish. It is one of the most concentrated and complete red wines one could hope to taste."(98pts)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

965 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 19971x6 bottle owc*

"The 1997 Harlan Estate is one of the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wines I have ever tasted. A blend of 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, with the rest Merlot and Cabernet Franc, this enormously-endowed, profoundly rich wine must be tasted to be believed. Opaque purple-colored, it boasts spectacular, soaring aromatics of vanilla, minerals, coffee, blackberries, licorice, and cassis. In the mouth, layer after layer unfold powerfully yet gently. Acidity, tannin, and alcohol are well-balanced by the wine's unreal richness and singular personality. The finish exceeds one minute."(100pts)

6 bottles per lot $7000-9000

966 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 20071x1 magnum owc*

"Dense plum/purple-colored with sweet aromas of barbecue smoke, blueberries, blackberries, cassis, licorice, hot rocks and subtle oak, it is a splendidly opulent, pure wine with a skyscraper-like texture as well as stunningly deep fruit that expands gracefully across the palate. The finish lasts nearly a full minute. Because of its overwhelming richness and sweet tannins, this brilliant wine seems to be approachable now, but I suspect further nuances and complexity will emerge after 4-5 years in the bottle."(100pts)

1 magnum per lot $1600-2200

967 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 2008

"Espresso, mocha, dark red berries, rose petals and spices are some of the many notes that emerge from the 2008 Harlan Estate. The wine fleshes out beautifully in the glass as it shows off its class and true pedigree. This is a decidedly ripe, forward vintage, but in exchange the wine will drink well right out of the gate."(96pts)

3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

968 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 20091x3 bottle owc*

"Cloves, dark plums, cherries, smoke and graphite add richness and resonance to this powerful, incisive wine. Juicy and exuberant, the 2009 has always had a certain raciness that is impossible to resist."(97pts)

3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

969 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 20101x2 bottle owc*

"I wouldn't be surprised to see the 2010 Harlan Estate inch closer to perfection over the next decade. Surprisingly supple for this vintage, while this cuvée is not usually that flamboyant or exuberant in its youth, the 2010 is sensual and performing remarkably well. Its deep purple color is accompanied by notions of charcoal, graphite, camphor, creme de cassis, barbecue smoke and blackberries."(98+pts)

2 bottles per lot $1500-2000

970 Harlan Estate Red - Vintage 20121x2 magnum owc*

"Probably a candidate for perfection with another 4-5 years of bottle age, the wine is inky plum/purple to the rim and offers a gorgeous nose of scorched earth, blackberry and cassis, forest floor, and a floral, lavender-like component followed by deep, opulent, majestic flavors that caress the palate with high but sweet tannin."(99+pts)

2 magnums per lot $2600-3500

"A profound wine from a superb Napa vintage for Bordeaux varietals, the 2007's nose may cause one to overdose on blue, black and red berry fruit. The extraordinary intensity, purity and depth in this rich, flamboyant, exuberant wine are mindboggling. This bigger-than-life Cabernet Sauvignon appears set for 20-30 years of aging. It can be drunk now, but because of its sweet, velvety tannins." (100pts)

BOTTLE DESCRIPTIONS BORDEAUX

NECK:

Normal level for all wines. In wines over ten years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

BASE NECK:

A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

TOP-SHOULDER:

Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

VERY HIGH SHOULDER:

Acceptable fill level for wines twenty years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

HIGH SHOULDER:

Usually not a problem for wines thirty years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

HIGH-TO-MID-SHOULDER:

Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

MID SHOULDER:

May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines forty or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

LOW SHOULDER AND BELOW:

Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. (Not recommended for consumption.)

Because the shape of Burgundy bottles does not allow for a level rating system based on the shoulder of the bottle, levels are described by means of centimeters below cork. Generally, Burgundy wines with a four centimeter fill level or above are considered normal for wines younger than twenty years. Wines of twenty or more years of age with fill levels of between four and five centimeters are generally considered to be of sound provenance, though consideration should be given to the clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as the condition of the cork. Bottles with ullage between five and seven centimeters are not uncommon for wines forty years and older and often provide thrilling drinking, but the lower the fill, the higher the risk, so consideration should be given. Burgundy bottles with fill levels lower than seven centimeters may be at risk of being damaged or undrinkable, and therefore may be unsaleable. It should be noted that some Burgundian producers tend to over-fill their bottles during the bottling process which may cause a few drops of wine to become trapped between the capsule and the cork. This should not be confused with ullage, a natural occurrence in older wines, which may be accelerated due to poor provenance.

BUYERS CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. BUYER'S AGREEMENT.

By bidding at auction, each bidder ("Bidder") agrees that these Conditions of Sale ("Conditions of Sale") constitute the agreement between Bidder, on the one hand, and Acker Auction DE, LLC ("Acker" or "Acker Auction DE"), for Delaware live auctions, Acker Merrall & Condit Company ("AMC") for California internet auctions and/or Acker Auction, Inc. ("Acker Auction"), for live New York Auctions (each respectively and together, "Acker" or "Auctioneer" or the seller/consignor the "Seller"), on the other hand, with respect to the sale of the property listed in the auction catalogue (in whatever format published) ("Property"). Acker may amend these Conditions of Sale or the catalogue from time to time and at any time through posted notices, addenda or errata or through oral auction site announcements during the sale. By bidding at auction, Bidder agrees to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of these Conditions of Sale and accepts personal liability to pay the purchase price, including the Buyer's Premium (as defined below), taxes and any other applicable charges, for any successful bid. If the Bidder is the successful bidder by virtue of being the highest bidder accepted by the Auctioneer, or has otherwise agreed to purchase any lot, wines, spirits or other items, the Bidder is referred to herein as the "Buyer."

2. ACKER AS AGENT.

Except as otherwise stated in these Conditions of Sale, Acker acts strictly as agent for the Seller.

3. BEFORE AUCTION.

(a) Lots. Property is divided into separate groupings as determined by Acker in its sole and absolute discretion and each such grouping (a "Lot") is subject to separate bidding at auction.

(b) Inspection. Prior to auction, Bidder is advised to physically inspect any Property in which Bidder is interested in bidding and to rely on such inspection, as opposed to any descriptions in the catalogue or elsewhere.

(c) Experts. Acker may seek views of outside experts on certain Property either before or after the sale. Some Property may be marked to indicate, or show other indicia, that it has been inspected by an expert (including visible writings, stampings and cut capsules).

(d) Bidder Registration. In order to bid at auction, Bidder must have an account with Acker or its affiliates. Bidder can open such an account by: (i) completing and submitting a Bidder Registration form; (ii) completing and submitting an Absentee Bid form; or (iii) creating such account online (at www.ackerwines.com) or through the "Acker Wines" mobile app (available for downloading at the Apple App Store or Google Play Store). In connection therewith, Bidder will be required to provide the card number, expiration date and security code for an active credit or debit card (Visa, MasterCard or American Express), which Bidder authorizes Acker and its affiliates to validate. Additionally, if an auction is set-up for payment in Cryptocurrencies (as defined below) via Acker's vendor, BitPay, Inc. ("BitPay"), and Bidder desires to utilize this payment method, Bidder will be required to adhere to the BitPay verification process described Section 5(a)(iii) below. Acker and its affiliates may also require Bidder to provide bank or other financial references. Acker and its affiliates retain the absolute right not to open or to close an account for any prospective Bidder and to refuse any prospective Bidder admission to, or participation in, any auction. Bidders also agree to provide Acker with such information as Acker may reasonably require, including a government issued identification containing a photograph, such as a passport, identity card or driver's license. Acker may use this information to verify Bidder's identification and for other screening and due diligence purposes pursuant to its Privacy Policy (<https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/#legal-privacy>), which is incorporated by reference. If Bidder does not agree to the terms of the Acker Privacy Policy, please refrain from providing any personal information and cease any use of Acker's website, apps, or other digital assets.

(e) Absentee, Telephone, Online and Mobile App Bidding.

Prior to the sale, Bidders may make arrangements with Acker to participate at auction by absentee or telephone bidding. Bidder may also participate in the sale by bidding through Acker's and its affiliates' online and/or mobile app bidding platforms, which participation shall be subject to the Website and Mobile App Terms of Use (available at <https://www.ackerwines.com/terms-conditions/>).

(f) Bidders wishing to participate by absentee bidding must complete and submit an Absentee Bid form to Acker in advance of the sale. All absentee bids must be placed in United States Dollars. If Acker receives identical absentee bids for any particular Lot and such bids are the highest amount for that Lot at auction, the winning bid for such Lot shall be determined by the Auctioneer in its sole and absolute discretion; provided that the exercise of the Auctioneer's discretion is not in a discriminatory manner otherwise prohibited by applicable law. The acceptance of absentee, telephone, online and mobile app bids for any Lot in a live auction is subject to the sole and absolute discretion of the Auctioneer. With respect to bids placed through the online or mobile app bidding platforms, any online and mobile app notifications concerning Bidder's bid status may be overridden by the Auctioneer. As such, even if Bidder receives an online or mobile app notice indicating that its bid has been accepted, please be advised that the Auctioneer may determine otherwise in its sole and absolute discretion, and the Auctioneer's decision shall be final. Acker offers complimentary absentee, telephone, online and mobile app bidding solely as a convenience to its clients. In no event shall Acker or its affiliates or Auctioneer (or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents or assigns) be liable for any errors, omissions or failures relating to, arising from or in connection with the execution (or failure to properly execute) any absentee, telephone, online or mobile app bids.

4. AT AUCTION.

a) Catalogues. Bidder is advised to read the print or a PDF copy of the catalogue in its entirety. While Acker has attempted to describe each Lot in the catalogue accurately, in no event shall Acker be liable for any error or omission in any such description.

Acker retains the absolute right to amend any description in any manner prior to and during the auction. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and are based on standard sources. Each statement regarding Property, whether oral or written, and whether made in the catalogue, an advertisement, bill of sale, invoice, addendum, notice, announcement, email, or other written or oral communication, is a statement of opinion ONLY and should not be relied upon by any Bidder. Bidder must make appropriate allowances for natural variations of ullages, and conditions of cases, bottles, labels, caps, corks, capsules, and wine and spirits. In no event shall Acker be required to accept a return, offer credit for, or adjust the price of any Property after delivery except under the terms stated in Section 5(e) below. Images appearing in the catalogue or elsewhere are for illustrative and informational purposes only, and may not reveal defects or imperfections in any Lot. Bidder is advised not to rely on images in determining whether to bid on Property, and is further advised to personally inspect any Property in which Bidder is interested in bidding prior to placing any bids. ALL PROPERTY IS SOLD "AS IS".

(b) No Representations, Warranties or Guarantees. ACKER AND ITS AFFILIATES, AUCTIONEERS AND SELLER (AND EACH OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, SHAREHOLDERS, MEMBERS, EMPLOYEES, ATTORNEYS, REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS AND ASSIGNS) MAKE NO ORAL OR WRITTEN EXPRESS OR IMPLIED REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES OR GUARANTEES AS TO THE MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR USE, ACCURACY, THE CORRECTNESS OF ANY CATALOGUE DESCRIPTION OR OTHER DESCRIPTION AS TO THE ORIGIN, PHYSICAL CONDITION, SIZE, QUALITY, RARITY, AUTHENTICITY, ATTRIBUTION, VALUE, ESTIMATED VALUE, IMPORTANCE, MEDIUM, PROVENANCE, EXHIBITION HISTORY, POTABILITY, LITERATURE, HISTORICAL RELEVANCE OR BIBLIOGRAPHIC REFERENCES CONCERNING ANY PROPERTY.

(c) Non-Fungible Tokens. From time to time, Acker may offer at auction a Property that is associated with a non-fungible token ("NFT"). NFTs are unique software identification codes recorded in embedded "smart contracts" that leverage blockchain technology to identify the rightful owner, chain-of-title, and original issuer of the NFT.

(i) Without limiting the generality of the Section 4(b) above and notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, ACKER, ITS AFFILIATES AND SELLER (AND EACH OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, SHAREHOLDERS, MEMBERS, EMPLOYEES, ATTORNEYS, REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS AND ASSIGNS) cannot and do not represent or warrant that an NFT is reliable, current or error-free, meets Bidder's requirements, or that defects in the NFT will be corrected. Acker cannot and does not represent or warrant that an NFT or the delivery mechanism for the NFT are free of viruses or other harmful components.

(ii) Bidder acknowledges and agrees that ownership of an NFT carries no rights, express or implied, other than property rights to the NFT. Bidder acknowledges and agrees that NFTs may be issued by third parties and not by Acker itself, and that the transfer of title to the NFT may be subject to separate terms and conditions established by the issuer of the NFT and applicable to all subsequent owners. Similarly, Bidder acknowledges and agrees that NFTs may be issued by Acker and that transfer of title to the NFT will be subject to separate terms and conditions established by Acker and applicable to all subsequent owners. All Bidders should refer to a catalogue descriptions for a synopsis of key supplemental terms that may be applicable to Lots that include NFTs.

(iii) Bidder acknowledges and agrees that there are risks associated with purchasing and holding NFTs. By purchasing, holding and using NFTs, Bidder expressly acknowledges and assumes all risks associated therewith including, but not limited to, risk of losing access to the NFT due to loss of private key(s), custodial errors or purchaser errors, risk of mining attacks, risk of hacking and security weaknesses, risk of unfavorable regulatory changes, actions or intervention in one or more jurisdictions, risks related to token taxation, personal information disclosure, fraud, counterfeiting, cyber attacks and other technical difficulties that may prevent access to or use of NFTs, risk of uninsured losses, unanticipated risks, volatility and market risks, such that the value of NFTs are subject to the potential for permanent or total loss of value.

(iv) Bidder acknowledges that Bidder has sufficient understanding of the functionality, usage, storage, transmission mechanisms and other material characteristics of cryptographic tokens (like NFTs), token storage mechanisms (such as token wallets), blockchain technology and blockchain-based software systems to understand these terms and to appreciate the risks and implications of purchasing and owning NFTs. Bidder acknowledges that Bidder has obtained sufficient information to make an informed decision about owning an NFT, including carefully reviewing the terms of the applicable smart contract and the NFT and fully understands and accepts such terms.

(v) Bidder acknowledges that there is substantial uncertainty as to the characterization of NFTs and other digital assets under applicable law. Bidder represents and warrants that Bidder has the right to purchase and own an NFT in compliance with applicable laws and regulation relating to such purchase and ownership in Bidder's jurisdiction.

(d) Reserve Price. Each Lot is sold subject to a reserve price, which is the minimum price below which the Lot will not be sold (unless the Auctioneer chooses, in its sole and absolute discretion, to accept a lower price and Acker pays the Seller as if the Lot had sold at the reserve price). While Acker has the right to raise or lower the reserve price at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding by the Auctioneer during the live auction, under no circumstance shall the reserve price for a Lot exceed the low estimate for that Lot as printed in the catalogue or as amended by any oral or posted notice. The reserve price for each Lot is available to prospective Bidders upon request, but Acker shall have no ongoing obligation to notify a prospective Bidder who has been informed of any reserve price if such reserve price has thereafter been changed.

(e) Symbol Identifying Interest in Certain Lots. If Acker or its affiliates has a financial interest in any Lot, including a full or partial ownership interest or the provision to the Seller of a minimum price guarantee, such Lot will be identified in the catalogue by the symbol *. Any such financial interest may be held by Acker or its affiliates or jointly by Acker or its affiliates and a third party. Acker or its affiliates and any third party holding a financial interest in a Lot jointly with Acker and/or its affiliates benefit financially if such a Lot is sold at or above a particular price and may incur a loss if it is not. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Bidder shall be deemed to have waived any further claim against Acker and its affiliates as to the failure to provide disclosures beyond those statutorily required to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

(f) Estimates. Each Lot in the catalogue is accompanied by a low and high estimate of the selling price, which estimates exclude the Buyer's Premium (as defined below), taxes and any other applicable charges. While estimates are intended as a general guide for prospective Bidders, in no event do they constitute either a representation or prediction of an actual selling price or value and should not be relied upon by Bidder as such. Acker reserves the right to revise estimates at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding.

(g) Bidding.

(i) Bidder Warranties, Representation and Covenants. By bidding at auction (whether in person or through an agent, or through absentee, telephone, online, or mobile app bidding, or by other means), Bidder warrants, represents and covenants that: (A) Bidder is at least twenty-one (21) years of age; (B) Bidder has the legal authority, right, and capacity to buy, receive, possess and otherwise deal in any Lot purchased; (C) any bids made by Bidder or on Bidder's behalf are not pursuant to any anti-competitive agreement and are otherwise in compliance with all applicable laws; (D) any funds used to pay for Property were not directly or indirectly obtained from any criminal activity; and (E) Bidder (and any other party or entity on whose behalf Bidder may be bidding or acting) is not subject to any trade sanctions, embargoes or any other restrictions on trade in the United States or any other in jurisdiction in which Bidder or any such other party resides or conducts business. For the avoidance of doubt, if Bidder is bidding as an agent, each of the foregoing representations and warranties are made on behalf of both Bidder and its principal.

(ii) Bids per Lot. Unless otherwise announced by the Auctioneer, all bids are per Lot in consecutive numerical order as they appear in the catalogue.

(iii) Bidding Up to the Reserve Price. Subject to the Auctioneer's sole and absolute discretion, bids shall be entered in the order in which they are received. The Auctioneer may open bidding on any Lot by placing a bid on behalf of the Seller. The Auctioneer may further bid on behalf of the Seller up to but not at or exceeding the amount of the reserve price by placing successive or consecutive bids for the Lot, or by placing bids in response to bids placed by any other Bidder.

(iv) Bidding by Acker. Acker and its affiliates reserve the right to bid for their own accounts or to procure the making of a bid on their behalf, and provide notice of such right in their auction catalogues, online auction platform(s), and prior to live auctions in accordance with applicable law.

(v) Bidding by Acker Employees. Acker reserves the right to permit its employees (in the sole and absolute discretion of Acker) to bid for their own accounts on any Lot in the sale. Employees shall bid only by absentee bid submitted prior to the auction and if they do not have certain confidential information about the lot on which they are bidding and otherwise comply with our employee bidding procedures. Employees may be permitted to bid at a discounted Buyer's Premium. Acker's discount policy shall be disclosed to any Bidder who requests it.

(vi) Bidding Not Reaching the Reserve Price. If bidding on a Lot does not reach the reserve price, the Auctioneer may remove the Lot from sale. At the time of such removal and before bidding on another Lot begins, the Auctioneer shall announce that the removed Lot has been "passed", "bought in" or other term of similar meaning.

(vii) Hammer Price. The Bidder making the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer will become the Buyer. The striking of the Auctioneer's hammer marks the acceptance of such bid as the "hammer price" and the creation of a contract for sale between Seller and Buyer. The Auctioneer has discretion to reopen bidding at any time during the auction in which case no contract shall be formed until such final bidding is completed.

(viii) Bidding Increments. The following are the bidding increments that will generally apply to bids, whether placed in person or through an agent, or through absentee, telephone, online, or mobile app bidding, or by other means; provided, however, that all increments during an auction are subject to change or modification in the sole and absolute discretion of the Auctioneer. Any absentee bid submitted in an incorrect bidding increment will automatically be rounded down to the closest correct increment.

Current Bid	Bidding Increments
$0 up to $1000	$50
$1000 up to $2000	$100
$2000 up to $3000	$200
$3000 up to $5000	$200, $500, $800
$5000 up to $10,000	$500
$10,000 up to $20,000	$1000
$20,000 up to $30,000	$2000
$30,000 and more	Auctioneer's Discretion

(ix) No Liability for Bidding Errors. In no event shall Acker or its affiliates or Auctioneer (or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents or assigns) be liable for any errors, omissions or failures relating to, arising from or in connection with the execution (or failure to properly execute) of any bids, whether placed in person or through an agent, or through absentee, telephone, online, or mobile app bidding, or by other means, including errors or omissions relating to the loss of connection with the internet or Acker's on-line or mobile app bidding platforms.

(h) Parcel Lots. In the event that the catalogue lists a sequence of Lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type of wine or spirits, quantity and bottle size (each a "Parcel"), Buyer of the first Lot in such Parcel may, in the sole and absolute discretion of the auctioneer, be granted the option to buy any or all additional Lots in the Parcel for the same hammer price if there is no higher absentee bid on any subsequent Lot within the Parcel. If the option is not exercised on all such Lots, the Auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold Lot and may elect to offer Buyer of that Lot the option to take any or all of the remaining Lots in the Parcel. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all Lots in the Parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer.

(i) Auctioneer's Discretion. Acker and/or the Auctioneer shall have the sole and absolute discretion to: (i) withdraw any Lot; (ii) divide any Lot; (iii) combine any two or more Lots; (iv) accept or refuse any bid (whether made in person or through an agent, or through absentee, telephone, online, or mobile app bidding, or by other means); (v) advance the bidding (in accordance with Section 4.g.(iv) above), including changing the increments, in such a manner as deemed appropriate; and (vi) in the event of error or dispute or multiple bids of the same amount, determine the successful bidder, continue the bidding, cancel the sale, or reoffer and resell the disputed Lot. Wherever Acker and/or the Auctioneer exercises such discretion, its decision shall be final, binding and conclusive in all respects.

(j) Buyer's Premium. The total amount due from Buyer for each Lot shall be the hammer price plus a commission equal to twenty-four and one-half percent (24.5%) of the hammer price ("Buyer's Premium"), in addition to any applicable taxes. If Buyer purchased a Property that includes an NFT, the same Buyer's Premium amount will be due in addition to any applicable taxes.

(k) Discounted Buyer's Premium. Acker provides discounts on the buyer's premium to Bidders who transact with Acker or its affiliates over certain dollar thresholds. Acker's discount policy shall be disclosed to any Bidder who requests it. Acker may deny such discounts for any particular auction on prior notice to the Bidders eligible for this discount before such auction takes place.

(l) Post-Auction Sale of Property. Any post-auction sale of Property offered at auction and sold in a private treaty sale shall incorporate and be subject to these Conditions of Sale as if sold at the live auction.

5. AFTER AUCTION.

(a) Payment.

(i) When Due. Final invoices reflecting the total amount due will be sent to each Buyer within seven (7) days following the auction (email to suffice). Buyer agrees to pay such invoice in full within thirty (30) days following the date of auction. Any amount of such invoice which remains unpaid more than thirty

(30) days after the date of auction will be subject to a late fee equal to eighteen percent (18%) interest per annum, calculated on a daily basis, until such unpaid amount has been paid ("Late Fee"), notwithstanding any other provision of these Conditions of Sale.

(ii) Method of Payment – U.S. Dollars. Except as provided in Section 5 (a)(iii) below, payment of each invoice must be made in United States Dollars. Payment may be made by wire transfer, check and/or certain credit or debit cards (subject to the provisions herein). Any check returned unpaid will be subject to a $100 processing fee and will not be deemed paid for purposes of determining whether payment has been timely received. Visa, MasterCard and American Express are accepted, without a convenience fee, for payments in the aggregate of up to $15,000.00 per auction. To the extent permitted by law, the portion of any payment made by credit card in excess of $15,000.00 per auction shall be subject to a 3% convenience fee. By bidding at auction, Bidder authorizes Acker, without further notice to Bidder, to charge any credit or debit card used by Bidder to create an account with Acker and its affiliates or to make payment on any current or past invoice issued to Bidder by Acker or its affiliates, any balance of Bidder's invoice that remains unpaid more than thirty (30) days after the auction (in addition to both a 3% convenience fee on any amount in excess of $15,000.00 and all other applicable fees and expenses, including late fees).

(iii) Method of Payment – Cryptocurrency. For sales that permit payment in Bitcoin, Bitcoin Cash, Ethereum, Dogecoin, PAX, Gemini Dollar or BUSD (each a "Cryptocurrency" and collectively, the "Cryptocurrencies"), payment may be made via a digital wallet transfer of Cryptocurrency to Acker's digital wallet. To accept Cryptocurrency as a form of payment, Acker has entered into an agreement with BitPay, a blockchain/cryptocurrency payment processor that enables Acker to accept Cryptocurrencies as a payment method for invoices. Bidder may deliver Cryptocurrency payment from Bidder's digital wallet maintained at BitPay or from a digital wallet hosted at another exchange that is registered to Bidder, or if Bidder registered a bid as a company, then in the name of the company. Prior to receiving payment from Bidder, BitPay may require that Bidder complete a verification process and create a "BitPay ID" at the time of payment. Bidder agrees, upon Acker's request, to provide documentation confirming that the Cryptocurrency payment was made from a digital wallet registered in the name of Bidder or the company that Bidder represents. Partial payments will not be accepted. Furthermore, partial payments from multiple digital wallets or using multiple Cryptocurrencies will not be allowed. If Bidder purchases multiple Lots, Bidder may pay for one Lot from one digital wallet using one Cryptocurrency and for another Lot from a different digital wallet using the same or a different Cryptocurrency, but payment must be accomplished through separate transactions for each Lot. For Cryptocurrency payments, the spot rate of exchange for the relevant Cryptocurrency will be set on the date Acker submits a payment request through BitPay and will be based on the rate set forth by BitPay as available through its exchange. All payments made using Cryptocurrency shall be subject to a 1% transaction fee, provided that this transaction fee will be waived if Acker receives Bidder's full payment in good and cleared funds within two (2) weeks of the auction. Acker reserves the right to add or remove any and all Cryptocurrencies as a payment option at any time and in its sole discretion.

If Bidder makes payment in Cryptocurrency from a digital wallet, Bidder represents and warrants that the source of wealth for the digital wallet is not attributable, either directly or indirectly, to (i) a citizen or resident of, or located in, a geographic area that is the target of sanctions or embargoes imposed by the European Union, the United Kingdom, the United Nations or the United States or (ii) an individual, or an individual employed by or associated with an entity, identified on the U.S. Department of Commerce's Denied Persons or Entity List, the U.S. Department of Treasury's Specially Designated Nationals or Blocked Persons Lists, or the U.S. Department of State's Debarred Parties List, or similar lists promulgated by the government of the European Union, the United Kingdom, or the United Nations.

(b) Title and Taxes.

(i) New York Live Auctions ("New York Live Auctions").

Except for the transfer of title and ownership of Property associated with an NFT, which will be subject to the provisions of Section 5(b)(iv) below, title to and ownership of purchased Property passes to Buyer in the State of New York, where New York live auctions are fulfilled and where all Property will be located at the time of the auction and when released to Buyer. Title to purchased Property shall not pass, nor shall possession of such Property be transferred to Buyer, until payment in full has been received by Acker in good and cleared funds. Upon Acker Auction's receipt of payment in full in good and cleared funds, purchased Property will be released.

For New York Live Auctions (conducted by Acker Auction) Acker Auction is required to release purchased Property to Buyer in the State of New York, and, therefore, it is required to charge and collect New York sales tax, which will be applied to Buyer's purchase. Property may be picked up in person from the designated location in New York. If purchased Property is released by Acker Auction to a licensed freight forwarder hired by Buyer for immediate shipment to a point outside of the United States, New York sales tax will not be applied to Buyer's purchase.

(ii) Delaware Live Auctions ("Delaware Live Auctions").

Except for the transfer of title and possession to Property associated with an NFT, which will be subject to the provisions of Section 5(b)(iv) below, title to purchased Property shall not pass, nor shall possession of such Property be transferred to Buyer in the State of Delaware, until payment in full has been received by Acker in good and cleared funds. Upon Acker Auction DE's receipt of payment in full in good and cleared funds, purchased Property will be released. Within five (5) days from the date title passes and the Property is made available, the Buyer must (i) arrange to pick up the Property in person from Acker Auction DE's Delaware facility, or (ii) arrange for the delivery of the Property to a carrier with all necessary permits and licenses for shipment to a destination outside the United States of America. If the Buyer does not select one of the two options above, the Buyer will be deemed to have consented to the transfer of the Property to Acker Storage and Acker Auction DE will transfer the Property, in the Buyer's name, to Acker Storage and Buyer will be responsible to pay any and all of Acker Storage's fees and service charges and the Property will be subject to the terms of Acker Storage's storage agreement that can be located at ackerstorage.com/StorageAgreement.pdf. Acker cannot deliver Property within the State of Delaware. Arrangement to pick up the Property from Acker Auction DE can be made by calling (302) 525-8601. ACKER AUCTION DE DOES NOT SHIP, TRANSPORT OR DELIVER ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES AND SHALL HAVE NO OBLIGATION TO SHIP, TRANSPORT OR DELIVER PURCHASED PROPERTY TO BUYER. UNDER THE APPROPRIATE CIRCUMSTANCES, ACKER AUCTION DE MAY, IN ITS SOLE AND ABSOLUTE DISCRETION, AGREE TO DELIVER PROPERTY TO A CARRIER WITH THE NECESSARY LICENSES AND PERMITS TO SHIP ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES, PROVIDED THE BUYER ASSUMES THE RESPONSIBILITY TO COMPLY WITH THE LAWS OF ALL GOVERNMENTAL ENTITIES WITH JURISDICTIONS OVER THE TRANSACTION AND TO PAY ANY AND ALL TAXES, FEES, EXPENSES, FINES, INTEREST, ATTORNEYS' FEES, TARIFFS, LEVIES AND OTHER TAXES, COSTS AND EXPENSES RELATED TO THE TRANSACTION AND INDEMNIFIES AND HOLDS HARMLESS ACKER AUCTION DE AND ITS AFFILIATES FROM ALL OF THE FOREGOING AND ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS. After the Property has been delivered to Buyer, in the State of Delaware, Buyer may make arrangements to leave the Property in storage in the state or to have the Property delivered elsewhere, Buyer assumes sole and exclusive responsibility for any required shipping, transportation or delivery arrangements of the purchased Property from the State of Delaware to Buyer's desired destination and shall be solely responsible for any and all state and local sales or use taxes and/or other duties, taxes, tariffs or fees due or assessed by the jurisdiction and any interest or penalties related thereto. If purchased Property is not picked up from Acker Auction DE by Buyer in-person within five (5) days after payment in full has been received by Acker Auction DE in good and cleared funds or if, prior to the expiration of such five (5) day period Buyer notifies Acker in writing (email to suffice) that the Property is to be shipped to a destination outside of the United States, Acker Auction DE will automatically transfer custody of such Property to Acker Storage located at 1800 Ogletown Road, Suite E, Newark, DE 19711 (info@ackerstorage.com), which storage facility shall act as agent for Buyer in providing on-site storage of such Property until pick-up, shipping, transportation or delivery arrangements have been made outside the State of Delaware. The list of storage fees applicable can be found at ackerstorage.com/StorageAgreement.pdf.

Buyer agrees to pay all storage fees and other applicable charges imposed by Acker Storage and understands that Acker Storage has and may enforce a lien (including without limitation a lien under section 6 Del. C. 7-709(a)) on any Property transferred to it to be stored. Once physical custody of Property has been transferred to Acker Storage, Buyer may pick up such Property in person from Acker Storage, leave the Property in storage in Delaware or make independent shipping, transportation or delivery arrangements for the Property to be delivered outside of the State of Delaware. To arrange in-person pick up from Acker Storage or for a full list of services offered by Acker Storage, please visit info@ackerstorage.com or call (302) 731-1483 during regular business hours. Please read Acker Storage's terms and conditions carefully as they contain limitations as to Acker Storage's liability for loss or damage to Property and as to the services Acker Storage is prepared to provide.

ONCE CUSTODY OF ANY PURCHASED PROPERTY HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED TO ACKER STORAGE AS PROVIDED ABOVE, ACKER AUCTION DE AND ITS AFFILIATES, AUCTIONEERS AND SELLERS (AND EACH OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, SHAREHOLDERS, MEMBERS, EMPLOYEES, ATTORNEYS, REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS AND ASSIGNS) SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY OF ANY KIND TO BUYER OR ANY OTHER PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUBSEQUENT DETERIORATION, DAMAGE, OR OTHER LOSS OF ANY KIND IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, NO MATTER HOW OCCASIONED, WHETHER RELATING TO, ARISING FROM, OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE STORAGE OF SUCH PROPERTY AT ACKER STORAGE, THE SHIPMENT, TRANSPORTATION OR DELIVERY THEREOF (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, WHILE SUCH PROPERTY IS IN TRANSIT), OR OTHERWISE. NOTE THAT THE LIABILITY OF ACKER STORAGE MAY BE LIMITED BY LAW OR BY THE TERMS OF ITS STORAGE AGREEMENT.

(iii) Internet Auctions of Wine and Spirits. Internet Auctions are conducted by either AMC or Acker Auction. Internet auctions of wine are conducted by AMC, under a license issued by the State of California. Internet auctions of spirits are conducted by Acker Auction, under a license issued by the State of New York. However, Property, at the time of the auction, may be stored at Acker's New York or Delaware storage facilities. Except for the transfer of title and ownership to Property associated with an NFT, which will be subject to the provisions of Section 5(b)(iv) below, title to and ownership of purchased Property passes to the Buyer in either the State of Delaware or New York, depending upon where the auction is fulfilled and where, unless other arrangements are made, all Property will be located when released to Buyer. Title to purchased Property shall not pass, nor shall possession of such Property be transferred to Buyer, until payment in full has been received by AMC (for wine auctions) or Acker Auction (for spirits auctions) in good and cleared funds. Upon receipt of payment in full in good and cleared funds, purchased Property will be released to Buyer. Property may be picked up in person from Acker's New York or Delaware facilities, depending on where the purchased Property is located at the time of auction. Neither AMC nor Acker Auction can arrange for shipping purchased Property to any destination within the United States outside of New York, California or Delaware. If the Property is released to Buyer in New York or California, or if Buyer requests AMC or Acker Auction to arrange delivery to either New York or California, sales tax for the respective state of delivery will be collected from the Buyer.

(iv) Transferring Title via NFT. If Buyer has purchased a Property that is associated with an NFT, then Acker (or the Seller) will not transfer title or ownership of the NFT to Buyer until payment in full has been received by Acker in good and cleared funds. Upon Acker's receipt of payment in full in good and cleared funds, title and ownership of the NFT will be transferred to Buyer. To receive the NFT, Buyer will use a digital wallet or wallet service provider registered in Buyer's name or for which Buyer has title and that supports the NFT, and understands and accepts that failure to ensure this may result in Buyer's inability to access the NFT. If the bid was made on behalf of a company, then the digital wallet used to accept the NFT will be registered to the company or the company will hold its title.

Buyer represents that the digital wallet or wallet service provider to which Acker (or the Seller) will transfer the NFT is not owned by or associated with (i) a citizen or resident of, or located in, a geographic area that is the target of sanctions or embargoes imposed by the European Union, the United Kingdom, the United Nations or the United States or (ii) an individual, or an individual employed by or associated with an entity, identified on the U.S. Department of Commerce's Denied Persons or Entity List, the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Specially Designated Nationals or Blocked Persons List, or the U.S. Department of State's Debarred Parties List, or similar lists promulgated by the government of the European Union, the United Kingdom, or the United Nations.

Risk of loss and responsibility for the NFT for which title is passed will transfer to Buyer when Acker (or the Seller) has sent the NFT to the digital wallet Buyer has specified. Buyer is responsible for implementing reasonable measures for securing the other storage mechanism Buyer uses to receive and hold the NFT, including any requisite private key(s) or other credentials necessary to access such storage mechanism(s), and further specifically acknowledges that the risk of acquiring, transferring, creating, holding or using the NFT or Buyer's wallet rests entirely with the Buyer. If Buyer's private key(s) or other access credentials are lost, Buyer may lose access to the NFT. Acker is not responsible for any such losses.

(c) Collection and Delivery of Property. Title to purchased Property shall not pass, nor shall possession of such Property be transferred to Buyer, until payment in full has been received by Acker in good and cleared funds. Upon Acker Auction's receipt of payment in full in good and cleared funds, purchased Property will be released to Buyer and available for pickup by Buyer at Acker's designated location. Acker does not ship alcoholic beverages within the United States. Any shipping or delivery arrangements required after the release of purchased property to Buyer shall be the sole responsibility of Buyer and at Buyer's sole cost. Acker cannot release purchased Property to a carrier for delivery outside of the designated delivery state, with the exception of release to a licensed freight forwarder for delivery to a destination outside the United States, or (for live and internet auctions only) delivery to New York, California or Delaware.

For Delaware Live Auctions, after title passes and the Property has been picked up by the Buyer or delivered to Acker Storage, pursuant to Secti 5(b)(ii) above, any Buyer who arranges shipping, transportation or delivery of purchased Property outside of the designated location acknowledges that it is the owner and shipper of such Property. Neither Acker Auction DE nor Acker Storage nor any of their affiliates make any representation as to the legal rights of any person or entity to ship, transport, deliver or import Property into any state, country or jurisdiction. Buyer shall be solely and exclusively responsible for the shipping, transportation and delivery of purchased Property, determining the legality of having such Property shipped, transported and/or delivered to the applicable destination, and compliance with any laws and the payment of all applicable taxes, duties, tariffs and fees (including without limitation any interest or penalties) associated therewith.

(d) Importation and Exportation.

(i) Importation and Delivery. Acker and its affiliates make no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to import or deliver any Property or other goods into any state or jurisdiction. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for the transport of the Property and for determining the legality and the tax/duty consequences of bringing the products to Buyer's chosen destination.

(ii) Exportation. Property sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the United States, and Acker and its affiliates make no representation as to the legal rights of anyone to export such Property or other goods into any state or jurisdiction. It shall be Buyer's sole responsibility to determine, before bidding at auction, whether an export permit or license is required for Buyer's purchase and, if required, to obtain any such required permit or license. The denial of, or delay in obtaining, any such permit or license shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor any delay in making full payment for the purchase.

(e) Rescission.

(i) Claims by Buyer. Acker has the right but not the obligation to rescind a sale if any statement in Acker's offering materials concerning a Lot is materially incorrect or such Lot is short or is in unsound condition (e.g., cooked and spoiled), Buyer's sole remedy shall be rescission of such sale in Acker's sole and absolute discretion. If Buyer seeks rescission under this paragraph 5(e)(i), Buyer must so notify Acker in writing within ninety (90) days after the auction. Buyer may only make such a claim if the Property in question: (A) has the Acker auction sale date reference sticker(s) on the relevant bottle(s); (B) is in the same condition as when it was released by Acker to Buyer or when custody thereof was transferred to Acker Storage; and (C) has been delivered to and from Buyer and stored under appropriate conditions. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, BIDDER WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO MAKE ANY CLAIM OR BRING ANY LEGAL ACTION AGAINST ACKER AND ITS AFFILIATES, AUCTIONEERS AND SELLERS (AND EACH OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, SHAREHOLDERS, MEMBERS, EMPLOYEES, ATTORNEYS, REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS AND ASSIGNS) RESULTING FROM ANY DETERMINATION MADE (OR FAILED TO BE MADE) BY ACKER UNDER THIS SUBSECTION. IN THE EVENT THAT BUYER FAILS TO PROVIDE TIMELY AND PROPER NOTICE TO ACKER UNDER THIS SUBSECTION, BUYER SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE WAIVED ANY RIGHT TO RESCISSION AS HEREIN PROVIDED. Only the Buyer of record of the Property shall be entitled to make a claim of rescission under this subparagraph.

(ii) Buyer's Sole Remedy. THE REFUND TO BUYER OF THE PURCHASE PRICE PAID FOR ANY PROPERTY SHALL BE BUYER'S SOLE REMEDY FOR ANY CLAIM OR MATTER RELATING THERETO.

(iii) Different Importers/Bottle Numbers. Although Acker may at times state in the catalogue or elsewhere if a Lot includes Property from different importers, failure to so state is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot. Similarly, any incorrect statement or omission in the catalogue concerning bottle and/or sequence numbers of Property from those producers that number their bottles is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot.

(iv) Limited Guarantee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within these Conditions of Sale, Acker agrees to refund the purchase price to the Buyer of any Property purchased from Acker that is not of the vintage or from the producer as was stated in the catalogue or otherwise represented by Acker, including, but not limited to, Property that is counterfeit or has indicia which suggest that it is likely counterfeit, provided that: (A) the Buyer directly purchased the Property from Acker; (B) the Buyer returns such Property to Acker within ninety (90) days of the date of delivery of such Property to Buyer; and (C) that Buyer returns such Property in materially the same condition as it was delivered to Buyer.

(f) Default by Buyer. If Buyer fails to make payment in full in accordance with these Conditions of Sale within thirty (30) days following the auction, Acker Auction DE may, in its sole and absolute discretion:

(i) Cancel the sale, retaining any partial payment as liquidated damages;

(ii) Resell Property publicly or privately for Buyer's account and at Buyer's risk, with estimates and a reserve set at Acker's

sole and absolute discretion, and charge Buyer for any deficiency between the final bid in the resale and the final bid placed by Buyer, in addition to all costs and expenses of both the initial sale and the resale at Acker's regular rates and the Buyer's Premium due in connection with both sales;

(iii) Set off all sums due from Buyer against any amounts which Acker or its affiliates may owe to Buyer;

(iv) Exercise all the rights and remedies of a party holding a first priority perfected security interest in any Property or other property in the possession of Acker or its affiliates and which is owned or has been consigned by Buyer;

(v) Collect from Buyer the total amount due (including the Late Fee) plus any loss, cost or expense incurred by Acker in effecting such collection;

(vi) Collect from Buyer reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Acker in exercising any one or more of the rights or remedies set forth in this Agreement;

(vii) Prohibit Buyer from directly or indirectly purchasing from Acker and its affiliates and from participating in future auctions and other events held, hosted or sponsored by Acker or its affiliates;

(viii) Exercise any right or remedy against Buyer available to the Seller at law, equity or otherwise; or

(ix) Release the name and address of the Buyer to the Seller to enable the Seller to commence legal proceedings against Buyer to recover all amounts due.

Acker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, exercise any one or more of the preceding remedies or any combination thereof.

With respect to Delaware Live Auctions, if Buyer fails to pick up the Property in-person or fails to arrange for shipping, transportation or other delivery of the Property after payment in full has been received by Acker Auction DE, and after the Buyer has had five (5) business days after payment to pick up the Property itself or authorize delivery of the Property to Acker Storage and has not paid the storage fees for the Property at Acker Storage, Acker may, in its sole and absolute discretion, take any of the following actions in order to pay off all storage fees and other expenses incurred by Acker or Acker Storage:

(i) Cancel the sale;

(ii) Resell Property publicly or privately for Buyer's account and at Buyer's risk, with estimates and a reserve set at Acker's absolute and sole discretion, and charge Buyer for any deficiency between the final bid in the resale and the final bid placed by Buyer, in addition to all costs and expenses of both the initial sale and the resale at Acker's regular rates and the Buyer's Premium due in connection with the both sales;

(iii) Set off all sums due from Buyer against any amounts which Acker or its affiliates may owe to Buyer;

(iv) Exercise all the rights and remedies of a party holding a first priority perfected security interest in any Property or other property in the possession of Acker or its affiliates and which is owned or has been consigned by Buyer;

(v) Collect from Buyer the total amount due (including the Late Fee and/or interest) plus any loss, cost or expense incurred by Acker in effecting such collection;

(vi) Collect from Buyer reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Acker in exercising any one or more of the rights or remedies set forth in this Agreement; provided, however, that prior to taking any of the foregoing actions, Acker shall make three attempts using reasonable business effort to contact the Buyer in writing (which may include electronic transmission) as to Buyer's failure to pick up or arrange for shipping, transportation or other delivery of the Property. Acker shall hold any monies received in connection with such sale (after receiving payment for its storage and other costs) in accordance with all escheatment rules of the State of Delaware and as provided under the Acker Storage Agreement.

(g) Bidder's Indemnity. By bidding at auction, each Bidder (including Buyer) agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Acker and its affiliates, Auctioneers, and Sellers (and each of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, attorneys, representatives, agents and assigns) (each, an "Indemnitee") harmless from and against any and all losses, damages, demands, claims, suits, judgments, costs, expenses, or other liability of any kind (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) relating to, arising from or in connection with: (i) Bidder's actual, threatened or alleged breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other provision contained within these Conditions of Sale; (ii) any act or omission on the part of Bidder (or Bidder's agents, employees or representatives) adversely affecting Property; (iii) any inaccuracy of any document or instrument delivered by Bidder pursuant to or in connection with these Conditions of Sale; or (iv) Bidder's violation of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation. Bidder further agrees to advance each Indemnitee, upon demand, all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) as they are incurred by such Indemnitee in connection with any matter covered by the indemnification provisions of this Section 5(g). All of Bidder's representations, warranties and covenants herein, together with the indemnification provided from in this Section 5(g), shall survive completion of the transactions contemplated in these Conditions of Sale.

(h) Copyright. Acker reserves copyright in all images, illustrations and written material produced by or on behalf of Acker, including, without limitation, the content of the catalogue (collectively, "Material"), and in no event may Buyer or any third party use any Material without Acker's prior written consent. In no event do Acker or its affiliates or Sellers make any representation or warranty that Buyer will acquire any copyright, reproduction right or any other intellectual property right in any Property.

6. GOVERNING LAW AND FORUM SELECTION.

(a) These Conditions of Sale, including the respective rights and obligations of the parties hereunder and the conduct of the auction for Live Delaware Auctions (including any online bidding in the auction, to which these Conditions of Sale apply), shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the conflicts of laws principles thereof. For New York Live Auctions and Internet Auctions for spirits in New York, the governing law shall be New York (including any online bidding or use of the mobile app). For Internet Auctions of wine (conducted by AMC), the governing law shall be California (including any online bidding or use of the mobile app).
